

GRIFFIN CALLS ON HORTON

THE REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE WANTED TO SEE HIM

The "Mayor" of Seventh Street Gets Some Instructions From the Chairman of the Campaign Committee—Looking After the "Push"—Members of the Police Force Campaigning.

"Red" Griffin had an interview with Chairman Hiller Horton, of the Republican city committee, yesterday afternoon, and it's all fixed. "Griff" is out for Kiefer, and his unholy cohorts were in line last night. The arrangement was made yesterday afternoon. At 4:05 Mr. Griffin made his way to Republican headquarters. At 4:06 he was in consultation with Hiller Horton. He was sent for.

W. H. "Mayor" Griffin and Chairman Hiller Horton Get Their Heads Together at Republican Headquarters.

He growled, picked up a bottle or two and glanced at their contents. "Good thing," he said. "Goin' ter do anything dis mornin', Griff? Me pipes is clogged," said "Short Change" Slim. "I'll do something with a lot of you mugs if something don't happen soon," said Mr. Griffin. Then he went off and sat by himself in the back room. The gang drew up the end of the bar and waited for a "live one," and the while they listened to the complaint of a gentleman who told how he could bring off a good thing if "Griff" would only furnish a roll and let him "spit the nuts"—meaning that he would be pleased to have an opportunity to do a little in the way of thimble rigging.

VERXAL

Seventh and Cedar Sts. Tel. 732. Meat Market, 782.

- 5 cents A pound for Ripe, Fresh Pie Plant. 5 cents A can for 3-pound cans of Booth's String Beans. 2 cents A bag for 3-pound bags of best New York Table Salt, soft and clean. 5 cents A pound package of Dwight's Soda or Arm and Hammer Brand Soda. 3 cents A pound for Choice New Muscatel Raisins. 5 cents A pound for Pure Rendered Lard. 9 cents A can for good Petit Pois French Peas. 6 cents A package for Preston's Sickle Brand of wheat flakes; usual price 12c; as good as any Breakfast Food put up. 8 cents A dozen boxes of parlor matches. Red Rolls, Buns and Bread every afternoon at 5 o'clock. Put a dozen of our Butter Rolls on your next order; they are ready early every morning; are good all day. 25 Pounds Of good Brown Sugar for one dollar. 1 1/2 cents A pound for new Van Boans. 2 cents A pound for fresh new Rolled Oats. 3 cents A pound for best Lima Beans. 5 cents A can for good, fresh Condensed Cream. 10 cents For 10-lb. bags best Granulated Cornmeal. 17 cents For 10-lb. bags of the very best Pure Buckwheat. 8 cents A pound for Sugar-cured Hams, in our Meat Market. A large shipment of fresh Fish will arrive by express this morning. Fancy Grouse Seedling Oranges, the finest in this market. 20c Good, fair size, per doz. 1.50c Large size, per doz. 1.80c Extra size, per doz. 2.20c Fancy Camelia Navel Oranges, very Sweet and Thin Skin. 20c Good, fair size, per doz. 1.50c Large size, per doz. 1.80c Extra size, per doz. 2.20c Malta Blood Oranges, per doz. 1.25c came from the Doran crowd and told him that, if he showed up at the primaries, his place would be pulled before midnight. He took the precaution of falling ill and escaped his trouble, but the "push" was sore.

Since the convention he has been bullied until he doesn't know what to do. Doran is still mayor, and the police could not turn down a direct order from him. He knew better, the mayor felt about the local situation than he had before kept off until he was told to go. As a result, he and his people have been comparatively idle, although he has been itching to get out and talk Kiefer. He thought this all over, and at 3 o'clock he left his place and went off in the direction of police headquarters. He came back a half hour later and asked the gang to have a drink. Ten minutes later there came in a man who communicated something in private to Mr. Griffin. Whereupon he bought another drink, and "Shoe String Charlie" told "Door Mat Jimmy" that something must have happened.

When "Griff" went out, he made straight for Republican headquarters. A few minutes later Hiller Horton was sitting beside a bald-headed man at a desk. The chairman had his glasses on, and he was making figures. Selby's desk was closed, but the secretary's secretary was making out a list of the candidates on the Kiefer ticket and on, and he was making figures. Selby's desk was closed, but the secretary's secretary was making out a list of the candidates on the Kiefer ticket and on, and he was making figures.

SECOND WARD MEETING

A Big Crowd Listens to Many Good Speeches. The third weekly meeting of the Second Ward Young Men's Schifmann Democratic Club was held at the corner of First and Second streets, last night. The meeting was the largest and most enthusiastic since the organization of the club, three weeks ago. J. E. McDonnell presided in the absence of Dr. Joseph McCormick. The call for the meeting had been read by the secretary, J. E. Ryan, who delivered the principal address of the evening.

