

MESSAGE OF PEACE

SUCH IS LONDON COMMENT ON THE POPE'S RECENT ENCYCLICAL ON THE MANITOBA QUESTION.

ARCHBISHOP BRUCHELI OF MONTREAL TAKES A DIFFERENT VIEW.

SAYS CHURCH IS SUSTAINED.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—The Times, commenting editorially this morning on the pope's encyclical, says: 'The pope has approached the very difficult Manitoba problem in the spirit of conciliation and compromise and the encyclical can be honestly designated a message of peace.'

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Archbishop Paul Bruchesi, Montreal, arrived from Rome on the steamer La Champagne today. In an interview he denied that he went to Italy for the purpose of discussing the Manitoba school question with the pope.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—The Times, commenting editorially this morning on the pope's encyclical, says: 'The pope has approached the very difficult Manitoba problem in the spirit of conciliation and compromise and the encyclical can be honestly designated a message of peace.'

DEFENDS THE RING.

Interview With Earl of Lonsdale on the Subject.

John Mackin, of Chicago, received a letter Saturday from Jimmy Barry, now on his way home from Europe. The little Chicagoan said in the letter that he was in good condition, and that he would rather have lost the battle with Croot than have had the contest and as it did, he also declared that he was through with fighting for all time and would earn his living in some other way.

COLLEGIATE CHESS.

Sixth Annual Tournament to Be Held This Week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The sixth annual inter-collegiate chess tournament will begin tomorrow afternoon at the Columbia grammar school in this city. It will extend over the entire week and representatives of Columbia, Yale, Harvard and Princeton will compete for the honor of holding the cup during 1898.

ONE MILL WILL NOT START.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Tom O'Rourke, manager of the Long Island City Athletic club, announces that the $1,000,000 bond issue for the club, scheduled for March 20 at the club, is off.

BASE BALL BRIEFS.

Washington has signed Homer Mock, a southpaw. Frank Killen has signed a Pittsburg contract. Tom Brown 'discovered' Henry Reitz in California years ago, and now he will manage his find.

HAIR HUMORS

Itching, irritated, scaly, crusted scalp, dry, thin, falling hair, dandruff, itching, and itching scalp, and occasional dandruff of CUTICURA, purest of emollients, the greatest skin cure.

Cuticura

Treatment will produce a clean, healthy scalp with luxuriant, lustrous hair, when all else fails.

SKINS ON FIRE

For Delicacy, for purity, and for improvement of the complexion nothing equals Puffo's Pomade.

the prize fights that will come off in San Francisco this winter.

Pittsburgers are pleased with the deal that makes a Pirate out of Morgan Murphy.

The deal by which Chicago gets McAleer from Cleveland is said to have been closed. It is announced that Cleveland received for him.

Bretenstein has made only one home run since he began playing professional ball. Meekin was the victim when he was pitching for Washington.

It is announced that Hughes, the new Oriole pitcher, will receive $1,800 for his first season's work.

Paper Changes Hands.

LITCHFIELD, Minn., Dec. 26.—The Litchfield Saturday Review has changed hands. John T. Mullen, editor and proprietor, selling out to Leslie Mathews, of the Benson Times.

He Stuck to His Post on a Runaway Car—Three People Seriously Injured.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Dec. 26.—A trolley car on the Schuylkill Valley Traction road was held up by four highwaymen at Swedeland, near here, about 1 o'clock tonight. Conductor Charles Galloway, of Norristown, refused to give up his money and was shot dead. Three shots were fired at Motorman Matthias, but none took effect.

How He Got Rid of His Mother-in-Law.

1—She—Oh, dearest, mother writes that she will spend New Year week with us. Isn't that delightful?

2—Well, the old lady won't stay more than two days anyway, if my scheme works.

3—Won't the children be pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

4—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

5—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

6—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

7—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

8—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

9—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

10—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

11—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

12—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

13—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

14—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

15—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

16—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

17—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

18—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

19—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

20—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

21—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

22—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

23—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

24—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

25—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

26—Ma's reception, and she didn't even stay to dinner.

