LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Diphther a is reported at 1999 Woodbridge avenue and 1998 Marion street. Gov. Clough has appointed A. L. Alness, of the Scandinavian-American bank, aide-de-camp on his staff, with the rank of colone. inick McDermott, an old resident of the and a former resident of Clontarf, died last night at St. Mary's hospital,

Mrs. Ellen Dayton Blair, the national su-erinterdent of Chautauqua of the W. C. T. ., gave an address in the college chape: at lamifne, lest night. Hamme, test fight.

Deal only where you are honestly treated.

Any storekeeper who tries to give you a substitute for what you demand is not treating you honestly and you should take your trade

Dr. W. S. Briggs left last night for Iowa City, Io., where he will attend the fourth annual sersion of the Missouri Valley Homeophatic Medical society, scheduled to meet there Sept. 28, 29 and 30.

there Sept. 28, 29 and 30.

Samuel Sargent, accused of working the short change racket on a University avenue bartender, was arraigned in the police court yesterday on the charge of swindling. The case was continued until tomorrow.

case was continued until tomorrow.

This is the last day for the filing of notes of issue and returns with the clerk of the supreme court, in order to have the cases go on the calendar at the October term. There are now 230 cases on the calendar.

Goods advertised for years are certain to have merit or they would not be popular. Substitutes are usually "unknown quantities." The moral is obvious. Get what you ask for—take nothing else.

Clarence Hanson, the child of Mrs. Nellie Hanson, who fell from the third story window Sunday afternoon, is reported to be entirely out of danger. Dr. Lares does not think there will be any permanent injury to the spine.

Meridian and Freja lodges have a joint debate at their hall tonight. Subject: "Resolved, That civilization is promoted more by the teaching of humane principles than by the administration of practical charity." Freja takes the affirmative; Meridian the negative. A small biaze was discovered by Officer Ahern under the Diamond Jo dock, at the foot of Sibley street, shortly after 8 o'clock last evening, which is believed to have been started with malicious intent. Officer Ahern extinguished the flames before damage of any consequence resulted.

consequence resulted.

George W. Greenville, arrested on the charge of assault and battery, for having, it was alleged, bitten J. W. Carroll in the cheek during a fight at a recent Saturday night dance, was discharged in the municipal court yesterday owing to the fallure of Carroll to appear against him.

Mrs. Mary Russell, in whom the members of local temperance organizations have frequently shown interest by endeavoring to reclaim her from drink, was again before the police court yesterday on the charge of drunkenness. The woman's friends have about given her up as a hopeless inebriate, and for the third time she was committed to the workhouse to serve a thirty days' sentence.

sentence.

B. D. Congdon, father of Prof. Congdon, supervisor of music in the public schools, died Monday evening of strangulated hernia at St. Luke's hospital. Mr. Congdon, who was for many years a resident of this state, has been living at Nelson, Pa., of late, and was visiting his son, when he was suddenly attacked, two weeks ago. He was 78 years of age. Mr. Congdon left for the East iast evening with the remains.

the remains.

The funeral of G. Sidney Smith takes place this afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, from his late residence, 682 Ashland avenue. Mr. Smith was 65 years old, and formerly superintendent of public instruction. He came to St. Paul in 1862, and at one time was principal of the Adams school in this city. He leaves a widow and five children, D. D. Smith, Herbert and Terrell Smith, and Misses Kate and Una Smith.

Una Smith.

Maxil Coutourier, one of the last of the early French-Canadian coureurs du bois who explored the territory in the early days in the employ of the old fur and trading companies, was married the other day to Mrs. Bourcier. The groom was 88 years of the and the bride 45. The groom, when a young man, was exploring the country between Green Bay west to the source of the Missouri, and on being taken ill was left to die by his companions. He was found by Indians, however, and cared for. He lived to rejoin his comrades. The couple reside at Grey Cloud Island.

New Officers Named.

A. L. Aylsworth, of St. Paul, formerly treasurer of the Children's Home society, having removed from Minnesota, W. B. Geery, assistant cashier of the St. Paul National bank, has been elected to his place. Mr. Geery is well known as superintendent of the Park Congregational Sunday school and a worthy man, who commands the confidence of all who know him.

Mrs. B. L. Russell, who for two years past has been assistant superintendent, and has visited many places in the state in behalfsof the work, has removed to Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Amanda Webber, of Minneapolis, has been appointed in her place. She is a lady who comes to the work highly recommended.

Notice to Depositors.

