

HOPE FOR DREYFUS

DEVIL'S ISLAND PRISONER MAY YET BE FREED BY HIS COUNTRYMEN

MILITARY SENTENCE MAY BE SET ASIDE

INNOCENCE OF THE FAMOUS PRISONER BOLDLY DECLARED IN COURT

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN TO PREVENT A RIOT

Testimony of Reporter Bard Causes a Sensation and Points the Way Out of an Expose of the Unfair Tactics Employed in the Prosecution of Dreyfus by His Military Enemies.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—At the close of the first day's hearing in the Dreyfus revision proceedings by the court of cassation, there seems to be a chance for the Devil's Island prisoner to regain his liberty.

Although the hearing so far is favorable to Dreyfus, it must not be supposed that there is to be any real clearing up of the mystery. It looks rather as if an attempt was being made to rattle the truth by liberating Dreyfus without a new trial.

M. BARD'S TESTIMONY.

The event of the day was the testimony of Reporter Bard, who reviewed the history of the case from the arrest of Dreyfus, reciting the claim of Mme. Dreyfus that the bordereau was written by Maj. Esterhazy, and not by Capt. Alfred Dreyfus, testimony of the handwriting experts to the contrary notwithstanding.

The sensation of M. Bard's report was the short-hand notes of the examination of the late Lieut. Col. Henry by M. Godefroy Cavaignac, then minister of war, after Henry's forgeries had been discovered.

TODAY'S BULLETIN.

- 1—Hope for Dreyfus. France Faces Revolution. Casualties on Great Lakes. Mr. Clausen's Role. 2—County Political Field. Effort to Save Irish. Democratic Rally. 3—Office Holders Assessed. Philadelphia Peace Jubilee. 4—Editorial. Club Women Discuss Education. 5—Sporting News. Inter-Collegiate Golf. News of the Railroads. 6—Markets of the World. Bar Silver, 90 3/4. Cash Wheat, 95 3/4. 7—Minnesota Matters. Fight With Indians. News of the Northwest. 8—Case Lake Park. Omaha Butter Awards. St. Paul Street Signs.

ATLANTIC LINERS.

NEW YORK—Arrived: Pennland, from Southampton; Welmar, Bremen. Sailed: Cuffe, Liverpool; Koenigson, Bremen. ROTTERDAM—Sailed: Werkendam, New York. GENOA—Arrived: Aller, New York. Sailed: Fulda, New York. BREMEN—Arrived: Trave, New York, via Southampton. SOUTHAMPTON—Arrived: Fuerst Bismarck, from New York, via Cherbourg, for Hamburg. QUEBEC—Sailed: Cymric, New York. ALBANY—Sailed: Sibiria, Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA—Sailed: Switzerland, Antwerp.

TODAY'S EVENTS.

METROPOLITAN—"Pudd'head Wilson." GRAND—"Muldoo's Plente," 8:15. Palm Garden—Vaudeville, 2 and 7 PM. Fair for the House of the Good Shepherd, Market hall, 8 PM. Democratic meeting, Seventh street, between Broadway and John, 8 PM. Fifth ward Democrats, St. Francis' hall, Warren and James, 8 PM. Entertainment for Athletic association and Gymnasium, Central high school, 8 PM. Eighth ward Democrats, Brandt's hall, University avenue, 8 PM. Lecture by Basil Burwell, First Christian church, Nelson and Farrington avenues, 8 PM. Randolph street property owners meet., 8 PM. Trades and Labor assembly, Assembly hall, 8 PM. Democratic meeting, Twin City hall, Rice and University, 8 PM. Democratic meeting, White Bear, 8 PM. Miss Craig lectures Central high school, 4:35 PM.

LAKE STEAMER LOST

THE DOTY BELIEVED TO HAVE GONE DOWN WITH ALL ON BOARD

SCHOONER SUNK IN ONTARIO

Only the Captain Saved, While the Wife of the Skipper and Seven of the Crew Drowned—Schooner Jeanette in the Tow of the Doty Reported Safe Off Grosse Point—Lake Casualties.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The steamer L. R. Doty, with her crew of fifteen men, is believed by marine men to have been lost in the great storm in mid-lake, off Kenosha. The names of the crew, so far as known, are:

CAPT. CHRISTOPHER SMITH, Port Huron. CHIEF ENGINEER THOMAS ABERNATHIE, Port Huron. FIRST MATE HARRY THORPE, Detroit. STEWART DOSS, West Bay City.

