It is rather dirty politics to accuse Ed Murphy of being in any way responsible for the demonstration that took place at Harbeck's hall Sunday night. Mr. Murphy has at all times besought his friends to keep away from Republican meetings if they didn't want to hear him abused. Democrats are pretty numerous in the Ninth this spring, and there has not been a meeting at which there have not been seen Democrats present and Democratic cheers given. So it was Sunday night. The people in the neighborhood of Harbeck's are for Murphy to a man, and when he was abused they howled the speaker down. Inasmuch as it was a public meeting, and people were gathered to discuss the campaign, people might easily argue that the majority of the people in the meeting were justified in shouting for their candidate.

t credit to the police force, Joe Davis, Fifth ward, spent Sunday in a most able occupation: Passing out copies of rilous political paper containing attacks a scurrilous political paper containing attacks on Dr. Schiffmann and the other members of one of the old school boards. As Davis is still a member of the police force some of the captious ones might complain that he was illy employed distributing libelous matter about the man who will be at the head of the police as well as the other city departments after the first of the coming month.

The Dispatch says that Kaldunski has not shied at a bicycle for over a year. But that is not the best kind of evidence.

The talk about the Democrat-Citizens' campaign having been made with thousands of kegs of beer is of a piece w the the campaigns tories that preceded it. It has been harped on for the last few days by the Republican evening organ to such an extent that it has become nauseating. No one is likely to associate Dr. Schiffmann or the gentlemen who have running with him as the sort of menlikely to do anything in politics that they would not do n private life. The libel is no more worth refuting than any of the other scurrilous stuff that has emanated from the people in the lead of the poposition.

It would be provided for the working men to remember temorrow that the Republican convent on did not think it worth while to put a representative of labor on the teket.

The indorsement that has been given by the labor unions to Bantz, Gleason, McNamee and Nash is not of the kind that was forced from the barber's union for their jester, Erwin. If the Scannellites had been sincere in their protestations of sympathy for the laborer why did they not indorse the active union workmen?

REPUBLICANS ADMIT HE CAN-NOT BE DEFEATED

Klefer May Not Carry a Ward in the City Except the First .--Things Look Good for Both the Aldermanic and Assembly Tickets of the Democrat-Citizens-Will

It is all over, and all that is necessary for the Democrat-Citizens of this town to do this morning is to vote early and straight Dr. Schiffmann will be elected. That

Dr. Schiffmann will be elected. That is absolutely certain.

The Republican city committee admitted that it was not possible that he could be defeated, last night.

They had done all that could be done at the last moment by casting an anchor to windward by trying to make people think that Erwin is an issue in the campaign. He is not, and by no possibility can he cut any figure, for he will only get the disaffected vote that went to Doran two years ago. This may give him a couple of thousand votes.

This may give him a couple of thousand votes.

It is conceded by every one who makes any pretense of knowing anything about politics that there is not a man in the city who voted for Mr. Cullen who will not vote for Dr. Schiffmann. There is no possible reason for supposing that one of these Cullen votes will ever go to Erwin, and their going to Kiefer is out of the question. The Cullen vote was 9,800, and that elects, with three candidates in the field, one of whom will get a couple of thousand. If there has been any change in the vote, it is in the First ward, where Erwin has gone outside of the lines laid down for him by his Republican managers and has gone after votes. He will get a good gone after votes. He will get a good deal of the vote in that ward that went to Doran, and that will, of course, not hurt Schiffmann.

Kiefer's Cheap Bid.

The Eighth, in which Kiefer tried to do some business by appealing to na-Schiffmann. The colonel's cheap bid Schiffmann. The colonel's cheap bid for the German vote is taken as an insult by the German leaders, and he will get so little of it that his power in local politics will be practically broken tonight.

Sharood was the only member of the Republican city committee who thought that there was any chance of the election of Kiefer. He really thought so, and he won't come out of his trance until tonight. He has been in the First ward during the whole of the campaign, and has not spoken to anybody but those who would vote for the Republican ticket if it were headed by a yellow dog. He is not to be blamed for his ideas.

