TECHNICAL PEACE POINTS

THEY ARE RAISED BY THE CAPTURE OF MANILA

Question as to Whether Peace Protocol or Capitulation Terms Govern—Latter Stipulates for Control of the Entire Group of Philippine Islands, the Former for Manila Alone—Peace Congratulations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The war department made public today the official story of Manila's fall, and also the text of the significant instructions sent Gen. Merritt yesterday, requiring the insurgents and all others to recognize the authority of the United States in the territory occupied by our forces.

Another point on which the officials are without definite information is as to the extent of our present authority in the Philippines. Under the peace protocol, the United States was given the occupation of Manila, with the bay and harbor, until a permanent disposition of the Philippine question was reached.

NO OFFICIAL NOTICE.

Secretary Alger said today that he had heard nothing official as to the surrender of the entire Philippine group. At the same time he did not discredit the authenticity of the dispatches stating that the capitulation had this far resulted in peace.

PEACE CONGRATULATION.

The state department today received another international congratulation on the restoration of peace, this one coming from the British ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote, who is now enjoining at New London, Conn.

MAY MARRY A PRINCESS.

Katulan and the Son of Once Mayor Strong Gossip's Subjects.

HONOLULU, Aug. 18.—(via Victoria, B. C., Aug. 18.)—Capt. Putnam Bradley Strong, United States volunteer, son of once Mayor Strong, of New York, sailed on the Peru on Thursday morning for Manila, and when the band played "The Girl I Left Behind Me," Capt. Strong might have followed the words of the old song that has brought so many tears to the eyes of soldiers sweethearts the world over.

There never was a war waged in any country or under any flag in which there was not a blending of romance. When Capt. Strong came here on the troopship Peru, attached to the staff of Maj. Gen. Otis, he had for his particular chums and companions, C. Du Pont Coudert, of New York, and Maj. Scribner, of Washington, D. C.

EUROPE GROWS ANXIOUS

BELIEVED AMERICA WILL KEEP THE PHILIPPINES

Appointment of Secretary of State Day and Senator Davis, of Minnesota, to the Peace Commission, Referred to as Significant of What May Be Expected—America Would Resist Interference.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times says:

The development of the Philippine question will be watched here with keenest interest. Circumstances appear to point to the retention of the islands by America. The fact that Senator Davis, who is a public advocate of complete annexation, and Secretary of State Day, a supporter of the Hawaiian policy, are appointed commissioners is regarded as indicating that President McKinley favors their retention. It is acknowledged that President McKinley has hitherto manifested exceptional diplomatic tact in his treatment both of the Spanish

TURNING TO AFRICA.

Spain May Seek to Recoup Her Territorial Loss There.

MADRID, Aug. 18.—The common talk among politicians and journalists in Madrid now is that Spain must seek compensation for its lost colonies by turning to Africa, where all Europe is colony-hunting. Such efforts, they say, should be made more especially in the direction of Morocco, which, however, might result in troubles with England.

AMERICANS IN CONTROL

OCCUPY EVERY POSITION NEEDED AT MANILA

SIX THOUSAND SPANISH TROOPS PRISONERS

MINNESOTA MAN KILLED IN THE BATTLE

ARCHIE PATTERSON, of Minneapolis, Was Among the Dead—Capt. L. Bjornstad, of St. Paul, and Capt. O. Seebach, of Red Wing, Seriously Wounded—Leslie B. Padden, of St. Paul, Dead of Typhoid Fever—Humanity of the American Commanders the Wonder of All Foreigners.

HONG KONG, Aug. 18.—A dispatch from Manila confirming the capture of the town says the American troops now occupy every position formerly held by the Spaniards, of whom 6,000 are prisoners.

Not a single shot was fired at the fleet. The dispatch also says that Admiral Dewey picked up the end of the severed cables on Friday, but that the line is not yet in working order. Merchants are leaving Hong Kong daily for Manila. A great rush of trade is expected.

MINNESOTA'S ROLL OF HONOR.

CAPT. A. W. BJORNSTAD.

DEAD.

ARCHIE PATTERSON, Company I, Thirteenth Regt., Minneapolis.

WOUNDED.

CAPT. A. W. BJORNSTAD, Company H, Thirteenth Regt., St. Paul.

CAPT. OSCAR SEEBACH, Company G, Thirteenth Regt., Red Wing.

