

PARK BOARD BILLS

MINNEAPOLIS WILL SUBMIT TWO TO THE LEGISLATURE FOR ITS APPROVAL BERRY IS SUPERINTENDENT

Charges Presented Against Him at the Annual Meeting of the Board, but Referred Without Action—All of the Officers Re-elected—Stubborn Blaze—Brakeman Killed—The News of the Flour City.

GLOBE'S MINNEAPOLIS OFFICE, 20 WASHINGTON AV. SOUTH. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—At the annual meeting of the park board this afternoon John Tuoman charged that Super Berry was doing work for private profit and competing with the gardeners. He wanted an investigation, as did a number of North side citizens. The officers were re-elected. The following officers were elected: A. Adams, secretary; J. A. Adams, vice president; W. M. Berry; attorney; C. J. Rockwood.

Farce Comedy Held-Up. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—A dance, a grocer, at 1324 Twenty-fourth street east, had an experience with a highwayman tonight. The highwayman was a young man, who had a handkerchief and carrying a revolver entered the store and demanded his cash. Mr. Dance opened the door and the highwayman, who had a gun, saw that it contained but a few dollars and commenced a search of Mr. Morrison's pocket-book, but that gentleman had previously hidden it. "If you have any more money, you will take this," said the bandit, and he reached over the counter, took a plug of tobacco, a box of cigars, and with a hush ushered himself out of the store.

Desk Factory Blaze. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—The factory of the Wisconsin Desk Manufacturing company, 1008-1020 Monroe street northeast, was visited by a destructive fire this evening. The estimate of the loss placed it at $3,000 or $4,000. The building is a large three-story frame structure and is used for the manufacture of desks. The fire is thought to have started in the middle of the second floor of the main building.

Brakeman Killed. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—James C. Ferguson, a brakeman on the Wisconsin Central railroad, received injuries last night from the falling of a freight train. Ferguson was head brakeman on the extra freight train on which he was working. He was riding between the engine and the first car, and accidentally slipped off, when between Como and Minneapolis. His left arm was entirely severed at the wrist by the falling of the skull was fractured. The train was brought to a standstill and the injured man picked up. He expired before Minnesota was reached.

Stabbing Blaze. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—A fire in the shaving shed of the St. Anthony hotel, in Pasadena, Cal., some weeks ago, and his remains were shipped to this city for interment. The program has been sent to all points along the line of the road, but no trace of the missing body can be found.

Dockery's Escape. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—William Dockery, an either going north and crossed the Canadian boundary at a point near Chicago, and is hiding somewhere in Chicago, or some other large city. This is the decision of the police after a search of the country. Dockery, who escaped from a reformatory officer yesterday, Dockery has secured money enough to say to leave the country, he would like to, and they believe he has.

Remains Missing. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—The relatives of Elias Moses, a former resident of Minneapolis, are anxious in regard to the location of the remains of the late Elias Moses. The remains were buried in the St. Anthony cemetery, but the location of the remains is not known.

Ice Yachtsmen Angry. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Several ice boaters at Lake Calhoun this morning objected to the way in which the city police, an employe of the Seaside Ice company, was interfering with their sport, and a fight resulted. Olan was the worst offender, and was breaking a small hole in his leg. The police were summoned, but the fight was over before their arrival and no arrests were made.

Gorman Turners in Session. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—A convention of members of German Turn societies of the state was called to order at 3 o'clock this afternoon at St. Anthony turn hall. This convention is the forty-third annual of the St. Anthony Turn society, and the forty-third annual of the German Turners. About forty delegates were present, representing towns in all parts of the state, and also the Wahpeton, N. D., society.

MINNEAPOLIS BREVITIES. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Grand Commander William E. Richardson, Duluth, will be in Minneapolis Wednesday to inspect Zion Commandery No. 1, and to deliver an elaborate program. An elaborate program has been arranged for his entertainment.

MINNEAPOLIS BREVITIES. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Grand Commander William E. Richardson, Duluth, will be in Minneapolis Wednesday to inspect Zion Commandery No. 1, and to deliver an elaborate program. An elaborate program has been arranged for his entertainment.

MINNEAPOLIS BREVITIES. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Grand Commander William E. Richardson, Duluth, will be in Minneapolis Wednesday to inspect Zion Commandery No. 1, and to deliver an elaborate program. An elaborate program has been arranged for his entertainment.

MINNEAPOLIS BREVITIES. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Grand Commander William E. Richardson, Duluth, will be in Minneapolis Wednesday to inspect Zion Commandery No. 1, and to deliver an elaborate program. An elaborate program has been arranged for his entertainment.

MINNEAPOLIS BREVITIES. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21.—Grand Commander William E. Richardson, Duluth, will be in Minneapolis Wednesday to inspect Zion Commandery No. 1, and to deliver an elaborate program. An elaborate program has been arranged for his entertainment.

