

WITH THE LAWMAKERS

LOSSIP OF THE PAST AS WELL AS THE COMING WEEK

LIVELY DEBATES PROMISED

There Are Some Fruitful Subjects Up for Discussion, and the Indications Are That the Week Will Be a Breezy One—Medical Bills Are Set for Wednesday Afternoon.

Today is the thirteenth day of the thirty-first session of the Minnesota legislature. The law allows the lawmakers to do the best they can for the people of the state and themselves for thirty days biennially.

As a matter of fact the members draw pay for 106 days, the legal department of the state holding that although the lawmakers work but ninety days, they are supposed to have board bills to pay on Sundays as well as on legislative days.

The 106 days are figured on the supposition that the legislature will remain in session the full limit allowed by law and based on what past legislatures have done.

During the twenty-nine days of the present session the house and senate have put in twenty-two legislative days, the other seven having been wasted in adjournments.

Out of the 234 bills have been introduced, and the senate is shy thirty-one from the record made by the lower branch, only 203 having been presented.

There are some insurance bills pending in the senate, too, which promise to bring up a fight. The committee on insurance will listen Tuesday night to addresses by some Twin City insurance men on legislation pending.

The Potter bill, to prohibit reinsurance companies in companies not admitted to the state, has already gained a place on general orders, where it ought to be reached Tuesday, it may be laid over until after the discussion of Tuesday night, as there is considerable opposition to its passage.

One session of the committee of the whole, too, will occupy considerable time and interest and oratory and it is the one at which shall be taken up the bills for placing the railroad and warehouse commission and some other state offices now appointive on an elective basis.

There may be a fight on the Snyder bill for pensioning veteran teachers in city schools, which has been favorably reported by the committee on education with an amendment.

There will be a fight on the bill for the St. Paul schools, too.

WANTS THREE COURTS.

Alaska Man on His Way to Urge Congressional Action.

The chamber of commerce of Juneau, Alaska, has drafted a code for the whole territory, and Wm. M. Ehnor is on his way to Washington, where he will meet John G. Brady, governor of Alaska, and the two will try to pass the necessary bill to correct the rights and powers of the territory.

The code we want provides for a distinct form of government, Mr. Ehnor yesterday, in all of its details. The only rules of government we have now are provided for in a meager way.

The new bill provides for a division of the territory into three distinct and independent judicial districts. It is proposed that one court sit at Juneau, its district including all of Southeastern Alaska.

EDITORS OF NORTH DAKOTA TAKE A JAUNT TO FLORIDA

MARDI GRAS FESTIVITIES

New Orleans Annual Festival Will Be Thoroughly Enjoyed by the Flickertail Pencil-Pushers—But the Nestor, Maj. Edwards, Is Not Going, Not Daring to Leave Political Pot in Hands of Amateurs.

The members of the North Dakota Press association rendezvoused at the Windsor yesterday and left at 8:05 last evening in the two special Pullmans, Livingston and National park, over the Burlington for a two weeks' outing in Florida and New Orleans.

Last year the annual outing was omitted, but two years ago the association visited Galveston, Tex., on a flying trip, and W. L. Straub, of the Grand Forks Herald, who is chairman of the executive, became so enamored of the South that he has been wintering in Florida, and it was at his suggestion that Florida was selected as the destination of the party.

The editors and their wives began to arrive in St. Paul Saturday night, and the last straggler came in yesterday afternoon. There was no reception tendered, but most of the party took advantage of the opportunity to attend church.

The Windsor corridors were crowded with editors during the afternoon. A. B. McDonald, of the Fargo Argus, and W. J. Kneeshaw, of the Hamilton X-Rays, were the old timers in Dakota.

There was a quartette among the party composed of L. D. McGahan, Devil's Lake Free Press; George W. Soliday, Carrington Record; A. E. Johnson, Washburn Leader; and C. H. Potter, Enderlin Independent.

The party was composed of: Argus, Fargo; X-Rays, Hamilton; Banner, Hillsboro; Alvin Schmitz and wife, Duluth.

At the meeting of the chamber of commerce this morning the following resolution will come up for discussion, so a large attendance is desired.

R.I.P.A.N.S.

For the last year and six months I had been troubled with the HIVES, and had two physicians, who prescribed a blood tonic and to bathe the hives with saleratus. The tonic did not seem to do me any good, so I gave up all medicine and used nothing but the saleratus. The hives were so itching and painful that I did not have one good night's sleep while I was troubled with them. I had them so bad that I wore gloves at night in order not to scratch them, as it took so long for them to heal. I also had to go to the expense of buying a rug in order not to ruin the carpet in the bedroom when taking the saleratus bath, which I would have to take at first when the hives appeared they were as large and had the same appearance as a peanut, and then they were more easily cooled and disappeared quick, but when I started to take the Tablets they were as small as a pea and stung more and it seems I had to cool off. I don't know how to praise Ripans Tablets enough, and it seems like a new life to me, for the hives have mostly all disappeared and some nights I have no cool off. I am now on my eighth 5-cent package, and shall continue to take R.I.P.A.N.S. until they establish a permanent cure. To recommend them to all my friends is the best I can do for Ripans Tablets. I am thirty-seven years of age, and have been attending bar for twenty years.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R.I.P.A.N.S. will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., No. 19 Spruce Street, New York, for 10 samples and 100 testimonials. R.I.P.A.N.S. is for sale, or 18 packets for cash and a long life. One gives relief. Note the word R.I.P.A.N.S. on the packet. Accept no substitute.
