

KEEP UP THE ERWIN JOKE

PATRICK D. SCANNELL NOMINATES HIM FOR MAYOR

The Hero of the Sixt Holds a Little Convention in Market Hall and Places a Ticket in the Field—Populists on Hand to Help Out—The Political Comedy Gets Good.

Patrick Demosthenes Scannell and a score of congenial spirits from the Fourth ward got together in the Market hall yesterday, and then and there nominated William Windyhurst, Jr. as the Populist nominee for mayor. They also filled out a city ticket composed partly of Populists, partly of Scannellites and with a leaven of silver Republicans.

The slate of Scannell has passed into history. It didn't take any slate to keep yesterday's convention in order. A slate would have been necessary to stir up the feelings of the participants to a pitch that would get them in line with the fuglemen who gave the "office" for applause at the proper times and places.

The convention was presided over by the well known Sixth ward jurist, E. H. Wood, and he had not the least trouble in keeping things orderly. He made one speech, and that was when he was nominated for justice, and he pledged himself freely to deal gently with the delegates if ever they came before him in the role of litigants.

The personnel of the convention was remarkable. It was composed for the greater part of men who had sat in the Populist convention of last Wednesday. The ancient man with the venerable beard who had held aloft a rod and laid down the law of primaries to the Populist body was delegate from the Ninth yesterday.

Grant Spicer, whose daily occupations has to do with the reading of orations that nature placed on or about the skull of man that his character might be read therefrom, was a member from the Fifth. He was at the head of the committee on resolutions in the Populist meeting.

"Chicago Garden" Johnson, with his practical whisks, was in the forefront of the First ward delegation. Dick Bell sat among the aristocrats in the Seventh ward seats, and just across the aisle from him sat that sturdy friend of the laboring man, E. Brady. Pat Scannell was there in person from the Fourth and revised the reports of committees.

Judge Card, patriarchal and very distinctive for their part, were distinguished by other gentlemen whose influence in local politics and business life, because of their modest seeming, altogether out of proportion to the great work they have done in behalf of the suffering people of this town.

The Populists were there, because they had been notified that their presence was necessary to fill out the quota of delegates and to give eclat to the indorsement of their nominee for mayor. The others were there because they had been notified that they were wanted by Dick Bell's full list of delegates was not to be had, for there are wards in which Mr. Scannell's memory failed, and it was not possible to think of men to put on the delegations.

The primaries were held the evening before at Scannell headquarters, and were well attended. Business had unfortunately interfered with the attendance of some of the delegates. Under the banner of the Fourth ward delegation, which in former years called for strength of thirty-four delegates, there were gathered seven gentlemen; in the place where the banner of the Seventh indicated that there should be twenty-five delegates, there sat Dick Bell and eight other pieces of the upper crust; the gentleman of the Eighth ward bore a device that showed a strength of forty-eight members, and nine people rattled around in the space.

The routine of the convention was not interrupted by any unseemly outbreaks of factionalism. The gentlemen who held the primary had neglected to provide a contest to give flavor to the proceedings, and the only opposition called out by the nomination of E. H. Wood for chairman was in the breast of every other delegate who thought that Dick might as well have fled that day.

Capt. John C. Hardy fixed a warrior's eye on Dick from the front row and looked as though he might not stand much of this trifling in the interest of the non-titled civilian, when the spirit of the times was military.

W. H. Ehlers and William O'Keefe were made the scribes of the convention, and then there was a committee on permanent organization appointed. It was a good joke, but Mr. Scannell treated it seriously, and everybody else kept his face straight, while the committee was being made up. It consisted of John C. Hardy, John C. Hardy and Duncan Connell. They haven't reported yet.

who are associated with him. The platform is broad, firm and comprehensive, and will not be found elsewhere in this issue.

A person named Ehlers introduced a resolution excommunicating all Democrats from participation in the fruits of the glorious victory that is about to be brought off, unless they vote with the Populists. It was adopted, in the absence of Mr. Scannell.

The report of the committee on resolutions was adopted and nominations were declared in order. Mr. Scannell was willing.

There was somehow but little surprise manifested when H. W. McDonald paid tribute to W. W. Erwin and moved the indorsement of the candidacy of the Populist nominee, G. C. Collins, C. Hardy and Duncan Connell seconded Mr. McDonald's proposition. It was adopted with applause that was boisterous and long continued. In fact it was kept up as long as Mr. Scannell could wave his arm or emit a sound and then Mr. Bell took up the duty and carried the demonstration along to a finish.

