From this time hence when the housewife or the servant maid of Minneapolis turns the faucet on the water pipe, in her house and draws therefrom pure, sparkling water, the great est gift of Providence, she may feel perfectly safe in using it in the preparation of the food for the household, or for other domestic purposes and need have no fear that her family will become incalculated with bacteria and various disease germs.

Beginning with Monday of next week the many miles of water mains throughout the city will be filled with pure water from the new reservoir at Columbia Heights, and although there is as yet no filter in connection with the new system, the water to be furnished the people of this city for drinking and other purposes, will be far purer than any it has been supplied with since it has had the honor to be called a city. Indeed, the water supply of Minneapolis will compare favorably with that of any other city in the world, and when the filters are constructed, the water of Minneapolis will be blessed with a purer water as it is possible to get, even from the sparkling, clear springs on the mountain side.

As long ago as three years ago the present winter, when an epidemic of typhoid fever swept the city, with death claiming innumerable victims, many of the brightest children from happy homes, the cry was raised for purer water. Citizens discussed the matter and many schemes were suggested, but the plan to erect an immense reservoir at Columbia Heights was the first one proposed in the city council, and it was the subject of much discussion men from the start. On the other hand, the plan was most bitterly opposed by many well-meaning citizens, who could see only the immense cost of the stupendous undertaking, and argued against it from the taxpayer's standpoint. After a certain amount of agitation, however, the work was begun and has resulted in the completion of that which will be one of the greatest benefits to the city that may ever be bestowed.

It was 2:30 o'clock yesterday when the two special street cars, conveying the mayor, members of the council, executive committee of the board of public works and newspaper men started on their way to Columbia Heights, the party being bound for a trip of inspection of the reservoir system. It was a jolly crowd of about one hundred and fifty, and was made up of Mayor Pratt, City Engineer Cappelen, Thomas Lowry, W. J. Murphy, Capt. O. C. Merriman, F. C. Barron, O. T. Swift, Frank

Jones, Arthur Huey, Registrar of Deeds

Metcalf, the city aldermen, with a few exceptions, and many other citizens.

Arriving at the end of line, the party was met by busses and conveyed up the hill over the macadamized road to the reservoir. The party then descended the hill, until the summit of the high knoll is reached, and the view of the city, four miles away, is a magnificent sight. Yesterday was a cold day, and the sharp wind as it whistled across the barren country, drove many of the party into the office building for shel-

THOROUGHLY REPRESENTATIVE.

It Embodies the Ideas of the Two Parties Endeavoring to Bring

About Peace.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The Spanish minister received a dispatch from Havana this afternoon giving the list of the new cabinet. It is the same as that sent officially, except that the official announcement places Senor Rodriguez as minister of commerce, and Eduardo Dolz as minister of public works and telegraphs. The dispatch adds that, in the absence of Senor Dolz, who is in Spain, Senor

Rodriguez will handle his own portfolio and also that of public works and telegraphs. Mr. Dolz, the new name on the official list, is a young lawyer and has been secretary of the central committee of the reform party. He has quite a reputation as an orator.

The Spanish minister regards the cabinet as an exceptionally strong organization thoroughly representative of Cuba, as three of the members are Cuban born and have spent their lives in Cuba, and another, Rodriguez, while of Spanish birth, has lived for thirty years in Cuba and has all his interests there. It is said also that the cabinet represents the Autonomists and the Reformists, Dolz being secretary of the Central Reform party. When asked for a sketch of the several ministers the Spanish minister turned to the book,

"Cuba and the Cubans," by Raimundo Cabrera, from which the following biographical sketches of Galvez, Montoro and Govin are taken:

Jose M. Galvez, premier, was born in Matanzas, Nov. 24, 1845. Lawyer and famous forestor orator. Journalist; has published anonymously many political articles. During the revolutionary period he was confined in the isle of Pines. Before and after his imprisonment, and up to 1878, he remained in Havana, exercising his profession and co-operating with the revolutionary junta of New York. In recognition of his patriotism and talents he was selected by acclamation as president of the organization committee of the Autonomist party.

Rafael Montoro, minister of finance, born in Havana, 1852. Went to Madrid in 1867 and became known as a critic and literateur; editor of La Revista Contemporanea (1877). Under secretary of the Society of Spanish Authors and Artists under the presidency of Emilio Castelar. Returned to Cuba

1878; he figures as one of the founders and pillars of the Autonomist party, of whose executive committee he is a member. Editor of the Revista Cubana, El Triunfo and El

País. Vice secretary of the Sociedad Economica. Lawyer. Elected deputy to the cortes by Havana and by Puerto Principe in three successive legislatures. Commissioned by the Sociedad Economica (1880) to report to the government in Madrid on the financial crisis.

Antonio Govin, minister of the interior, born in Matanzas 1847. Graduated in law 1872. One of the founders of the Autonomist party in 1878. Elected secretary of the executive committee in 1879, which office he still holds.

Member of the executive committee of the Order of Colon and of the Order of Cuba. First editor of the political newspaper, El Triunfo, now known as CUBAN CABINET.

taries Signed by Blanco.

HURON, S. D., Dec. 31.—Supt. Sher-rard, of the children's home, at Sioux Falls, arrived here yesterday direct from the Cheyenne Indian agency.

He is a white girl who about fourteen years of age of whom mention was made a few days ago, whom he was taking to the home. Some months since, while the Rev. O. H.

Sprout, a Methodist clergyman of Pierre, was on a trip through the Great Sioux reservation, he found at the home of an Indian family, something like a hundred miles distant from the agency, on Cherry creek, this white child. He soon became convinced that she did not belong to the family claiming her, but was unable to ascertain anything definite as to who she was or where she belonged. The child said her name was Anna, and that she was taken by the Indians a long time ago.

Those having her declared her name to be Anna Russell, but further than that