Look out for the campaign roorback. It is hardly necessary to warn the people, but it is likely to take such a seeming as to claim some sort of recognition.

Last night there was a couple of sheets whose sponsors would be put in jail at any other season, if they could be found, being circulated on the streets. They contained a rehash of the scurrious imputations on the school board of ten years ago and are not likely to create any opportunity to make a point by bringing something out that might defeat Dr Schiffmann immediately ceased the publication of the school board stuff as soon as it was shown by The G1 o be that the figures that it had published were incorrect.

Reek and the Funds. sonal character of Dr. Schiffmann this last charge is silly.

The fact is, that he is so far desirous of not doing anything in the campaign that might be a reflection on him afterwards that feel has deliberately opposed having anything said or done for him that would be in the nature of a personal attack on his opponents. He goes on the assumption that he will only be mayor for a couple of years in any event, and that he will live in St. Paul all his life. He will not do that to get himself elected to office that might put him on disagreeable terms with his fellow citizens.

This is a state of mind that cannot be appreciated by the professional office-seeker, who justifies all things in a campaign. If the Dr. Schiffmann had not felt so strongly in this matter there might have been a very different campaign made, considering the vurnerability of the people in the lead of the opposition.

The doctor has done nothing in this came onal character of Dr. Schiffmann this last Beek and the Funds.

Horton and Selb expressed themelves, officially, as being convinced that the colonel was all right. Beek, the treasurer of the committee, had nothing to do, for the funds had all been promised to the men who will do the in grafters who have tried to work him, and he is one of the few men who have run for the office of mayor in this town who has kept well within the legal limits of the existence of mayor in this town who has kept well within the legal limits of the existence of mayor without electing a city council that is in sympathy with him. Vote the ticket straight. You could not possibly find better men for the places than those named on the Democrat-Citizens' ticket.

In voting for assemblymen, after you have voted for the seven Democrat-Citizens that murity you see the names of Nash and Enoch Johnson. Don't forget that they belong to the ticket.

What is the use of electing to office a man who has taken over a hundred thousand dollars out of the public purse and still is of so little use in the community that he has a residence only where he happens to hang his hat, and whose home is in a folding bed in a corner of his office? Kiefer has no more to do with the social life of this community that he had to do with Washington when he lost himself in the basement of the capitol.

Not a Precinct for E

There was comparatively little betting yesterday. The Republicans demanded odds and were accommodated to some extent. There was some beteasy money went on the proposition that Erwin would not carry a precinct in the city. This was regarded as cinch. There is not the slightest chance for him to carry a precinct. A little Republican money was put on the proposition that Erwin will have 3,000 votes, but it is easy enough money many votes it would be necessary for him to get an average of twenty-five votes in a precinct. As there are fifty precincts in the city where he will no receive a vote, there is no possibility of him getting the 3,000.

Pike's Winning Fight.

The only real contest that there in the city is for alderman out in the Tenth. Pike will probably be elected. He is quite confident, and Allard lacks the only strength he had two years ago-the Prohibition vote. In the other wards, excepting the First and Seventh.

Majority for Smith.

Smith will have a clear majority in the Second. Terry Kenny has not the least possible show in the Third. Sternberg has put up a campaign that would credit a run for any office, and he has the business interests with him to a

In the Fourth, Anton Miesen will get up to Wabasha street with 300 to the good. His majority depends on what the other end of the ward does. Donahower may carry the other end, but it is very unlikely.

The Republican methods have elected Gleason in the Fifth. The Seven Corners' druggist who is against him would be a strong enough man outside of the ward, but he will not know that he has been running when only the ward vote is involved.

wheeling interests, performed its duty conscientiously.

Being a candidate myself for the assembly, I have taken no part in the committee's action, nor have I been informed of its intended action on any of these matters. Dr. Schiffmann stated to me, on April 25, that he had received a communication from the committee, and that he had directed a favorable answer to be given to the inquirers. He stated that he would do what was right for the wheelmen. I did not convey these statements to the committee because I did not wish to interfere in any way with its action, and I supposed that the committee had Dr. Schiffmann's written reply in its possession.

