

THE NORTHWEST.

FORMED A BAR ASSOCIATION.

Lawyers of Northern Minnesota Organize at Crookston.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. CROOKSTON, Feb. 24.—The banquet tendered the members of the bar of the fourth judicial district by the Crookston Bar association in this city last night was one of the pleasantest events that has occurred here in years.

Hon. A. Miller officiated as toastmaster, and the sentiments and responses were as follows: "Reminiscences," William Watts; "The Influence of the Bar," W. W. Calkins, Ada; "The Lawyer in Politics," R. H. Holston; "Legal Ethics," P. H. Konzen; "Halt!"; "Benefits of a Bar Association," De Forest Buckle; "The Frontier Lawyer," Judge Grindelund; "Warren," Law Liberty and Progress; "R. J. Montague," The Bench From a Lawyer's Standpoint; A. D. Stephens; "Washington," A. D. Stephens; St. Paul.

NATIONAL PARK ROADS.

Improvements to Be Made for Next Season.

LIVINGSTON, Mont., Feb. 24.—The coming season promises to be one of unusual activity in the National park, and already preparations are under way for extensive improvements. It is expected that a very liberal appropriation will be made by the present congress, and that a large sum will be expended on roads within the limits of the park this season. Several new roads will be constructed to points of interest and the roads now in use will be improved. It is proposed to macadamize a section of the present graded roads and to protect them by strong revetments. Stone guards connected by gravel rails will be erected at all dangerous points. The old wooden bridge at Golden Gate pass is to be removed and in its stead will be erected a massive stone or steel structure.

COURT CONSIDERING.

Result in the South Dakota Insurance Case in Doubt.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 24.—The arguments in the insurance case were closed this afternoon. The court took a recess to next Wednesday, when a decision is looked for. While both sides claim confidence of winning, the arguments and citations were so conflicting that it would be mere guess work to attempt to forecast what the court will do.

ANXIOUS TO SEE SMITH.

Stockmen Increase the Reward for His Arrest.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 24.—The Black Hills Stockmen's association has increased the reward for Hank Smith or James Miller, known by both names, the cattle rustler, to $600. Smith is described as about thirty-five years of age, tall and slender with dark hair and mustache, brown eyes, weight about 175 pounds, slightly stoop-shouldered. Last seen at Leslie on Cheyenne river.

Life Sentence for Villers.

JAMES TOWN, N. D., Feb. 24.—Martin J. Villers, convict of the first term of court, of the murder of August Tromer, was today sentenced to confinement in the state penitentiary at hard labor. Life sentence was pronounced by Judge Fisk, of Grand Forks, who tried the case, because of ineffectuality of Judge Campbell. The prisoner heard the announcement unmoved. No application for a new trial or appeal was made. Since his confinement he has grown very fat and is an old man of sixty or more, and it is thought by his friends that he will not live out the year.

Donovan O'Hara.

PEMBINA, N. D., Feb. 24.—Dr. P. C. Donovan, Neche's prominent and popular physician, was married yesterday by Father Kain at Pembina, Minn., to Miss Mad O'Hara, of North Dakota. The doctor has been a most successful physician in his country. He is a wealthy man, worth at least $125,000, but most of this money has been made out of his investments. He is president of two livery stables in the city and another. He is the principal stockholder in the First National Bank of Langdon. He was a member of the executive council from Pembina county in territorial days.

Bird Island Booming.

BIRD ISLAND, Minn., Feb. 24.—T. J. Barrie has sold his property on Bird Island and will remove to New Painesville this week. There will be quite a building boom in this place this year. Several new houses will be built, and a city hall. It is to be of solid brick, two stories. The Catholic society will build a large brick parochial school building. A two-story brick business block, 50x100, will be erected as soon as spring opens, besides a number of residences.

Church and Parsonage Gone.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. STAPLES, Minn., Feb. 24.—The Catholic church and parsonage burned to the ground this morning. The cause was supposed to have caught from a defective flue in the basement.

MONEY FOR AN ARSENAL.

NO PROTEST AGAINST AN INCREASE IN THE APPROPRIATION.

Striking Proof That the Government is Preparing for Contingencies—No Verbal Fireworks in the House, but a Day Devoted Strictly to the Business on Hand.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The house devoted itself strictly to business today and disposed of thirty additional pages of the sundry civil appropriation bill. The fact that the government is preparing for contingencies was recognized in the house today when Chairman Cannon, who has been laboring to keep down appropriations, accepted, without a word of protest, an amendment to increase the appropriation to care for the arsenal machinery at the Springfield arsenal.

Quarantine Law.

Mr. Williams (Dem., Miss.) thought it unfortunate that this great question of a national quarantine had been precipitated in connection with this appropriation. Mr. Underwood opposed exclusive control by the federal government. Mr. Stevens moved to increase the appropriation $200,000, but the amendment was lost.

GAVE UP "EVANGELINE."

