

FAST AND FURIOUS

BATTLING OUT BETWEEN KID M'COY AND JOE CHOYNSKI

M'COY GOT THE VERDICT

Choynski Put up a Great Fight and Was Strong at the Finish—Cleanest Affair of the Kind That Has Occurred in San Francisco in Recent Years—Twenty Rounds of Fast Boxing.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—In a fast and furious twenty-round boxing match here tonight, Kid McCoy was given the decision over Joe Choynski, on points. Choynski put up a great battle, and kept the "Kid" busy. He was strong at the finish. The fight was the best seen here in recent years.

The betting public was in suspense regarding a referee until a very late hour. John L. Sullivan, who had been decided on by both men, proved too elusive, despite many telegrams sent to various points in an attempt to locate the ex-champion and bring him back to San Francisco. Sullivan was supposed to be in the southern part of the state, and hope of his arrival was not abandoned until late in the afternoon, when the club took matters in hand and sought another man to act in the capacity as judge of the contest.

KENNEDY FOR REFEREE

Choynski suggested several local fist experts, all of whom were unsatisfactory to McCoy, who insisted upon an Eastern man being chosen. Jim Kennedy, of Brooklyn, manager of Frank Erne and an associate of W. A. Brady in some of the latter's enterprises, was finally chosen. McCoy was satisfied with Kennedy, and Choynski agreed to the choice rather than cause any trouble or delay when the hour of entering the ring should arrive.

Betting continued lively this evening and at 7:15 in McCoy's favor. The seconds acting for each man were as follows: McCoy—Homer Selby, Jack Stelzner and Frank Parcell. Choynski—Eddie Greeney, Tom Murphy and Charles Tilson.

The preliminaries to the big fight comprised three four-round bouts between local amateurs, who were desirous of invalidating the professional class.

M'COY LEADS OFF

Round Five—McCoy swung left for head, ducked left and got left on body. Joe forced him about the ring, tried with left for head, landed it, and got left swing on the jaw twice. McCoy swung left to jaw three times, and got right on body. McCoy landed left on head, three in succession, but Joe continued to force him. McCoy swung two lefts on body and tried to land right. McCoy swung left and right on jaw. Joe being unable to land in return. He blocked left leads for McCoy, but was nearly hit, and somewhat groggy at the finish. He took all sorts of chances in an attempt to land his right.

Round Six—Joe came up strong and forced the Kid about the ring. McCoy landed left on body and jabbed left to face. Joe tried to walk away, but went wild. Joe landed right on the head, but not solidly. Joe jabbed left to face, and got away from a return. Joe forced matters and tried with right for head, but was blocked. McCoy landed a stiff left on the face, ducking under a vicious left for the jaw. He then clinched Joe in the neck, getting one of the same kind in return. McCoy landed a stiff right in the neck and the round closed with the men fighting cautiously.

ST. PAUL ALL RIGHT

IS WELL TREATED IN THE WESTERN LEAGUE BASE BALL SCHEDULE

OPENING GAME, KANSAS CITY

At Home Decoration Day, With Indianapolis as Opponent—Twinn City Clubs Exchange Comments on the Glorious Fourth—Cleveland Matters Ignored by the Magnates.

St. Paul fares pretty well in making up the schedule of the Western Base Ball league, which was adopted yesterday at Milwaukee. The club opens at Kansas City April 27, going thence to Milwaukee and then coming home. Indianapolis is here for the Decoration Day games, and St. Paul and Minneapolis have their usual alternate contests July 4. St. Paul and Indianapolis are also pitted against each other for Labor Day, Sept. 4. St. Paul closes the season at Columbus.

The Western league magnates were suspected of holding aloof from the adoption of a schedule until after a meeting of the National leaguers in New York, which will decide whether or not Cleveland will figure in the big league, but they got together late yesterday and adopted the schedule, which takes in Columbus. However, should the National league drop Cleveland it will be an easy matter to transfer the Columbus aggregation to the Forest City club, without any material changing of the schedule.

NEW OWNER OF THE ST. LOUIS CLUB IS SUMMONED

NEW YORK, March 24.—The National league board of directors went into session at 3:45 p. m., and immediately summoned E. C. Becker, the new owner of the St. Louis club. At 7 o'clock there was a recess of an hour. Nothing was given out as yet, but it is believed that the board again went into session at 8 o'clock and was still behind closed doors at midnight. It is said that the entire time was occupied in a discussion over the St. Louis club, which up to midnight nothing definite had been arrived at. It was also stated by some of the league men, earlier in the evening, that probably the league would be held over until tomorrow.

WESTERN LEAGUE SCHEDULE FOR 1899.

Table with columns for teams (St. Paul, Minneapolis, Indianapolis, Columbus, Milwaukee, Detroit, Kansas City, Buffalo) and dates for home and away games.

TO HAVE MORE ROOM

The St. Paul Athletic club is making an earnest effort to receive the old-time members in the game of lacrosse. Several members of former successful lacrosse teams are still members of the club, and are planning to organize a winning team for the coming season. The matter has been talked over with all interested, and the athletes have received the promise of liberal patronage if they will organize and get out. As soon as the weather permits a team will be named and practice commenced on the club's grounds at the corner of Tenth and Jackson streets.

