

NERVOUS DEBILITY!

Its Depressing Effect Upon the Nervous and Physical System.

Thousands of Practically Nervous and Physical Wrecks Have Been Restored to Health and Happiness by Dr. Nelson's Nerve Restorative Treatment.

The brain and spinal cord form the central nervous system of man and when this delicate, nervous structure is shattered or impaired, as a result of indiscretions or violation of the laws of health, just that soon does the man begin to fail in mind and body.

Any wasting disease or weakened condition of the nerves, if neglected, will produce gloom, despondency, failing memory, confusion of ideas, lost vigor and a general weakness of the entire system.

Every man—young, middle-aged or old—should renew his youth at least once a year by taking a course of restorative treatment as prescribed by the reliable and successful specialist. It is as necessary as oil to machinery.

Increase your strength, power, vigor and energy; stop all wasting; improve your blood and nerves; promote a healthy action of all your organs.

Dr. Nelson 226-228 Washington Av. South, Cor. Third Av., Minneapolis, Minn., whose experience in the treatment of these diseases establishes the fact beyond all question that he is the only truly reliable and leading specialist in the Northwest for their certain cure.

Remember, Dr. Nelson's treatment differs from all others, and by consulting him he may most agreeably surprise you, as he has thousands of sufferers by curing them after all hopes of cure had been despaired of.

SCORES OF FLOATS

MINN'S INDUSTRIAL PARADE WAS A MOST BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

STREETS DENSELY THROGGED.

AN IMPROMPTU CARNIVAL, FOLLOWING WHICH CAUSED AMUSEMENT.

INDUSTRIAL DISPLAYS ENJOYED.

Novel Features in Kaleidoscopic Profusion, Which Kept the Interest to the Last.

The great industrial parade, beginning in a blaze of glory and ending in a veritable meretric splendor, dazzled 50,000 people who thronged the thoroughfares of Minneapolis last night. That vast concourse of the populace, which for two hours was entranced with the glory of the imposing spectacle, certainly beheld the most gorgeously panoplied pageant that ever adorned the stars with challenging lights in this city.

It was just 9 o'clock when the great pageant, headed by Chief Smith and the platoon of mounted police swung into First avenue and commenced their march toward the bridge. The streets were thronged with masses with one great, black crowd and crush of humanity that it was almost impossible to clear a way to allow the procession to pass.

The excellent preparations made by the police department for handling the crowds was well shown in the manner in which the parade passed off. The entire force of patrolmen on duty duty were in the van of the parade.

Long before the hour announced for the parade the crowd began to assemble on the street, in the reviewing stands, in the small urinals which were clustered like bees. Shortly after 7 a wagon loaded with royal bluffs for every body, the small boys approached they were given a resounding thwack with a blif, and if they were quick enough and could capture the great prize, those boys who succeeded in getting their blifs first had just a little bit of fun with the others.

It was not long, however, until the parade started, and there were enough in circulation and for the rest of the evening the dull, sickening thud of the royal blif could be heard on every hand. The blif proved to be a very effective terminator very early in the game. Before the crowd became too thick a good many wheelmen paraded up and down the avenue, but every now and then a bicyclist would fall upon the unsuspecting wheelman.

This kind of treatment soon cleared the street of wheels, and left the roadway to the parade. The floats were in the van of the parade, and the aristocratic in the reviewing stands. Cat calls and the tooting of horns testified to the presence of the small boys, and helped to make the evening hideous for the kicker, who couldn't stay away from the crowd, even if he didn't like it, and he was there, a good many of him.

On Hennepin avenue and First avenue south there were large numbers of pedestrians and carriages as well as wheelmen of all kinds, and when the parade started down First avenue the crowds began to throng across from Nicollet, but though hundreds rushed toward the parade, Nicollet did not seem to be diminished a particle.

As the parade approached down the avenue the sharp "Get back! Get back!" of the crowd could be heard, and the crowd fell back to make room for the advancing column, and it was worthy of note that while the floats were passing the crowd was perfectly silent, unless there was something that especially pleased them, when there would be round after round of applause. In this manner the various features were passed in the most approved manner in their entire approval of the manner in which the business interests of the city were represented, and the calls to the drivers of the floats and joshing was all of the most good-natured kind. In fact the crowd was remarkable for its good nature. It was a typical Minneapolis crowd, and the strangers being in Minneapolis did as the Minneapolisians and consequently the satisfactory result to all concerned.

By 10:30 the crowd began to get restless, and when the parade had passed the crowd thronged into the street with a shout and with one accord made for their lodgings, tired but happy.

NO NEW CASES OF YELLOW FEVER REPORTED AT NEW ORLEANS.

HEALTH OFFICIALS BUSY.

NO PRECAUTIONS SPARED TO PREVENT THE DISEASE BECOMING EPIDEMIC.