STAPLES' JURY IS OUT

CASE SUBMITTED AFTER A TRIAL WHICH HAS LASTED THIRTY DAYS DISAGREEMENT IS EXPECTED

An Early Finding Anticipated by Many, but the Idea Abandoned—Special Meeting of the Prison Board Called—Stillwater Social News—Woman Captures a Wolf—The News of the Northwest.

STILLWATER, Minn., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—The question of whether or not Isaac Staples was sound or unsound mind at the time his purported last will and testament was made, Oct. 9, 1896, now rests with the jury, and the twelve men will have been struggling with the matter since 10:30 this morning, when Judge Williston finished his charge.

WRECK AT NEW ULM. NEW ULM, Minn., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—A wreck occurred in the Milwaukee yards this morning, when a passenger train No. 10, west and a car of flour, Engineer Collins, of the yard engine, was seriously injured. The flour car was overturned, and Brakeman Donagan was injured about the head. The accident was caused by an east-bound freight train, No. 10, which was here. The rear section crashed into the yard engine in the darkness before it could get out of the yard.

UNCLE SAM'S SERVANTS ARRIVED. DEER RIVER, Minn., Jan. 21.—As a result of an investigation made by post-office inspector here Postmaster James E. Brown and his son, Wm. Brown, deputy postmaster, were taken to the jail by order of Deputy United States Marshal Monaghan to answer to the charge of bootlegging. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000.

WYKOFF, Minn., Jan. 21.—Fred Wehrkamp, a farmer about 40 years of age, accidentally shot and killed the eleven-year-old son of Fred Reda while out looking for a chicken. The boy was shot in the chest, and died before the gun was accidentally discharged, shooting the boy through the head.

WISCONSIN FARMER DYING OF PNEUMONIA SAVED BY PRAYER AND PRAYER. FOND DU LAC, Wis., Jan. 21.—The wonderful recovery of Mrs. Lydia Platt, of this city, from a severe case of pneumonia, standing, constant prayer being the only remedy employed, caused comment throughout the country, and now comes the story of another remarkable cure and from a most reliable source.

STUDENTS STOLE SIGNS. Their Pranks Brought a College Fraternity Into Police Court. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 21.—The favorite prank of the students of the University of Wisconsin is to steal signs. A group of students brought an entire college fraternity into the police court today. A painter named Franck and three signs stolen successively.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY GIVEN IN THE HUGHES MURDER TRIAL. HUGHES, Minn., Jan. 21.—Jesse Gould, the witness for the state in the Hughes murder trial today, testified that he knew of the motives prompting the murder of Edward Hughes. His testimony is very damaging to Lottie Hughes, the accused murderer.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

GOES TO EUROPE FOR STEAMERS.

Frank Waterhouse, general manager of the British American steamship company, of Seattle, was in this city yesterday. He is going to Europe to negotiate for two new steamships, which will be built in the growing business.

Chicago Great Western Increase. The earnings of the Chicago Great Western railway for the first week in January 1899 show an increase of $12,533.14, and for the second week $17,357.75, corresponding weeks of January 1898. Total in the beginning of fiscal year (July 1) to date, $182,589.28.

IN LINE FOR PROMOTION. Lieut. Steele, chief mustering officer of this department, went south to Fort Leavenworth, Kan., last evening, where he is to remain pending the promotion of Steele. He also left the city, her destination being Fargo, N. D., where her parents reside.

WRECK AT NEW ULM. NEW ULM, Minn., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—A wreck occurred in the Milwaukee yards this morning, when a passenger train No. 10, west and a car of flour, Engineer Collins, of the yard engine, was seriously injured. The flour car was overturned, and Brakeman Donagan was injured about the head. The accident was caused by an east-bound freight train, No. 10, which was here. The rear section crashed into the yard engine in the darkness before it could get out of the yard.

UNCLE SAM'S SERVANTS ARRIVED. DEER RIVER, Minn., Jan. 21.—As a result of an investigation made by post-office inspector here Postmaster James E. Brown and his son, Wm. Brown, deputy postmaster, were taken to the jail by order of Deputy United States Marshal Monaghan to answer to the charge of bootlegging. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000.

WYKOFF, Minn., Jan. 21.—Fred Wehrkamp, a farmer about 40 years of age, accidentally shot and killed the eleven-year-old son of Fred Reda while out looking for a chicken. The boy was shot in the chest, and died before the gun was accidentally discharged, shooting the boy through the head.

WISCONSIN FARMER DYING OF PNEUMONIA SAVED BY PRAYER AND PRAYER. FOND DU LAC, Wis., Jan. 21.—The wonderful recovery of Mrs. Lydia Platt, of this city, from a severe case of pneumonia, standing, constant prayer being the only remedy employed, caused comment throughout the country, and now comes the story of another remarkable cure and from a most reliable source.