The next quarterly interest term of the Savings Bank of St. Paul com-mences Friday, Oct. 1. Money in sums of $5 and upwards deposited on or be fore Oct. 10 will draw three months' interest Jan. 1, 1898. 44 East Sixth Seventh and Cedar Sts.

Prices for Today, Sept. 29.

Many of the items named below will not linger for late comers. Come while you can buy at these prices:

2 Cents A pound for best Rolled Oats for a few days.

7 Cents A package for Pettijohn's Breakfast Food for a few days.

28 Cents

A basket for fancy Tokay Grapes. 85 Cents

A box for the very finest Solway Peaches.

28 Cents A basket for fancy Muscat Grapes.

10 Cents

A dozen for ripe, nice Bananas. 54 Cents

A dozen for half-gallon Fruit Jars, 1 dozen in a box, complete with wrench and nippers.

25 Cents A bushel for Selected Cantaloupes.

22 Cents A pound for the very finest Creamery Butter,

43 Cents

For 11/2-gallon Pails Honey Drip Syrup. 75 Cents

For 1/2-bushel boxes of fancy Italian Prunes.

WETROPOLITAN

DISTRICT GIFFEN-ATTORNEY. COMPANY. Thursday-Primrose & West's Minstrels.

METROPOLITAN

JULIA MARLOWE Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings and Saturday Matinee. "FOR BONNIE PRINCE CHARLIE." Thursday Evening. Romeo and Juliet Friday Evening. - As You Like It - Ingomar

SAINT PAUL. MORE ROOM NEEDED

SCHOOL BOARD FIGURING ON HOW TO RELIEVE THE OVERCROWD-

ANNEX FOR THE WEBSTER

ATTICS OF A NUMBER OF BUILD INGS TO BE FINISHED

WORK OF LAST NIGHT'S SESSION.

Cause of Miss Judd, Championed by Rebecca Taylor, Meets With Little Success.

There was a special meeting of the board of school inspectors last even-Miss Rebecca Taylor was there, but Inspector McNair, he who used a very naughty word under what he considered great provocation at a recent meeting, was absent. Possibly had he been in attendance last evening, he might have repeated his offense.

Miss Taylor was very anxious that a friend of hers, Miss Lydia Lee Judd, be engaged as a teacher. Miss Judd taught for a couple of years in the Sibley school; this was two years ago, and for some reason she was not re-engag. Miss Taylor presented the usual ments. petition, but the board did not take kindly to it, although Inspector E. O. Zimmerman moved that Miss Judd be placed on the list for appointment, for whotever grade she was litted to teach. Inspector May declared that it was the duty of the board to appoint only efficient teachers, and not those who had shown themselves incompetent to teach.

William Silcox also appeared as a champion for Miss Judd, and said: "It seems to me that a petition of taxpayers and parents has no weight with the President Zimmermann mildly vouchsafed the opinion that the parents and taxpayers did not know always whether a teacher was competent or not; that that was one of the things a superintendent was there for, and it was not in the province of the board to appoint teachers who, in their judgment, were incompetent. "The superintendent does not know anything about it," was Mr. Silcox's retort. At this juncture, Inspector Wilkes wheled around in his chair and said very decidedly: "Miss Judd has not taught school in this city for two years, if I am on the board she will not teach for two years more. I do not consider

This ended the trouble temporarily, as Inspector E. O. Zimmerman's metion did not meet with a second, but a few minutes later Miss Judd glided into the room and asked what had been done with her case. She was informed and then she asked for an opportunity to clear herself of any charges which might be brought against her. President Zimmermann said that the board was always ready to hear any one at any regular meeting, and she left with the announcement that she would be on hand at the next meeting. Last night's meeting was called for Last light's meeting was called for the purpose of considering the sanitary condition of the Ericsson, Hendricks and Douglas buildings, the common council and assembly having set aside the sum of $7,513.83 for sanitary improvements and plumbing; in school houses where needed. This money. houses where needed. This money comes from the insurance fund. As it necessary to have the sewer nections made before cold weather, the real estate committee was authorized to have plans prepared for automatic closets in the buildings named. residents in the Quincy twenty-five residents in the Quincy Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Haynes will return from school district, protesting against the Yellowstone Park about Oct. 10. closing of that school several days ago by Supt. Curtis. The petitioners claim that the enrollment is larger than in the Mottocks school; that, if it is not kept open, the property will revert to the original owner, and the donor, M. A. Luby, and, further, that the children in that district are unable to pay our force to enother school. The to pay car fare to another school. The poard decided to reopen one room in the building. Supt. Curtis gave as his reason for closing it that the attend-ance was very light, not over nine pupils being enrolled, but the explanation was made that, with the coming of winter, the attendance would be much

