

SHARKEY NOT ANXIOUS

SAILOR SEEMS IN NO GREAT HASTE TO CINCH A MATCH WITH BOB FITZSIMMONS

FORFEIT WAS NOT COVERED

Cornishman's Money Was Up, and the Sailor Did Not Nail It in Time—That Will Probably Be the Explanation Offered for the Falling Through of the Proposed Battle for the Championship.

Fitzsimmons and Sharkey may meet to settle the question of pugilistic superiority, but the outlook is that they will do nothing of the sort. A day may bring forth a match, yet the New Yorkers are already censuring Sharkey for failure to clinch the match while he had Fitzsimmons' money in his pocket...

SHARKEY NOT A COWARD. While it must be conceded that there is room for criticizing the failure of Sharkey to take advantage of the opportunity to clinch a match with Fitzsimmons, yet it is scarcely fair to attribute cowardice to the man who has met and defeated the leading gladiators of the ring...

FITZ IS CONFIDENT. I cannot believe that Fitzsimmons is to blame for the failure to clinch a match. He is confident of his ability to defeat the sailor as he ever was that he could win a battle from any ordinary boxer...

MAY BE A MATCH. It is by no means certain that Sharkey and Fitzsimmons will fall to reach an agreement to fight. It transpires that Sharkey did cover Fitzsimmons' forfeit, but with the stipulation that which was not acceptable to Martin Julian, Fitz's manager...

MANAGERS TO MEET. It is said that Martin Julian and Tom O'Rourke are to meet either in New York or Chicago this week, endeavor to arrange a match. That naturally leaves the matter open, but it does not follow that there will be a fight for the championship...

SHARKEY AND JEFFRIES. The wisest in New York are predicting that the next big match there will have for principals, not Sharkey and Fitzsimmons, but Sharkey and Jeffries. Billy Brady has for this statement. Billy Brady has been subsisting on snowballs and wieners for 10, these many months, and needs a few of the shekels that make glad the heart of the caterer who can, when urged, produce for a prize fight promoter a dish or dishes that have labels on them resembling the dollar in the Dreyfus case...

CORBETT'S "PICNIC." Jim Corbett and Sailor Sharkey are matched to box six rounds at "Parson" Davies' show, to be given in Chicago on March 7. Corbett is quoted as having announced that the affair will be a regular picnic. He thinks the sailor will be easy, and that he can win back all his lost laurels by defeating Sharkey in the stipulated six rounds...

ST. PAUL BASE BALL TEAM OF 1889.

When a bunch of St. Paul's old-time base ball "fans" get to discussing the ideal team of pennant winners they always pin their faith to the base ball aggregation represented by St. Paul in the Western league back in 1889. Just ten years ago this spring, as a team never did win a pennant, although it hung up that year. The Globe has dug up a photograph, taken of this famous team...

member had arrived the team had disbanded, and the management had spent all its early earnings and more. The left-hand man in the upper row is A. M. Thompson, who was killed by falling from a load of wood in Illinois several years ago. Next to him is George Farmer, whose name fitted him on a ball field like a glove. The central figure in the picture and wherever else he appears, is John Barnes, the only one of the kind that was ever made up of a gang of sturdy youngsters who were "some pumpkins" on a diamond...

After Effects of the GRIP

Grip is a treacherous disease. You think it is cured and the slightest cold brings on a relapse. Its victims are always left in a weakened condition—blood impure and impoverished; nerves shattered. Pneumonia, heart disease and nervous prostration are often the result.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People will drive every trace of the poisonous germs from the system, build up and enrich the blood and strengthen the nerves. A trial will prove this. Read the evidence:

When the grip last visited this section Herman H. Evelyer, of 311 W. Main St., Jefferson, Mo., a well known contractor and builder, was one of the victims, and his health began to fail and he was obliged to discontinue work. That he lives to-day is almost a miracle. He says: "I was troubled with shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and a general debility. My back also pained me severely."

"I tried one doctor after another and numerous remedies suggested by my friends, but without apparent benefit, and began to give up hope. Then I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People extolled in a St. Louis paper and after investigation, decided to give them a trial. "After using the first box I felt wonderfully relieved and was satisfied that the pills were putting me on the road to recovery. I bought two more boxes and continued taking them."

"After taking four boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People I am restored to good health. I feel like a new man, and having the will and energy of my former days returned, I am capable of transacting my business with increased alacrity. "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a wonderful medicine and anyone suffering from the after-effects of the grip will find that these pills are the specific."

Mr. Evelyer will gladly answer any inquiry regarding this infirmity if enclosed. From Cole County Democrat, Jefferson City, Mo.

is, I am going to make "Lanky Bob" wait. It is my duty, since he gave me a taste of the same medicine during the past fifteen months I have fought Jim Jeffries, Joe Choynick, Gus Goddard, Gus Ruhlin, Jim Corbett, and Ed McCoy. I was successful in each of all except Jeffries. I will leave it to any fair-minded person whether I have not done my duty as a representative American pugilist. I am now trying to reap the benefit of my labors, and I don't see why I should not get all that is coming to me when I have the opportunity. I have made engagements on the road which will last me until way into next summer. I don't propose to cancel them now. I have a right to keep them, and I am going to do so.

What has Fitzsimmons done during the past two years? He has retired twice, and now wants to fight. I was always ready to tackle him, but he put me off day after day until now, when his star as an attraction is about set, he uses this device. As I have said, I won't fight until next year. That is my ultimatum, and I propose to stick to it. I will not be a part of any interchange of words with Hall's weight, and which is still on. He says that he does not propose to be caught "off the reel," and will train hard for it. "I know Corbett is clever," he said, "but I will try and knock him out, and make my victory a decisive one."

Club Bowling Scores. The following scores were at Amort Bros. bowling alleys during the week: Metropolitan—Ponnhower, 182; Covington, 156; Shumaker, 137; Chaudier, 107; Thompson, 164; Loomis, 165; Wakefield, 107; Huggard, 147; Rea, 123; Nichols, 164; Dobs, 182; Williams, 154; Langford, 140; Behr, 149.

Deaths Busy Year. A Philadelphia paper has compiled a chronological table for the year 1888, which shows the death was unusually busy among base ball men. The greatest among the illustrious dead was the lamented Charles H. Byrne, in 1888, who was the most able, most talented and most beloved leader of the national game. He has ever known, one on whom the title of "Napoleon of base ball" was well bestowed, and whose name will be found on the list of the dead of 1888.
