

CAME HERE AS A BRIDE

MRS. PATRICK H. KELLY, WHO DIED YESTERDAY AT HER HOME

HAD BEEN ILL A LONG TIME

Wife of the Pioneer Jobber Succumbed to a Complication of Stomach Troubles Not at First Considered Alarming, but Which Terminated Fatally—Funeral Will Be Held Wednesday.

After a lingering illness of several months, Mrs. Mary E. Kelly, wife of Patrick H. Kelly, of the Foley Bros. & Kelly Mercantile company, died at the family residence, 489 Holly avenue, shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Death was due to a complication of diseases.

The news of Mrs. Kelly's death will carry sadness wherever she was known as she was not only a pioneer resident of this city, but was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends and many who felt the softening influences of a generous, though unostentatious charity which she dispensed during her life.

She came to Minnesota a bride thirty-seven years ago, when Mr. Kelly first settled at St. Anthony. Several years later Mr. and Mrs. Kelly removed to St. Paul, where they afterwards lived and raised a family of five children. For many years the family lived on Dayton's bluff, where the old homestead is still a well preserved landmark.

Until last September Mrs. Kelly enjoyed good health, but a complication of stomach troubles, in their incipient stage, was not considered alarming, developed to a point where Mrs. Kelly was compelled to take to her bed. The best of medical skill prolonged her life but could not overcome the disease.

Aware that death was near at hand the members of the family gathered at the residence and were by Mrs. Kelly's bedside when she died peacefully yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Kelly is survived by her husband and four daughters, Mrs. E. W. S. Angle, of New York; Mrs. B. Mengler, of Mankato; Miss Catherine Kelly, Mrs. Miss Esther Kelly. Her father is John Morley, a retired merchant of Montreal, Can., who is still living at the advanced age of ninety-nine years.

The funeral will take place from St. Mary's Catholic church Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Interment will be at Calvary cemetery.

BURMESTER AND DURNO.

Duo of Musical Stars at the Metropolitan Tomorrow Night.

Herr Willy Burmester, who is the central figure of the concert Tuesday night at the Metropolitan, has been in any company of artists with whom he has appeared in the greatest concert of Berlin and London.

He has beyond question in the first ranks of the world's great pianists. He is a virtuoso, a disciplinarian, and has added to his hereditary gifts by a discipline strict enough to exhaust any man's iron constitution.

Jeanette Durno, with her piano, would be a star attraction with any less artist than Herr Burmester. He is a favorite pupil of the great Leschetizky, and has made a great reputation abroad. Her playing is described as "rippling from her fingers with a vim and sparkle that is irresistible. But Chopin is her great delight, and she will play his music in all its various movements, one of the most delicious and endearing of love ever composed.

SPANISH FINE DISASTER.

MURCIA, Spain, Jan. 29.—Fourteen persons were killed today by an explosion of gas in the Palla mine near Mazarron, twenty miles west of Murcia. Other miners succeeded in making their escape.

SEVENTH AND CEDAR STS.

Tel. 732. Meat Market, 752.

The way we serve those who desire to set an economical table is indicated by the following bargains for Breakfast, Dinner or Supper.

- Raspberries, 2-lb cans Standard, 5c
Salmon, 1-lb cans, per can only, 5c
Pumpkin, 3-lb cans, Standard, 7c
Butter, 1-lb cans, per can, 12c
Butter, Very Best Creamery, 2-lb cans, 21c
Oysters, per doz, 25c
Raisins, Good Muscatels, per lb, 5c
Eggs, Best Country, selected, per dozen, 20c
Eggs, Every warranted good, 15c
Potatoes, Fancy Burbanks, honest bushels (90 lbs), 38c
Peas, Good Marrowfat, 7c
Oranges, 40c Sweet Mexican, per dozen, 20c
Lemons, Fine Messina, per dozen, 10c
Sweet Potatoes, per peck, 18c
Lettuce, Fresh from hothouse, per head, 2c
French Peas, Petit Pois, 9c
French Beans, Imported, Stringless, 7c
Cocoanuts, Fine new crop, each, 3c
Peaches, Fancy sliced ones, 19c
Corn, Fresh lot of Rotas and Prins, per 12-lb can, 16c
Preserves, High-Grade, per can, 8c
Tower Rollers, Assorted pure, our mill, complete, each, 5c
Rolling Pins, Revolving Handles, each, 3c
Clothes Dryer, The Peerless, 10c
Baked Beans, 1/2-pound cans, 2c
Hams, Mild Sugar Cured, sliced, select, per lb., 9c

COFFEE.

The new process blue-flame gas roasters are kept whirling all day long to supply the coffee counters with fresh roasted berries that are weighed out to patrons. "Hoffman House" Coffee, fresh from the blue-flame, new process, gas roaster, per lb., 25c
 Santos and Maracabo, fresh from the blue-flame, new process, gas roaster, per lb., 15c
 Good Rio and Santos, fresh from the blue-flame, new process, gas roaster, per lb., 9c

TEAS.