Many of the school rooms are badly overcrowded, and the board is devising plans to increase the capacity. The committee on real estate was authorized to open an annex of one room it, the Webster building, by finishing off the attic, if possible, and to finish off the attic in the Honcock building for one or two rooms more. The same committee was instructed to visit the manual training school and the Madi-son school to see what plans can be made for accommodating the surplus pupils at the latter, who now occupy four rooms in the training school. The same old question of adjusting the salaries came up again. It appeared to the board that the only way they could be adjusted would be to go right down the list, and Inspector Yoerg insisted that they all be treated alike. He was positively opposed to anything that seemed like favoring a few teachers. The president appointed Inspectors Corning, Yoerg and E. O. Zimmerman a committee to investigate Zimmerman a committee to investigate the matter and report.

The use of the assembly hall and three other rooms in the central building was granted to the Minnesota Educational society to hold its annual meeting on Dec. 28-30 next.

ATTORNEY GREEN AGAIN.

The Denver Attorney Asks Court to Reconsider Its Order.

Attorney T. A. Green, of Denver. whose sensational arraignment of Judge Hallet, of the United States cir-cuit court for the district of Colorado, in a brief filed by him recently in the Kelley mining case, incurred the dis-pleasure of Justice Brewer and his coi-leagues, was in the United States circuit court of appeals again yesterday morning. He presented a motion that-the court's former order striking his brief from the records and forbidding him to again appear in the case be Mhen Mr. Green presented his brief at the hearing of the case the judges held that his arraignment of Judge Hallet was "scandalous and imper-tinent," and the lawyer was debarred from future connection with the case. He was permitted to present his mo-tion yesterday and the court took it under advisement. Mr. Green argued as the basis of his motion that the court, in ordering that he be not permitted to again appear in the Kelley case and other suits of a similar nature involved in the pro-ceedings, disbarred him in so far as those cases were concerned and that, such being the case, the court on that theory must have it in its power to summarily disbar an attorney from all practice in the court. He held that in his case the court acted in contra-vention of congressional law, of pre-cedent laid down in the supreme court of the United States in a decision writ-ten by Justice Field, and has violated a constitutional right, inasmuch as a lawyer's profession was, under a ruling of the supreme court, "his property of which he cannot be deprived," in a manner so summary without no tice or hearing. He alleged that the cases at bar received from him a great amount of labor and that no other attorney could possibly understand them as well as he did, so that other counsel would be detrimental to the interest of his clients. Mr. Green held that the order went much further than the request of the other side demanded, and in support of his motion he cited a number of cases of record.

AUTUMN SOCIAL EVENTS.

Last Informal Reception of a Pleas ant Series. Judge and Mrs. John W. Willis, of 923 Summit avenue, received their friends last evening. Judge and Mrs. Willis have given a series of four informal receptions this month, last night's function being the last of the

The J. F. F. club will meet at the home of Miss Margaret Noble, of 365 Bates avenue, Friday evening.

The ladies of Unity Temple, No. 9, and Myrtle Temple, No. 2, gave an informal reception last evening at Paul Martin's hall. The function was in honor of the delegates of the grand temple, who, after banqueting in Bowlby hall, joined the ladies in Martin's hall. The rooms were prettily decorated. hall. The rooms were prettily decorated with flags and ferns, and the lodge ed with hags and ferns, and the lodge room was otherwise arranged for a so-cial hour. The ladies and gentlemen enjoyed themselves at cards until the honored guests arrived, when C. A. Upright, master of ceremonies, improvised a programme of toasts and music. By the time the delegates were beginning to forget that they had been feasted in Bowlby hall, they were served with dainty refreshments by their hostsses, Mrs. C. A. Upright and Mrs. Mayes were committee on arrange-

The Sewing Society of the House of Hope church, which meets the last uesday of each month, will begin its season's work in October.

The managers of the Woman's Christian Home will hold a meeting Friday

The Home and Foreign Missionary Band of the Plymouth Congregational Church will meet with Mrs. De Grew Tuesday afternoon.

The primary superintendents of the House of Hope will have a meeting in the church parlors Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The Bethel association will hold its annual meeting Friday, Oct. 8, at the home of Mrs. R. M. Newport.

The People's Church Sewing circle met yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. F. J. Hones, of Burr street.