I write this without Dr. Schiffmann's knowledge or consent. Very truly yours. Baer and the Street Railway. The Sixth ward has witnessed a contest on the issues involved, and Bell has been beaten on his record in the council. The attempt to send the Bell strength to Yould, the Scannellite, has failed utterly, and Baer will, in all probability, have a clear majority. Barton Has a Chance.

Barton has a running chance in the Seventh. Sanborn has the ward tolerably well in hand, so far as the Republican organization is concerned, and would have easy running under other circumstances. As it is, he has a strong professional man, against whom there cannot be a word said, running against him, and he will be kept busy.

Bantz and Murphy. It is doubtful whether Murphy will have as big a majority as Bantz, but he possibly will. He will carry the Ninth by from 400 to 500 a certainty. There can nothing stop it and the effort to turn the Fitzgerald vote in to arsen will only have the effect of splitting it between Mr. Murphy and Larson. If the campaign had been straight between Murphy and Larson he Democratic majority would have been in the neighborhood of 700. This is so certain that there are a hundred men in the ward who would bet their lives and their goods on the result.

Kaldunski will be beaten by a vote that will redeem the Eighth from the disgrace of being re-resented by Kaldunski. The ward is a large one and intelligent. Kaldunski was elected, by means that need not be discussed, because he was unknown. The two years of experience that the people have had of him have settled the matter in acvance. Bantz is sure of a majority of, say 500. His friends put it higher than that, but it will be that sure.

Assemblymen Are Safe.

Assemblymen Are Safe. On the merits of the men alone there can be no room for doubt on the assembly ticket. It is true that there were men elected two years ago on the Republican ticket who never ought to have been elected on any ticket, but the people are tired of the results of that sort of foolishness and the unknowns who are trying to sneak in this year have no chance. It is simply a business proposition that is before the people on the two assembly tickets. Whether they will elect a set of business men or take a lot of incompetents who are not even vouched for by their own party. It is pretty good business and good politics not to vote for anybody for assemiyman unless you know your man. Don't take the stamp of political approbation for a recommendation.

Twohy and Egan. have been elected on any ticket, but Twohy and Egan.

Judges Twohy and Egan will make the municipal bench without any trouble. Judge Twohy has been indorsed by all sorts of political clubs, while Judge Egan will be elected if while Judge Egan will be elected it only by the votes of the men who signed his petition. It was a remarkable document and contained the names of almost every man in the business district. The rest of the nominees will run along with the ticket safely enough.

ROORBACKS ARE DUE.

Pay No Attention to Them if You See Them. Look out for the campaign roorback. It is that the figures that it had published were incorrect.

The papers that have been given circulation are never heard of except when there is some political money in sight and it is pretty safe for the citizen to assume that what is not printed in the way of campaign news by a party newspaper is overlooked because it is not true.

The reorback that is sprung on election day is not likely to be at all effective, but the people are warned against the possibility of giving ear to anything. This campaign has been very thorough and if there is anything given currency against any of the parties to the election today it will not be by the countenance of the decent members of either party.

CLERKS INDORSED NASH.

Not as an Organization, but as Individuals.

To The St. Paul Globe: Having noticed an attem in last night's Dispatch reflecting on the candidacy of Louis Nash, an honorary member of the retail clerk's union of this city, allow me to say that the constitution of the Retail Clerks' Nash, an honorary memoer of the relatation clerk's union of this city, allow me to say that the constitution of the Retail Clerks' National Protective association admits of no religious or political action upon the part of the members thereof. Nevertheless at our last meeting the retail clerks adjourned and endorsed the candidacy of Louis Nash, not as a member of the Retail Clerks association, but as a man, entitled to the vote of every intelligent citizen, who placed the interests of St. Paul before the success of any party.