The remainder of the crew are not known to the owners in Cleveland. The probable fate of the ship was learned by the tug Prodigy, which was sent out by the independent tug line to search for the Doty and the schooner Olive Jeanette, which the steamer held in tow.

The court house was emptied quickly. There were no demonstrations and no cries of any sort.

COURT IN A DILEMMA.

The belief is general tonight that the court of cassation will pronounce neither for revision nor for annulment of the decision in the Dreyfus case, as either course would entail awkward

William Henry Eustis as a Civic Patriot!!!!

In his whole public and private career William Henry Eustis has manifested a genuine spirit of civic patriotism.—Pioneer Press Editorial, Thursday, Oct. 27.

The city council of Minneapolis during Eustis' term of office as mayor consisted of fourteen Republicans and twelve Democrats; and at its meeting held Sept. 20, 1893, a resolution was introduced by a Republican alderman, and was at that meeting adopted by only two dissenting votes.

Resolved by the city council of the city of Minneapolis: That, whereas gambling and other like fraudulent and unlawful practices are being openly carried on at many places easily ascertainable to the business portions thereof, and the same are spreading throughout the city, and it is the duty of the city to enforce the laws within the city of Minneapolis, and to see that the same are enforced, and that the city council of the city of Minneapolis, do hereby pass an ordinance, to be known as the ordinance prohibiting the same, in consequence whereof our citizens are entitled to the enjoyment of our municipal ordinances; therefore, he hereby is, requested by this council, to take care to see that the ordinance and the ordinance of the city prohibiting gambling and prostitution be enforced within the city, and to that end that he forthwith prevent the further continuance of gambling and other like fraudulent and unlawful practices, and that he immediately close the many disorderly houses and places of ill-fame and of prostitution within the city, including pretended confectory and fruit stores and bathing parlors, and all other places where the same are being practiced, with little attempt at concealment and wholly without restraint.

Mayor Eustis was angered by this stinging rebuke. In self-defense he had but one thing to do, and did it—vetoed the resolution.

The possessor of civic patriotism must be a civic patriot. William Henry Eustis would therefore logically be, according to the Pioneer Press, a civic patriot. A civic patriot, therefore, must be a man who defies the houses of assignation, gambling houses and other devices of the devil. Makers of dictionaries of the future will feel under obligations to the St. Paul Pioneer Press for the definition.

Twined was not a thief, but a saint. Eustis is not an insincere, unscrupulous man, but a civic patriot.

consequences. To avoid these, it is expected the court will decide that as the affair now presents itself there has been no treason and that the condemnation pronounced upon Dreyfus by the court martial cannot be upheld.

The Courier du Sol says that the revelations in the report of M. Bard, before the court of cassation, as to the part played by some members of the general staff, have produced a strong effect in military circles, and are "likely to result in a reaction tending to put an end to the antagonism between the civil and military authorities."

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN.

Spectators Gained Admission to the Court Room Only by Card.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—Extraordinary precautions were taken during the progress of the hearing of the Dreyfus case to prevent interference by the mob which had gathered outside the court house. No one was admitted save by card. Mme. Dreyfus and Maitre Labore, who defended M. Zola, were among the first to enter the court room. Mme. Dreyfus was represented by Maitre Morinard. During the progress of the proceedings some of the lawyers became alarmed at the threats of the mob, and left the court house. There were no really serious disturbances, however.

EARTH TREMBLED.

Ottawa Citizens Given a Rude Awakening at an Early Hour.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 27.—About 1 o'clock this morning an earthquake shock passed over the city. It was felt distinctly on Sandy Hill, and in the vicinity of Gilmour street. On the latter street several of the houses were shaken, awakening the inmates and causing great alarm. The shock was only slightly felt in the vicinity of Sparks street. The duration was about ten seconds.

IT IS TRUE PLAGUE.

Dubonic Pest is Raging in Russia With High Mortality.