The Ladles' Aid Society of the Park M. E. Church will hold a meeting tomorrow in the church parlors.

Mrs. S. A. Perkins, who has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Waither, of Dayton avenue, left Monday evening for Washington, D. C.

Miss Josephine Carr, of Nelson avenue, will leave Sunday evening for Detroit, Mich., where she will be the guest of Miss Holland. The Misses Clara and Julia Rossum, of Nelson avenue, will leave Friday evening for Baltimore, to attend Miss Cary's school.

Mrs. McKensie, who has been the guest of Mrs. McKensie, who has been the guest of Mrs. D. W. Hand, of Summit avenue, has returned to Washington, D. C.

Miss Elizabeth Meacham, of St. Albans street, has gone to the Northwestern conservatory of music, Chicago.

Miss Brown, of Chicago, Miss Kalman's guest, will visit Miss Helen Hert, of Minneapolis, this week.

Mrs. Wilder, of Fort Assiniboine, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Watkins, of Holliv avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Van Duzee, of Marshall avenue, will return this week from Mahto-medi. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton L. Carson and family, of Philadelphia, are at the Aber-

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Douglas will take apartments at the Aberdeen for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Guild, of Ashland avenue, will spend the winter in Columbus, O. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dearth, of Mackubin treet, have returned from White Pear. Mrs. Hollingshead will spend the Winter with her daughter in Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Byllesby, of the Aberdeen returned Monday from the East.

Miss Dunn, of St. A'bans street, returned wonday evening from Red Wing. Ned Holbert, of Summit avenue, is expected home from the East tomorrow.

Mrs. James H. Stout and son, of Menominee, Mich., are in the city.
Mrs. F. H. Doe, of Ashland avenue, returned Sunday from Chicago. Miss Hubbell, of Laurel avenue, will return Friday from Bayfield, Wis. Miss Frederica Jackson, of Boston, is the guest of Miss De Coster.

Mrs. H. C. Van Meter, of Ashland avenue, is visiting in Chicago. The Misses Baker, of Philadelphia, are at Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Parlin have returned from the lake.

Schuyler Colfax left last evening for South Bend, Ind. D. B. Finch is visiting friends in H. Reidston Reid, of London, is at the LIBERAL UNION OF WOMEN.

Large and Interesting Meeting at St. Anthony Park.

The Liberal Union of Minnesota Women met yesterday with the women of the Church of Our Father at Central hall, St. Anthony Park. There were about 300 women present, repre-senting principally the Unitarian and Universalist churches of the Twin Cities. A few from the smaller towns cities were present. Mrs. San-Niles, of the First Unitarian and offies were present. Mrs. San-ford Niles, of the First Unitarian church, of Minneapolis, presided. Mrs. Elnora Stone, of Minneapolis, read a paper on the religious news of the world. She told of the work of the Salvation Army, the Theosophists, Mormons, Presbyterians, Methodists, Episcopalians, the Jewish church, and, in fact, something of nearly all of the religions of the world; of Mills, who has lately changed from the staunchest orthodoxy to Unitarianism and of the great work of the late Dr. Harper, of New York, who founded and carried on the Church of the Divine Fragments in New York, into which no one was admitted but sinners-those who had been rejected of men.

Rev. Eliza Tupper Wilkes, the well known Unitarian minister and founder of the Liberal union, was the next speaker. Mrs. Wilkes is a retiring-look-ing little woman with a strong, yet delicately modeled, face and a voice which convinces. Her address was short, but from the moment she began speaking she held the attention of every woman in the audience. She took for her subject the question, "Does Bellef in a Future Life Aid Our Highest Development and Happiness." Highest Development and Happiness in This Life?"

Mrs. Wilkes closed her remarks with an extract from Browning's great poem, "Rabbi Ben Ezra." Afterwards Mrs. Wilkes was asked for and gave an account of the work being done in other parts of the country, and espe-cially in California, by the women of the liberal churches.

The meeting closed at 1 o'clock with a basket lunch and coffee, served by the ladies of the St. Anthony Park church, who were hostesses.

The union will meet Nov. 30 at All Souls' church in Minneapolis.

Hunting and Fishing.

The Soo Line offers you unexcelled hunting and fishing, through Minnesota and Dakota, and has just put on new train service, leaving St. Paul 5:10 p. m., connecting with Glenwood local at Minneapolis. For further informa tion call 398 Robert St.