Our resolutions were not made public at that time because we did not wish to be classed as a partisan organization, but insomuch as the Dispatch has seen fit to make a campaign timber out of our ommission, allow me to say that the above statements are facts, and, furthermore, I believe that every retail clerk and merchant in the city of St. Paul will register his vote in behalf of Louis Nash. I am very respectfully yours.

THREE HANDS WENT UP. Kiefer Had That Many Friends at a Mass Meeting. A rousing meeting of the Afro-American Schiffmann club was held at 384 Jackson street last night. There were over 100 colored voters present. Louis de Lyons was the chairman of the meeting, and J. S. Harris chairman of the meeting, and J. S. Harris acted as secretary.

John Coquire delivered a spirited address. He told how the colored people had persistently voted the Republican ticket and had gotten nothing but abuse in return.

J. H. Loomis contrasted Dr. Schiffmann and Col. Kiefer so'far as their attitude to the colored people are concerned. Dr. Schiffmann had recognized the race in the appointment of colored teachers in the public schools. On the other hand, Col. Kiefer had opposed the appointment of colored men to act as janitors of the schools because he said it would result in harm to the teachers.

Mr. Loomis said the colored people of St. Paul held a mass meeting eight years ago to protest against Col Kiefer's attitude to them, and thia he was probably no more friendly to the colored man now than he was at that

He also called attention to the fact that Mr. Horst had always refused to lease any of his buildings to a colored man.
Wade, the governor's messenger, Dillingham and Robinson were present, and tried to do some work for Kiefer, but fell down. A call was made for all those present in favor of Kiefer to hold up their hands. Three hands went up. Edmund Jackson made one of his characteristic speeches, and the meeting adjouprned, after indorsing the entire Democrat-Citizens' ticket.

CITIZENS WILL CARRY IT

Rousing Meeting Was Held Last Night at Jackson and Sycamore Streets-J. J. McCafferty, Thomas F. Martin, Ed L. Murphy and Louis Nash Received an Ovation -Erwin's Hidden Purpose.

An enthusiastic wind up to the Democrat-Citizens' campaign in the Ninth ward took place last evening at Jackson and Sycamore streets, where 300 voters assembled to listen to addresses by J. J. McCafferty, Thomas Martin, Louis Nash and Edward L. Murphy.

Every auditor was for Schlerons.

Every auditor was for Schiffmann and the ticket he heads, and the mention of any Democrat-Citizens' candidate's name was the signal for outbursts of commendation. Those present tion of any Democrat-Citizens' candidate's name was the signal for outbursts of commendation. Those present were, for the most part, laboring men, and W. W. Erwin was denounced for his efforts to elect the Republican ticket by assuming the mask of labor's friend, no uncertain doom for the Bell-Scannell Republican candidate in the Ninth ward sounded in the cheering approbation of the sentiment expressed by the speakers.

J. J. McCafferty roused the meeting to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. He told of Dr. Schiffmann's honorable career of thirty years in St. Paul and how he was unanimously chosen by the convention by acclamation, an action unprecedented in the history of local Democracy.

"Dr. Schiffmann furnishes a practical illustration of what we have been told to expect when the political millenium shall have come," declared Mr. McCafferty, "in that he is a man sought by the office; not a man seeking the office. He consented to become the candidate of the Democrat-Citizens' party as a matter of duty. He was looking for no office. Unlike the Republican nominee, he needs no office.

"Dr. Schiffmann has been a successful business man and what this city needs is a man of business understanding and integrity at its head. Republican incompetency has already retarded the development of the city enough, and it is an insult to the intelligence of the voters to ask the continuance in power of a party which has wrought by its blind partisanship only harm to the municipality.

"Dr. Schiffmann has been a wholesouled, public spirited citizen among you for thirty years. Never has any public enterprise been without his support. In comparison with this record can you recall one single act or deed of "Col.' Kiefer which has in any way Klefer which has in any way benefited the city, or has he given one moment of his time to furthering the good of the city that he has not received public money for his services?"

