

SCHUNEMAN AND EVANS.
The Queen of Beauty RETURNS TO LECTURE
At the Urgent Request of Thousands of St. Paul's Progressive Women.

Mme. Yale
WILL LECTURE
Next Thursday Afternoon, Jan. 27th,
AND
Friday Afternoon, Jan. 28th,
At 2 O'Clock p. m., at the Metropolitan Theater!

SUBJECTS:
Thursday—Woman's Health.
Friday—Yale Beauty System.

Tickets Complimentary.

Ladies—You are hereby notified that Mme. Yale has most graciously consented to again visit St. Paul and deliver two lectures on—

Woman's Health AND THE Yale Beauty System.

During Mme. Yale's recent visit thousands of St. Paul's progressive women who had hoped to profit by Mme. Yale's wise teachings were unable to obtain tickets or to even gain an entrance to the theater, owing to her overcrowded house and consequently a petition was forwarded to Mme. Yale by many of her friends asking for a return lecture, which she has graciously consented to grant, but decided to give two lectures, so that her complete system may be intelligently understood—and for the special benefit of sick women, Mme. Yale will deliver a scientific lecture of her health system, that treats of curing all known ailments affecting woman's health. Every lady attending the lecture Thursday afternoon, January 27, will receive a free "Yale Beauty System" book, and a copy of "Yale's Tonic." Those attending the beauty lecture on Friday afternoon, January 28, will receive a valuable toilet article free.

Mme. Yale takes pleasure in announcing that her lectures will be complimentary.

TICKETS FREE.

Reserved seat tickets for lecture of Jan. 27 may now be obtained free by calling at the Drug Department of Schuneman & Evans. Those for Jan. 28 to be distributed Monday. These tickets entitle bearer to reserved seats. Secure tickets early, as many will be turned away.

PLAYED IT IN POOLS
NOT BETTING POOLS, BUT LIMPID LAKES BARRED BY THE BONSPIEL.

CONTESTS THINNING OUT.

FIVE RINKS REMAIN IN THE FIRST EVENT—FOUR IN THE SECOND.

TODAY IS TO BE A GREAT DAY.

International and Point Contests Begin, and a Smoking Concert Is Set for Tonight.

Yesterday was a day of the unexpected in the big curling bonspiel, possibly because the mushy, or at the best sloppy condition of the ice, tended to reduce the rinks to a common level, and it was so much the most skillful, perhaps, as it was the most adaptable.

DOWN PRETTY FINE.

who came off with yesterday's honors. The much-feared Manitobans are out of the running in the competition for the St. Paul Jobbers' trophy, now held by the Arlington rink, the list of eligibles in that event having now narrowed down to five rinks. These are "Mill" Griggs' four, representing St. Paul, the until last night invincible Robertson, of Milwaukee; Mould, of Baraboo; Stout, of Waupaca, and Duncan, of Duluth. So that Wisconsin has all the best of it, having three chances in five to win the coveted cup.

even closer to an end. McDiarmid, of Winnipeg, must surrender the cup he has won two years in succession, and which he had to win but one more year to make it the permanent property of the Granite club, of Wisconsin. Kibbe, of Chicago, or some Wisconsin club will get it. The Badger state rinks still having a chance for it, being McCall, of Cambria; Marriott, of Baraboo, and Chandler of Waupaca. If Chandler wins it will be the second time for his rink, which would make a pretty race between Winnipeg and Waupaca at the was labelled "IX" on the bottom. The Manitobans put up a manly battle and on form, perhaps, should have won, but the Badger team miscalculated the compliment, and that was where the trophy went by the board. The score:

If there is anything the average curler will not do it is to leave his own game to look on at the rink of another contest, and this was the case yesterday in the contest paid to Skips McDiarmid and Scott by the fact that as their game yesterday morning drew to a close the majority of the other next bonspiel, each club having won the trophy two years.

There is a larger field left in the Duluth Jobbers' trophy competition, but it is established that the cup will not remain in Cambria another year, as Skip McCall's company are out of it. In addition, it stays in Wisconsin, Mould or Marriott, of Baraboo; McKay, of Pilot Mound; Stout or Chandler, of Waupaca, must be its savors. Of these Stout has lasted one round more than McLeod, of Duluth, has. Griggs, of Waupaca, an honor which is shared by Frank McCarthy's rink, formerly known as the Defel rink. This rink has shaken the hoodoo, apparently, and is now in a fair way to come out with honors yet. Riheladaffer and Griggs still have a chance to capture this trophy for the locals, while Smith and McLeod, of Duluth, are equally sanguine. Manitobans still, as Griggs, Cooper, Patten and McDiarmid to look after her interests in this series, which will be badly shaken up today.

The point contests will be taken up this morning.

Today will be spent in the following contests: Manitobans promptly at 9 a. m. and close after the 5 p. m. drawing.

The drawings, as made last night, were as follows:

Johnson Trophy, No. 1—
10. A. E. McCall. John McLeod.
11. H. W. Williams. H. W. Cory.
12. R. J. McCall. H. Hurden.
13. S. Marriott. Duncan.
14. F. Chandler. Kibbe.
15. F. Jobbers. C. M. Griggs.
16. O. W. Robertson. C. M. Griggs.
17. Duluth Jobbers, No. 2—
18. J. McDiarmid. H. Riheladaffer.
19. R. J. McCall. M. H. Mould.
20. J. Grassy. Smith.
21. W. J. Cooper.
22. F. Stout.

The event of the tournament will open tomorrow, when the international contest opens at 2 p. m. The following were the teams selected by the committee of the executive board of the association last night. The committee on drawing was made up as follows: Judge H. W. Cory, chairman of the executive committee; O. W. Robertson, president; H. W. Williams, vice president; W. F. Myron, secretary and treasurer, and W. F. Wilson, of Mauston. The international contest will be one of the hottest and most interesting events of the bonspiel and the teams as selected are as follows:

Americans. Canadians.
5. O. W. Robertson. M. Mackin.
6. A. McCall. J. McDiarmid.
7. E. W. Kibbe. James Grassy.