Changes at Snelling. Maj. C. P. Byrne, of Fort Snelling, is to exchange places with Maj. P. F. Harvey, surgeon at Plattsburg barracks, New York. Capt. Henry A. Shaw, assistant surgeon at Fort Snelling, has been ordered to report at headquarters for examination for promotion.

DISTURB THE ARMY

SALVATIONISTS HAVE HARD TIME BETWEEN THE POLICE AND OUTSIDERS.

OFFICERS MOVE THEM ALONG.

CROWD OBJECTS, WITH THE RE-

SULT THAT TWO MEN ARE

ARRESTED.

ANOTHER MEETING INTERRUPTED

This Time the Police Get the Worst of It, Although They Land Their Man.

An effort of the police to move a Salvation Army corps from Sixth and Robert street last evening, precipitated an incipient riot and resulted in the arrest of Harry Simpson, on the charge of disorderly conduct, and Arthur Dean, who is accused of interfering with an officer. The scene of the trouble was exciting, and for a short time it looked as though the police might have a serious encounter with a crowd of 300 people, which sided with the Salvationists and resented the interference with the meeting. When Dean and Simpson were arrested the crowd followed the police to the box at Seventh and Jackson streets, augmenting in proportions until fully 500 persons joined in the crushing and hooting at the officers. There were none, however, who possessed the timerity to start a rush upon the police, though many angry remarks were indulged in by those at a distance, and when the prisoners were whirled away in the patrol wagon, the excitement subsided. The affair grew out of the difficulty existing between the police department and the Salvation Army, the latter insisting that the authorities have no legal right to order them from any locality which they may select for their so-called open air meetings. The police on the other hand, claim that frequent complaints are received from property holders in the vicinity of the gatherings, and that it is within the province of the department to stop the alleged The army has before been ordered to move from the corner diagenally across from the Ryan hotel, and last evening, when Sergeant Ross was informed that the bass drum, tambou rines, and singing of the Salvationists were not adding materially to the enjoyment of the Pythian concert at Bowlby hall, he directed Officer Jack Hennessey to move the Salvationists. Officer Hennessey ordered the corps away, but little attention was paid to the mandate, the worshippers continuing their music and singing with an utter disregard of the policeman's presence. Then, individually, the members of the army were lead from the corner. When the crowd understood the proecdings, the Salvationists were admonished not to submit to the inter-ference, and closed in about the policeman. Sergeants Ross and McCarthy man. Sergeants Ross and McCarthy joined Officer Hennessey, and in the jestling, it is alleged, that Dean kicked Hennessey. Simpson, it is sald, became mixed up while Dean was being taken to the box and he was also placed under arrest. Dean denies that he interder arrest. Dean denies that he inter-fered with the policeman in any man-ner. Both prisoners were released on a deposit of $20 each at the central sta-tion. The case, will be called in the municipal court today.

GAVE THEM A FIGHT.

Michael Kernau, Aged and Crippled. Makes Trouble for Cops. Michael Kernan, though possessing : crippled foot, in addition to being ever fifty years old, made things lively for rs Christian and Fraser at Sixth and Wabasha streets last evening, and was only landed at the central station after a most determined resistance During the struggle, Kernan's cloth-ing was torn nearly off of him, and Officer Fraser likewise suffered damage to his wearing apparel, while Officer Christian came out dusty and badiy "blown." Kernan is charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

The old man was ordered away from a Salvation Army meeting at Sixth and Walasha, streets which it is a!and Wabasha streets, which, it is alleged, he was disturbing, and, it is claimed, replied with an abusive refusal to go, at the same time flourish. ing a broom stick. When placed under arrest by Officer Christian, Kernan fought desperately and continued the struggle after Officer Fraser went to the assistance of his brother bluecoat. Kernan declared he could vanquish and many number of religence and and each any number of policemen, and endeav-ored to make the assertion good. The crowd deserted the Salvation Army meeting and gathered about the police. men and their prisoner, and, though no physical interference was offered, the officers claim that the citizens abused them with vile names and en-couraged Kernan in his resistance, though the old man, they say, was subjected to no rougher treatment than was necessary to simply hold him. When Kernan was finally gotten into in the police court today. BUSINESS IMPROVED.

the patrol wagon, still resisting, his departure was greeted by yells from fully 200 people, who had been attract-ed to the scene. He will be arraigned

E. A. Young Returns From a Trip to

New York. E. A. Young, of Finch, Van Slyck. Young & Co., the wholesale dry goods firm, returned home yesterday morn-ing from a business trip to New York. Seen at his office yesterday afternoon. Mr. Young said to a reporter for the Globe that the business situation in the metropolis was very much improved, and that prices had stiffened up appreciably. He found signs of increased confidence, and cited the fact that Western wholesalers were buying more merchandise than they did a year ago.

