SENATORS HOLD THERE IS A VAST DIFFERENCE

Comparison Brought About in Debate on the Hawaiian Annexation Resolutions, in Which Parliamentary Territorial Acquisition in India Was Suggested—Senate to Hold Early Sessions.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—At 11 o'clock this morning the senate convened, and a few minutes afterwards adopted the resolution of Mr. Davis, chairman of the foreign relations committee, providing that hereafter until further action be taken, the senate convene daily at 11 a. m.

The annexation of Hawaii to the United States, which was the subject of the Hawaiian resolutions, was resumed and during the session Mr. Clay (Dem., Ga.), Mr. Roach (Dem., N. D.) and Mr. Caffery (Dem., N. D.) delivered addresses in opposition to them.

Mr. Clay insisted that the country was a mere conquest, which was opposed to the true destiny of the United States. He claimed that to make the present war an excuse for the adoption of a colonization policy would be a violation of the principles of the Cuban resolutions, and would involve the country in tremendous difficulties, and perhaps ruin. He declared we had no business to annex the Hawaiian islands as the war had not been begun for any such purpose.

Mr. Roach's speech, Mr. Roach (Dem., N. D.) delivered an address in support of the annexation, and in support of the Hawaiian resolutions. He declared that the Hawaiian resolutions were a violation of the principles of the Cuban resolutions, and would involve the country in tremendous difficulties, and perhaps ruin. He declared we had no business to annex the Hawaiian islands as the war had not been begun for any such purpose.

MRS. LOWE'S THE FACTOR ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE FEDERATION AT DENVER

Mrs. Breed, of Boston, the Defeated Candidate, Says She Did Not Have Fair Play, and Will Withdraw From the Organization—Mrs. Henrotin in Her Address Tells of the Federation's Growth.

DENVER, June 27.—The Federation of Women's clubs adjourned tonight after electing officers, holding several sessions, and hearing the report of the president on the closing day. There will be a short session tomorrow, but the work is practically over. The election resulted in the election of Mrs. Lowe, of Atlanta, Ga., the official nominee.

The defeated candidate, Mrs. Breed, said after the election, that she did not have fair play. "I don't care for defeat," she maintained, "but for the insults given the Massachusetts delegation in the meeting by the press and by the women of the West. Denver women are beginning to come with their apologies, but it is too late. I am out of the federation."

The election of Mrs. Lowe to a state of factional feeling. Miss Alice French, of Iowa, fired the first gun for Mrs. Lowe, with a plea for the South, for non-sectional reasons. Mrs. Mumford, of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Loutal, of Washington; Mrs. Loutal, of Texas, and Mrs. Hauger, of Arkansas, followed with similar arguments. Mrs. Jennings, of Utah, made an effective speech for Mrs. Breed, whereupon, amidst the highest tension, the speeches were divided between the two candidates. An effort was made to precipitate a vote after an unsuccessful attempt to have Mrs. Lowe take the floor. Finally the confusion rose to such a point that it was necessary to eject all visitors from the house. An amendment permitted a solitary man—the governor of Colorado—to remain. After the election Mrs. Lowe was elected.

After the presidential ballots passed into the hands of the tellers the excitement subsided. The women for two hours the assemblage split fine parliamentary points. Then Mrs. Mumford, as chairman of the committee on resolutions, moved that the federation telegraph Speaker Reed, of Washington, urging the passage of Senator Hoar's bill to preserve bird life, which resolution was enthusiastically passed by the bird-loving federation.

At this juncture it was decided that any president serving two consecutive terms, should be made an honorary president of the federation, which resolution will make that honor possibly only to Mrs. Henrotin.

Mrs. Marie Remick, of Chicago, arose with resolutions deprecating national policy of conquest, which precipitated a flow of patriotism. By this time it was 2 o'clock and the ballots counted. The results were presented to the audience, breathless with suspense. The announcement of Mrs. Lowe's election as president, precipitated a cry of "hurrah" which was properly quelled by the press officer.

The number of ballots cast was 674 with 348 needed to elect Mrs. Lowe. She received 425 votes; Mrs. Breed 234, with a few scattering votes for Mrs. Helmut. The other officers are: Vice president, Mrs. Sarah Platt, of Colorado; recording secretary, Mrs. Emma Fox, of Michigan; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. W. Keenan, of Pennsylvania; treasurer, Mrs. Philip Moore, of Missouri; auditor, Mrs. C. P. Barnes, of Kentucky.