Mr. Kane complimented the young men of the Second ward on the organization of so strong and stalwart a club. He scored the present administration, particularly the residences. There he makes him conspicuous even among his own well-groomed crowd, looked up at his work, extended his hand, walked across the room and remarked: "How d'ye do, Mr. Griffin; I'm glad to see you."

JOHNNIE LARSON, STAND UP.

See here, Larson! You have been alderman from the Ninth ward for two years, haven't you? Nothing that you have done can be used to prove it! That's all right. We will admit that you have been, for the sake of argument. What have you done for the Ninth ward or for the city? Have you ever even opened your face in the council chamber? Did you ever have a plank of sidewalk laid in your ward? Did you ever have an electric light or an additional lamp post put up in the ward? Did you not tell Mabon, of the board of public works, that you hadn't heard that there was a demand for lights in your ward? Did you not go to him later and tell him that if there were not some lights put up in the ward you would have trouble? Did you ever get the lights? Did you ever get away from him again? Who are you anyway? How many people do you know in the block in which you live? Did you ever do anything worthy of record in the council but vote for the extension of the street railway franchise? You are on trial for your office now. Answer these questions or the people will answer them for you. In that event your finish is plain.

FELDHAUSER ON A WAR PATH

HEARS SOME OF THE REPORTS USED AGAINST HIM

Is Going After Harry T. Blake With an Affidavit—Capt. Burger Decries the Kiefer People, and Will Fight It Out, on Those Lines—Dr. E. M. Whitcomb Denies a Campaign Slander.

Edward Feldhauser is going to make trouble for some of the Seventh ward Republicans who were in the fight against him for the nomination for mayor. He has an affidavit sworn to by E. M. Van Duzee, of the Municipal Reform league, that he says he will show down the throat of Harry T. Blake—and he is not going to wait for Mr. Drake to come around and have his oesophagus crossed. Mr. Feldhauser is looking for him.

STAND UP, MR. HORST!

Look here, Horst! You are the city treasurer, aren't you? You'll have to ask McCurdy about it! Well, we won't quarrel. Let it be agreed that you are the city treasurer when McCurdy is willing. You'll admit that you were in the place a year ago last winter that you are now, won't you? That you and McCurdy, between you, have, and had, are, were, or about the 14th day of December, 1896, gathered up about $20,000 of the city's money and taken it to Messrs. Bickel and Scheffer, at the Allemanbank, and gave that money into their keeping? You did that, didn't you?

Just that purpose. In fact, he didn't say anything about the ticket, but he did say a good deal about Drake, and he said "what he said was in the way of invective coupled with a declaration to the effect that he was going to "get" Mr. Drake and some others. He had with him an affidavit, which he said would make all sorts of trouble for Drake. He explained why:

It seems that in those days when Feldhauser and Donahower and Doran, all had their eyes, they were all approached by members of the Municipal Reform league and sounded as to their views on certain matters pertaining to the city government. Mr. Van Duzee went to see Mr. Feldhauser. He wanted to know about him particularly. Mr. Feldhauser asked why, and he said that he had been told that he was a drunkard, and that he was in the habit of drinking. Mr. Feldhauser got hot and asked him where he got his information. Mr. Van Duzee said that he got it from H. T. Drake, of the Republican city committee. Then he went into details as to what Mr. Drake said, and Mr. Feldhauser was furious.

JOHNNIE LARSON, STAND UP.

See here, Larson! You have been alderman from the Ninth ward for two years, haven't you? Nothing that you have done can be used to prove it! That's all right. We will admit that you have been, for the sake of argument. What have you done for the Ninth ward or for the city? Have you ever even opened your face in the council chamber? Did you ever have a plank of sidewalk laid in your ward? Did you ever have an electric light or an additional lamp post put up in the ward? Did you not tell Mabon, of the board of public works, that you hadn't heard that there was a demand for lights in your ward? Did you not go to him later and tell him that if there were not some lights put up in the ward you would have trouble? Did you ever get the lights? Did you ever get away from him again? Who are you anyway? How many people do you know in the block in which you live? Did you ever do anything worthy of record in the council but vote for the extension of the street railway franchise? You are on trial for your office now. Answer these questions or the people will answer them for you. In that event your finish is plain.

JOHNNIE LARSON, STAND UP.

make good the threat to wrest his pension from him, he would depend on the efforts of the government to balk the efforts of a vindictive politician. As for his son's place in the office of the treasurer, why they didn't dare to put him in the election should be a position to get rid of him, why every young man could find something else to do.