It was during Mr. Young's absence that the matter of scaling the freight rate between Chicago and St. Paul was taken up, and he said yesterday that he had not half an opportunity to look into the matter. He believed that whatever happened, the St. Paul and Minneapolis jobbers would not permit their interests to be interfered with in any way. He knew better than to buy the "same thing" as a Gordon hat. He knew he could not at the price.

MUCH IMPROVED.

Such is the Report From a Lady Who Has Luffered a Great Deal.

VIENNA, III.—"My wife has been a sufferer with pains in her right side, lung trouble, loss of appetite and weakness. She has taken a number of bot-tles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and her general health is much improved. The pain in her side is entirely gone and she has a good appetite."

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any substitute. Insist upon Hood's. Hood's Pills cure all Liver Ills and Sick Headache. 25c.

Jobbers of St. Paul.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Foot, Schulze & Co., MANUFACTURERS OF FINE SHOES

Northwestern Agents for Cor. 3d and "Goodyear Glove" Wacouta.

BOOTS AND SHOES

C. COTZIAN & CO., MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLESALERS OF Boots and Shoes

242-280 EAST FIFTH STREET.

BOOTS AND SHOES. KELLOGG, JOHNSON & CO.

Boots and Shoes Northwestern Agents
Boston Rubber
Shoe Company.

225 to 231
East Fourth St.

Tarbox, Schliek & Co.,

Boots and Shoes

Salesroom and Factory 228-240 East Third Street.

CLOTHING.

H. C. Burbank & Co., MANUPACTURERS OF GLOTHING 220-224 East Third Street.

Factory: 30 and 3: West 15th St.,

DRY GOODS.

Finch, Van Slyck, Young & Co. Dry Goods, Notions and Carpets,

And Mont - GINTS' FURNISHIN GOODS. DRY GOODS

Lindake, Warner & Schurmeier, WHOLESALE-DRY GOODS and NOTIONS

Miners' and Lumbermen's Suits a Specialty.

DRY GOODS. Powers Dry Goods Co., Importers and Jobbers of Bry Goods, Notions, Etc. And Manufacturers of MEN'S FUR ASHING GOODS.

DRUGS.

Ryan Drug Co., Imp riers and Jobbers in Drugs and Druggists' Sundries. 225-229 East Third Street.

J. H. ALLEN & CO., Wholesale Grocers.

201-209 E. Third St. The Oldest Wholesale Grocery House in the Northwest.

GROCERIES.

FOLEY BROS. & KELLY MERCANTILE CO., WHOLESALE GROCERS. Importers, Coffee Roasters, Spice Grinders and Manufacturers of Flavoring Extracts.

GROCERIES.

GRIGGS, COOPER & CO. IMPORTERS & GROCERS

242-252 E. Third St.

SEABURY & CO., WHOLESALE GROCERS AND IMPORTERS.....

HARDWARE. Farwell, Ozmun, Kirk & Co. WHOLESALE HARDWARE, CUTLERY. EIGYCLES, GUNS, Etc.

HARDWARE.

C. W. Hackett Hardware Co. Importers and Jobbers of Hardware, Cutlery, Sporting Goods, Tools, Bicycles and Sundries.

THE CRANE & ORDWAY CO Manufacturers of Iron Pine. Brass loods, Fittings, Etc., for Steam, Gas,

Water and Sanitary Specialties; Jobbers in Iron and Wood Pumps, Well Machinery, Belting, Hose and Packing. HATS, CAPS AND GLOVES. GORDON & FERGUSON.

HEAVY HARDWARE

Hats, Gloves & Furs 216-226 E. Fourth St.

Established 1871.

HATS, CAPS AND GLOVES. Lanpher, Finch & Skinner, Hats, Caps, Furs and Gloves.

Makers of the "North Star Fur Coat" and the "Lanpher Hat."

180-184 East Fourth Street.

HARNESS AND SADDLERY.

P. R. L. Hardenbergh & Cc.

... Jolbers of . . . Leather, Shoe Findings and Sad-dlery Hardware. Manufacturers of Harness, Horse Col-lars and Saddlery in all branches.

HARNESS AND SADDLERY.

The Konantz Saddlery Co., Manufacturers and Jobbers in HARNESS, STOCK SADDLES, COLLARS, ETC.

