

EUSTIS SEES DEFEAT

MINNEAPOLIS TRIBUNE ADMITS THAT "REPORTS HAVE BEEN VERY DISCOURAGING"

PLAIN REASONS OPERATING

Against the Success of the Head of the Ticket—His Record With the Unsavory Guaranty Loan Affair, the Unfriendly Attitude of the Swedish-Americans and the Antipathy of the Old Soldiers.

The Republicans are badly scared. The Minneapolis Tribune yesterday sounded the following note of warning: Minnesota Republicans might as well wake up to the truth of the political situation in this state, and face at once the unpleasant fact that things are not so rosy as they may seem.

Confidence is a very pretty thing to have and to carry about with you in your travels, but it does not win elections. It takes votes to do that. As a general rule, it is safe to say that the more the confidence which any candidate has for the past few years have been anything but encouraging to the party, and, as these reports are from the mouths of loyal Republicans of good judgment, it is not surprising that the great mass of the voters in the state should have the benefit of that knowledge, that they may more certainly see to it that they appear at the polls Nov. 8 and cast their ballots for the straight Republican ticket, and insure the election of W. H. Eustis as governor.

There can be no doubt but that the state is naturally very strongly Republican, but this year there are very powerful reasons which are operating against the success of the head of the ticket.

W. B. Douglas, Republican candidate for attorney general, will make three speeches in Goodhue county this week. Mr. Douglas estimates Lind's plurality in the Seventh district at 2,000.

One More Against Him. Still another anti-Eustis club has been organized in Minneapolis. Stewart Gamble, a prominent druggist, is secretary, and it meets at No. 5 Nicollet avenue.

Grimshaw is Routed. It has been arranged that W. H. Grimshaw will make speeches during the last week of the campaign in the following cities: Duluth, Stillwater, Wadena, St. Paul, unless the local committees cancel the dates.

Mrs. Vlesch Will Stump. Mrs. Eva McDonald-Vlesch, one of the best campaigners who ever stumped in Minnesota, has espoused the cause of Lind, Gray and Hallenmark, and will roll up a Democratic majority in Hennepin.

Capt. Sam's Frost. Sap R. Van Sant had twenty-two to hear him in Staples. Van Sant is tired of trying to cure with the name of Eustis.

HIS COMRADES WERE THERE.

Large Turnout at the Funeral of William Cunningham.

There was a large and sorrowing company at the funeral of William Cunningham, which was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 41 Virginia avenue. Brief services were held at the family home, Rev. Father Congrove officiating. The body was then escorted to St. Vincent's church by the members of the South St. Paul stock exchange and Acker post of the G. A. R. The pallbearers were B. F. Ferris, W. E. Rogers, James Crammie, J. C. Prendergast, P. T. Kavanagh, Patrick Buckley and William O'Gorman. The interment was at Calvary.

LATE SOCIAL NEWS.

The Nautarium club gave its first dance of the season at City hall Friday night. There were about sixty couples present. The music was good, the supper all that could be desired, and a most enjoyable affair proved. The dances will be given every two weeks during the season.

Lost Her Purse. Arriving in this city from Spokane, Wash., en route to Chicago, law-revering Mrs. M. E. Woods left the train at the depot and proceeded to an up-town restaurant, where she discovered that her purse, containing $23, police station and other valuables, was missing. Mrs. Woods visited the central police station, where she informed Capt. Rouleau and Acker post of the G. A. R. She does not know whether her purse had been stolen or simply lost. She found quarters at the Windsor hotel.

Oil Stove Exploded. The fire department was called to the home of E. Benson, 121 East Fourth street, shortly after 9 o'clock last evening, to extinguish a fire caused by the explosion of an oil stove. The damage was slight.

DO NOT VOTE IT STRAIGHT

SIXTH WARD HEBREWS PLEDGE THEIR SUPPORT TO THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

ROUSING MEETING WAS THAT

Held Yesterday at State and Kentucky Streets—There Were Over 400 Present—These Will Be Another Big Democratic Meeting in the Sixth Ward Tonight—Other Political News.

Over 400 Hebrews of the Sixth ward, in a mass meeting at State and Kentucky streets, last evening, unanimously voted an indorsement of the entire Democratic ticket, both state and county. The meeting was not only one of the largest attended of the campaign, but abounded in enthusiasm. A noticeable feature was the presence of many Hebrews who were deluded with promises of the voting the Republican ticket last spring, and personal remarks from a number of them that henceforth they would prove unwavering in their allegiance to the Democratic party. Many candidates were present, and as each addressed the meeting the listeners voiced their approval of the sentiments expressed by the speakers with the warmest applause. It was a genuine Democratic love feast, and struck terror to the hearts of the several Republican strikers who ventured in to secure a report for their bosses.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the West Side Hebrew Democratic club, which nearly every Jewish voter in the ward. President Fry introduced the speakers, first of whom was Judge Willis, who made a famous address upon the merits of the entire ticket. J. C. Michael spoke upon the bright prospects for a Democratic victory next month, and John Cavanagh advised those present upon their rights and duties as voters. Herman Penman made a short address, and was the recipient of applause lasting several minutes. John H. Ives and A. L. Addicks, Jr., of the Nationalist platform, talked to the voters in German. Among the other candidates presented to the club were James A. Meade, Anton Mieson, John B. Irvine, Dr. O. S. Pine and Sheriff John Wagener, who arrived late.

After the meeting the candidates were invited to attend a dance at Sherman hall, and adjourned in a body to the ball room. Here Judge Willis was called upon for another address. The dance was under the auspices of the Schuben Club, which cordially received the candidates and personally assured them of their support.