Every good variety is imported directly by ourselves—no brokers or middlemen's service is added to the cost. We blend teas to order, and will match precisely any sample of tea that may be brought present to us. Tea prices begin at 35c per pound.

HE HAD BOGUS MONEY

OSCAR SATHER IS ARRESTED AT WADENA, CHARGED WITH COUNTERFEITING

DIES FOUND IN HIS HOUSE

They Are Believed to Have Helped in the Recent Flooding of Northern Minnesota With Bogus Money—Sather Comes of a Good Family and Has Been Quite Frivolous.

United States Marshal O'Connor was notified Saturday of the capture of Oscar Sather, a prominent citizen of that place, who is under arrest on a charge of making and passing counterfeit money. Deputy United States Marshal Henry will go today to take charge of the prisoner on behalf of the government.

Sather was the son of Ole Sather, of Sebeka, one of the best known and highly respected citizens in the community. Sather was arrested by Sheriff Irwin at the instance of County Attorney Bullard on a charge of having been responsible for the large amount of spurious coins that have been circulated at Hovick during the past few weeks. Louis Erickson, a boot and shoe dealer, was a victim of the game to the extent of two dollars.

When arrested Sather was found to have in his possession eight finished and partially finished dollars and the dies were discovered at his house. He is now in the custody of Sheriff Irwin. Sather is supposed to have kept considerable money about her in a large trunk, which he had just sent, and also the plaster Paris dies with which he made them.

His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

He is a member of the club who will meet today at 1 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Infant Industry."

Mr. Roach is a member of the firm of J. H. Roach & Co., confection manufacturers, of New York. He is a member of the club who will take part in the mock trial at the hall next Friday evening, will meet in the rooms today, to perfect final arrangements.

THIRD'S GRIP PACKED

PORT SNELLING'S RECENT GARRISON LEAVES THIS MORNING FOR MANILA

FIVE BIG SPECIAL TRAINS

They Will Take the Troops East, Leaving St. Paul Each by a Different Route—Will Embark for Gibraltar at Once on Reaching Jersey City, Which Will Probably Be Wednesday Night.

At Fort Snelling yesterday a reporter found everything at the post in the most orderly confusion. The third regiment was on the eve of departure for Manila. Great piles of trunks, boxes and camp outfits stood around, soldiers were packing, orderlies hastened to and fro, and at the headquarters bustling orderlies were deep in the details of transportation. The understanding was half buried in a mass of papers, Capt. Gerlach found time to receive the half-frozen scribe, and from him it was learned that the regiment, consisting of 1,269 men and thirty-one officers, would leave the fort this morning at 8 o'clock, coming to St. Paul via the Great Northern line.

The first section, Capt. Williams commanding, consisting of Companies B and E, and a platoon of Company H, 261 men and five officers, will leave over the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad.

The second section, Maj. Brinkerhoff commanding, five officers, composed of Companies D and L, and a platoon of Company H, 261 men, goes on the Wisconsin Central.

The third section, Col. Page commanding, five officers, non-commissioned staff, band, hospital corps, Companies I and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The fourth section, Capt. Cook, four officers, Companies A and F, and a platoon of Company H, 261 men, will embark at West St. Paul upon the Chicago Great Western.

The fifth section, Capt. Hannay, five officers, and the balance of the regiment, 260 men, will take the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha.

The regiment will get away from St. Paul by 10 o'clock this morning and arrive at Jersey City Wednesday morning, going aboard the transport Mobile, rechristened the Sherman, sailing at once. The first stop will be at Gibraltar, where the soldiers are allowed to stretch themselves on shore. From there they go to Port Said, Aden, on the Red sea, Penang, Singapore, and expect to reach Manila about March 15.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

The Commercial club has planned a public turnout to cheer the Third when it takes the trains this morning. Battery A and M, 240 men, takes the Burlington route.

PERILS OF IMPERIALISM.

CHAPLAIN CHADWICK DISCUSSES THE SUBJECT AT A NEW YORK MEETING

HE ALSO COUNTS MORE THAN A SCORE OF MILLS AMONG HIS POSSESSIONS

More Than Twenty-Five Thousand People Depend Upon Him Directly or Indirectly for a Livelihood—Takes No Vacations.

From the New York World. It all Rhode Island were one cotton field, it would be most favorable to the crop and its cultivation. The best man can do, it could not begin to furnish raw cotton for the mills of Robert Knight, the cotton king of the world.

Mr. Knight is the type of man who has no interest in life except the enlargement of his empire. Fifteen villages are under his very existence; 5,000 employees, of both sexes of all ages, housed in nearly 200 cottages that he owns, and he has not only for their employment, but for their education, he has a school, the support of their churches and for every need of their daily lives.

In each of these villages there is but one industry. All the processes of life are done in the factory whistle; the priest, the doctor, the lawyer, the school teacher, the needs of the hurrying operatives, whose political opinions are weighed out to them with their sugar, are all supplied by the store. To sell the product of these people, daily toll there are agencies in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston, as well as the chief office in Providence.