FELDHAUSER ON A WAR PATH

HEARS SOME OF THE REPORTS USED AGAINST HIM

Is Going After Harry T. Blake With an Affidavit—Capt. Burger Decries the Kiefer People, and Will Fight It Out, on Those Lines—Dr. E. M. Whitcomb Denies a Campaign Slander.

Edward Feldhauser is going to make trouble for some of the Seventh ward Republicans who were in the fight against him for the nomination for mayor. He has an affidavit sworn to by E. M. Van Duzee, of the Municipal Reform league, that he says he will show down the throat of Harry T. Blake—and he is not going to wait for Mr. Drake to come around and have his oesophagus crossed. Mr. Feldhauser is looking for him.

STAND UP, MR. HORST!

Look here, Horst! You are the city treasurer, aren't you? You'll have to ask McCurdy about it! Well, we won't quarrel. Let it be agreed that you are the city treasurer when McCurdy is willing. You'll admit that you were in the place a year ago last winter that you are now, won't you? That you and McCurdy, between you, have, and had, are, were, or about the 14th day of December, 1896, gathered up about $20,000 of the city's money and taken it to Messrs. Bickel and Scheffer, at the Allemanbank, and gave that money into their keeping? You did that, didn't you?

Just that purpose. In fact, he didn't say anything about the ticket, but he did say a good deal about Drake, and he said "what he said was in the way of invective coupled with a declaration to the effect that he was going to "get" Mr. Drake and some others. He had with him an affidavit, which he said would make all sorts of trouble for Drake. He explained why:

It seems that in those days when Feldhauser and Donahower and Doran, all had their eyes, they were all approached by members of the Municipal Reform league and sounded as to their views on certain matters pertaining to the city government. Mr. Van Duzee went to see Mr. Feldhauser. He wanted to know about him particularly. Mr. Feldhauser asked why, and he said that he had been told that he was a drunkard, and that he was in the habit of drinking. Mr. Feldhauser got hot and asked him where he got his information. Mr. Van Duzee said that he got it from H. T. Drake, of the Republican city committee. Then he went into details as to what Mr. Drake said, and Mr. Feldhauser was furious.

JOHNNIE LARSON, STAND UP.

See here, Larson! You have been alderman from the Ninth ward for two years, haven't you? Nothing that you have done can be used to prove it! That's all right. We will admit that you have been, for the sake of argument. What have you done for the Ninth ward or for the city? Have you ever even opened your face in the council chamber? Did you ever have a plank of sidewalk laid in your ward? Did you ever have an electric light or an additional lamp post put up in the ward? Did you not tell Mabon, of the board of public works, that you hadn't heard that there was a demand for lights in your ward? Did you not go to him later and tell him that if there were not some lights put up in the ward you would have trouble? Did you ever get the lights? Did you ever get away from him again? Who are you anyway? How many people do you know in the block in which you live? Did you ever do anything worthy of record in the council but vote for the extension of the street railway franchise? You are on trial for your office now. Answer these questions or the people will answer them for you. In that event your finish is plain.

JOHNNIE LARSON, STAND UP.

make good the threat to wrest his pension from him, he would depend on the efforts of the government to balk the efforts of a vindictive politician. As for his son's place in the office of the treasurer, why they didn't dare to put him in the election should be a position to get rid of him, why every young man could find something else to do.

FELDHAUSER ON A WAR PATH

HEARS SOME OF THE REPORTS USED AGAINST HIM

Is Going After Harry T. Blake With an Affidavit—Capt. Burger Decries the Kiefer People, and Will Fight It Out, on Those Lines—Dr. E. M. Whitcomb Denies a Campaign Slander.

Edward Feldhauser is going to make trouble for some of the Seventh ward Republicans who were in the fight against him for the nomination for mayor. He has an affidavit sworn to by E. M. Van Duzee, of the Municipal Reform league, that he says he will show down the throat of Harry T. Blake—and he is not going to wait for Mr. Drake to come around and have his oesophagus crossed. Mr. Feldhauser is looking for him.

STAND UP, MR. HORST!

Look here, Horst! You are the city treasurer, aren't you? You'll have to ask McCurdy about it! Well, we won't quarrel. Let it be agreed that you are the city treasurer when McCurdy is willing. You'll admit that you were in the place a year ago last winter that you are now, won't you? That you and McCurdy, between you, have, and had, are, were, or about the 14th day of December, 1896, gathered up about $20,000 of the city's money and taken it to Messrs. Bickel and Scheffer, at the Allemanbank, and gave that money into their keeping? You did that, didn't you?