STUDENTS STOLE SIGNS. Their Pranks Brought a College Fraternity Into Police Court. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 21.—The favorite prank of the students of the University of Wisconsin is to steal signs. A group of students brought an entire college fraternity into the police court today. A painter named Franck and three signs stolen successively.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY GIVEN IN THE HUGHES MURDER TRIAL. HUGHES, Minn., Jan. 21.—Jesse Gould, the witness for the state in the Hughes murder trial today, testified that he knew of the motives prompting the murder of Edward Hughes. His testimony is very damaging to Lottie Hughes, the accused murderer.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

THEATRE OF MUSIC.

Blanche Marchesi, the famous soprano, who is to appear here, has been recorded as one of the most striking creations of her mother, the famous singing teacher. She was born in Cologne, and her mother, after living in Cologne, she joined her mother at morning, and then went to school at Frankfurt-on-the-Main, and in 1878, at Paris, where she was studying at the Conservatoire, where she continued to study at Arthur Nikisch, she played a solo at a concert in 1881, and in 1882, she sang at the opera house in Paris. The summer of 1881, she sang at the opera house in Paris. The summer of 1881, she sang at the opera house in Paris.

Chicago Great Western Increase. The earnings of the Chicago Great Western railway for the first week in January 1899 show an increase of $12,533.14, and for the second week $17,357.75, corresponding weeks of January 1898. Total in the beginning of fiscal year (July 1) to date, $182,589.28.

IN LINE FOR PROMOTION. Lieut. Steele, chief mustering officer of this department, went south to Fort Leavenworth, Kan., last evening, where he is to remain pending the promotion of Steele. He also left the city, her destination being Fargo, N. D., where her parents reside.

WRECK AT NEW ULM. NEW ULM, Minn., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—A wreck occurred in the Milwaukee yards this morning, when a passenger train No. 10, west and a car of flour, Engineer Collins, of the yard engine, was seriously injured. The flour car was overturned, and Brakeman Donagan was injured about the head. The accident was caused by an east-bound freight train, No. 10, which was here. The rear section crashed into the yard engine in the darkness before it could get out of the yard.

UNCLE SAM'S SERVANTS ARRIVED. DEER RIVER, Minn., Jan. 21.—As a result of an investigation made by post-office inspector here Postmaster James E. Brown and his son, Wm. Brown, deputy postmaster, were taken to the jail by order of Deputy United States Marshal Monaghan to answer to the charge of bootlegging. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000.

WYKOFF, Minn., Jan. 21.—Fred Wehrkamp, a farmer about 40 years of age, accidentally shot and killed the eleven-year-old son of Fred Reda while out looking for a chicken. The boy was shot in the chest, and died before the gun was accidentally discharged, shooting the boy through the head.

WISCONSIN FARMER DYING OF PNEUMONIA SAVED BY PRAYER AND PRAYER. FOND DU LAC, Wis., Jan. 21.—The wonderful recovery of Mrs. Lydia Platt, of this city, from a severe case of pneumonia, standing, constant prayer being the only remedy employed, caused comment throughout the country, and now comes the story of another remarkable cure and from a most reliable source.

STUDENTS STOLE SIGNS. Their Pranks Brought a College Fraternity Into Police Court. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 21.—The favorite prank of the students of the University of Wisconsin is to steal signs. A group of students brought an entire college fraternity into the police court today. A painter named Franck and three signs stolen successively.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY GIVEN IN THE HUGHES MURDER TRIAL. HUGHES, Minn., Jan. 21.—Jesse Gould, the witness for the state in the Hughes murder trial today, testified that he knew of the motives prompting the murder of Edward Hughes. His testimony is very damaging to Lottie Hughes, the accused murderer.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

THEATRE OF MUSIC.

Blanche Marchesi, the famous soprano, who is to appear here, has been recorded as one of the most striking creations of her mother, the famous singing teacher. She was born in Cologne, and her mother, after living in Cologne, she joined her mother at morning, and then went to school at Frankfurt-on-the-Main, and in 1878, at Paris, where she was studying at the Conservatoire, where she continued to study at Arthur Nikisch, she played a solo at a concert in 1881, and in 1882, she sang at the opera house in Paris. The summer of 1881, she sang at the opera house in Paris. The summer of 1881, she sang at the opera house in Paris.

Chicago Great Western Increase. The earnings of the Chicago Great Western railway for the first week in January 1899 show an increase of $12,533.14, and for the second week $17,357.75, corresponding weeks of January 1898. Total in the beginning of fiscal year (July 1) to date, $182,589.28.