227-231 E. 6th St. HARNESS AND SADDLERY.

SCHEFFER & ROSSUM. Harness, Saddlery, Shoe Findings and Shoe Store Supplies.

MEN'S FURNISHINGS. Guiterman Bros., MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS. And manufacturers of Shirts, Pants, Overalls, Mackinaws, Duck Clothing, etc. Makers of the celebrated

"SUMMIT SHIRT." MILLINERY.

Robinson, Straus & Co., Importers and Jobbers of Ribbons, Silks, Laces and .MILLINERY GOODS .. 194-196 E. 3rd St.

RUBBER GOODS.

GOODYEAR RUBBER CO., Rubber Goods ...

SCALES, WINDMILLS, ETC.

98-100-102 E. 7th St.

Fairbanks,

Price lists fu

Morse & Co. Fairbanks Standard Scales, Gas and Gasoline Engines, Eclipse and Pairbanks Steel Windmills, Pumps, Pipe

Fittings, Elc. SEEDS.

L. L. MAY & CO.,

McCormick, Behnke & Co... Importers and Jobbers of .. Teas, Coffees and Spices... Manufacturers of . Flavoring Extracts, Baking Powder, Coffee Roasters and Spice Grinders.

CRAFTY MOVE THIS

STATE AGENT WHITTIER TAKES SIMPSON BACK TO THE

REFORMATORY. DONNELLY ISN'T LOOKING.

WHEN HE FINDS OUT WHAT WAS DONE HE GROWS IN-DICKANT

CHARGES VIOLATION OF FAITH. Says the Action Is the Height of

Injustice, and Almost Amounts to Kidnapping.

E J. Simpson, the young man who was discharged from the St. Cloud reformatory on condition that he would shake the dust of Minnesota from his feet immediately, but who was arrested in St. Paul for drunkenness, locked up and turned over to State Agent Whittier, was taken back to the reformatory yesterday afternoon. The story of his detention in the county jail and the attempt to take him to St. Cloud on Monday was published in yesterday's Globe. Simpson's attorney, Stan Donnelly, contended that the discharge of Simpson by the reformatory board operated as an absolute discharge in spite of the condition attached that Simpson should leave the state for Pennsylvania. Supt. Houlton. of the reformatory, telegraphed State Agent Whittier on Monday instructions to bring Simpson back, but upon the advice of J. J. McCafferty, who is a member of the state reformatory board, Whittier allowed Simpson to remain over for a day in the county jail. In the meantime it was expected that Simpson would sue out a writ of habeas corpus in the district court to have the legality of the question tested. He had not done so, however, up to the leaving time of the afternoon train to St. Cloud, and in consequence he boarded that train for St. Cloud in the custody of State Agent Whittier.

Attorney Stan Donnelly was indig-nant at the course of Agent Whittier and declares his action nothing less than kidnapping. He asserts that Simpson's return to the reformatory was entirely illegal and that the authorities had no right whatever to take him back before a hearing of the case in court. In fact, Attorney Don-nelly says Judge Orr exceeded his province when he turned Simpson over to Agent Whittier after the young man's discharge in the police court and characterizes the whole proceed-ings as unwarranted and illegal. Furthermore he declared that Agent Whitter broke faith with him and took an unfair advantage of Simpson. It was agreed, according to Mr. Donnelly, that nothing hurriedly should be done in the case, the agreement having been entered into by Simpson's attorney through Agent Whittier's fear that some kind of snap judgment would be secured before he could communicate with the reformatory authorities, "I told him," said Attorney Donnelly, to a thermore he declared that Agent Whitreporter for the Globe, "that I would not hurry matters, so that the question of a conditional pardon could be settled. He seemed to fear some action which would free Simpson before he could hear from St. Cloud and for this reason I made no move in the interest of my client, never thinking that Agent Whittier would take the course which he seemed to mistrust on our part, and here I find him rushing to the sheriff a few minutes before train time and demanding Simpson, without even notifying me of what I find film rushing to the sheriff a few minutes before train time and demanding Simpson, without even notifying me of what he intended to do. He had no right to lodge Simpson in the jail in the first place, and after getting me to let matters take a regular course, it seems unfair to act as he has done. Agent Whittier claimed he was following orders from St. Cloud, but that does not enter in the case. I could have had habeas corpus papers served on the sheriff this morning, if I had anticipated such haste and beyond a doubt secured Simpson's release, because he was illegally held in the jail. After his acquittel of the charge of drunkennes in the police ceurt it was not within the authority of any judge to turn Simpson over to any one. He should have been allowed to go free. The supreme court has held that conditional pardons cannot be issued and the hauling of this young fellow back to prison after he had been released, not on parole, but pardoned, is the height of injustice and illegality."

