GLAD TIDINGS FROM AFAR

CAPTS. BJORNSTAD AND SEEBACH ARE STILL ALIVE

Col. Reeve Informs Gen. Clough by Cable That They Are Nearly Recovered—There Were Happy Times in Many Minnesota Households Yesterday at the Receipt of Definite and Joyous News.

GLAD TIDINGS FROM AFAR

Manila, Aug. 30.—Clough, St. Paul, Minn.; Seebach, Bjornstad, Carlisle, Williams, Crowell, Little, Bunker, Company C, Lawrence, Lehman, very sick. —Reeve.

Gov. Clough immediately caused the contents of the cablegram to be communicated to the families of the men named. Bjornstad's father was informed that his son was alive by telephone. He could hardly believe it and would not be satisfied until the most positive assurances that the news was genuine had been given.

It was understood that Capt. Seebach was so badly wounded that he could not recover, and ever since the first news of his injuries reached Red Wing his wife has been prostrated with grief and anxiety.

TABLET TO MONTGOMERY.

Revolutionary Hero May Be Honored After a Century. QUEBEC, Aug. 30.—The work of the arbitration commission is evidently increasing. Each day more time is devoted to the sessions, and tonight the American commissioners have cancelled all social engagements and are attending to the commission's work.

Several times during the past half century efforts have been made by different Americans and American societies to have something done in the way of erecting a suitable memorial to the memory of the American. These efforts have failed. The Canadians have always contended that it was not exactly the proper thing to erect on "the sacred soil of Quebec" a monument to the leader of an invading army.

Gen. Lawton's Bulletin. WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Gen. Lawton's bulletin of the health conditions of the American forces in Santiago is as follows: Santiago de Cuba, via Hayti, Aug. 30, 1898. Adjutant General, Washington.—Total sick, 281; total fever, 318; total new cases fever, 7; returned to duty, 1.

Fire in Macy's. NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—Fire last night in a building at Greenwich avenue and Twelfth street, occupied by E. J. Macy & Co., did $75,000 damage. The building was used as a candy manufactory and laboratory for perfume. Groceries were stored and packed and explosions of drugs were heard during the fire. The building was of brick, six stories high.