Kingdom of Cotton. Picturesquely exceedingly is the cotton kingdom of Knight. It does not run north from Providence in a single instance, the Clinton mill of Woburn. There lies the domain of the Goddards, whose holdings are only second to those of Knight, and who, many years ago, were the first to introduce the United States.

West of Providence, the Cranston Dyeing and Finishing works are Mr. Knight's property. There are also a great mill in Massachusetts the villages and towns of Methuen, Hebronville, Dodgeville and Readville.

But the heart of the kingdom is the Pawtucket mill of Providence, Rhode Island. It is the first village of the cotton kingdom. It is the first village of the cotton kingdom. It is the first village of the cotton kingdom.

Each of these villages is like the other. The same kind of houses, the same kind of chimneys and sleep-murdering whistles, the same dreary rows of mill cottages standing side by side, the same soft patina of French-Canadian paint, the same varied complexion of Italian or Swedish; the same "company town" atmosphere, the same common talk.

Yet there is a variety, well expressed in the names of the villages. The Natick mill, for instance, is the largest in the world. Walk around it once and you will find it a half a mile long. It has seven stories high, contains 100,000 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

IS KING OF COTTON

ROBERT KNIGHT, WHO ONCE EARNED $125 PER WEEK IN A MILL

HE ALSO COUNTS MORE THAN A SCORE OF MILLS AMONG HIS POSSESSIONS

More Than Twenty-Five Thousand People Depend Upon Him Directly or Indirectly for a Livelihood—Takes No Vacations.

From the New York World. It all Rhode Island were one cotton field, it would be most favorable to the crop and its cultivation. The best man can do, it could not begin to furnish raw cotton for the mills of Robert Knight, the cotton king of the world.

Mr. Knight is the type of man who has no interest in life except the enlargement of his empire. Fifteen villages are under his very existence; 5,000 employees, of both sexes of all ages, housed in nearly 200 cottages that he owns, and he has not only for their employment, but for their education, he has a school, the support of their churches and for every need of their daily lives.

In each of these villages there is but one industry. All the processes of life are done in the factory whistle; the priest, the doctor, the lawyer, the needs of the hurrying operatives, whose political opinions are weighed out to them with their sugar, are all supplied by the store. To sell the product of these people, daily toll there are agencies in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston, as well as the chief office in Providence.

Kingdom of Cotton. Picturesquely exceedingly is the cotton kingdom of Knight. It does not run north from Providence in a single instance, the Clinton mill of Woburn. There lies the domain of the Goddards, whose holdings are only second to those of Knight, and who, many years ago, were the first to introduce the United States.

West of Providence, the Cranston Dyeing and Finishing works are Mr. Knight's property. There are also a great mill in Massachusetts the villages and towns of Methuen, Hebronville, Dodgeville and Readville.

But the heart of the kingdom is the Pawtucket mill of Providence, Rhode Island. It is the first village of the cotton kingdom. It is the first village of the cotton kingdom. It is the first village of the cotton kingdom.

Each of these villages is like the other. The same kind of houses, the same kind of chimneys and sleep-murdering whistles, the same dreary rows of mill cottages standing side by side, the same soft patina of French-Canadian paint, the same varied complexion of Italian or Swedish; the same "company town" atmosphere, the same common talk.

Yet there is a variety, well expressed in the names of the villages. The Natick mill, for instance, is the largest in the world. Walk around it once and you will find it a half a mile long. It has seven stories high, contains 100,000 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

At River Point are the Royal and River Queen mills, both gigantic. The former is the largest in the world. It has 1,500 spindles and 2,500 looms, and gives employment to 1,500 men.

I work in a cotton mill, am thirty-five years of age and have been bothered with indigestion and dyspepsia about five years. Have had several doctors, but none of them ever helped me any. I spent several hundred dollars for doctors and medicines, but instead of getting better I got worse. Finally, I heard of Ripans Tabules, and decided to try them. After I had used them two weeks I commenced to get better. In three months I was like a new man, and can say my cure was brought about by the use of Ripans Tabules. I believe they are the only sure cure for dyspepsia.

A new style paper containing the names of all the people in the paper (without names) is now for sale at some of the newsstands. This is a new style paper, and is a very good one. It is a very good one, and is a very good one. It is a very good one, and is a very good one.

CHINESE BANQUET.

Observations of the Only European Guest at the Board.

I had a novel experience the other night, says the Star's Yokohama correspondent, in being invited to a dinner table by a Chinese official. The occasion was the birthday of Confucius.

The dinner was held at the Japanese Club, and was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one.

The dinner was held at the Japanese Club, and was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one.

The dinner was held at the Japanese Club, and was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one.

The dinner was held at the Japanese Club, and was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one.

The dinner was held at the Japanese Club, and was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one. The guests were all Chinese, and the dinner was a very interesting one.