U. FOOTBALL PLANS

Prospects for a game with Wisconsin are good. G. S. Phelps, manager of the University football team, said yesterday: "The prospects for a game between Wisconsin and Minnesota are very good. There is a very strong sentiment in Madison among the students and the faculty in favor of a game with Minnesota at the close of some of the other much-prized dates. Manager Phelps is anxious to see the anxious for a game, but it has seemed almost impossible for us to agree upon a date. The hitch has come over the Illinois date, which was given Illinois as a concession for her part in the 'combine' against Stagg, as was also next year's Thanksgiving game. President Adams will not hear of changing this

Widest Women

The full story of suffering! Can it be told to male physicians? Can help be effectual when part of the truth is withheld?

It is to Mrs. Pinkham that everything is told. This is the reason she knows at once how to advise women. She is their confidential friend.

Miss Lula Evans, of Parkersburg, Ia., writes of her recovery as follows: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I had been a constant sufferer for nearly three years. Had inflammation of the womb, leucorrhoea, heart trouble, bearing-down pains, backache, headache, ached all over, and at times could hardly stand on my feet. My heart trouble was so bad that some nights I was compelled to sit up in bed or get up and walk the floor, for it seemed as though I should smother. More than once I have been obliged to have the doctor visit me in the middle of the night. I was also very nervous and fretful. I was utterly discouraged. One day I thought I would write and see if you could do anything for me. I followed your advice and now I feel like a new woman. That choking feeling and backache I have no more, and I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash a sure cure for leucorrhoea. I am very thankful for your good advice and medicine."

It is easy and costs nothing to get right advice; write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. Discouraged women everywhere find in this way prompt and permanent help. They become warm friends of Mrs. Pinkham from that time forth.

Ella E. Brenner, East Rochester, Ohio, writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I shrunk from the ordeal of examination by our physician, yet I knew I must have treatment. My troubles were backache, nervous tired feeling, painful menstruation and leucorrhoea. I am so grateful to you now that I am willing to have my name published to help others to take their troubles to you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound used as you wrote me has made me entirely well and very happy. I shall bless you as long as I live."

Miss Nellie Russell Relieved of Pain. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—From childhood I suffered from kidney trouble and as I grew older my troubles increased, having intense pain running from my waist to my womb and the menses were very painful. One day, seeing your advertisement in one of our papers, I wrote to you. When your reply came I began taking your Compound and followed your advice and am now in perfect health, and would advise any lady rich or poor to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I can praise above all other remedies. It is a wonderful help to women."—Miss Nellie Russell, 138 Grace St., Pittsburg, Pa.

Years of suffering may be avoided by ailing women who heed Mrs. Pinkham's invitation and write to her for aid.

WANTED AT ST. CLOUD. Mrs. Jennie Lindsey Arrested, Charged With Jail Breaking.

Asks to Be Named Guardian. Simpson S. Fenley yesterday filed a petition in the probate court, asking that he be appointed guardian of the person of Mrs. J. H. Brainerd, a woman who is wanted in St. Cloud for jail breaking.

Early in December the woman was locked up in the St. Cloud jail on a nine-month term for jail breaking and disorderly conduct. After being in jail for several days she complained that she did not have room for exercise in her cell and was given the freedom of the corridor in the woman's ward. The same night she tried open a second-story window opening on the corridor and edged through the bars, escaping down an improvised rope made from pieces of a sheet taken from her cell. She seemed to disappear, and no traces were found of her until a few days ago, when the sheriff received word that she was in the city. With the aid of the central station officers she was located yesterday afternoon and was taken back to St. Cloud last night.

McPartland and Connelly Drew. NEW YORK, March 24.—At the MacPartland-Connelly fight Connelly forced the fighting from the start. Nothing startling was done until the third round, when Connelly landed a swing on McPartland's jaw and scored a clean knockout. Connelly did most of the work during the next few rounds, with the result at the beginning of the eighth Philadelphia. Their engagements were McPartland's, and they were about on even terms. The work of both men was good and the fight was a close one. The men were tired in the closing rounds and rested frequently. Referee White declared the bout a draw.

TWO SMALL BURGLARIES. Dairy and a Restaurant on Wabasha Street Are Raided. The Milton Dairy was burglarized early yesterday morning. The side door of the store contains a glass pane, which was broken, affording an entrance. The cash drawer was removed and $25.00 was taken. The work was done by amateurs, in the opinion of the city detectives, the job being entirely too coarse for professionals.

The fact that the store had been entered was discovered by John Sheidrick, the black watchman, while making his rounds. He at once notified Officer Hennessy, who is on the beat, and he in turn communicated it to Sergeant Hennessy, who happened around half an hour later. At about the same time, burglars entered a restaurant at 46 Wabasha street, kept by A. C. Gillespie. Entrance was effected in the same manner as in the first instance, a pane in the rear door being broken out. About $3 in change, a few cigars and quantity of candy and a little fruit was taken.
