DE WOLF HOPPER NOT THE ONLY ONE WHO ATTRACTS THE MULTITUDE

ADALI, THE SULTAN'S LION

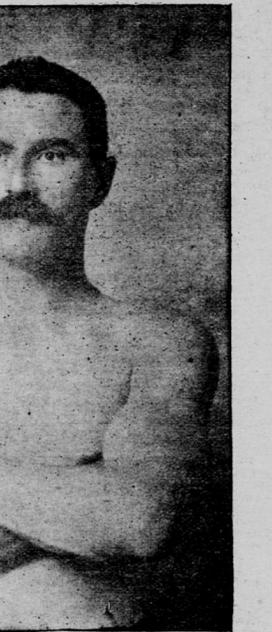

His Match With McMillan and McIntyre Has Stirred Up a Great Deal of Interest in the Twin Cities — Lion Houseman Makes a Little Strong Offer to the Other "Terrible Turk."

Another "pebble folks come to see" in Minneapolis next Tuesday evening. This time it is Hall Adali, "the Sultan's Lion," Adali might paraphrase one of De Wolf Hopper's songs and sing, if he can sing: I'm the Klumpin of catch-as-catch-can wrestling. The crackjack of mulebery, etc. As a matter of fact, while Adali has Houseman, the sporting editor of the Inter Ocean, yesterday: To Ernest Roeder, his correspondent Turk and others whom I may concern: I have this day enlarged upon my proposition of two days ago, as follows: I will bet $2,500, one-fifth of Chicago, that Hall Adali in private can throw Roeder and his partner, "Turk," three times each in sixty minutes of actual wrestling time, Roeder and his "Turk" to take all if Adali fails, and if successful, I agree to give the entire amount won to the New York Herald free of cost. Adali will wrestle neither man in repeat this offer in every town visited by this pair of hippodromers. My $500 forfeit posted with Mr. Davis will remain up for thirty days.

WALTER WILMOT'S TRYST

In Minneapolis to Give New Players the Glad Hand. MINNEAPOLIS, March 11.—Walter Wilmot arrived from Hot Springs this morning and entered at once upon his duties as manager of the Minneapolis base ball team. He is quite amused by the insinuations from other cities that the Millers look weak this season. "I suppose that any one in the Western league will admit that a team which can put in nine players who can bat at 300 or better, will come very near landing the leaders. Well, the Millers will average 300 in their batting this year and if any of those who are belittling the Millers care to back their views with money, please send them to me." Mr. Wilmot will remain here until April 1.

drawn great crowds wherever he has appeared in public, many have gone to get a look at the brawny Turk as much as to see the match itself, although all these events have secured such handicaps in the making as to give their contestant a chance to win. Man for man, of course, Hall is without a peer. Cannon said after his match with him in Cincinnati:

The Nutwood Driving club, of Dubuque, whose summer meeting, Aug. 28 to Sept. 2, will just precede the state fair races at Hamline, is making great preparations for one of the finest meetings they ever saw. CONTEST OF TWO TYPES.

White Bear and Seawanhaka Clubs Pitted Against Each Other. The White Bear yacht club, in challenging the champion Seawanhaka boat on Canadian waters, the Dominion of the Royal St. Lawrence club, sent the following explanation: The change of rules of measurement adopted for the Seawanhaka cup races for the season of 1898 practically closes the series under the original rules of the boat which has given greater odds than ever before in agreeing to gain four falls in ninety minutes, without rest between hours, and it is probable that he will find McMillan and McIntyre harder game than any men he has met in a match under similar conditions.

CYCLISTS ARE UNITED

NEW ASSOCIATION COMPRIS REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL LOCAL CONFEDERATIONS

SMITH STATE HANDICAPPER

Chief Consul Ovitit Makes Some Announcements for the L. A. W.—Monticello Century Souvenir Photos Are Ready for Distribution—Racing Problem Promises to Make More Trouble.

With two exceptions representatives have been selected from each of the cycling organizations of the city to constitute the "Associated Wheelmen." The new members of the body are as follows: F. E. Low and C. P. Shanley, Laurel Cycle club; Archie Mathews and James McClrath, Century Road club; W. P. Confar and J. E. Meyers, League of American Wheelmen; C. B. Gedney and F. M. Wheeler, Commercial cyclists; E. H. Payne and Samuel Spindler, Capital City Cycle club, and C. W. Copley, St. Paul Cycle Path association.

The Associated Wheelmen is a comparatively new organization, but has accomplished a great deal that has been of benefit to the cycle interests. Last year a census of the bicycle riders of the city was taken by the organization, and it was largely instrumental in getting cycle path appropriations through the city council. As the association includes a representation of all the wheeling interests of the city, it has been able to make its influence felt in politics. Still the wheelmen have no desire to use the strength of the allied organization for personal aggrandizement, but with a view only to securing a recognition of the wheelmen through desirable legislation.

