BID MILL CITY GOOD-BYE.

GRAND JURY TO HAVE IMPORTANT WORK WHEN IT CONVENES MONDAY.

FRIENDS OF THE NIGHT SCHOOLS.

They Make a Heroic Effort to Save Them—News of Minneapolis.

There was a grand rally of Salvation Army hosts last night at the Theater Comique barracks from all parts of this district, and this morning the greater number of them will leave to take up their abode in new fields of work.

The appointments made by Staff Capt. Potter, in conjunction with Maj. Gifford, were announced, and the important ones are as follows: Blue Earth City, Ensign Tichner; Lieutenant Jorgensen; Wells, Capt. Cusingham; Lieut. Olson; Duluth, Ensign Scott; Lieut. Radstrom; Merrill, Ensign Kierstead; Lieut. Smith; Oshkosh, Ensign Miller; Eau Claire, Capt. Bartlett; Minneapolis, Capt. Sherritt; Lieut. Christensen; Lieut. Anderson; Stillwater, Capt. Bailey; Lieut. Spears; St. Paul, Ensign Tidman; Lieut. LeMay; Moorhead, Adjt. Brooks; Owatonna, Capt. Conroy; Lieut. Fuller; Chatfield, Capt. Mary Engelle; Lieut. Ludery.

WORK FOR GRAND JURY. Sixteen Prisoners, Headed by Moschik, Await Indictment.

The grand jury of Hennepin county will meet Monday next, with considerable business to transact. The cases to be heard, in which the accused are in jail, two of which are cases of murder, and hence the sitting is the most important for a long time.

The most important case is that against John Moschik for the murder of John Lemke. For this case the following witnesses have been summoned: Thomas Flaherty and Will. Boardley, 4607 Humboldt street; North; Chris. Christensen, living near the workhouse; Sergeant Larson and Mrs. Parsons, of 463 Dupont avenue north; Mrs. Annie McCallum, of 1000 Franklin street; Mrs. Humboldt, of 1000 Franklin street; Mrs. Annie Puster, of 1000 Franklin street.

The authorities are of the opinion that the case will be a long one, as some attorney will take the case for the cross-examination. It is quite certain, however, that the case will be tried early in 1908, as the court will clean up the small jail matters before taking the long case.

There is also the murder case against Frank Wilson, which will be an interesting one. The other matters to be taken up are: Thomas Collins, robbery; Harry Johnson, assault in the first degree; Joseph Miller, burglary; Mary Conroy, burglary; Harry Johnson, robbery; Peter Corbit, burglary; Burr M. Weaver, grand larceny; Matthew Johnson, grand larceny; William Johnson, burglary; George W. Johnson, embezzlement; William Osher, forgery; Adam L. Flynn, burglary.

VACANCY ON ARIZONA BENCH. Chief Justice Truesdale, Formerly of Minneapolis, Dead.

Hon. Harry C. Truesdale, chief justice of Arizona, died at Phoenix yesterday. He has been ill nearly three weeks, primarily from the effects of cholera administered during the performance of an operation, and this was followed by a stroke of apoplexy. Mr. Truesdale was born in 1832, at Rock Island, Ill., was graduated from the University of Iowa, and lived and practiced law in Minneapolis from 1857 until his appointment by President McKinley to the position he held at the time of death.

At the bedside of the dying man were gathered his wife and two children, a boy and a girl, aged respectively six and nine years, and his brother, W. H. Truesdale, general manager of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific road. Captain Langdon, son of Mrs. R. Langdon, of this city, and brother of Mrs. Truesdale, left Phoenix for Minneapolis last Tuesday in the firm belief that his brother-in-law would recover.

In Minneapolis Judge Truesdale was very well known and was generally liked. There will be genuine regret with this announcement of his death, for he was yet a young man, and only just grasped a lower rung of the ladder which he hoped would some day lead him to fame and to fortune.

FRIENDS OF NIGHT SCHOOLS. They Open Subscriptions to Raise Needed Funds.

C. A. Smith and F. H. Peavey have each agreed to donate $100 for night schools. Here is a starter for some one. If there are in Minneapolis twenty-eight citizens, as was said the same as the two gentlemen named above the much needed money for the year which the city has no money, may be a reality. It requires $5,000 to maintain the night schools during the year which has already been subscribed, and if some of those who are most interested in the work will take hold of it with this starter it is possible that they may gain the desired end.