IN LINE FOR PROMOTION. Lieut. Steele, chief mustering officer of this department, went south to Fort Leavenworth, Kan., last evening, where he is to remain pending the promotion of Steele. He also left the city, her destination being Fargo, N. D., where her parents reside.

WRECK AT NEW ULM. NEW ULM, Minn., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—A wreck occurred in the Milwaukee yards this morning, when a passenger train No. 10, west and a car of flour, Engineer Collins, of the yard engine, was seriously injured. The flour car was overturned, and Brakeman Donagan was injured about the head. The accident was caused by an east-bound freight train, No. 10, which was here. The rear section crashed into the yard engine in the darkness before it could get out of the yard.

UNCLE SAM'S SERVANTS ARRIVED. DEER RIVER, Minn., Jan. 21.—As a result of an investigation made by post-office inspector here Postmaster James E. Brown and his son, Wm. Brown, deputy postmaster, were taken to the jail by order of Deputy United States Marshal Monaghan to answer to the charge of bootlegging. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000.

WYKOFF, Minn., Jan. 21.—Fred Wehrkamp, a farmer about 40 years of age, accidentally shot and killed the eleven-year-old son of Fred Reda while out looking for a chicken. The boy was shot in the chest, and died before the gun was accidentally discharged, shooting the boy through the head.

WISCONSIN FARMER DYING OF PNEUMONIA SAVED BY PRAYER AND PRAYER. FOND DU LAC, Wis., Jan. 21.—The wonderful recovery of Mrs. Lydia Platt, of this city, from a severe case of pneumonia, standing, constant prayer being the only remedy employed, caused comment throughout the country, and now comes the story of another remarkable cure and from a most reliable source.

STUDENTS STOLE SIGNS. Their Pranks Brought a College Fraternity Into Police Court. MADISON, Wis., Jan. 21.—The favorite prank of the students of the University of Wisconsin is to steal signs. A group of students brought an entire college fraternity into the police court today. A painter named Franck and three signs stolen successively.

DAMAGING TESTIMONY GIVEN IN THE HUGHES MURDER TRIAL. HUGHES, Minn., Jan. 21.—Jesse Gould, the witness for the state in the Hughes murder trial today, testified that he knew of the motives prompting the murder of Edward Hughes. His testimony is very damaging to Lottie Hughes, the accused murderer.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

WOMAN CAPTURES WOLF. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 21.—Miss Eliza Walker, who owns a stock ranch a few miles north of this city, has captured a wolf of a large timber wolf, which she captured herself. All fall she has been troubled with this wolf, which was especially bold and vicious in the act of making an onslaught upon her cattle for the night, and discovered the wolf in the act of making an onslaught upon a young calf. Her only weapon of offense was a rope attached to her saddle, and she concluded to make an attempt at roping the animal.

THEATRE OF MUSIC.

Blanche Marchesi, the famous soprano, who is to appear here, has been recorded as one of the most striking creations of her mother, the famous singing teacher. She was born in Cologne, and her mother, after living in Cologne, she joined her mother at morning, and then went to school at Frankfurt-on-the-Main, and in 1878, at Paris, where she was studying at the Conservatoire, where she continued to study at Arthur Nikisch, she played a solo at a concert in 1881, and in 1882, she sang at the opera house in Paris. The summer of 1881, she sang at the opera house in Paris. The summer of 1881, she sang at the opera house in Paris.

Chicago Great Western Increase. The earnings of the Chicago Great Western railway for the first week in January 1899 show an increase of $12,533.14, and for the second week $17,357.75, corresponding weeks of January 1898. Total in the beginning of fiscal year (July 1) to date, $182,589.28.

IN LINE FOR PROMOTION. Lieut. Steele, chief mustering officer of this department, went south to Fort Leavenworth, Kan., last evening, where he is to remain pending the promotion of Steele. He also left the city, her destination being Fargo, N. D., where her parents reside.

WRECK AT NEW ULM. NEW ULM, Minn., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—A wreck occurred in the Milwaukee yards this morning, when a passenger train No. 10, west and a car of flour, Engineer Collins, of the yard engine, was seriously injured. The flour car was overturned, and Brakeman Donagan was injured about the head. The accident was caused by an east-bound freight train, No. 10, which was here. The rear section crashed into the yard engine in the darkness before it could get out of the yard.

UNCLE SAM'S SERVANTS ARRIVED. DEER RIVER, Minn., Jan. 21.—As a result of an investigation made by post-office inspector here Postmaster James E. Brown and his son, Wm. Brown, deputy postmaster, were taken to the jail by order of Deputy United States Marshal Monaghan to answer to the charge of bootlegging. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000. The shortage was about $3,000 to $4,000.

WYKOFF, Minn., Jan. 21.—Fred Wehrkamp, a farmer about 40 years of age, accidentally shot and killed the eleven-year-old son of Fred Reda while out looking for a chicken. The boy was shot in the chest