

his course of securing these reports would not be construed as seeking adverse reports. He cited Gens. Merritt and Shafter as approving the beef.

"Newspaper reports emanating from Gen. Miles that 15,000 pounds of beef were condemned at Porto Rico is absolute falsehood. No such quantity was condemned there or elsewhere."

Witness said Surgeon Daly's report that the beef apparently was infected with chemicals to aid in preservation was a "falsehood" and he made it out of whole cloth.

"This," continued the witness, "is a scandal, calculated to ruin thousands of people and discredit and put many one of the great industries of the world. Gen. Miles, in his testimony, refers to the beef as sent out under pretense of an experiment. This implies corruption; a serious charge, not to be made lightly. Already the press, almost wholly, has accepted this view, and some have demanded my dismissal."

Gen. Eagan, referring to newspaper attacks, asserted that the secretary of war had nothing, whatsoever, to do with the matter. He said that he had not seen the report, and that he had not seen the report, and that he had not seen the report.

Gen. Eagan's testimony on this point follows: "Gen. Miles was asked by your commission how things stood with respect to the beef. His answer is: 'You had better ask the secretary of war on commissary general. I think they can tell you more than I can. As to the army as food and the pretense that it was sent as an experiment.'" the old friendships which sprang up between the old settlers. To his friends "A. J. Long" says he offered of greeting. After a few minutes of the best, and he spoke cordially of the early settlers of Minnesota and their progress and enterprising spirit in all matters which reverted to the benefit of the state.

The span of the last fifty years was a "span" of revolution and growth. It was hard to appreciate the early and small beginnings which were made by the pioneers.

State Capitol Last Night Was the Scene of One of the Most Memorable Gatherings in Its History—The Reception Held by Gov. and Mrs. Lind Was One of the Pleasantry Features.

Five hundred territorial pioneers from all parts of the state gathered on common ground at the state house last evening and exchanged greetings. In many cases the first in many years.

The occasion was the second annual reunion of the Minnesota Territorial Pioneers Association, a group of old settlers, not alone territorial settlers, but many of a more recent date, filled the corridors of the state capital, the state officers, and the state officers.

By 8 o'clock the capitol corridors were crowded with people. Venerable old gentlemen and ladies, and matronly old ladies, of Minnesota as a territory, were gathered in groups around the halls and offices, chatting and relating reminiscences of the old days.

WHEEL CALL IN REFER. GRAND JURY WILL HAVE AN INTERVIEW WITH THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE ABOUT THE ELEVEN RESORTS. Gossiped Around the Court House That Some Determined Action May Be Expected to Follow the Effort of O. S. Deringer to Drive Them From Their Present Locations—Middleton Murder Case. The grand jury will take up the matter of the eleven alleged houses of ill fame located up town, which have been bound over on information furnished by O. S. Deringer, Mayor Kiefer and Deringer have been subpoenaed to appear as witnesses in the matter, and the mayor waited two hours yesterday afternoon in the anti-chamber for an audience. It is said that the grand jury has decided to bring about a thorough investigation of the matter, and it is understood that it is the intention of the jurymen in case there is not sufficient evidence furnished to indict the keepers of the eleven houses in question to wait on the mayor in a body and inform his excellency that strenuous action will be taken unless the houses are ordered down into the special district set apart for the purpose. Yesterday the grand jury spent the day in examining witnesses in connection with the Middleton murder case, and the matter of Stewart, the engineer, who was discharged in municipal court on preliminary examination on the charge of assaulting a child under age. BILLED TOO LIGHT. North Branch Firm Charged With Violating the Interstate Law. The case of Wallace Hart Baldwin, Walter Chandler Baldwin and George W. Elliott, charged with conspiracy to violate the interstate commerce law, was on trial yesterday before Judge Lockhart and a jury in United States court. The grand jury had previously underbilled a number of shipments of potatoes sent to Chicago. The firm engaged in the potato business at North Branch, as W. C. Hart Baldwin, and have been shipping potatoes to Chicago. It is reported that on Nov. 15, 1897, the firm shipped 7074 bushels of potatoes to Chicago, valued at $7,140.