A. D. Smith was yesterday appointed state handicapper for the L. A. W. by Chief Consul Ovitit. Mr. Smith held the position last year to the satisfaction of the local wheelmen and resigned in Sheik second, Col. Eads third. Time, 1:16. Fourth race, one mile—Cherry Leaf won, Alfresco second, Eva Rice third. Time, 1:40. Fifth race, six and a half furlongs—Joe Hendzel won, Zeno second, Yo Noe third. Time, 1:23 1/2.

HANDBALL CHAMPION.

W. B. Swanson won the St. P. A. C. Medal Over Mitchell. The handball championship (in singles) of the St. Paul Athletic club was won by W. B. Swanson yesterday afternoon at the Athletic club courts. He met and defeated James Mitchell by the following score: Swanson..... 5-2 Mitchell..... 6-7 A gold badge was awarded the winner by club.

Last evening the St. Paul Athletic club decided the first seven of the twelve events of the all-around athletic championship of the club. It was good considering the inclemency of the weather, and considering the nature of the contest the records in some of the events were good. J. W. Nolan, who took up active work in the club "gym" a little over a year ago, has a splendid lead for the championship medal, while M. A. Mune and M. Doran Jr., representing the business men's class, acquitted themselves well in some events. McAuley, considering his weight, did good work, especially in the high jump, in the "pull up" he was handicapped by his weight, and on account of the fine showing made by the other contestants, he lost heavily in the event. A sudden call from the city prevented Mr. Foot, a good all-around entry, from participating. The remaining events, consisting of pole vault, mile run, standing high jump, still dip on parallel and running broad jump will be decided next Saturday evening, when the prizes will be awarded. The summary of events follows:

Table with 5 columns: Event, Name, Time/Score, and other details for Running high jump, Standing broad jump, etc.

SATURDAY'S PLAY.

During the morning session it became evident that Pillsbury could do no more than draw against Blackburne. The latter, however, played splendid chess, and downed his man on the first board after seventy-one moves.

Shower's brilliant play on the second board against Blackburne, evoked general admiration, and when at his forty-fifth move he announced a mate in seven moves, the spectators nearly went crazy with excitement. Atkins, of course, resigned.

Barry, too, played excellent chess today, and after fifty-one moves he had beaten Lawrence on the third table.

On the fourth board Hodges played very strongly and managed to beat Jackson after fifty-one moves.

Volgt, who at first tried to play for a win against Jacobs, had to be satisfied with a draw, after forty-one moves.

The Brooklyn champion, Marshall, passed an opportunity to win his game right up to the finish, but was satisfied with a draw, after sixty-two moves, against Lawwright.

Newman and Bellingham, who contested their game right up to the finish, agreed upon a draw after sixty-six moves, and Baird and Trencard also drew their game after seventy-one moves.

After the conclusion of the match dispatches of thanks were exchanged as follows:

NEW YORK, March 11.—"Tod" Sloan, the jockey, sailed for England today on the Lucania. He will ride for the Prince of Wales at the Easter races and will also continue to ride for the Beraford stable.

SCARED BY A SPOOK.

Indiana Railroad Workmen Terrified by Visits of Apparition. MISHAWAKA, Ind., March 11.—A ghost which has recently haunted the carhouse in the Lake Shore railroad yards has created consternation to the night force employed there. Four times during the present week the uncanny visitor has driven the men from their labor, and the more timid have refused to work in the place at all.

The spook appears at midnight in the form of a woman with flaming eyes and distorted visage, clad in flowing robes of pale green hue and with long hair streaming in the frigid current of air which follows its appearance.

Thursday evening the night foreman of the force, accompanied by eight brave laborers and a constable, all heavily armed, laid in wait for the apparition, determined to "lay" it forever. The unearthly shape appeared on time, but such was the alarm created by the ghostly visitor that all fled from the spot in mortal terror.

A party of Mishawaka volunteers who served in the Spanish war, has been formed to watch for the ghost and drive it from the place if possible.

HERO TO THE END.

Operator With His Skull Fractured Still Averts a Collision. EDWARDVILLE, Ill., March 11.—Peet, a small station on the Clover Leaf road, south of here, has a hero in the person of John F. Dickman, telegraph operator at that station.

The lives of two train crews were saved by his heroic performance of duty. He started across the yards to road south of here, and was caught when he was struck by an approaching through freight. He was thrown about forty feet from the track. His skull was fractured and he was otherwise bruised. He lay unconscious for some minutes, and when he came to, the through and freight had moved on and he was left alone. None of the crew had witnessed the accident.

He remembered that a train was scheduled to leave Madison and this would collide with the local, if an order to hold it was not sent. He dragged himself inch by inch to the station house, almost fainting as he reached the operator's office. He would have lost consciousness again had not his brother, William, entered and caught him. With his brother holding him in his arms, John opened the key, "os" the through freight, and notified the chief dispatcher at Charleston of the departure of the local. A catastrophe was thus averted. Dickman will die.