ARCHIE PATTERSON—Archie Patterson was born at Fairbault in 1875. At the age of eight years he was left an orphan, his mother, who had become the wife of G. H. Palmer, of Minneapolis, died at that time. But Patterson still made his home with the Palmers. In 1890 he was sent to the Shattuck Military school, and remained there until two years ago, when he was advised by his physician to go to Montana or some other Western state on account of his health. A year ago he returned to Crookston, and was employed until February, when he went to Minneapolis as traveling sales man for the Finch-Smith company there. Mrs. Palmer has been in communication with him since he left for Manila, and each stopping place brought a letter. He had made all sorts of promises regarding bringing home curios from that part of the world, and his father's portrait looked ahead to his home-coming with great interest.

CAPT. A. W. BJORNSTAD—Capt. Bjornstad is the son of Julius Bjornstad, president of the St. Paul Sash, Door and Lumber company, of this city. Mr. Bjornstad is about twenty-three years of age, and a graduate of St. Olaf college at Northfield. After a course at the Minnesota State university he accepted a position in the city clerk's office, where he remained about a year, subsequently going to the city treasurer's office. He was government and of public opinion in the United States. He conducted the negotiations with such foresight and consideration that the Madrid cabinet has been able gradually to accustom the population to the inevitable sacrifices imposed by the outcome of the war.

Had Been Granted for Dismissal From His Post.

HONG KONG, Aug. 18.—A belated dispatch from Manila, dated Aug. 8, explains that Governor August had not quite "abdicated," and says:

"The governor general declined to be responsible for the consequences when he found that Spain was not sending him help, yet he retained his position, but practically washed his hands of the fighting. A Madrid dispatch concedes this as insubordination, and the Gazette will now publish an order to supersede him. It is rumored that conditional instructions have been given to his successor to resist to the utmost, hoping to gain the world's admiration and, possibly assistance in securing a favorable termination."

Russia Wants to Get In.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Daily Mail's Odessa correspondent says he hears on credible authority that Russia has opened a post office with Spain for the erection of a coaling station in the Philippines.

PHILIPPINE REBELLION

It Has Extended to the Province in South Luzon.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Singapore correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The news of the rebellion in the Philippines has extended to the provinces in South Luzon. Heavy fighting occurred at Paglatuan, Pilar and Ponsol, the immediate cause being outrages committed by the Spaniards at Paglatuan. The Spanish also burned Pilar and massacred 500 natives. The insurgents are centering at Ibay, with the object of attacking Spaniards in the Camarines provinces.

"A German war vessel has been carrying dispatches from the captain general of the Vizcaya islands and the districts between Cebu and Iglan, and the Spanish military depot in Mindanao. The steamer Rosario, flying the German flag, has also been transporting troops thence to Iloilo. After the islands of Masbate had been taken by the insurgents the latter indignantly refused to allow the German steamer Clara to enter any ports under their control."

BEFORE THE BATTLE.

Consuls Urged the Governor General of the Philippines to Yield.

HONG KONG, Aug. 18.—A dispatch from Manila, dated prior to the battle, says: "The British consul made a powerful appeal to the governor to surrender, glorifying the heroism hitherto shown by the Spaniards, but demonstrating the hopelessness of further resistance. The other consuls endorsed his appeal, with the exception of the German consul, who said that, as a military officer, he should hesitate to state that the Spaniards had done enough yet.

"The rebels made a final effort to capture the city on Tuesday, but failed. The Americans are preparing to act to avoid trouble in entering the town. There has been slight fighting for four days, and it is reported that twenty Americans were killed and sixty wounded. This fighting is purely preliminary.

"In consequence of the American ultimatum the governor ordered the artillery to cease shelling the enemy's trenches, and he suspended an officer at Malate for disobeying his orders. There is still a little firing at night.

"A Spanish commercial deputation today waited upon the governor and begged him to surrender, saying that otherwise they would be utterly ruined.

"The civil members of the council of war favor a surrender, but the military members do not care to indorse such a request.

"Officers tell me they realize the futility of resisting the Americans, who, with their superior guns, can keep at long range and kill everybody, without loss to themselves, with probably a dozen shells.

"The British consul promptly arranged for four launches, under a white flag, to remove British subjects and also, for one launch for the Chinese. Swarms of Spanish and native half-caste women and children are begging to be provided with means of escape.

"It is believed that the American gunners have been ordered to spare the