Just that purpose. In fact, he didn't say anything about the ticket, but he did say a good deal about Drake, and he said "what he said was in the way of invective coupled with a declaration to the effect that he was going to "get" Mr. Drake and some others. He had with him an affidavit, which he said would make all sorts of trouble for Drake. He explained why:

It seems that in those days when Feldhauser and Donahower and Doran, all had their eyes, they were all approached by members of the Municipal Reform league and sounded as to their views on certain matters pertaining to the city government. Mr. Van Duzee went to see Mr. Feldhauser. He wanted to know about him particularly. Mr. Feldhauser asked why, and he said that he had been told that he was a drunkard, and that he was in the habit of drinking. Mr. Feldhauser got hot and asked him where he got his information. Mr. Van Duzee said that he got it from H. T. Drake, of the Republican city committee. Then he went into details as to what Mr. Drake said, and Mr. Feldhauser was furious.

JOHNNIE LARSON, STAND UP.

See here, Larson! You have been alderman from the Ninth ward for two years, haven't you? Nothing that you have done can be used to prove it! That's all right. We will admit that you have been, for the sake of argument. What have you done for the Ninth ward or for the city? Have you ever even opened your face in the council chamber? Did you ever have a plank of sidewalk laid in your ward? Did you ever have an electric light or an additional lamp post put up in the ward? Did you not tell Mabon, of the board of public works, that you hadn't heard that there was a demand for lights in your ward? Did you not go to him later and tell him that if there were not some lights put up in the ward you would have trouble? Did you ever get the lights? Did you ever get away from him again? Who are you anyway? How many people do you know in the block in which you live? Did you ever do anything worthy of record in the council but vote for the extension of the street railway franchise? You are on trial for your office now. Answer these questions or the people will answer them for you. In that event your finish is plain.

JOHNNIE LARSON, STAND UP.

make good the threat to wrest his pension from him, he would depend on the efforts of the government to balk the efforts of a vindictive politician. As for his son's place in the office of the treasurer, why they didn't dare to put him in the election should be a position to get rid of him, why every young man could find something else to do.

You cannot afford to pay less than our prices—nor can you afford to pay more. How can you afford to pay more or less than the RIGHT price? Our store will be closed 12 noon Friday until Saturday morning, because of the death of Henry W. King, senior member of the firm of H. W. King & Co.

SHOP BY MAIL. BROWNING, KING & CO. Seventh and Robert.

In the present campaign, Kiefer will spend practically all of his time in there to make good his claim to a part of the German vote. The Democrat-Citizen's managers have made up their minds that the majority in the Eighth must be normal and the consequence is that the big guns in both parties will be kept playing every evening.

BIG DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Will Be Held Next Thursday Night in the Third Ward. At a meeting of the Third Ward Democratic campaign committee, held at the Rosalind street headquarters last evening, arrangements were perfected for a grand Democratic rally and mass meeting of the ward voters to be held at the new hall, 318-320 East Seventh street, Thursday, April 21.

FOURTH WARD COMMITTEE

Met at Headquarters in Endicott Arcade Last Night. The Fourth ward campaign committee held an unusually satisfactory meeting at the Democrat-Citizen city committee headquarters in the Endicott Arcade last evening.

FIRST WARD DEMOCRATS.

A Rousing Meeting Held Last Night and Addressed by A. B. Oviatt. The First Ward Schifmann club held a rousing meeting at its hall, 565 Decatur street, last evening. The attendance was large and there was no lack of enthusiasm.

CHILLY RECEPTION.

Col. A. R. Kiefer Insists on Invading the Sixth Ward. Col. Kiefer insists on visiting the West side, no matter whether he finds a warm or chilly welcome.

GERMANS WILL ORGANIZE.

Will Form a Schifmann Club at St. Francis' Hall Saturday Night. A business meeting of the Fifth ward Democratic committee of the Fifth ward was held last evening at 414 Smith avenue and considerable routine work in the interests of the Democratic ticket was disposed of.

GERMANS WILL ORGANIZE.

Another Hebrew Club. A number of Hebrews met in Reardon's hall, last night, and organized a Hebrew Democratic club. The Republican ticket in its entirety was endorsed. Speeches were made by Col. Kiefer, C. L. Horst, Capt. Gall, Judge Orr, R. C. Hine and Building Inspector Hirs.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

All of the precinct committees of the Fifth ward will meet this (Thursday) evening at 414 Smith avenue. David Peebles and others will speak.

OUR WARSHIPS.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures whooping cough, and the best remedy for Diarrhea. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Put in glass bottles and sealed with "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

"There's the rub." (Hamlet.) The "rub" in one hand, and the effect of it in the other. Good design for a soap "ad."—isn't it? Question of health, if nothing else, ought to make you give up this wearing washboard rubbing with soap, and take up the sensible way of washing with Pearlina—soaking, boiling, rinsing. The washboard rubbing, done in the midst of soiled clothes and tainted steam is harmful to any woman. If you think it isn't, you'd better think again.