Hawthorne Tried to Write a Novel on the Incidents and Gave Up. From the Washington Post. A man from Massachusetts told the following in one of the hotels last night: "Few people know that Hawthorne came near publishing 'Evangeline,' which Longfellow finally wrote, but it is a fact. A few years ago there lived in Salem, Mass., an old gentleman named Horace Ingersoll, who was not related to Bob Ingersoll, but who was a wonderful man in his way. He was a great story teller. Ingersoll heard the story of 'Evangeline' from a woman friend of his who had been spending some time in New England. 'One day the old gentleman, who was a personal friend of both Hawthorne and Longfellow, was dining at Longfellow's home in Cambridge, and Hawthorne was there also. After dinner Ingersoll told to the two writers the story of 'Evangeline,' and Hawthorne decided then and there that he would make a vacancy caused by the death of Lieut. Merritt, of the Maine.

Mr. Stevens (Dem., Tenn.) advocated such a law. He said forty-five different systems in as many states created chaos. On motion of Mr. De Vreys (Dem., Cal.) an amendment was adopted appropriating $2,000 for the Yosemite national park, California. At 5:15 the house adjourned.

WORTHY OF THE NAME.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. BUFFALO, Minn., Feb. 24.—Lawrence Mullin, stabbed Saturday night at a dance, is still alive, but very low, and chances of his recovery about one in a hundred. He has nine stitches taken in sewing up the wound in his arm, and the spinal cord must have been severed by the knife.

RAISING NERVE FOOD.

CARVER, Minn., Feb. 24.—Brisette Bros., the celery growers, have purchased a tract of ninety-six acres, adjoining their celery farm, where they have cultivated and raised fifteen acres and celery the past six years, and will commence raising celery on a larger scale. They will be the largest celery growers in the state next year, and for years to come.

STILLWATER.

STILLWATER, Minn., Feb. 24.—Willis Cass, an employe of the St. Croix Lumber company, was killed by a horse this morning, and it is feared his injuries will prove fatal. He was removed to a hospital in this city. A number of loggers have finished work in a lumbering and their men have returned to Stillwater and other points. A number of concerns are through skidding, and will finish up by the end of the next week. It is generally considered that the little work will be done in the woods after next week. The lumbering season is expected to aggregate from $20,000,000 to $25,000,000. The Hunt Wolf left last evening for the East.

NEW ULM.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. NEW ULM, Feb. 24.—The $30,000 damage suit brought against the Chicago & North Western by Lars P. Larson will be tried here during the next term of court. The city council has received bids for furnishing plans and specifications and estimates of cost for a system of sewerage for the city. The sewerage movement originated and led by the city council. ST. CLOUD.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. ST. CLOUD, Minn., Feb. 24.—David P. Bowers, of Melrose, formerly of this city, was brought to St. Cloud last night by a police officer to serve a sentence of sixty days for beating his wife and smashing his furniture. Bowers is a Great Northern engineer.

ALBERT LEA.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. ALBERT LEA, Feb. 24.—The libel case of the state vs. Clara Johnson came up before Judge Johnson today and a change of venue was granted to Justice of the Peace at Duluth.

SAUK CENTER.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. SAUK CENTER, Minn., Feb. 24.—Mrs. E. J. Lewis entertained the teachers of the public schools at her home last evening. A few friends of the teachers were also present. Hon. Henry Keller is home from the Donnelly wedding. He is expected to return to the city this evening.

FAIRFAX.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. FAIRFAX, Minn., Feb. 24.—W. G. and F. H. Trafton, accompanied by their families, left today for Ancker, where they were to make their future home. A number of revival meetings are being held in the M. E. church here. Some of our young bloods, who are charged with destroying private property at a recent fair, will soon be given an opportunity to prove their innocence.

LITTLE FALLS.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. LITTLE FALLS, Feb. 24.—There seems to be little chance for the recovery of F. Lafond, who is sick with Bright's disease. Hon. A. H. Haines will lecture at the M. E. church Tuesday evening next on "A Walk of the Confederacy."

BUCKINGHAM.

Special to The St. Paul Globe. BUCKINGHAM, Minn., Feb. 24.—The last rites over the body of Frances Willard, president of the W. C. T. U., were performed here today. The city was in mourning, and business houses were closed, and flags put at half-mast out of respect for the dead leader.

EVANSTON.

SMALL CHANCE FOR THE FREE HOMESTED AMENDMENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 24.—Senator Nelson and Speaker Reed discussed free homes and bankruptcy for more than an hour this afternoon. Reed is decidedly opposed to the free homes amendment, which is tacked on to the Indian appropriation bill in the senate. He takes the position that the settlers who contracted to pay a dollar and a quarter for their lands should be held to their contract. On bankruptcy question Nelson and Reed got nearer together, and agreed that many of the provisions of the senate bill should be restored in the bill recently passed by the house. Senator Nelson will be a member of the committee on conference.
