NEW CENTURY MARK

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY ON MOUNTAIN SIDE IN THE CASCADE RANGE.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 25.—On the mountain side of the Cascade range, not far from the Great Northern railway track, has been found a natural cave, seventy feet deep and having an arched, overhanging wall forty feet from the floor of the cave. Back in the interior of the cave is a deposit of decomposed ledge of rich granite twenty-three feet wide. It is so rotten that it can be crumbled in a mortar and has already been made into a mortar and from that up to $48 to the ton, and from that up to $40. A party of sixty Seattle men is taking out the ore.

THREE OUT FOR THE RECORD

Time Over the Four City-Northfield Course Cut by Sixteen Minutes—Good Work Done by the Racemakers—Courtesies Shown the Racers by the St. Paul Police—The News of Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 25.—Louis Niederhofer, the speedy local cyclist, made one of the most meritorious runs accomplished in this state, yesterday, thereby breaking the Minneapolis-Northfield century record, and incidentally trailing the colors of John Nilsson, Minneapolis, at the City of Hope race, St. Paul, in the dust behind him. The run was made with pace and for the purpose of breaking the course record. Aided by Charles H. Vanderhoefer, St. Paul, in the dust behind him. Church Will Be Dedicated.

ST. CHARLES, Minn., Sept. 25.—The new German Lutheran church in this city, which has been under construction since Sunday, Oct. 2, with appropriate ceremonies. Morning service will be held at 10 a. m. and the afternoon service at 2 p. m. The church was dedicated by Rev. Gerhard, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Hering, of Wilton, Wis., and Prof. Ernst, of the University of Wisconsin. The church is almost completely finished and will be dedicated on Sunday, Oct. 2.

Accidentally Killed Himself.

COOPERSTOWN, N. D., Sept. 25.—William Church, a pioneer in this section, met with a fatal accident while hunting chickens. He was alone, riding along in a cart when the horse shied at a stone in the road. Mr. Church was thrown from the cart and struck the muzzles against his right shoulder, and the shock caused the cart to tip over, striking the hammer and discharging the contents of one barrel into his right shoulder. He died an hour later from the effects of the wound.

Shoemaker Is Reorganized.

SHAKOPEE, Minn., Sept. 25.—The Scott County Shoemakers' association, which was organized in St. Joseph several years ago, but had since become dormant, was reorganized. Officers have been elected as follows: President, C. Roderick; vice president, M. C. Fausch; secretary, J. H. Hagen; treasurer, Henry Schreiner. The executive committee consists of the presidents of the respective shoemakers' associations in the county.

Elks' Social Session.

SIoux FALLS, Sept. 25.—On the second night of the carnival the Sioux Falls Elks held a social session, and like all the other social affairs under the auspices of this organization, it will be of a royal character. They will be in the hall of the Elks at 8 o'clock, and intend to give the entertainment and interstake entertainment by inviting the Sioux City Elks and the Park Elks to join them in the hilarity. The Haron members of the order will be here in force.

Fire Causes Heavy Losses.

ABERDEEN, S. D., Sept. 25.—Prairie fires have raged in the vicinity of Maj. L. A. Berger's stock farm, fifteen miles west of Aberdeen, during the past two days, and much damage has resulted. On the Burke farm, a fire broke out at 1,200 acres of pasture and thirty tons of hay. On the Harman farm, a fire broke out at 1,200 acres of pasture and thirty tons of hay.