Mills Have Plenty of Power. At the present time, with the mills running at the fullest capacity and practically all using water power, there is only about four-fifths of the volume of water in the river being utilized, the other fifth going to waste, says the Northwestern Miller. There never was a time at this season of the year when so much power was being used as now, and the rentals of the power company are proportionately favorable.

Engineer de la Barre thinks that the water power will be good all winter. Outside mills having been seriously ill. On his way south from Vladivostok he was taken sick on the steamer, and when he reached the coasted island of Saghalien, which he had intended to examine so carefully, his condition was so precarious that he thought only of being taken back where he could get good nursing. Two kind Russian physicians cared for him, and he made a full recovery, and he slowly recuperated. He was still very weak at the time of writing.

The Body Identified. The father of Rimle Ducharme arrived from Fairbairn yesterday morning, and immediately recognized the fellow, saying that it was one which he originally owned, and that he gave it to his son. There were a number of begging cards also found in the possession of the dead boy, and the father recognized them, and produced one of the same kind. The shoes were also identified, as were the pieces of clothing.

South Town Commercialists. The board of directors of the South Minneapolis Commercial club met in Simonson's building last evening, and decided to hold the next general meeting of the organization next Wednesday evening. The following committee was appointed to make arrangements for club quarters for the winter: J. D. Holzner, W. E. Atkins, P. J. Mooney. In all probability these will be the active members.

Two Quiet Weddings. The marriage of Mrs. Myrtle S. Crocker to Jerome B. Tabour took place yesterday morning at the home of the bride's sister in South Minneapolis, and was witnessed only by members of the immediate families. Mr. and Mrs. Tabour left immediately after the ceremony for a trip through the East. They will make their future home in this city.

Another pretty wedding was celebrated in Westminster church parlor, by Dr. Pleasant Hunter, when Miss Adeline Merrick, of Zanesville, O., and Wallace W. Besser, of Duluth, were married last evening.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES. George H. Andrews has secured a permit for the erection of the four-story brick building on Washington street, between 308 and 310. The building is to cost $15,000.

Fred McLaughlin, a university student, whose home is in the east, died at his boarding house, 325 Eighth avenue south, this morning, after about fifteen minutes' illness. An autopsy will be held today.

Edward Jordan, alias Frank Rose, was arrested on Hennepin avenue yesterday morning and locked up. He is wanted in Blue Earth county on the charge of highway robbery.

Adam Flynn, charged with having burglarized the Great Northern depot at the town of Rogers and securing $150, was brought to the county jail Tuesday, and is held charged with burglary.

A lone fop held up Clarence Ray, of 2501 Lake street, Wednesday evening and robbed him of $2.50. The fop was arrested yesterday morning within two hours after being taken there. He was taken in an ambulance from 212 Washington street south. He gave the name of Powers. The cause of his death is not known, but there is a suspicion of foul play.

E. Danforth, secretary of the Commercial club, has resigned, and the resignation to take effect early in November. The board of directors has not acted on the matter yet. It is understood that a reduction in salary has been offered to do with Mr. Danforth's resignation.

An unknown woman, said to be a Bohemian woodpecker, was run over by the cars near the high school on Second street and Eighth avenue south, yesterday afternoon. She was not killed, and the patrol wagon took her to the hospital. Her name is not known.

THESE REFORMS GO

SOME DETAILS OF THE NEW CUBAN SCHEME FORMALLY PASSED UPON.

GEN. WEYLER TO SAIL TODAY.

HIS DEPARTURE TO BE PRECEDED BY A GREAT POPULAR DEMONSTRATION.

AMERICANS IN HAVANA ALARMED.

McKinley Entirely Satisfied With the General Tenor of the Note From Sagasta.

MADRID, Oct. 28.—The following reforms for Cuba, it is understood, have been formally passed upon and approved by the Spanish cabinet: The Cuban chamber of deputies is to consist of between forty and fifty members, a deputy for each 40,000 inhabitants.

The governor general is to choose from this chamber five members to form an executive committee consisting of an interior and ministers of the interior, finance, justice and public works. The governor general of Cuba is to have the right to veto legislation.

