FINANCIAL.

Bar silver, New York, 57 1/2; Call money, New York, 2 1/2.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Covering by shorts was the principal feature in all of the markets on "change today. In wheat this was of sufficient volume to overcome the effect of their bearish news.

There were supporting orders in wheat at the opening, and also enough buying of shorts to keep the market steady.

At Liverpool, no reason was apparent for the opening decline offered for later delivery.

Chicago inspection showed receipts of 100 cars, against 418 the corresponding day of last year.

DULUTH GRAIN.

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 11.—Market exceedingly dull and firm. May opened unchanged.

LONDON ON THE SHAY OF BULLS.

New York Prices Did Not Respond Fully to the Day's Rise in Europe.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—London operators in American securities had apparently recovered some of their confidence in the future of values in this country today, after the alarm they had manifested yesterday over the possibility of a general market decline.

On the other hand, there was very striking activity and strength in the Northern Pacific stocks and in Union Pacific.
