

FIFTEENTH WILL NOT MOVE

UNTIL THE OUTCOME OF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS IS KNOWN

Col. Shandrew's Sudden Illness Caused a Feeling of Gloom in the Camp—Private W. H. Williams Has Been Missing for Twelve Days—Some Action Will Be Taken on His Absence Today.

There does not seem to be much chance for the Fifteenth regiment to get away from Camp Ramsey in a hurry. A telegram received from Washington last night sets at rest all the false "moves" which the boys have been reading about during the last ten days.

COL. SHANDREW'S ILLNESS. The sudden illness of Col. Shandrew, particulars of which are published on the first page of this paper, caused a general feeling of gloom throughout the camp yesterday.

HAS WILLIAMS DESERTED? Private W. H. Williams, of Company G, Fifteenth regiment, is in a bad fix. Williams left Camp Ramsey on the afternoon of the 16th inst., without permission, and has not been seen since by the officers of his company.

TRADING DISHES AND CUTLERY.

Lieut. Elliott was busy playing Alladin of Arabian Nights fame yesterday. The lieutenant was not exactly trading new lamps for old ones, but he was doing just a little better by the boys of the Fifteenth.

GENERAL CAMP NOTES. Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

Company F guard detail yesterday: Ryd, Ryland, Shady, Seymour and Schudlich. Corporal Newton had charge of Company F police yesterday.

MINNESOTA MEN ARE BLUE

NOT MUCH CHANCE THAT THEY WILL SEE ACTIVE SERVICE

Only One More Brigade Likely to Be Sent to the Front From Camp Thomas, and in Any Event It Will Not Include Either the Twelfth or the Fourteenth—News of the Camp.

CAMP THOMAS, July 29.—(Special.)—The men of the two Minnesota regiments are blue today, they have about made up their minds that they are not to go with Brooke, and the outlook now is that when they leave Chickamauga it will be to return to Minnesota.

RECRUITS FOR MANILA. THE ST. PAUL SAILS AWAY THROUGH THE GOLDEN GATE. Minnesota Men Bound for the Philippines Will Arrive at Honolulu in Time to See the Stars and Stripes Hoisted over the Island—Comfortable Quarters Provided Them for the Long Journey.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—(Special.)—The Minnesota men, recruits for the Thirteenth, who have been at Camp Merritt since the regiment sailed for Manila, went on board the St. Paul yesterday and sailed shortly before noon today.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—The transport St. Paul sailed for Manila this morning with the 311 recruits of the Thirteenth Minnesota volunteer infantry. Maj. Diggle and Lieut. Clark, Tenover, Grant, Snow and Smith, who had been left behind to care for the recruits, boarded the St. Paul at 9:30 this morning from the government steamer General McDowell, escorted by Maj. Gen. Merriam and other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

MINNESOTA MEN ARE BLUE

NOT MUCH CHANCE THAT THEY WILL SEE ACTIVE SERVICE

Only One More Brigade Likely to Be Sent to the Front From Camp Thomas, and in Any Event It Will Not Include Either the Twelfth or the Fourteenth—News of the Camp.

CAMP THOMAS, July 29.—(Special.)—The men of the two Minnesota regiments are blue today, they have about made up their minds that they are not to go with Brooke, and the outlook now is that when they leave Chickamauga it will be to return to Minnesota.

RECRUITS FOR MANILA. THE ST. PAUL SAILS AWAY THROUGH THE GOLDEN GATE. Minnesota Men Bound for the Philippines Will Arrive at Honolulu in Time to See the Stars and Stripes Hoisted over the Island—Comfortable Quarters Provided Them for the Long Journey.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—(Special.)—The Minnesota men, recruits for the Thirteenth, who have been at Camp Merritt since the regiment sailed for Manila, went on board the St. Paul yesterday and sailed shortly before noon today.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—The transport St. Paul sailed for Manila this morning with the 311 recruits of the Thirteenth Minnesota volunteer infantry. Maj. Diggle and Lieut. Clark, Tenover, Grant, Snow and Smith, who had been left behind to care for the recruits, boarded the St. Paul at 9:30 this morning from the government steamer General McDowell, escorted by Maj. Gen. Merriam and other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

MINNESOTA MEN ARE BLUE

NOT MUCH CHANCE THAT THEY WILL SEE ACTIVE SERVICE

Only One More Brigade Likely to Be Sent to the Front From Camp Thomas, and in Any Event It Will Not Include Either the Twelfth or the Fourteenth—News of the Camp.

CAMP THOMAS, July 29.—(Special.)—The men of the two Minnesota regiments are blue today, they have about made up their minds that they are not to go with Brooke, and the outlook now is that when they leave Chickamauga it will be to return to Minnesota.

RECRUITS FOR MANILA. THE ST. PAUL SAILS AWAY THROUGH THE GOLDEN GATE. Minnesota Men Bound for the Philippines Will Arrive at Honolulu in Time to See the Stars and Stripes Hoisted over the Island—Comfortable Quarters Provided Them for the Long Journey.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—(Special.)—The Minnesota men, recruits for the Thirteenth, who have been at Camp Merritt since the regiment sailed for Manila, went on board the St. Paul yesterday and sailed shortly before noon today.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—The transport St. Paul sailed for Manila this morning with the 311 recruits of the Thirteenth Minnesota volunteer infantry. Maj. Diggle and Lieut. Clark, Tenover, Grant, Snow and Smith, who had been left behind to care for the recruits, boarded the St. Paul at 9:30 this morning from the government steamer General McDowell, escorted by Maj. Gen. Merriam and other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

When the McDowell came alongside the St. Paul bearing the Minnesota recruits, she was wildly cheered with shouts of "What's the matter with the major? He's all right," and similar greetings to the other officers.

THE NORTHWEST'S GREATEST STORE! Chamberlain & Evans SIXTH & WABASHA STS. ST. PAUL, MINN.

We Are Making Price-List Ads Only this month. No talk, no big headlines. You must not fail to read each item from any department that interests you, for we are "cutting the life" out of all Summer goods.

All Our Parasols Boys' Clothing. At 1/2 and 1/3 of Former Regular Prices. A positive mark-down-close-out sale. Be here early today. Parasols at one-third and one-half former regular prices.

Shirt Waists & Wrappers. $1.00 Percale and Gingham Shirt Waists; some with cluster of tucks; detached collars of same 49c.

Saturday Sale Hosiery. 50 dozen Ladies' Fancy Top Drop-stitch Black Boot Stockings. Per pair 10c.

Junket. Dainty, Delicious, Nutritious. Served fine in the basement. Closing Out Sale. Summer Corsets.

Hardware Department. In the Basement. 12 bars Star Laundry Soap for 25c.

Stationery. 5,000 packs of Flag Envelopes, 25 in pack. Today only 7c.

Underwear. Ladies' 25c and 19c Long-Sleeve, Short-Sleeve and Sleeveless Vests 10c.

Sandén Electric Co., 233 Nicollet Ave., Cor. Washington, Minneapolis, Minn. Office Hours—9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sundays—10 to 12 a. m.

Red Cross Contributions Forwarded to Chickamauga. The $25 contributed to the Red Cross Aid Society by the young women of Hayward reached the headquarters yesterday.