on the committee, and he has pleaded ill health as an excuse for getting out of the bad situation.

Mr. Eustis urged that, if anything was to be done to conciliate the Reese-Johns outfit, it would be better to throw Fitzer overboard as a Jonah for the whales in the sea of oblivion. But Ed G. Rogers came in at this point, and it looked as though that would be a slap at him. So they were in a quan-

But when Mr. Eustis read his Globe yesterday morning a conference was held. The would-be governor was clearly piqued.

"It seems to me," he said with some asperity, we are hearing a good deal about what these people in St. Paul could do if they had their men on the committee, and what Berg could do if ed the following county committee: he hadn't been snubbed, and how Koerner would have helped a lot more from Litchfield, and then there's Dunn -But what's the use. Now we'll let these fellows cut loose. "If Dar Reese wants a man on that committee, let him have it, and per-haps we can keep these knockers quiet. But we want to make Mr. Reese understand beyond a peradventure that he is being looked to to carry Ramsey county, and we'll have to have not less than 3,000 plurality over here, too, if we ever expect to get through."

Mr. Reese's choice for committeeman at the time of the original selection of names was Ald. W. J. Donahower, and it is expected that he will be given the place now, if he will accept it.

Mr. Donahower has been sort of sulking in his tent since he was denied a commission in William Henry's army, him a peace commissioner, for he has been a rankling thorn in the flesh of at all, but he is under deep obligations to Reese and the rest, who made a valiant fight to get him the nomination for mayor. If Reese says so, Donahower will turn in and contribute what influence he may have among the young Republicans, although it may be difficult at times for him to remember the new sets to the same sets to the sam remember the name of the guberna-torial nominee. Still, the patronage at the disposal of the chief executive of the state is something in the way of loaves and fishes, and this is expected to help in keeping the chagrined Fourth warder in a hopeful state of mind. Representative Dan Shell, of Worth ington, was a caller at the headquarters of the Republican state central committee yesterday.

"Will Eustis carry the Second congressional district?" was asked of him. "That is hard to say," replied the Worthington man. "Off-hand, I should perhaps, say that he would. The district is naturally strongly Republican. But it is also a Lind stronghold, and Mr. Lind seems to be more popular than ever just at this time, when the returning soldiers are beinging home. than ever just at this time, when the returning soldiers are bringing home a good record of his service at Chickamauga. Clough only came out of the eighteen counties of the district with a plurality of barely a thousand two years ago."

"Will Mr. Eustis do any better?"

"I don't know," replied Mr. Shell, who

The Minneapolis Times of yesterday, devoted several columns to a raking over of the boodling Minneapolis aldermen. As it is friendly to would-be Gov. Eustis, or has been, the following excerpt is probably not overdrawn. It shows the innate born cohesiveness of the Republican organization, and Mr. Eustis seems to be distinctly a Repub-

Everybody knew Haney was guilty, and the Republican leaders knew it better than any one else. Schultz, where the latter had been repeatedly and in numerous political campaigns publicly denounced as a boodler.

There is more trouble brewing for the party in Morrison county.

The Republicans of the district have renominated W. M. Fuller, although it was not without a hard fight over C. B. Buckman, in which Fuller was ably seconded in his efforts by the Northern Pacific influence. Buckman threatens to run independently, and, as the former Sauk Rapids stelle'S SPY HAD BAD NEWS man is a campaigner of dash, vim and experience, he may give Fuller a hard run. Buckman will be supported by the lumbermen to a man, and the Reas Eustis and the state ticket are already weak in that class of Minnesota

There has been some talk about a ombination to send in an anti-Fuller ticket, but it is doubted in many quarters whether Buckman would accept an indorsement from the Democrats or Populists. He is bitter, however, against Fuller, and declares he will stick in the fight to a finish.

Meantime, the friends of J. H. Koop, of Brainerd, are quietly grooming him for the house nomination. Koop has lived on the edge of the pine forests for a score of years. He has been a suc cessful business man, and his friends say can carry the district. Mr. Cole, of Motley, is also suggested as a possible nominee for the larger house. If either of these men should be nom-inated, and the union parties should have a blank in the senatorship, the chances are that Fuller would be thrown in the air, as the saying is, although he is a hard fighter, and Buck- division. man would have no snap. City Clerk Matt Jensen has sent out notices notifying the aldermen that they must send in the location of the building selected for a polling place in the next election by Tuesday afternoon ignating the places selected. The fusionists and Prohibitionists will be out in force at the capitol Monday morning, when the hearing comes up before Attorney General Childs to determine the position of the parties on the state ticket. The Democrats have selected J. C. Michael and C. D. O'Brien as their attorneys, and D. W. Dotly will probably represent the Pro-days before the election.

Good speakers will be in attendance ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 29, 1898.—Editor Globe: There are a number of traitors in the Democratic ranks, and it is high time that some of them were smoked out. One of them has been persistently working in the interest of Ed Rogers, for clerk of court, while making great professions of active support for the Democratic candidates. He seems white making great professions of active support for the Democratic candidates. He seems to be more concerned about a relative and his gingerly stipend than the Democratic party. Before the Democratic convention was called this man spent his time running between Democratic headquarters and Rogers' office, where he retailed out the secrets of the Democratic campaign. If this slick old politician thinks he is playing foxy and that no one is onto his curves he is sadly mistaken. This gray headed veteran should take one position or the other. He cannot be a Republican and a Democrat at the same time. Then there is the ex-chief of police, John Clark, who has a grievance against the Democratic candidate for sheriff, and who is going about lobbying for George Irish. Such conduct comes with poor grace from Clark, who fed and grew fat on Democratic pap and finally retired on a pension. Clark is sore because he did not get a life tenure in office. COMING STATE CAM-PAIGN

Chaplain Harrington Sent Out to See if the Old Soldiers Were Really Angry at William Henry Eustis Found the Defection Even Worse Than the Democrats Had Told-Ringdal Has Eddy Beat.

