BALL KEPT IN THE AIR MOSTLY.

Punting the Feature of the Contest at the Coliseum—Final Score Twenty-One to Twelve.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Clarence Herschberger, the full back of the University of Chicago, made a name for himself in football history today by making three successful place kicks in the annual game between the Universities of Chicago and Michigan.

But the kick which brought 12,000 people to their feet occurred about fifteen minutes later. The ball at the time was not more than five yards from the side line and twenty-five yards from the goal, and when the strong-limbed full back and Gordon Clarke dropped back with the evident intention of attempting the play, Chicago supporters were amazed.

The game, which was played in the Coliseum, was a kicking contest from start to finish, and in the punts Herschberger easily showed his superiority over Hannan, of the Michigan team.

The right end of the line proved to be Michigan's weakest point, and when Chicago was running with the ball, Bennett and Steekle were both worn kicked the ball, rolling back of Chicago's goal line. It was brought out twenty yards, and Herschberger punted fifty yards to Hogg, who brought it back five yards. Hannan punted thirty yards to Herschberger, who was hurt when downed, but resumed. Clarke was tackled by Bennett for five yards loss. Herschberger punted to Hogg, who returned five yards. Hogg then kicked, but Kennedy blocked it, Michigan returning the ball. Hannan kicked to the center of the field, and after an exchange of punts, Hamill made a beautiful run of thirty-five yards to Bennett. With the ball on their seven-yard line Michigan braced up, but Clarke and Herschberger went back for a place to kick on the seventeen-yard line. The ball was passed to Clarke, who held it nicely, and Herschberger kicked the ball squarely between the posts. Score: Chicago, 11; Michigan, 0.

out from the hammering directed against them. On the other hand, Teetzel did splendid work, and if anything had a little the better of the argument with Hamill. Outside of Teetzel and Quarterback Felver, however, the Chicago players outplayed their opponents. Cunningham was utterly unable to hold big Cavanaugh, who broke through frequently.

KICKING CONTEST. The teams lined up at 10:50. Michigan won the toss and chose the north side. Herschberger kicked over the line. The ball was brought out to the twenty-five-yard line and Hannan kicked to Clark, who fumbled, and the ball rolled to Chicago's forty-five-yard line, where Herschberger got it. Kennedy made five yards, and Herschberger kicked to Teetzel on Michigan's twenty-yard line, who returned it ten yards. A mass on tackle netted three yards. Stuart made three yards around left end Hannan kicked to Chicago's forty-five-yard line. Herschberger returning the oval seven yards, Herschberger kicked to Hannan on Michigan's forty-yard line. The Maroons held their opponents to downs, and it was their ball on Michigan's thirty-seven-yard line. Gardner was unable to gain through center. The guards were then called back, and Gardner was given the ball in a mass kick on right tackle. Aided by Hamill he broke away from his tacklers and ran thirty-five yards for a touchdown. Herschberger kicked an easy goal a moment later. Score: Chicago, 6; Michigan, 0.

Hannan kicked to Chicago's thirty-five-yard line, Herschberger returning the kick to Michigan's forty-yard line. Hannan punted to Chicago's forty-yard line, and again Herschberger returned it, this time to Michigan's thirty-five-yard line. Hannan then Teetzel kicked goal. Score, Chicago 11, Michigan 6. Chicago gained fifteen yards on an exchange of punts. Three tandem plays netted good gains. Herschberger and Clarke then dropped back for a place kick from the thirty-yard line, and again it was successful. Score, Chicago 16, Michigan 6.

GOAL FROM THE FIELD.

Hannan kicked thirty-five yards to Herschberger, who returned it five yards. After an exchange of punts it was Chicago's ball on their thirty-five-yard line. Herschberger kicked to Michigan's thirty-yard line, and punts netted Chicago twenty yards. Hannan kicked to Chicago's thirty-five-yard line, and again Hannan made two yards through left guard. Ball on Michigan's thirty-five-yard line. Gordon Clarke made ten yards around right end, and the ball sailed over the goal posts for the third time. Score: Chicago, 21; Michigan, 6.