LAKE STEAMER LOST

THE DOTY BELIEVED TO HAVE GONE DOWN WITH ALL ON BOARD

SCHOONER SUNK IN ONTARIO

Only the Captain Saved, While the Wife of the Skipper and Seven of the Crew Drowned—Schooner Jeanette in the Tow of the Doty Reported Safe Off Grosse Point—Lake Casualties.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The steamer L. R. Doty, with her crew of fifteen men, is believed by marine men to have been lost in the great storm in mid-lake, off Kenosha. The names of the crew, so far as known, are:

CAPT. CHRISTOPHER SMITH, Port Huron. CHIEF ENGINEER THOMAS ABERNATHIE, Port Huron. FIRST MATE HARRY THORPE, Detroit. STEWART DOSS, West Bay City.

The remainder of the crew are not known to the owners in Cleveland. The probable fate of the ship was learned by the tug Prodigy, which was sent out by the independent tug line to search for the Doty and the schooner Olive Jeanette, which the steamer held in tow.

The court house was emptied quickly. There were no demonstrations and no cries of any sort.

COURT IN A DILEMMA.

The belief is general tonight that the court of cassation will pronounce neither for revision nor for annulment of the decision in the Dreyfus case, as either course would entail awkward

William Henry Eustis as a Civic Patriot!!!!

In his whole public and private career William Henry Eustis has manifested a genuine spirit of civic patriotism.—Pioneer Press Editorial, Thursday, Oct. 27.

The city council of Minneapolis during Eustis' term of office as mayor consisted of fourteen Republicans and twelve Democrats; and at its meeting held Sept. 20, 1893, a resolution was introduced by a Republican alderman, and was at that meeting adopted by only two dissenting votes.

Resolved by the city council of the city of Minneapolis: That, whereas gambling and other like fraudulent and unlawful practices are being openly carried on at many places easily ascertainable to the business portions thereof, and the same are spreading throughout the city, and it is the duty of the city to enforce the laws within the city of Minneapolis, and to see that the same are enforced, and that the city council of the city of Minneapolis, do hereby pass an ordinance, to be known as the ordinance prohibiting the same, in consequence whereof our citizens are entitled to the enjoyment of our municipal ordinances; therefore, he hereby is, requested by this council, to take care to see that the ordinance and the ordinance of the city prohibiting gambling and prostitution be enforced within the city, and to that end that he forthwith prevent the further continuance of gambling and other like fraudulent and unlawful practices, and that he immediately close the many disorderly houses and places of ill-fame and of prostitution within the city, including pretended confectory and fruit stores and bathing parlors, and all other places where the same are being practiced, with little attempt at concealment and wholly without restraint.

Mayor Eustis was angered by this stinging rebuke. In self-defense he had but one thing to do, and did it—vetoed the resolution.

The possessor of civic patriotism must be a civic patriot. William Henry Eustis would therefore logically be, according to the Pioneer Press, a civic patriot. A civic patriot, therefore, must be a man who defies the houses of assignation, gambling houses and other devices of the devil. Makers of dictionaries of the future will feel under obligations to the St. Paul Pioneer Press for the definition.

Twined was not a thief, but a saint. Eustis is not an insincere, unscrupulous man, but a civic patriot.

consequences. To avoid these, it is expected the court will decide that as the affair now presents itself there has been no treason and that the condemnation pronounced upon Dreyfus by the court martial cannot be upheld.

The Courier du Sol says that the revelations in the report of M. Bard, before the court of cassation, as to the part played by some members of the general staff, have produced a strong effect in military circles, and are "likely to result in a reaction tending to put an end to the antagonism between the civil and military authorities."

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN.

Spectators Gained Admission to the Court Room Only by Card.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—Extraordinary precautions were taken during the progress of the hearing of the Dreyfus case to prevent interference by the mob which had gathered outside the court house. No one was admitted save by card. Mme. Dreyfus and Maitre Labore, who defended M. Zola, were among the first to enter the court room. Mme. Dreyfus was represented by Maitre Morinard. During the progress of the proceedings some of the lawyers became alarmed at the threats of the mob, and left the court house. There were no really serious disturbances, however.

EARTH TREMBLED.

