SENSATIONAL VALUES.

Reason enough for spread-eagle advertising if we cared for such things, but The Golden Rule isn't an ordinary Dry Goods store, and the Dry Goods we sell aren't the kind the other fellows howl about in the newspapers to draw trade. The fascination of low prices for high-grade goods is the inspiration of this business, and instead of holding goods for a big profit we insist on selling as we buy. The special lots we offer for tomorrow were bought specially cheap, and the saving is handed over to you without reserve. In all the years of steadily increasing business we never remember the equal of these values in stylish, new, up-to-date goods.

New Idea Fashion Patterns.

These patterns are sweeping the field in popularity and sales where they are sold. Never a complaint recorded where they are known. We are sole agents for these patterns in St. Paul. July numbers are in.