Ocean Springs, Where the Scare Originated, Absolutely Cut Off From the World.

BILOXI, Miss., Sept. 7.—At 10:20 o'clock tonight three well defined cases of yellow fever are reported here. They are under guard, and no fear is felt.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 7.—Night fell upon New Orleans without a single case of yellow fever having been reported to the board of health. But one imported case thus far has been developed here, and death has wiped that out.

This morning at the Gelpi residence, where the first and fatal case was reported yesterday, the premises were thoroughly impregnated with sulphur, and it is believed that every lingering germ therein has been killed. The inmates, two servants and the mother and brother of the boy, are absolutely quarantined. No one is permitted to enter or to leave the house, which will be in charge of the board for five days.

The board of health office was thronged with people throughout the day and far in the night. Many came to inquire as to the probability of a modification of the quarantine proclamation, so that their friends and relatives, sojourning at Mississippi sound resorts, might be allowed to come home, and others came to secure health certificates in order that they might leave the city.

INSPECTION CAMP. A complete inspection camp has been organized at the Rigolta, through which an entrance is made to the city. No doubt the city will be allowed to come in. Inspectors have been sent to all the Gulf coast points to make a full and thorough examination of their sanitary conditions.

Only one additional death has been reported at Ocean Springs, with symptoms of yellow fever, a mulatto. No new cases have been reported. During the afternoon, Ocean Springs has not been absolutely cut off from the rest of the world, and the only means of reaching the town are by wire or rail. Serious efforts are being made to follow. It was said this afternoon there was only one ton of ice in the town, and there was no way to get more. Ice is necessary for the yellow fever cases. Physicians at the Springs get but little rest, and it is not so certain the medical supplies will not soon be exhausted, but in the course of a day or two more supplies will be found whereby relief will be supplied.

Students Ready for Work. Registration of new and old students at the State university continued at a lively rate. Registrar E. B. Johnson pulled in the latch string on his office door, shortly after noon, and the candidates for admission had been considered. The registration has not yet been footed up, and will not be officially until the latter part of the week.

Burglar Suspects Held. Iver Jansen and Joseph Carter, two of the five young arrested Monday evening by the police, and in connection with having attempted burglary at the Thompson residence, 212 Chicago avenue, were examined when arraigned in the municipal court yesterday, and were held to await the action of the grand jury, bail being fixed at $500.

Special Carnival Treats. For the accommodation of the people of Oakland, Highwood, Red Rock, Newport and St. Paul Park, who wish to witness the Estery regatta during the State Fair week, the Burlington will, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, Sept. 7, 8, 9 and 10, run a special evening train, leaving Pulaski avenue at 7:25 p. m. and returning leave, St. Paul union depot at 11:20 p. m. The late train Saturday evening will run as usual.

Bankers Coming. They Will Be the Guests of F. H. Peavey, in Minneapolis. About a dozen prominent bankers of the East, including Boston, Canada and Chicago, will arrive in Minneapolis today, and will be the guests of F. H. Peavey.

Furniture Men Meet. The inception of the proposed reorganization of the retail furniture dealers of the Northwest was furnished in a preliminary meeting held yesterday afternoon in Brotherhood hall, at Washington avenue and Second avenue south. There was a large attendance and the meeting was held behind locked doors, and the preliminaries furnished much animated discussion on the theme of the injury to the retail furniture stores and supply houses.

Laws Must Be Enforced. Judge Lochren's Instructions to Jury in Interstate Cases. There were a number of curious people in the court room in the federal building yesterday when the September term of the United States court opened.

Yellow Fever Scourge. The Government Will Aid in Stamping It Out. WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The general government will render all assistance in its power to check the spread of yellow fever. This will be done mainly through the agency of the marine hospital service.

Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Worth of Jewelry. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 7.—Customs inspectors at Laredo have found an unclaimed grip on a train containing $200,000 worth of diamonds, jewelry and other valuables.

Stillwater News. Populists Place in Nomination a City Ticket. Populists held a city convention yesterday and nominated the following ticket: Municipal judge, H. N. Setzer; aldermen, First ward, Maurice Stacey; Second Charles J. Burns; third, Robert Smithson.

Ohio National Democrats. It is Probable a State Ticket Will Be Named. COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 7.—The state Democratic convention will assemble tomorrow, when district meetings will be held. The convention proper is to meet on Thursday. Mr. Bynum, of Indiana, will be the principal speaker.

Three Lives Lost. READING, Pa., Sept. 7.—A Philadelphia & Reading wrecking engine crashed into a wagon at a grade crossing at Brush Valley, a few miles above Reading, tonight and three lives were lost. The dead are: Evan Hiesler, aged 45 years; Warren Faust, aged 19; Leon Faust, aged 7.