In the afternoon the Hebrew Central Democratic club held a meeting at Central hall, at which 250 members were present. Samuel Shedorsky presided. The meeting was for the purpose of reorganizing the club for this campaign, and the following officers were elected: Samuel Shedorsky, president; M. Efron, vice president; I. Feinstein, secretary.

Addresses were made by Oscar Tankenoff, M. Rosenbaum and B. Shapiro.

ONE MORE BIG ONE.

Democrats Meet in the Sixth Ward Again Tonight.

Notwithstanding the immense attendance at the meeting in the same ward last night, the Sixth ward committee has arranged for a big rally at the hall in Marlin's block, South Washburn and Colorado streets, this evening. This will be the first general Democratic meeting in the ward for the present campaign, and a good list of speakers has been arranged for. Among them will be Robert N. Hare, James Melady, Samuel Deering, Lawrence Fisher, Judge E. H. Wood, F. P. Wilds, John De Bryne and Michael Moran.

In the Second, Too. There will also be a meeting tonight in the second ward at Kucker's hall, Margaret and Forest streets. A number of addresses will be given, and a list of addresses will be made by T. R. Kane, Pierce Butler, Stan Donnelly, L. McGee, Edward Peterson, John Cavanagh and others.

CHICKENS WERE TAME.

Even Though They Did Live on Partridge Street.

Joseph Daly, an 18-year-old youth who has been under arrest several times, was locked up at the central station yesterday on a charge of larceny. He is accused of stealing three chickens from C. Nieman, living at 41 Partridge street. Daly and a young companion, it is alleged, caught the chickens, and, bringing them home, were seen by Nieman, who then called the police. The boys ran, but the policeman managed to corral Daly. The prisoner will be tried in the police court today.

THE RECORDS HELP

FRANK HART AND NELLIE BOYD MIGHT FORGET THE PAST

BUT THE POLICE WILL NOT

Something About the Past Careers in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Stillwater of Two Prisoners in the Minneapolis City Jail—Their Arraignments is Set for Today.

There will probably be arraigned in Minneapolis municipal court this morning Frank Hart, alias Bilis, and Nellie Boyd, alias Nellie Boyd, and still more widely known perhaps as "Nellie Nell." They both have been held at the central station since Friday. No charge had been placed against either up to last night.

Hart is the man who tried to kill Inspector Morrissey and Stavio when they arrested him. He shot at them four times. The woman was arrested the same night.

The St. Paul police have been anxious to get Hart for three months. He and A. E. Huewing were released from the state prison about July 1. Shortly after Huewing went to St. Paul and attempted to cash a draft for $1,900, which had been stolen. Huewing was arrested, but Hart, who is alleged to have been an accomplice, escaped.

One day last week a gang of crooks was found in a saloon, at Wabasha street and College avenue, by Detectives Werrick and Marshall. The gang started to run, and as they separated, Thomas Dockery, a Minneapolis boy, was the only one caught. Hart is said to have been in the crowd. He is believed to have done considerable "crooked" work in St. Paul as well as in Minneapolis.

"Nellie Nell" has a history which leads back over ten years. In that time she has been connected with several different gangs of crooks, and a number of men with whom she formerly trained for the service of the underworld. She was a witness in the Harris murder case of several years ago, she having been associated with "Slim" Dugan and "Speck" White, who are serving life sentences for the murder of Snyder. This crowd was known as the St. Paul Rice street gang.

Hart was arrested April 8, 1891, for holding up M. Mueller on Second avenue. Martin Hill, Hart's pal, was caught next day. Each received a sentence of ten years.

SCHUBERT CLUB PLANS.

They Intend a Fine Season of Musical Entertainments.

The annual reception of the Schubert club, which has come to be known as President's day, will go on by courtesy of the Commercial club at its club rooms next Tuesday at 8 o'clock.

To this reception all former members of the Schubert club, and those intending to join during the season are cordially invited. The invitation is also extended to all gentlemen who are interested in the history of musical culture, especially in the city of St. Paul. Conde Hamlin, president of the Commercial club; Richards Gordon, Theodor and W. Wells, No. 2, and G. Smith, Mrs. Francis B. Clarke, J. A. Gregg, Edward Feldhauser and other prominent people will be present to deliver brief addresses on the history of the work that is being attempted by the Schubert club.

There will be a short musical program and refreshments will be served. The opening concert of the club season will be given Tuesday evening, Nov. 1, at Park Congregational church, by Mrs. Hermann Scheffer, assisted by Lewis Shyne, baritone.

Each member who has obtained her membership ticket for this season will be allowed the privilege of a guest. No tickets will be sold for the season without a membership ticket for 1893-1894.

The regular afternoon recitals will be resumed on Wednesday, Nov. 3, and will be continued fortnightly. It is hoped and expected that the club season will end with an evening concert in the city hall, given probably by the Knetel quartet, of Boston, assisted by some noted vocalist. Many delightful features will be introduced into the afternoon recitals, and lectures will be given from time to time, either at the studio or in some place to be announced later.

The Schubert Club Choral and Orchestral association, which is formed, will also give three evening concerts in combination with the library fund concerts, under the patronage of the St. Paul Congregational church. It has been decided that membership in this association will be entirely free for this season, but that a regular and prompt attendance will be all that is required to join either the chorus or orchestra, both of which organizations meet weekly under the direction of Mr. Emil Oberholzer, at the present hall, on Monday nights at the Phoenix building, and the mixed chorus Thursday nights at Howard, Farwell & Co.'s rooms.