Ottawa Citizens Given a Rude Awakening at an Early Hour.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 27.—About 1 o'clock this morning an earthquake shock passed over the city. It was felt distinctly on Sandy Hill, and in the vicinity of Gilmour street. On the latter street several of the houses were shaken, awakening the inmates and causing great alarm. The shock was only slightly felt in the vicinity of Sparks street. The duration was about ten seconds.

IT IS TRUE PLAGUE.

Dubonic Pest is Raging in Russia With High Mortality.

LAKE STEAMER LOST

THE DOTY BELIEVED TO HAVE GONE DOWN WITH ALL ON BOARD

SCHOONER SUNK IN ONTARIO

Only the Captain Saved, While the Wife of the Skipper and Seven of the Crew Drowned—Schooner Jeanette in the Tow of the Doty Reported Safe Off Grosse Point—Lake Casualties.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The steamer L. R. Doty, with her crew of fifteen men, is believed by marine men to have been lost in the great storm in mid-lake, off Kenosha. The names of the crew, so far as known, are:

CAPT. CHRISTOPHER SMITH, Port Huron. CHIEF ENGINEER THOMAS ABERNATHIE, Port Huron. FIRST MATE HARRY THORPE, Detroit. STEWART DOSS, West Bay City.

The remainder of the crew are not known to the owners in Cleveland. The probable fate of the ship was learned by the tug Prodigy, which was sent out by the independent tug line to search for the Doty and the schooner Olive Jeanette, which the steamer held in tow.

The court house was emptied quickly. There were no demonstrations and no cries of any sort.

COURT IN A DILEMMA.

The belief is general tonight that the court of cassation will pronounce neither for revision nor for annulment of the decision in the Dreyfus case, as either course would entail awkward

William Henry Eustis as a Civic Patriot!!!!

In his whole public and private career William Henry Eustis has manifested a genuine spirit of civic patriotism.—Pioneer Press Editorial, Thursday, Oct. 27.

The city council of Minneapolis during Eustis' term of office as mayor consisted of fourteen Republicans and twelve Democrats; and at its meeting held Sept. 20, 1893, a resolution was introduced by a Republican alderman, and was at that meeting adopted by only two dissenting votes.

Resolved by the city council of the city of Minneapolis: That, whereas gambling and other like fraudulent and unlawful practices are being openly carried on at many places easily ascertainable to the business portions thereof, and the same are spreading throughout the city, and it is the duty of the city to enforce the laws within the city of Minneapolis, and to see that the same are enforced, and that the city council of the city of Minneapolis, do hereby pass an ordinance, to be known as the ordinance prohibiting the same, in consequence whereof our citizens are entitled to the enjoyment of our municipal ordinances; therefore, he hereby is, requested by this council, to take care to see that the ordinance and the ordinance of the city prohibiting gambling and prostitution be enforced within the city, and to that end that he forthwith prevent the further continuance of gambling and other like fraudulent and unlawful practices, and that he immediately close the many disorderly houses and places of ill-fame and of prostitution within the city, including pretended confectory and fruit stores and bathing parlors, and all other places where the same are being practiced, with little attempt at concealment and wholly without restraint.

Mayor Eustis was angered by this stinging rebuke. In self-defense he had but one thing to do, and did it—vetoed the resolution.

The possessor of civic patriotism must be a civic patriot. William Henry Eustis would therefore logically be, according to the Pioneer Press, a civic patriot. A civic patriot, therefore, must be a man who defies the houses of assignation, gambling houses and other devices of the devil. Makers of dictionaries of the future will feel under obligations to the St. Paul Pioneer Press for the definition.

Twined was not a thief, but a saint. Eustis is not an insincere, unscrupulous man, but a civic patriot.

consequences. To avoid these, it is expected the court will decide that as the affair now presents itself there has been no treason and that the condemnation pronounced upon Dreyfus by the court martial cannot be upheld.

The Courier du Sol says that the revelations in the report of M. Bard, before the court of cassation, as to the part played by some members of the general staff, have produced a strong effect in military circles, and are "likely to result in a reaction tending to put an end to the antagonism between the civil and military authorities."

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN.

Spectators Gained Admission to the Court Room Only by Card.