27—The children are pleased though, when I buy all of those instruments.

TOOK LIFE AND CASH

HIGHWAYMEN HOLD UP A TROLLEY CAR ON A NORRISTOWN, PA., LINE.

FATALLY SHOT CONDUCTOR.

ROBBED THE BODY AND MADE THEIR ESCAPE—PASSENGERS UNMOLESTED.

BRAVERY OF A MOTORMAN.

He Stuck to His Post on a Runaway Car—Three People Seriously Injured.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Dec. 26.—A trolley car on the Schuylkill Valley Traction road was held up by four highwaymen at Swedeland, near here, about 1 o'clock tonight. Conductor Charles Galloway, of Norristown, refused to give up his money and was shot dead. Three shots were fired at Motorman Matthias, but none took effect.

Occasionally Mr. Quint finds some other animal than any of those named in his trap. He never will forget the experience he had with a wild cat. He had some traps out on the bog at the head of Fa-Hi pond, three miles from here, and one day he took a young fellow, Ben Hutchins, with him to examine his traps.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

CAUGHT A WILD CAT.

Lively Experience of a Fur-Trapper in Maine.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

cut-glass whisky flask, with a gilded top and a capacity for carrying about two drinks for a woman who is used to taking pretty stiff ones, or four for one who merely takes a little spirits for faintness, or something of that kind.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

LOOKING FOR HONEST LAWYER.

Centenarian Tramps 100 Miles on a Remarkable Mission.

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 26.—William Shopshire, once a slave, now nearly 100 years old, decrepit and infirm, walked nearly 100 miles to Cincinnati for the purpose, as he says, of finding an honest lawyer, and landed penniless at the Hammon street station. The old man was given a berth in the cell-room of the station house by Lieut. Kane and looked up for a night's rest. He had richly deserved it, for his shoes from long travel were worn through, and his bruised and bleeding feet were rested on the ground.

It all sounds like a travesty on the credence of the general public, the fact is well known that honest lawyers live in nearly every city and town throughout the length and breadth of this fair land. But the old ex-slave has his crochets—they usually come with years and sad experiences, and he made Cincinnati the Mecca of his pilgrimage.

"Grampar" Shopshire, as he is known in Donerale, Ky., a little town near Lexington, was once considered very wealthy, but litigation, as he says, has involved him and his effects until he has made one last supreme effort to reclaim his lands. The

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

centenarian tramps 100 miles on a remarkable mission.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

LOOKING FOR HONEST LAWYER.

Centenarian Tramps 100 Miles on a Remarkable Mission.

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 26.—William Shopshire, once a slave, now nearly 100 years old, decrepit and infirm, walked nearly 100 miles to Cincinnati for the purpose, as he says, of finding an honest lawyer, and landed penniless at the Hammon street station. The old man was given a berth in the cell-room of the station house by Lieut. Kane and looked up for a night's rest. He had richly deserved it, for his shoes from long travel were worn through, and his bruised and bleeding feet were rested on the ground.

It all sounds like a travesty on the credence of the general public, the fact is well known that honest lawyers live in nearly every city and town throughout the length and breadth of this fair land. But the old ex-slave has his crochets—they usually come with years and sad experiences, and he made Cincinnati the Mecca of his pilgrimage.

"Grampar" Shopshire, as he is known in Donerale, Ky., a little town near Lexington, was once considered very wealthy, but litigation, as he says, has involved him and his effects until he has made one last supreme effort to reclaim his lands. The

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than double that. In five weeks Frank Quint caught 32 foxes, 28 skunks, 7 coons and 4 minks.

There have appeared many stories this fall of big catches of foxes and other fur-bearing animals, says the Lewistown (Pa.) Journal. One told of a man who had caught 15 foxes this fall. North Anson's veteran hunter and trapper can more than