ANOTHER BIG VICTORY

AMERICAN CHESS PLAYERS VANQUISH THEIR BRITISH BRETHREN BY A SCORE OF 6 TO 4

PILLSBURY WAS DEFEATED

Champion Compelled to Resign to Blackburne After Seventy-One Moves — Shower's Brilliant Play Caused General Admiration — Barry Also Played Excellent Chess.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The American chess players came out with flying colors against the Britishers in the chess match which was begun in London and Brooklyn on Friday morning, and concluded about half past 6 o'clock today, the score being 6 to 4. Nearly from the start of this great annual contest the Americans seemed to get the better positions on the majority of boards, and although only three players, namely Shower, Barry, and Hodges, scored a win for America, no fewer than six games were drawn. Champion Pillsbury had to resign his game against the British champion, Blackburne. Following are the results as recorded:

Table with 2 columns: United States, Great Britain, listing players and their scores.

The match at the end was played at the assembly rooms of the Brooklyn Academy of Music, and today, like yesterday, the big hall was filled with an enthusiastic crowd of spectators throughout the hours of play. It is needless to say that every result of the game, whether won by an American player or only drawn, was cheered to the echo. Very often moves which were registered for the first time appeared in the hearty rounds of applause when the spectators thought the move was a good one. The games today proceeded as follows:

During the morning session it became evident that Pillsbury could do no more than draw against Blackburne. The latter, however, played splendid chess, and downed his man on the first board after seventy-one moves.

BASE BALL STORIES

TRIALS OF THE AVERAGE MANAGER EQUAL TO THOSE OF A DIPLOMAT

GALVIN'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

How Comiskey "Barred" Von Der Ahe From the Dressing Room and Chris "Broke In"—Connie Mack Tells of a Sick Ball Player Who Worked Him on the Prescription Racket—Caught Him in the Act.

As the base ball season approaches stories of the pranks of players are beginning to go the rounds. Manager Comiskey, of the St. Paul team, ought to be well-stocked with such yarns, for no man in the business has had more trials in that line than he. One yarn that is a true one did not involve the St. Paul team, but a player on the actor in the drama, which was enacted in Pittsburg, the home of "Jimmy"

"The base ball gentleman in 48 says as how you are to fill dis agin, said the boy, 'an' he's gwine to make trouble if you leave out de mint.'"

"The barkeeper muttered something about the absurdity of serving mint juleps in bottles and then filled the order. I followed that bellhop up the stairs and into Room 46. There I found my man propped up in bed, with a half empty glass in his hand. My unexpected arrival did not even phase him.

"Howdy, Connie," he said. "Pull up a chair and be sociable. Ain't it awful to be sick and have a doctor's prescription ruin your prescription for forgettin' to put in the mint? If I croak over this they ought to try that barkeep for murder or arson, or something else."

"The fellow's consumption impudence almost dazed me, but finally I pulled myself together and talked in him like the conventional stage father.

"After listening attentively to my lecture he simply said: "I know I deserve this call-down, Connie, an' you ain't made it hot enough at that. For any chump that could rap out a prescription scheme as good as I did and then be fool enough to buy the wet goods from the hotel barkeep ought to be fined an even dollar. Connie, I'm a doctor for making such a break. Take my advice and suspend me for a month, but be sure and chap that bottle in the room when you go out."

"Well, the chap got his fine all right, but I confiscated the bottle, and have been shy of the prescription gag ever since."

Killed Wife and Self. MANSFIELD, O., March 11.—Madison Copus, aged 45, a farmer residing near Lucas, a village six miles south of here, shot and killed his wife today, as she lay sleeping on a lounge in their sitting room. He then shot himself. Copus then shot himself, and though still living, will probably die. The suspicion regarding the murder and other family troubles is supposed to be the cause of the deed.

IS IT A TRIFLE? THAT COMMON TROUBLE, ACID DYSPEPSIA OR SOUR STOMACH. Now Recognized as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak to digest it, the food remains until fermentation begins, filling the stomach with gas, and a bitter, sour, burning taste in the mouth is often present.

There was a time in St. Louis when it became necessary to "bar" Von der Ahe from the dressing-room. He was too talkative, and the boys would not stand it. Chris obeyed, and remained away from quarters until one day when the Browns put up some awfully "yellow" ball, and lost a game they should have won. Then Chris broke the rule. So soon as the game had ended he hurried to the dressing-room and delivered the following characteristic speech: "Members of the St. Louis base ball team, and gentlemen: The gentlemen were 'Commie' and Vice President Peckington, who happened to be present. There are some members of the Brown Stocking Base Ball club who play ball. They are some who play