GEN. CASTILLO BETRAYED. Captured by the Spanish and Then Shot.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A dispatch to the Herald from Key West says: The outgoing authorities have struck a heavy blow at autonomy by permitting to use an unprejudiced word, the killing of Gen. Castillo. Gen. Castillo was not killed in a fair fight; he was betrayed by a Cuban guide, and was captured by the Spaniards on last Friday night and shot this morning. It was more satisfactory to shoot him than to treat him as a prisoner of war. Castillo commanded Havana province and was beloved as an able and brave general by every Cuban under arms. His killing will arouse a desire for revenge that at the present juncture will lead to prevent acceptance of any autonomy by the rebels. With an escort of seven men, Castillo was lying with fever in a secluded spot when the guide betrayed him. The exhibition of his body has aroused a great deal of sympathy among Gen. Weyler's officers. Side by side with him in the morgue was the body of a man who had starved to death. The general presented an illustration of Gen. Weyler's methods of conducting this war. A manifesto will be circulated and signed by President Capote and Gen. Gomez and Garcia, calling upon all Cubans not to accept autonomy.

IRELAND CASES UP SOME FIFTY THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND IN MINNESOTA ARE INVOLVED.

HEARD BEFORE HERMANN. APPEAL TO THE COMMISSIONER FROM DECISIONS BY LOCAL REGISTRARS.

A QUESTION OF LAW AT ISSUE. Defendants Claim the Right to Make Entry as Home-File Settlers on the Land.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The case of Archbishop Ireland against a large number of Irish immigrants in Minnesota, involving tracts of land amounting to 50,000 acres, was heard at the general land office today before Commissioner Hermann. The case is known in the St. Cloud local land office as John Ireland vs. Joseph Hermann et al. and in the Marshall district as Ireland vs. L. Cowen et al. Archbishop Ireland claims the land under the act of March 3, 1857, as purchasers from the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railroad, the settlers under the same act claiming to be bona fide settlers, and that they are entitled to make entry. It is largely a question of law whether the contract between him and the railroad was valid. The settlers assert that the archbishop was the mere agent of the sale; that this was not a contract of sale, but merely a promise of the railroad to sell to him in the event it obtained the land under the act of March 3, 1857, as purchasers from the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railroad, the settlers under the same act claiming to be bona fide settlers, and that they are entitled to make entry.

McKinley Satisfied With the Reply of Sagasta.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The Spanish reply to Minister Woodford's note concerning Cuba, which was received yesterday, was read in the cabinet at the regular meeting today. Meanwhile the members of the president's official family have been in the city. The reply, however, was talked of informally between the president and several of the cabinet, and it may be stated positively that the administration regards the note, so far as its tenor is concerned, as a satisfactory one, and as not calculated to breed an issue that can also be stated with gratification. It is felt that the answer was forthcoming within so short a period of time after delivery of Mr. Woodford's note having regard to the complexity of the Spanish cabinet crisis and change. The acts allowed performed by the new cabinet toward a correction of some of the evils which were complained of in the note, are regarded as an earnest of the intention of the Spanish government to faithfully carry out the entire reform program contained in the note, should be a speedy alleviation of the frightful conditions in Cuba through a prompt revocation of Weyler's orders, which were complained of in the note, and the granting of some concessions.

WEYLER'S DEPARTURE To Be Preceded by a Popular Demonstration.

HAVANA, Oct. 28.—Gen. Weyler will leave Havana tomorrow on the Montserrat. He will be accompanied only by his general staff officers and aides-de-camp. There will be no other passengers on the steamer. At 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, previous to the embarkment of the general, there will be a great public manifestation in his honor. The volunteers, according to the programme, will take a prominent part in the demonstration.

BUT HE SEIZED THE GAME. WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Oct. 28.—State Game Warden Fullerton, of Minnesota, caused the seizure of a consignment of game in this city this morning, the work being done by Deputy Warden Woolfson, of this state. There is quite a story in connection with the affair.

Fullerton got onto a gang at Detroit, Minn., who were not buying for Chicago restaurants, and attempted to break up the proceedings and shipment of game.

He accused one man and a scuffle ensued, in which Fullerton was somewhat cut up.

The consignment of game, in the hands of the Northern Pacific Express company, came on to this city, and Fullerton boarded the same train. The game consisted of three cases of game, and Fullerton's party must work to the detriment of thousands of our citizens, and give monopoly to the two companies named.

