GAMES SCHEDULED FOR TODAY.

At Milwaukee—Milwaukee vs. St. Paul, At Indianapolis—Indianapolis vs. Minneapolis.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—With great ease the Brewers today administered another defeat to Cousinsky's Saints. Fricken was hit hard and the Brewers bunched their hits in the second and fourth innings.

Alex Smith, the Brooklyn catcher, arrived this morning from Chicago, where Capt. Tom Daly secured him for the Brewers. He will catch here until Spawr acts well again. Smith caught today's game, and though he was wild at times, he kept the hits well scattered.

Daly's fielding was the feature of the game and he made, with Stafford's assistance, two double plays. The Brewers made their first runs in the second inning, on three successive singles, a sacrifice, Shugart's error, and a fly to the outfield. Two more came in the fourth, a base on balls, two singles and a double, and one in the seventh on two singles and an infield out.

It looks like a bad move, the transfer of a St. Paul game to Milwaukee today. It is almost certain to result in a victory for the Brewers, and will set St. Paul back at once when it can ill afford it.

The man who caught for Milwaukee yesterday was Alex Smith, of the Brooklyn team. He is still working, however, and until Speer is able to go into the field again.

Friend's return to the Columbus team was not for long. He begged to be reinstated and promised good behavior, but went on a "punitive" expedition the very first night.

Base ball enthusiasts in Topeka are very anxious to secure a Western league franchise and are making a great fight for Sunday ball with that end in view. For ten years the city has not allowed in Topeka, but in order to test the validity of the law, a game was played last Sunday and the players were arrested. The case has now been decided. If the players win their case, the fans believe that base ball in Topeka will prove such a success that by 1900 a place in the Western league may be secured.

Click, Cooley—Get in the game; wake up. Felt—Oh, I don't know; there are others. C. C. never mind me. Don't do as I do; do as I want, and best I have in the league.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Peaches are so plentiful in Canada that the practice of presenting deserving players with flowers has been discontinued, and baskets of peaches substituted. In the event of the Browns showing any "deserving" players, grand prizes will be hurled at them.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The Orphans played eighteen errorless innings today, taking both games from Brooklyn. The visitors, by Callahan for three earned runs in the first inning of the opening game, but were unable to touch him afterwards. Thornton pitched the game and played the game of his life, shutting the opponents out without the semblance of a hit. Both Dunn and Kennedy did great work on the slabs, but were poorly supported. DETROIT, Aug. 21.—St. Paul gets "Noodles" from the St. Paul team and was here on Tuesday a deal was made which Comiskey, by the terms of which Hahn is loaned over to the St. Paul team for the season. It is understood that Comiskey chipped quite a chunk off the southwings with the deal, let the Apostles tomorrow, where he will join the Apostles tomorrow. He will be in charge of the contract Detroit and the team will still still Cincinnati-made with John T. Brush, who still Cincinnati's property. It is not likely, however, that Hahn will be wanted for Ewing's team next year.

Haulon Will Not Contest. BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 21.—Haulon has practically decided to abide by the decision of the board of directors of the league. At the same time he will see to it that Holmes receives full pay for the rest of the season. He is now negotiating with an outfitter to take Holmes' place until Brodie recovers from his injury. Haulon says that if he were merely a matter of money he would keep Holmes in the team and let the outfit take Holmes' place. But the Baltimore manager, in the meantime, believes in obedience to the constituted authorities and does not wish to defy the board, unjust and outrageous as its treatment of him has been.

Manager Jimmy Manning has it figured out that Milwaukee is in the Western league race longer than this week and a part of next. After finishing with the clubs in the Western division, the Green Bay boys are playing twenty-one games away from home. The Milwaukee News, Jimmy Manning should know better than to make such a statement. Probably he has forgotten that the Brewers have the cowboys more than enough here. The fact is Milwaukee is in the Western league race next week, but he had better look up Mack Killalea, Gross and E. and wager a few suits of clothes for the winter.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Manager Comiskey has released outfielder Eddie Burke. The same personal habits which resulted in his being dropped from the big league are still with him, and he is still at Wilmar.

The St. Paul team will play at Oshkosh Aug. 23.