An exchange of punts netted Chicago ten yards. Michigan fumbled a moment later, and Gardner fell on the ball. Hamill made ten yards around right end, and Kennedy advanced it two yards. Hannan punted high and the ball hit the girder. Michigan secured it, however, and again Hannan tried his luck, this time boosting the pigskin to Chicago's fifty-yard line. Herschberger punted to Michigan's fifteen-yard line, Hannan returning with a punt of twenty-five yards, the kick being partially blocked. Gardner made ten yards through left tackle and end. Herschberger and Clarke again dropped back for a place kick, but the ball was fumbled by Clarke. Herschberger kicked it up and tried to run, but was downed hard by Snow, after making two yards. Michigan's ball on downs. Hannan made two yards through left guard, and Barabee tried the same place for two more. With the ball on Michigan's twenty-five-yard line, Hannan kicked to the center of the field. The ball touched one of the Chicago players and Baker got it and ran fifty-five yards for a touchdown. Teetzel kicked goal. Score: Chicago, 21; Michigan, 12.

Herschberger kicked across the line. The ball was brought in twenty yards and Hannan punted to Herschberger, who sent it right back to Michigan's ten-yard line. Little Felver made a nice catch and ran forty-five yards before he was downed by Kennedy. It was, perhaps, the prettiest run of the day. On a quarterback kick Chicago secured the ball on her thirty-yard line. Time called. Total score: Chicago, 21; Michigan, 12. The teams lined up as follows:

Chicago Position Michigan Teetzel Quarter Back Left End Pelver Right Half Back Right Half Back Stuart Herschberger Right Half Back Stuart Gardner Full Back Cavanaugh Substitutes for Michigan, Ayres, Baker, Pingree, Barabee, Egan. Snow, Teetzel, place kicks, Herschberger 2; goals kicked, Herschberger 1; Teetzel 2; referee, Fred Hayner; Lake Forest, umpire, Bert Alward; Princeton.

of the field. Gardner was unable to gain, and Herschberger punted to Hannan on Michigan's five-yard line, a fifty-yard kick. It was brought back ten yards. Time called. Score first half: Chicago, 11; Michigan, 0.

SECOND HALF.

It took an hour and five minutes to play the first half. When time was called for the second half, Hannan kicked off thirty-five yards to Herschberger, who returned the punt to the center of the field. Hogg made five yards around right end, Hannan punted to Chicago's ten-yard line. Herschberger punted thirty yards. Here a peculiar thing happened. Teetzel was hurt in an attempt to block the kick, and lay on the field unnoticed, his team mates putting the ball in play with but ten men in line. Technically Teetzel was off side, and this claim was made, but referee Hayner did not allow it. Teetzel was up in a moment and resumed. A quarter play netted Michigan seven yards. It was Chicago's ball on her twenty-five yard line. Egan went in for Caley in Michigan's line and Barabee took Hogg's place. Herschberger made six yards around right end. Ayres took Bennett's place. Herschberger punted to Michigan's twenty-five-yard line. Hannan returning the kick twenty yards, Kennedy carried the ball five yards through left tackle. He then made a twenty-three yard run around right end, but the Michigan backs tried to block the kick. On an exchange of punts, Felver got the oval on Michigan's twenty-five-yard line. Hannan punted to Chicago's thirty-five yard line. Chicago was unable to gain, and it was Michigan's ball on downs on her fifty-yard line.

On an exchange of punts Michigan got the ball on her opponent's thirteen-yard line. Michigan was given ten yards for offside play, and a touchdown seemed imminent, but Chicago braced beautifully. Three times the ball was hurled back, and it was Chicago's ball on her four-yard line. Kennedy and Clarke advanced it five yards and Herschberger then punted out to Chicago's forty-yard line. Ayres made twenty-five yards on Hamill's end, but with a clear field before him, he was fiercely tackled by Gordon Clarke from behind. Teetzel then made five yards through left tackle and end for Michigan's first touchdown, and of yesterday's contest, but the players appeared to be wholly oblivious to the presence of these officials, and pummeled heads in scrimmages, pulled hair and reviled in off-side plays throughout the game. There were really no reprehensible displays of ill-temper, however, and the "scrappy" tendencies of the game appeared to please the chilled spectators. The first half was well played by both elevens, but in the second half the Eau Claire eleven seemed to lose heart, and the Northern Pacific players bowled over the Wisconsin line or dodged the ends with little trouble. Squires, Kehoe, George Rogers and Fee did most of the star playing for the N. P. team, while McGowan, B. Williams and Werner showed effectively for the high school team. The result of the game and by line bucking undecided, as the Wisconsin team defeated yesterday's victors at Eau Claire several weeks ago, though by the less decisive score of 4 to 0.