MIDNIGHT IS THE LIMIT

When Poys Are Allowed by Law on the Streets. If the precedent established by Judge Orr in the case of Peter Daly and Har-ry Austin obtains, it will not augur well for minors to be found loltering about the streets after midnight. The boys were arrested in Smith park shortly after 12 o'clock and charged days each in the workhouse. During the trial the accused insisted that it was not yet midnight when they were arrested, but the record kept by the operator at the central station showed that Officer Smith had called the patrol at exactly 12:38. The decision of Judge Orr equips the The decision of Judge Orr equips the police for a crusade which, it is said, will at once be inaugurated against juveniles loafing about the streets at unseemly hours as it is claimed many petty offenses are the work of bad boys, with whom it has heretofore been difficult to deal.

with violating an almost forgotten ordinance constituting their action an offense. Judge Orr upheld the ordin-ance and sentenced the lads to thirty

For Hunters and Fishermen The Soo Line train leaves St. Paul at The Soo Line train leaves St. Paul at 5:10 p. m., connecting with the Glenwood Local at Minneapolis, offering an additional train to the hunting and fishing grounds along that line. Call at Soo Line office, 398 Robert St.

WANTS THE PROPERTY SOLD. St. Paul & Western Coal Company

Pushing a Claim.

The St. Paul & Western Coal con pany began an action yesterday in the district court against C. F. Schacht, Mary Schacht, his wife, and the Security Trust company, for the fore-closure of a mortgage deed given by the defendants, Schacht, on their homested to source years. homestead to secure part of a claim of $7,188.18, due for coal supplies and other obligations which Mr. Schacht confessed judgment confessed judgment to recently, on the occasion of the failure of his business to wind up the affairs of which a receiver was appointed. The homestead of the Schachas was exempt from exe-cution, but he gave to the defendant deed be declared a mortgage and that the property be foreclosed. We call attention of our readers to the special notice of the State Savings Bank under announcements.

company, it alleges, the deed for the property as security for the obligation. Plaintiffs company asks that the trust

GUN AT HIS TEMPLE

MANNA BJORKLUND, THE SALOON-KEEPER, HELD UP WHILE GOING HOME.

ONE HOLDS THE REVOLVER WHILE THE OTHER MAKES A HASTY SEARCH OF HIS

INTERRUPTED IN THEIR WORK.

And now, just to add variety to the begun operations. As an initiative, a pair of footpads held up Manna Bjorklund, living at 441 John street, at 1 o'clock yesterday morning at the point of a revolver and relieved him of what he possessed. The robbery took place at Woodward avenue and John street, while Mr. Bjorklund was on the way

The scene of the holdup is favorable rel of a big revolver against Mr. Bjorklund's temple, so he complied with the order and held up his hands.

While the highwayman with the pistol recommended quiet on the part of the victim, the other footpad hurriedly searched Mr. Bjorklund's pockets. His vest was torn open and the inside pocket rifled and the shirt front searched for possible ornaments. The robber overlooked a gold watch in the outside vest pocket, but appropriated $2.50 in cash. At this juncture the approach of a belated citizen frightened the highwaymen and they left their victim and disappeared down an alley. Mr. Bjorklund met a policeman two blocks further up John street, and told him of the hold-up, but no trace of the thugs could then be found. The robbers were apparently middle-aged men, one tall and the other rather thick set. were dark-complexioned and shaven, with the exception of the taller one, who were a several days' growth of

The Trio Disappears Down an Alley While the Victim Looks Up a Policeman. carnival of crime, the highwayman has home, after closing the saloon in which he is a partner at Seventh and John streets. to such an undertaking. The streets are dark, and large trees line each sidewalk. As Mr. Bjorklund reached Woodward avenue, two men sprang from behind one of the trees and ordered him to elevate his hands. One of the pair promptly pressed the bar-

Two men, answering the same des cription, followed the bartender employ-ed at Shapiro's saloon, at Seventh and d at Snapiro's saloon, at seventh and John street, the previous night. The bartender lives within a few doors of the scene of the hold-up, and it is thought likely that they were again seeking the contemplated victim of the previous night, or watched Mr. Bjorklund close his saloon and figured on securing the day's proceeds.