PARIS, Oct. 27.—Extraordinary precautions were taken during the progress of the hearing of the Dreyfus case to prevent interference by the mob which had gathered outside the court house. No one was admitted save by card. Mme. Dreyfus and Maitre Labore, who defended M. Zola, were among the first to enter the court room. Mme. Dreyfus was represented by Maitre Morinard. During the progress of the proceedings some of the lawyers became alarmed at the threats of the mob, and left the court house. There were no really serious disturbances, however.

EARTH TREMBLED.

Ottawa Citizens Given a Rude Awakening at an Early Hour.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 27.—About 1 o'clock this morning an earthquake shock passed over the city. It was felt distinctly on Sandy Hill, and in the vicinity of Gilmour street. On the latter street several of the houses were shaken, awakening the inmates and causing great alarm. The shock was only slightly felt in the vicinity of Sparks street. The duration was about ten seconds.

IT IS TRUE PLAGUE.

Dubonic Pest is Raging in Russia With High Mortality.

MAY FIND A KING

POSSIBLE OUTCOME OF THE PRESIDENT MINISTERIAL CRISIS IN FRANCE

LOUIS NAPOLEON'S BIG LOAN

Dimensions of the Sum Realized on Special Security Preclude the Possibility of It Being Required for Private Purposes—Prince Known to Be the Choice of the Bonapartists.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Rome correspondent of the Times says: "I learn that Prince Louis Napoleon, who was supposed to have rejoined his regiment in Russia, is really at Geneva, where he has raised, on special security, a loan of such dimensions as preclude the possibility of its being required for private purposes. Prince Louis has long been a candidate of the Bonapartists for the French throne, in

CHIPPewa TIMBER LANDS.

Government Has Ordered an Investigation of Their Disposition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—An investigation of the system of disposing of timber lands of the Chippewa Indians has been ordered and Messrs. Schwartz and Parks, agents of the department, who have had much experience in this line of work, are making a detailed inquiry into timber cutting privileges on the Chippewa lands, and will report as soon as their work is completed. They were dispatched to the scene as the result of instructions from Secretary Blaine, who directed Commissioner Hermann, of the general land office, to see that no more contracts are entered into with these Indians pending the present investigation. Several conferences between officials in the department have been held in the past twenty-four hours, going over the important results of Commissioner of Indian Affairs Jones' visit to the scene of the late Indian troubles in Minnesota, and steps have been taken toward remedying abuses found to exist.

BOY TRAIN ROBBERS.

Five of Them Are Sentenced to Terms in the Penitentiary.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 27.—In criminal court today Herbert Donovan, Alonzo Artibon, Charles Cook, James and William Hathaway were sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years for robbing a Burlington passenger train near St. Joseph the evening of August 11. The robbers are mere boys, and of good families. On this account the railroad and express officials consented to the assessment of the minimum sentence upon their plea of guilty. The robbery was successfully executed, but no booty obtained. After throwing the safe, containing a large amount of money, from the train, the boys became frightened and ran away without opening it. They proceeded to their homes in this city, and next day James Hathaway made a confession and all were arrested.

MINES REMOVED.

Spaniards Answer a Direct Question as to Havana Harbor.

HAVANA, Oct. 27.—A joint session of the United States and Spanish evacuation commissions will be held tomorrow in the palace of the colonial government. The special instructions were delivered to the American commissioners by the Spaniards, one giving a full list of the names of those who will remain on the island until both commissions can decide what to do with them, and the other answering a question asked by the Americans regarding mines in the harbor. In the latter note the Spaniards say on the day the protocol was signed all the mines at the harbor entrance were removed. They assert also that there were never any others.

SAGASTA'S TIME SHORT.

Dynasty May Be Involved in the Ministry's Inevitable Fall.

MADRID, Oct. 27.—A ministerial crisis is foreboding. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly grows more menacing. When the army takes a hand in administration it is not likely to stop with overtures. The political situation here is not so bright as it once was. Sagasta formed his ministry. He can hardly resist the pressure that daily grows stronger, and it is feared that the dynasty may be involved in the minister's inevitable fall. Especially is this a result to be apprehended when it is considered that parliament hourly