"Compare the reputation and records of the two men. Do this and there is no man among you who will hesitate as to which way to vote. You will cast your ballots for the upright, homorable citizen who will give the city a clean, business-like administration and not for the professional office holder who has taken $108,000 from the people and is now grasping for more."

"You bet we will," cried fifty voices, and before Mr. McCafferty could resume his remarks, the entire audience was on its feet shouting three cheers for Dr. Schiffmann.

Mr. McCafferty smiled when he mentioned the name of Edward Murphy for the meeting fairly shook the walls with hurrahs.

"That you will elect Mr. Murphy there is no possible doubt," said Mr. McCafferty, "and you could not secure a man as your representative who will better look to the interests of your ward. Do the same thing for every other candidate on the Democrat-Citizens' ticket and the entire city will be in the hands of honorable, capable custoddans."

Michael Says Schiffmann Will Have

At the close of the campaign, to a thoughtful observer, there is but one outcome, and that is the triumphant election of Dr. Schiffmann and the entire Democrat-Citizens' ticket, by not less than 3,000 plurality. No better ticket was ever presented for the suffrage of the It is clean, honest and able, and just the class of men a business man would employ to conduct his private affairs. It has the united and enthusiastic support, not only of the Democracy, but also the business men and thoughtful people of all parties who believe that "public office is a public trust," and should not be perverted in the interest of individual selfish.

The people of this city have had quite enough of partisan disorganization of the boards and departments of the city, and I mistake the present temper of our citizens if they do not severely rebuke such methods at the polls. The voters cannot be deceived by the innocent diversion of

Mr. Erwin. There never has been a moment when his candidacy endangered the election of Dr. Schiffmann, and those who support him are simply wasting their votes. The Democrat-Citizens' ticket will carry the Second, Third.

Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth wards, by substantial majorities, and how can they lose? -J. C. Michael, dates are pledged to the public ownership of these monopolies, which means that the dividends now paid in watered stock shall revert to the public exchecquer for the benefit of the whole people. Our candidates are pledged to the abolition of the contract system on all public works, and a minimum rate of wages in keeping with the requirements of free American citizens.

We are pledged to the maintenance of our public schools at the highest point of efficiency, and I for one believe that the solution of the social problem lies in the education of the rising generation. Free education and industrial pauperism cannot exist side-by-side for any great length of time, and the fact that the schools of our city are hampered by incompetent teachers owing to the Republican policy of starvation wages, is a false economy that will be seriously felt if longer persisted in.

We believe in the people sharing the benefits of our progressive civilization, and have adopted a platform in keeping with the demands of the age, and nominated men who are not afraid to defend the principles enunciated therein, while the Republicans have drafted a platform absolutely meaningless and renominated a set of men in keeping with the platform, men who have bartered away your liberties in the past, and who will do so in the future if, by your votes, you give them the opportunity.

GLEASON AND THE WHEELMEN. Chairman Meyers Says an Injustice Was Done the Fifth Warder.

sionately, I make Kiefer a winner by—I don't care to say what plurality. It is enough that he will win. How do I figure it? Why, this way:

"Kiefer will carry the First ward by a plurality of 700, and the Seventh by a plurality of 300. Now I am willing to concede, for the sake of argument, that the rest of the wards will stand themselves off. That is satisfactory enough. I really believe that Kiefer will carry the Second and the Eighth and I consider the Eleventh a cinch, but I am willing to let it go as it stands. The First and Seventh will elect."

He did not believe that the entire Cullen vote would go for Schiffmann, and he insisted that he thought Erwin would be a factor, and thought that he would get more votes in the First ward than it was pleasant to contemplate. He thought that Erwin might poll something in the neighborhood of 2,500. This last figure is generally guessed at by the wise ones for the vote that will be given to the tall party.

Chairman J. E. Meyers, of the committee of the Associated Wheelmen, called at The G I o be office yesterday and made an explanation that he said was due J. J. Gleason, candidate for aiderman in the Fifth. Said Mr. Meyers:

"I want to state to the public that Mr. Gleason has been inadvertently placed in a
