

DEATH'S SUDDEN CALL

MR. EMIL MANNHEIMER STRICKEN DOWN WITH APOPLEXY WITHOUT ANY WARNING

HE WAS AT HOME AT THE TIME

After the Noonday Luncheon He Sat Reading, When the Messenger Delivered the Summons—A Successful and Honourable Career Brought to a Comparatively Early Close.

Suddenly summoned by the grim reaper, Mr. Emil Mannheimer, member of the firm of Mannheimer Bros., died at the family residence, 215 Nelson avenue, shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Death resulted from apoplexy. Until a brief time before he expired Mr. Mannheimer had no intimation of impending death, having apparently enjoyed the best of health.

After lunch yesterday he experienced a feeling of suffocation and retired to his room. Before any one realized that he was dangerously stricken Mr. Mannheimer expired.

The news of Mr. Mannheimer's death was received with surprise and regret about the establishment which he had for so many years assisted in successfully conducting. He had been at the store Friday, seemingly in his usual health, greeting friends and acquaintances in his characteristic cheerful manner, and the knowledge that he had suddenly been cut down at the height of a successful business career caused a feeling of genuine sorrow, both among the employees at the store and in business circles generally.

Mr. Mannheimer did not visit the store yesterday morning, in fact, he had not been in the habit of coming down town until afternoon for several years. He arose late and was about the house as usual until time for lunch. He partook of light refreshment shortly after 1 o'clock and afterwards sat reading in the library. Suddenly he felt breathing difficult and opened a window. The oppression became greater, however, and Mr. Mannheimer retired to his room up stairs. Here he removed his collar and necktie and lay down on the bed. The attack grew more severe, and Mr. Mannheimer summoned the house butler, who he dispatched down stairs for medicine. The butler was absent only a moment, but in this short time Mr. Mannheimer expired. He half rose in bed when the butler returned, gasped for breath and sank back dead.

Emil Mannheimer was born in Bavaria, Germany, fifty-seven years ago. When he first came to this country he engaged in the dry goods business in Chicago. Twenty-two years ago he came to St. Paul, where he entered into the dry goods business with his brothers, Robert Mannheimer and Jacob Mannheimer, at No. 7 East Third street, in 1877 the firm removed to their present quarters, at Sixth and Robert streets, where it has been one of the foremost retail dry goods establishments in the Twin Cities for the last five years.

The deceased was unmarried and lived at the home of his brother, Robert Mannheimer, and his sister, Mrs. Gordon, at the Nelson avenue residence. He was a man of sterling business ability, unwavering integrity and highly respected by all who knew him. In a business way, while beloved by his more intimate associates for his kindly nature and unassuming character.

Mannheimer Bros' store will be closed Monday on account of the death of Mr. Emil Mannheimer.

JOHNSON AS BONDSMAN

Did the County Auditor Jeopardize the Interests of His County.

When County Auditor W. R. Johnson went on the bond of Chief Deputy Treasurer A. P. Swanstrom, under indictment for forgery and larceny, he jeopardized the value of the security bond that he himself had given the county in connection with the office of county auditor. Consequently tomorrow there will be a change among Swanstrom's bondsmen, resulting from the retirement of Mr. Johnson.

When the deputy sheriff went to arrest Swanstrom on a bench warrant, he found him already aware that an indictment had been returned. He had, however, neglected the opportunity to procure bondsmen in advance and consequently became a hustler for men to go on his bail. Fred Hammer, private secretary to the mayor, was secured and then Mr. Johnson was approached. He agreed to go on the bond, but in the morning he was informed that his own bond of $5,000 for the same offense had been bound on the bond of no one else. Finally he consented to refer the matter to the county attorney, who said that there would be no objection, despite the clause in Johnson's application and Johnson was accepted as bondsman.

Chief of all the events of the coming week in its interest to the Democracy of the state will be the banquet to be given Tuesday evening at the Ryan by the new Democratic city and county organization.

Present indications are that there will be about 600 guests, the exact figures being known tomorrow night, as no tickets will be sold after that time, that the hotel people may be able to prepare for the party knowingly.

Judge Willis, as chairman of the committee on banquets, will call the meeting to order and introduce the toastmaster Humphrey Barton, who will speak briefly upon the topics and principles for which the new organization stands.

The occasion will be honored by the presence of some notables from outside the city. Gov. Lind will speak to the toast, "Our State—Minnesota." The speaker will be William Jennings Bryan, the matchless spell-binder of Nebraska, and David S. Rose, mayor of Milwaukee.

The second ward precinct committee of the Democratic city and county organization, at their meeting last month, held regular monthly meetings on the second Monday evening of each month at the club rooms in Flannagan's hall, corner Fourth and Mendota streets, and also that after a short business meeting a social session should be held each month.

At the last meeting over forty were present and an interest was displayed fully as large a number will be there tomorrow night at the regular February meeting.

Steele county is delighted, at least as far as the Democrats are concerned, at the appointment of Benjamin S. Cook, of Owatonna, to be rector of the public school at that place, vice C. S. Crandall, resigned.

There has been a decided controversy as to which should have the position, which has been conceded to the resident of the county in which the school is situated, but Owatonna itself has furnished two candidates, and as a result, there has been considerable feeling. Mr. Cook's victory, however, is said to give general satisfaction at his home town.

Ward Chairman McDonald, of the Democratic city and county organization, has issued the following letter to each of the precinct committees of that organization in the Sixth ward.

RECEIVER GRAVES' REPORT OF THE NORTH AMERICAN SAVINGS LOAN COMPANY

ALD. DONAHOVER'S CONCERN

Company's Books Show the Total Assets to Be $246,805.53; Liabilities, $257,290.71—The Court Officer Can Only Figure Out the Assets to Be $144,404.58, and the Liabilities to Be $281,325.90.

Edward B. Graves filed his first report yesterday as receiver of the North American Savings Loan and Building Company, with the liabilities estimated at 40 per cent in excess of the available assets. The company's books show that the liabilities exceed the assets by $10,434, and this Mr. Graves shows to be grossly inaccurate. The property owned by the company is scattered all over the country and the receiver has been at considerable expense in getting a plan of the property valued. The result is far below the return made by the company. The whole lot of real property originally listed under the revised figures $165,180.28.

Following is the comparison given of the showing made by the receiver and the company's books: Company's Books—Assets—Real estate owned by company, $165,180.28; Mortgage loans in foreclosure, $3,850.00; Mortgage loans on real estate, $65,500.00; Bills receivable, loans on stock, assigned as collateral with you, $3,745.00; Furniture and fixtures, $183.38; Cash in Second National bank, $171.87; Certificate of deposit in Commercial bank, $1,311.94; Interest in arrears, $2,334.06; Total assets, $246,805.53; Liabilities—Real estate owned by company, $48,333.87; Mortgage loans in foreclosure, $3,850.00; Mortgage loans on real estate, $65,500.00; Bills receivable, loans on stock, assigned as collateral with you, $3,745.00; Furniture and fixtures, $183.38; Cash in bank, $171.87; Certificate of deposit, $1,311.94; Total liabilities, $257,290.71.