Following a forty-five minutes' intermission, the body reassembled to elect the board of directors as follows: Mrs. Marie Lockwood, District of Columbia; Mrs. Charles Morris, Wisconsin; Mrs. C. S. Kinney, Utah; Mrs. A. C. Hosper, Connecticut; Mrs. A. F. Eastman, California; Mrs. Francis Wood, Nebraska; Mrs. William Todd, Helmut, New York; Mrs. L. B. Butler, Ohio; Mrs. Harriet Windsor, Ohio.

Thereupon were precipitated the mooted questions of taxation and representation. Mrs. Mumford presented a resolution until 5 o'clock. The outcome was the taxation of clubs at the rate of 10 cents per capita, and state federations at the rate of 25 cents per capita. The motion to tax fraternal organizations was referred to the committee. As to the representation, it was decided clubs of fifty members or less shall be allowed one delegate. Clubs between 50 and 100 shall have two delegates, and for every additional 100 members one delegate to be entitled to one additional delegate.

The final session of the convention, aside from business meetings tomorrow, was held in the grand opera house, which was packed to bid farewell to the women, who, in four years, had developed the general federation from a few scattered clubs to a national organization of three dozen states and 500,000 women.

The affection which the club women have for Mrs. Henrotin was evidenced by the fact that she was elected to the position of honorary president. Mrs. Henrotin began her address by recapitulating the growth of the general federation since its inception in 1894. She translated into action on the various lines of thought and work now represented in the organization. She said that she had translated into action on the various lines of thought and work now represented in the organization.

The first two years of my presidency most of my thoughts and time were devoted to the organization of the federation. I have shired, Rhode Island, New York and New Jersey, Kentucky, Minnesota, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri, Nebraska, and the District of Columbia organized state federations auxiliary to the general federation. There are now twenty state federations were represented. Clubs joined the federation from the following states: Idaho, Tennessee, North Dakota, Oregon and South Dakota. Two foreign clubs also sent reports—one from England and one from France.

During these two years the welfare of the individual club has been neglected. Club extension was actively inaugurated in many states, and town and country clubs were established in many of the rural districts.

The number of clubs in each state being longed to as follows: Maine, 1; New Hampshire, 1; Vermont, 2; Connecticut, 6; Rhode Island, 3; Massachusetts, 27; New Jersey, 12; Maryland, 1; Louisiana, 1; Ohio, 67; Indiana, 13; Michigan, 27; Oklahoma, 1; Wisconsin, 13; Illinois, 35; Minnesota, 35; North Dakota, 1; Kansas, 1; Arkansas, 1; Tennessee, 4; Georgia, 4; Mississippi, 2; Idaho, 5; Texas, 2; Florida, 2; Kansas, 1; Colorado, 1; Alabama, 1; Utah, 8; New Mexico, 4; Oregon, 7; Washington, 9; South Dakota, 4; Montana, 6; Nevada, 1; California, 23; District of Columbia, 2; Wyoming, 1.

The number of clubs embraced in each state federation is as follows: Maine, 16; New Hampshire, 43; Connecticut, 42; Rhode Island, 43; Massachusetts, 27; New Jersey, 11; New York, 168; Pennsylvania, 71; Ohio, 181; Vermont, 107; Illinois, 182; Michigan, 185; Wisconsin, 98; Minnesota, 83; North Dakota, 12; Iowa, 181; Kansas, 124; Arkansas, 15; Missouri, 83; Kentucky, 25; Tennessee, 28; Washington, 42; Oregon, 21; District of Columbia, 10; Georgia, 21; Florida, 11; Nebraska, 10; Oklahoma, 10; Indian Territory, 20; Utah, 20.

When the state federations were first organized it was their duty to bring about a union of the members of the general federation, but this has not been the case. During the four years of my presidency the membership of individual clubs doubled. It is now safe to prognosticate that the largest state federation in 1894, California, has now become the largest. The membership of individual clubs doubled.

And now a word as to the new aspects of our national life. When the war was first declared we were all united in sympathy, and with a certain shock that made us feel that we had received a blow, and stopped to consider what it signified, when a great industrial nation, supposed to be pledged to the triumph of truth through arbitration, should go to war. When we could have been averted or not it does not behoove us today to ask: Is there and the question here of the women of the country, is what manner we must accept it.

I trust I shall not be accused of the I find a great sympathy when I say that I think we should bear our part in it, and that I am sure that the women of the country

Suicide Not the Defense. Judge Jones is still engaged in hearing the case of Jennie E. Kelly, widow of Philip Kelly, against the Guaranty Life society, of Chicago. The suit was brought to compel the payment of $5,000 on a policy issued on the life of the deceased. The defense claims that the insured defaulted in the payment of a premium on the policy; that the premium was paid later and accepted on the statement of the insured that he was in good health; that he was not in good health at the time the payment was accepted, and the fact that his condition was misrepresented makes the policy void.