"Citizens' Committee of Tacoma." By George Brown, Secretary.

It contained eight dozen cartridges and two grooves. Fullerton was looking for venison, and had his eye on another box, supposed to contain it, but he has got it. The game was returned to Detroit tonight to cause several arrests.

CLEVELAND TALKS.

W. S. Cleveland, the Well Known Minstrel Manager, Tells of the Most Critical Moment of His Life.

A Matter That will be of Interest to all Sufferers from Nervous Prostration and Similar Troubles.

W. S. Cleveland, the great Minstrel Manager is probably one of the best known men to possess this affliction. His like among others in his line of business, overworked and broke down a short time ago. A very few words will describe his predicament, and how he got out of it.

"After a season of hard work, with three companies on the road I nearly wrecked myself with a series of disorders—loss of appetite and loss of sleep and numerous other troubles, until my friends and enemies alike had me booked for the Happy Hunting Grounds. I began to take Kikapoo Indian Sagwa. I surprised myself by recovering my strength and vigor on the war-path as well as ever. Nervous prostration, and landlions everywhere will agree that I have a most excellent appetite."

It troubles as Cleveland's, a begin in a small way. Loss of appetite, dizziness after eating, pains in the head, sleeplessness, feeling of oppression, moments of deep depression, loss of energy, and many other similar symptoms, which continue to grow worse and worse, until at last the patient finds himself afflicted with that most dreaded of all maladies—Paralysis—a disease that is verily a living death, and for which, once firmly established, there can be no cure. The only means of treatment is the insane asylum, where the patient, unable to think himself, is unable to even bear the irritating effect of the clothes on his back, he comes an object of loathing, even to his friends until death releases him from his misery.

To such sufferers, we would advise the use of Kikapoo Indian Sagwa. It is the best blood purifier and stomach, liver and kidney regulator known to man. Keep these organs given and good health, both of body and mind, will be the result, accompanied by a good appetite, the power to sleep and enjoy sleep.

SAINT PAUL. FINE CHORAL PROGRAMME Was Given Last Night at the Swedish Church.

Several excellent vocal solos, a violin number or two and a series of concerted numbers by two chorus choirs made up the programme which was given before an audience at the First Swedish Lutheran church, Woodward and John streets, last night. It was a choir concert, and the local choir was assisted by the Augustana choir, of the Merchants' Hotel.

The card of numbers was opened by J. Victor Bergquist, the choral organizer, who played "Toccata et Fuga," by Bach.

Miss Augusta Wicklund, who has been abroad all summer, sang for the first time this season, selecting Faure's "Palmes" for her opening number. The composition gave ample scope for her broad sympathetic contralto, the effect being somewhat marred by a passive accompaniment and Miss Wicklund's second selection sang a piquant ballad called "All Through the Night." Master Morrie Jeffrey, the treble soloist, of Christ church, divided honors with Miss Wicklund, and sang a light number called "Sweethearts," and later Ganz's "Sing, Sweet Birds." The little choral sang himself into the hearts of his hearers with his pure, sweet voice, and an excellent accompaniment by his choirmaster, Mr. Hodgett. The violin numbers were given by J. J. Appelton, of Minneapolis, and included both classical and lighter selections. The chorus sang Gounod's "Forever With the Lord," "The Rippling Brook," by Pignatelli, and the great chorus from David's Second Psalm. The programme was ended with the rendition by the chorus of Bevan's "Sing Unto God."

"SHORT CHANGE" ARTISTS. Two Men Arrested on That Particular Charge.

The police yesterday arrested Henry Kennedy, aged 65, and James Kennedy, 27 years old, father and son, living at 142 South Robert street, on the charge of attempting to "short change" a number of merchants in the Rondo street district. It is claimed that the pair have been systematically working the Eighth ward for several days. They are said to go about in a buggy, presenting the appearance of substantial individuals, making small purchases at different stores, and "flaming" clerks in the matter of change. The police claim to have found but one place where the men were successful. Johnson's butcher shop, on Rondo street, near Louis, where they are alleged to have gotten $5 last Saturday. It is claimed by the police that the men tried their game at fully twenty-five places. They were arrested by Detective Murnane, McKinley and Galvin, while crossing the Robert street bridge, on the way to Los Angeles.
