Clearance Sale, New Spring Silks and Dress Goods

A backward season, together with early large purchases of both Silks and Dress Goods, makes us willing to sacrifice all profit this week to turn too heavy stocks into cash. The goods offered were bought before the general rise of prices in silk and wool fabrics. Prices to you will be much less than we could buy the same stuff for now. But ever-changing fashion will call for new styles and weaves next season, which causes us to decide to take the loss of profit in the middle of your need time. Every yard of the offering as described below is up to date in style, weave and coloring. You who are a judge of kinds and values will need no further hint as to the importance of this sale from a savings standpoint, than these descriptions and pricings.