Lieut. John Lind spent yesterday in the Twin Cities, meeting his political and other friends. Mr. Lind is delighted with the prospects of success for the Democratic ticket, and especially with the reports from the northern part of the state.

A prominent commercial traveler, who is just back from a trip up the St. Paul & Duluth, declares that Lind and Towne will run much stronger in that district than they did two years ago. Mr. Lind is being eagerly urged to make addresses at various parts of this district, and it is probable that he will, before he returns to his mili-tary duties next month, deliver three or more speeches in that congressional

Reports from the Seventh congressional district are to the effect that Senator Ringdal is giving the Republicans a bad scare, and, in order to off-set as much as possible the tremendous inroads he seems to be making next, in order that an ordinance can be passed Tuesday night officially desinto the Republican strength, Senator Knute Nelson has been booked for five speeches in Otter Tail county, in the hope of keeping the district in line for Eddy, whose return is essential to the happiness of the party managers.

The Republicans are trying to gain a little ground by making an attack on Mr. Lind's vote against an amendment to the interstate commerce bill which was asked by the railroads. In return for this they promised to give the commercial travelers an inter-changeable mileage book, a matter of The Republican county campaign committee today issued a call for a meeting in conjunction with the county committeemen Tuesday afternoon at a circular now being sent out, he did not believe the henefits to be derived. pected to be ready to submit a list of judges of election, including a ballot judge, as the campaign committee must

This circular was faint consolation for the Republicans, when compared with the sad tidings they received in their own camp from their own secret service men, who have been out in various parts of the state inspecting the intrenchments thrown up by the anti-Eustis old soldiers, even Sam Kirkham and the rest.

When it became apparent to the wiseacres at Republican state head-quarters that the old soldiers' defection was a fact and not a newspaper yarn a discovery, by the way, which they were slow to make, Rev. W. H. Harwere slow to make, Rev. W. H. Harrington, who was formerly a Universalist pastor in Minneapolis, and who was at one time chaplain of the house of representatives, was sent out to investigate. Mr. Harrington is a Grand Army man himself, and has stood by the party through thick and this release the party through thick and thin, rallying staunchly to its standard when charges were made against the man-agement of the state prison, of which he was also chaplain. It was thought that, after praying professionally for the legislature and convicts in turn, Mr. Harrington ought to be able to ought to be able to Springfield Advance. see good in any possible human situa-tion, but nevertheless the report he brought back to Judge Steele yesterday was most gloomy. It was again the message of the king's minstrel:

Might weave into the gay and light some But try as he might Mr. Harrington found the reported breaches in the Republican ranks only too apparent, only too serious. He informed Judge Steele that the bolt was spread all over the state and was simply awful; that there state and was simply awful; that there was not a place that he knew of where there was a G. A. R. post, but that the soldiers were against Eustis, and in many places actually organized against the Republican candidate. "And what did Steele say to this report?" was asked of Chaplain Harring-

"Oh, he pretended that he did not be lieve it," said the chaplain. "But it is true all the same. I have given them warning, and they will find out that it is true when the votes are counted. Mr. Harrington has been assigned to stump Mr. Wright's legislative district, of which Hutchinson is the seat and center of the fray.

Said a well known Republican from the interior of the state yesterday:
"If The Globe knew half of the things there are to discourage the managers of the Republican campaign, it would not be surprised at the condi-tion, nor would the general public. The lack of means is, of course, the chief trouble. The state of the Republican press, due to the same cause, it being a fact that but few of the papers of our faith are doing anything for the state campaign, is another most discouraging feature. In former years the state committee has had these papers doing their utmost. Now with such pa-pers as Wall's Ortonville Journal, always Republican, denouncing Eustis for his connection with the Guaranty Loan, in which Mr. Wall lost $10,000 and with such ever to be relied on Republican editors as G. S. Pease, of the Anoka Union, denouncing the state administration of the Republican party things are simply bilious. Besides there is the bolt of the Republican old soldiers, which one must sooner or later acknowledge, is wide spread and dangerous. These things are enough to knock out the digestive apparatus of a much tougher man that John Steele."

The sporting fraternity are being quoted by Once Was Private Secretary Mannix to show an alleged trend of sentiment toward William Henry. While Joseph T. is well versed in the ways by which these gentry obtain their information, as to Republican hopes and aspirations, it might interest him to watch the situation in Duluth, where even Republicans are wagering their money on Lind and Towne.

The Twin City mass meetings tomorrow and next Monday night are being awaited with interest. The Twin City Rapid Transit company will run special cars from Minneapolis tomorrow night and try to turn out a crowd at the Bustis meeting at the Auditorium, local interest not seeming to warrant the keeping open of the hall, but for the fact that the committee in charge can-not back out at this late date, and show its weakness. So a stall fed crowd of Republican officeholders, former office-holders and hoping-to-be officeholders will be brought over from the sister

No such means as this will be necessary to draw the people of Minneapolis to hear Mr. Lind when he speaks in that city as week from tomorrow night. The city is going en masse to welcome the gallant quartermaster of the al-most igolized Twelfth Minnesota, and in spite of the Republican city organization over there, which now in its capillary form, reaches even the pre-cincts and city blocks, is unable to stem the tide which promises to give Lind from 3,500 to 5,000 plurality in Henne-

Gov. Clough went to New Ulm to review the Twelfth regiment, of which John Lind is quartermaster, and this is what he says about the boys' regard for Lind: "It was a pleasure to hear so many of the boys remark during my stay there yesterday, that John Lind has done his duty as quartermas-