Mr. Erwin was sent for. The candidate was profoundly surprised and almost overcome at the honor that had been done him. But he was not too much surprised to make a speech, the one in which he reviewed the history of the human race and proved that most of the ills that men suffer from come from the war of the world's affairs were governed some years ago. He offered to immolate himself; to become a sacrifice to the immortal gods if thereby men could be saved. Some accepted the honor that had been tendered him, with tears in his voice, the same tears that did divorce in the defense of Harry Hayward.

James E. Ekman, who had just come over from the city hall, where he had filed his petition for a place on the ballot, was nominated for comptroller, and he stored the nomination away with that which he received from the Populists last week and which he was anxious to receive from the Democrats when he joined the Fifth Ward Democratic association a couple of weeks ago. He said that he would never ask for a third term. He probably never will.

The nomination for treasurer was a case of form. The feeblest of the men in the meeting wanted R. S. McNamee, the Democratic candidate, who is a prominent member of the Typographical Union, and thoroughly identified with unionism indorsement. They were anxious to understand that this convention was not being held to select men who might be elected and that they should leave the labor question alone.

Peter Metzdorf was nominated for city treasurer. E. Boyer and E. M. Card were named for the municipal bench, and consented to run.

At the afternoon session there was a gentle and well sustained debate on the question of how the candidates for the assembly should be divided. Mr. Scannell had selected them without regard to their place of residence, and some members of the convention had played a good deal of soliloquy because that method of selection might interfere with their taking the seats to which they were at once declared elected.

Mr. McDonald said that it was all right; that the supreme court had decided that they ran at large, and their place of residence was immaterial. Judge Wood said that, if the supreme court had decided that way, then it was time that there were some repairs put on the head of the supreme court. In the interest of what he facetiously called harmony, Mr. Scannell took the report of the committee on assembly nominations and fixed it geographically. The following were declared the nominees for the assembly:

East of Wabasha street, J. J. Cook, Luke McKernan, B. P. Gray, Charles Curry; West of Wabasha street, J. O'Brien, P. M. Qvist, Peter Max, A. N. Craighead. The member from the Sixth ward was not named.

The aldermanic nominations were: Second ward, William Rinck; Fourth ward, J. E. Dempsey; Sixth ward, Thomas Youl; Ninth ward, David Pitzler; Tenth ward, F. A. Pike; Eleventh ward, P. M. Schwartz. The members were left open in the First, Third, Fifth and Eighth wards.

E. H. Slater and E. H. Wood were nominated for justice in the two districts of the city.

A resolution was added to the platform at the instance of Miss Bee Taylor of E. H. Wood for chairman was in the breast of every other delegate who thought that Dick might as well have fled that day.

WILL PAY FOR A SOLUTION

LAMBERT LAKE MYSTERY COMES UP AGAIN

County Commissioners of Ramsey County Will Pay $500 for the Identification of the Body—Offer $1,000 to Anyone Who Will Give Information Which Will Lead to the Conviction of the Murderers.

The Lambert Lake mystery will be again brought to the attention of the public within a few days by the action taken by the board of county commissioners offering a reward for the solution of the case.

At an executive session of the county commissioners March 7, the following resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote: That the county commissioners of Ramsey county authorize the payment of a reward of $500 for the identification of the body of the woman found at Lambert Lake in November last, and that the sum of $1,000 be paid for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers.

This action of the commissioners was not made public owing to the request made by Sheriff Wagner, who has devoted considerable time and money in an endeavor to solve the mystery.

Assistant County Attorney Zollman, asked yesterday about the action of the commissioners in offering the reward, appeared surprised, and at first said he knew nothing about it. He afterwards admitted that the county board had taken the action stated above, but had refrained from making the matter public at the request of Sheriff Wagner, who was working on the case.

"Sheriff Wagner explained to the board," said Mr. Zollman, "that he had been to considerable expense in the case, and thought if there was to be any reward offered he should have the first chance at it. For this reason the offering of the reward was held back until the next meeting of the board, which will be held a week from tomorrow."

"At that time the action of the commissioners will be made public and circulars containing a copy of the resolution will be sent to all the police officials in the city, and the public will be given a chance to participate in the solving of the mystery."

FOREIGN MISSION WORK. Women of the Methodist Church to Meet in St. Paul.

An all-day foreign missionary meeting of the Methodist women of the state will be held in the First M. E. church in this city next Wednesday, April 13, that being the occasion of the second quarterly meeting of the Minneapolis branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society.