PLAYED IN FLEECE

SNOW DID NOT TROUBLE THE THANKSGIVING FOOTBALL PLAYERS AT ALL.

NORTHERN PACIFIC WON IT.

VERY "MUSSY," BUT NOT DISASTROUS BATTLE AT LEXINGTON PARK YESTERDAY.

Eau Claire Could Not Stop

The Terrific Force of the Fierce Rushers of the Northern Pacific Eleven.

The football game between the Eau Claire, Wis., high school and Northern Pacific teams at Lexington park yesterday afternoon was a "mussy" exhibition of youngsters on the gridiron, resulting in a score of 16 to 6 in favor of the Northern Pacific eleven. Enthusiasm, however, was not a lacking feature of the contest, and while the boys mauled and dragged each other through the snow and dirt 300 partisans alternately cheered their begrimed favorites. As in every football game, there was a referee and an unworked the pigskin toward the Wisconsin goal, but ten yards beyond the center the high school boys got possession of the ball, and for the next ten minutes showed the better of the game. Several times McGowan was whirled around the left end by a revolving wedge for from five to fifteen yards, and then alternating tackle plays landed the ball on the N. P. ten-yard line. Here Williams rammed into the crowd of spectators, eluding the N. P. forwards, and secured a touchdown, which, with a well-kicked goal, made the score 6-6 in favor of the Wisconsin line. On the kick-off of the N. P. players rushed the ball to Eau Claire's twenty-five-yard line, when the half ended.

The second half opened with the ball driven well into Eau Claire's territory by McDonald and the N. P. ends following it closely. The first drive for Eau Claire was on the thirty-yard line, where line bucking was again the order of play, and netted the Wisconsin team the requisite five yards, though twice first down was only called after four savage scrimmages. When the center started to pass the N. P. boys held their opponents four times and got the ball. Three plays by Squires, Fee and McDonald landed the oval behind Eau Claire's goal line. McDonald kicked the goal. Score, 10-6. Following the next kick-off of the ball changed hands on the second play, and the N. P. team again started for their opponents' goal. The N. P. backs were sent around the line several times with such success that the mixed up center plays which had characterized the game were abandoned, and the spectators given an opportunity to witness the play of the Northern Pacific eleven. Following the next kick-off of the ball, Eau Claire's fifteen-yard line, when several mass plays again scored a touchdown. The Wisconsin boys were hard to hold their opponents' line, but lacked the concentration necessary to stop the N. P. rushes. The ball was carried over the line by McDonald, who also kicked the goal. Ten minutes more of play after the kick-off placed the ball well into N. P. territory, but the referee's whistle ended the game with the final score of 16-6. The teams lined up in the following order:

CHANCE FOR CORBETT.

Fitzsimmons Will Again Meet Him in the Ring.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 25.—The Express publishing company has received a statement in ten days Corbett and Fitzsimmons will sign articles for another battle for heavy-weight championship of the world. This statement is made on the authority of a letter which I have just received from headquarters, said Mr. Connor, and it is positive and certain. I could tell you the time and place where the principals and their man will meet, but for certain reasons I am not at liberty to do so until I receive permission from Mr. Brady. Fitzsimmons is now in St. Louis and Corbett in New York, but they will get together within the time mentioned.

Lincoln Ostracizes Kansas.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 25.—As an outgrowth of the unpleasantness between Nebraska and Kansas university athletic associations Professors Caldwell and Ward and J. E. Connor, representing the Nebraska side, today sent a letter to the Kansas university withdrawing all negotiations for further football games with Kansas until the communication states that this action is taken because of reports of unsportsmanlike conduct and defiance of rules by the Kansas coach in Saturday's game with Kansas City Medical. The letter further states that the action is not intended to reflect in any way on Kansas players, but is a protest against their coach.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLES. Do Not Be Alarmed, But Look for the Cause.

Heart troubles at least among Americans, are certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion. Real, organic heart disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by branches of the same great nerves, the sympathetic and pneumogastric. In another way, also, the heart is affected by that form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food; these are a cutting of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action; hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, makes it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart. The most sensible treatment for heart troubles is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food. This can best be done by the regular use, after meals, of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements, in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular, persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble, except cancer of stomach. Full sized packages of the tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.