The morning session will begin with a devotional meeting, at 9:30, in charge of Mrs. F. B. Cowgill, followed by the roll call and appointments of committees.

Reports from the various conferences will be made as follows: Minnesota, Mrs. B. Langley; Dakota, Mrs. L. P. Hauser; North Dakota, Mrs. M. V. Knox; German, Mrs. L. Schneider, and Northwest German, Mrs. Wellenmeyer.

Mrs. W. Hall, branch treasurer, will present her reports, and "Our Thankoffering service" will be reported on by the various auxiliary presidents.

Mrs. C. S. Winchell, corresponding secretary, will report on the work of the branch, and the Quarterly Review, the branch paper, will be presented by its editor, Mrs. A. W. Grant. Mrs. M. A. Luley will close the morning session with prayer. During the recess, Miss Mabel Martin, in charge of the bureau of supplies, will present them to the ladies. Basket lunch will be served at 12:30.

The afternoon will open with a consecration service in charge of Mrs. B. Langley. "News From the Field" will be given by Mrs. Winchell in the shape of letters from the various missions. Mrs. D. B. Gardner will read a paper on "The Physicians of Heathendom, and Our Medical Missionaries." Miss Quinn will present the cause of the mite boxes with children's exercise. The committee reports and miscellaneous business will close the afternoon.

About Wool Dress Goods.

It is a common thing to assert superiority of styles and qualities in newspaper advertisements. In fact, stores that sell the poorest goods talk loudest about qualities.

You know our qualities, so it's useless to say anything about them. Goodness and cheapness go hand in hand here. We will therefore content ourselves in saying that our present stock of Dress Goods—Novelties as well as Staples—is, we think, a little better than in any former season.

For tailor gowns we show all the popular weaves—Vigoureux, Granites, Pebble, Surah Twills, Coverts and Venetian. Prices, 75c to $2.00 the yard.

Novelties in Bayadere, Grecian and Serpentine effects, $1.25 to $2.00 the yard. New Satin Cloths, with bright colored backs which light up the face of the goods, $1.75 the yard. Ottoman Cords, $2.25 Poplin Cords, $1.50 Velour Cords, $2.00

Three Great Specials for Monday:

- Strictly All-Wool Serges, in all colors except black, full 50 inches wide (note the width), only 31c each. A broken lot of fine twill, strictly pure Wool Serges, in colors, full 45 inches wide, Monday only 25c each. Navy Blue Storm Serges, 45 inches wide, crisp, sharp finish, the best value we have shown in a long time. Special price 50c each.

Black Dress Goods Specials.

When you pay for a black dress here the transaction is NOT ended. If the dress should for some reason or other give unsatisfactory wear, tell us about it and we'll make it right.

Some special things for Monday which don't need poster type to show their cheapness.

- Fancy Soleil Suitings, $1.50 quality, for $1.25. Fancy Etamines, 65c and 75c qualities, for 49 cents. Fine Chevots, 50 inches wide, $1.00 values, for 69 cents. "Gold Medal" Granites, $1.25 quality, for $1.00. Storm Serges, our regular 75c quality, for 59 cents. Clay Worsteds—the right weights and finish for Capes and Jackets—57 inches wide, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.50.

The Wanted New Silks.

This heading tells the story. We have the Silks that are wanted nowadays—newest styles and best qualities. Silks which proclaim the wearer a judge of style and taste; Silks which will give satisfactory wear. For such Silks we are acknowledged leaders by every well posted woman. Such Silks we sell cheapest.

THAT WONDERFUL One Dollar Table will be replenished for tomorrow's selling. We will add to the former assortment 25 pieces of Swell Plaids with satin bars, worth $1.50 and $1.75 a yard. We will add some new Bayaderes with satin bars (for fancy waists), worth $1.25 and $1.50 a yard. And we will add 350 waist lengths in Plaids, Checks, Blocks and Stripes, many of which are worth $1.50, $1.75 and even $2.00 a yard. Choice of the entire collection for $1.00 One Dollar $1.00 a yard tomorrow. We believe this offering cannot be matched anywhere—certainly not in the Twin Cities.

See the beautiful colored Grenadines in single dress patterns. See the Black Novelty Grenadines, prices $10.00 to $38.00 a pattern.

See the Black Novelty Grenadines, 46 inches wide, at $1.25, $1.35, $1.50 and $2.00. Hemstitched Grenadines, 46 inches wide, a six-yard dress length for only $6.00. New York price is $1.50 the yard.

New Plaid Silks in bright colorings, only 48 cents. New Chev's and Stripes in swell designs, only 49 cents. New Taffeta Plaids, Checks and Stripes, only 69 cents. Fancy Checks with satin figures, only 75 cents. New Block Patterns, large and small, only 75 cents. New Striped Rustle Taffetas for Petticoats, extra heavy and rustling, 24 inches wide, 85c and $1.00.

See our Fifth Street Window for scarce shades of Rustle Taffetas.

Our Lining Leaders.

Occasionally our prices may be matched elsewhere. But what about quality in such cases? The fact remains we sell best qualities cheaper than any other house in the Twin Cities.

Here are the proofs for Monday: Light weight English Moreen in Plaids and Stripes, the best 60c and 75c qualities, tomorrow only 49c.

Genuine French Haireloth—the best made in the world, none better at any price, bought direct from the maker, Black and Gray, all you want tomorrow—one day only—19c for...

Superfine Rustle Taffeta with a brilliant Silk finish and soft, silky rustle, Black and Colors, better than some stores' 20c qualities, all you want tomorrow, for 10c.

Best 15c Silesias, all colors, 10c. 20c Fast Black Percales, 12 1/2c. 15c Black Percales, 10c.

The best Lining Cambrics made in America, guaranteed first quality, not seconds; 100 pieces will be on sale tomorrow, and you may have all you want of them, at 3c.

Standard Paper Patterns are strictly up-to-date in every particular—best fitting and most economical in cutting materials. You save much more than their cost in the saving of materials.

MAY STYLES and Publications are now on sale.

Tailor-made Suits

Hundreds here for your choosing. You may find similar cloths elsewhere, but the similarity ends right there. Our style; are different—trimmings out of the ordinary, tailoring and finish have the custom-made appearance.

More than that—our prices are lower than you are asked to pay for the ordinary kinds elsewhere.

Two Rousing Specials for Monday: Tailor-made Suits in Russian Blue, two-button Box Coat, fly from Reeser and Cutaway styles, in all the fashionable materials and colors. Lowest values $17.50 to $22.50. Choice tomorrow $16.50.

Highest grade Tailor-made Suits and strictly exclusive styles—handsomely braided Broadcloths, Coverts and Poplins, some silk-lined throughout. Suits worth $24.00, $26.50 and $29.50. Choice tomorrow for $22.50.

A Jacket Bargain.

The sales of Spring Jackets last week were the largest in the store's history. Three of our leading lines were broken—the $9.75, $10.75 and $11.50 lines. All that are left will be closed out tomorrow at $8.75 each.

The very fact that the lines are broken proves that they are the most popular in the entire stock.

Half-Price Wash Goods.

In the Domestic Room. A brand new lot of Fine Lawns and Dimities will make their first appearance tomorrow. They are standard 10c qualities, and they will be sold at exactly half-price tomorrow, 5 Cents a yard, but not more than two dress lengths to one buyer.

Ladies' Underwear.

Winter Underwear is getting to be pretty uncomfortable these days. It's time to think of lighter weights.

We'll give you a chance to save money tomorrow on three different lines of Underwear.

"Munsing" light weight Wool Combination Suits, with long sleeves, just the thing for present wear; regular $2.25 Suits, tomorrow $1.85.

HALF-PRICE. A line of "Munsing" Ribbed Lisle Combination Suits, with long sleeves. These sell regular for $1.00. Take them tomorrow for 50c.

Plain and Fancy Lisle and Balbriggan low neck Vests, excellent garments, tomorrow only 25c.

"Mattelutz" Steam Shruak Sanitary Vests and Pants are the best made in the world. They're not expensive.

For Men.

If the Shirt business of this town can be cornered by selling best Shirts at lowest prices, we shall corner it this season.

We have the Shirts and we shall make the prices. Men's Madras Shirts, woven colors, laundered soft, without collars, extra special values at 50 CENTS.

Laundered Percal Shirts with attached collars and cuffs, actual 75c values, for 50 CENTS.

Men's Shirts made of imported Madras Cloths, with one pair of detached link cuffs, to be worn with white collars, extraordinary good Shirts, for $1.00.

Ribbed Merino Combination Suits, $1.75. Genuine "Bon Bon" (French) Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, double stitched seams, the best you will ever see for 50 CENTS.

MAIL ORDERS always receive our best care. Orders for samples receive as careful attention as orders for goods.
