

Two New Brews that merit and receive popular approval. The American Porter - in pint bottles, more mild and refreshing than the best English brands of Porter, Stout and 'alf and 'alf. The Anheuser-Busch Dark - a Special German Brew that is mellow, nutritious and palatable beyond any Dark beer previously placed on the market.

CITY NEWS.

Commissioned Lieutenant J. R. West has been commissioned second lieutenant of Company B, Fourth regiment, by Gov. Lind.

Adjuster for the Sun - J. Quincy Haas has been appointed special agent and adjuster for Sun Insurance Company, of London, for Minnesota and Dakotas.

Postponed the Services - The young people's services that were to have been held at Trinity church last night were postponed, because of the inclemency of the weather, until next Sunday evening.

Hit by a Dog - The three-year-old son of Ole Haveland, proprietor of the Minnesota house, Fifth and Rosabel, was bitten by a dog Saturday afternoon. Dr. Ohage, health commissioner, ordered the animal confined for a week to determine whether or not it is affected with rabies.

ONE WAS LEFT. Mayor Kiefer Names Three Members of the Library Board.

Mayor Kiefer has announced his appointments to the board of directors of the public library to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of three of the members. Dr. C. E. Bean and Maurice Auerbach were named to succeed themselves for another term of two years. M. J. Bauman was appointed in place of E. W. Post, who has been a member of the board for the past ten years.

Home-seekers' Excursions Via Chicago Great Western Railway. May 2 and 16th, to points South and West at very low rates. Call on Elmer, city ticket agent, Fifth and Robert sts., for full information.

YERXA SEVENTH AND CEDAR STS. Tel. 732. Meat Market, 782.

The Philopenas of Trade. The more almonds the housekeeper shells the more double kernels she will find - the Philopenas Nuts. Bargains are the philopenas of trade - in almonds, pleasant good luck, in general groceries, real and decided money saving. Guess where these good-luck lots are thickest?

Potatoes, 50c. Per bushel basket of good North Dakota Potatoes.

Sugar, 20c. Pounds of the best Granulated Sugar for one dollar.

Salmon, 9c. Red, Fat, July; its ought-to-be price is 18c per can; but we'll sell it for 9c.

Oranges, 25c. Good California Fruit, the latest crop. The selling price is less than the cost of growing price; per bushel.

Pie Plant, 3c. Fancy ripe sound ones. Cranberries, 7c. Fancy ripe sound ones. Soups, 11c. Armour's large 20c size. Onions, 9c. Good Red ones. Mackerel, 95c. 10-pound pails of English breakfast Mackerel for per pound.

Peach Preserves, 7c. Pure Home Made. Flour, $2.00. The best quality in America. Flour, $1.00. The best quality in America. Bacon and Greens, 10c. A Booth brand.

Butter, 14c. Fresh Cream, straight from the farms and creameries of Minnesota. Stuffed Peppers, 12c. Manzanilla, small lots, each.

Olives, 50c. A large shipment to each quart and, assorted, pint bottles, assorted, 7c. Pickles, 7c. Orange Marmalade, 15c. Best. E. L. Jars.

COFFEE. Being our own roasters, with a completely equipped roasting room, we are enabled to weigh out to you coffee that is fresh roasted the same day you buy it - that's what we do.

Diamond Rio, 9c. Fresh from the blue-flame gas roasters. Golden Rio, 11c. Fresh from the blue-flame gas roasters.

Santos, 15c. and Rio blend, fresh from the blue-flame gas roasters. Fancy, 18c. Maracabo blend, fresh from the blue-flame gas roasters.

Fancy, 20c. Mexican Java, from the blue-flame gas roasters, pound. Gykora, 25c. Mocha and Java, fresh from the blue-flame gas roasters.

"Hoffman House" Fresh from Hoffman gas roasters, pound. "Hello!" We've established a special telephone service in order that patrons may make known their grocery wants daily. If you desire us to make daily inquiry as to your table wants, please advise us and we will "call you up" by telephone every morning.

YERXA BROS. & CO.

RIGHT INTO A WINDOW

TWO YOUNG LADIES ON A TANDEM HAVE AN UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT

AT WABASHA AND SEVENTH

With a View of Avoiding a Collision, One Steers One Way and the Other Another, While the Tandem Mounts the Sidewalk and Breaks One of Michael Bros' Plate Glass Windows.

Two young ladies on a tandem wrought havoc with a plate glass window and a choice display of wet goods yesterday forenoon in the Wabasha street front of Michael's grocery. Miss Emma Egan and Miss Grace Clinton, a friend who is visiting her at her boarding place, 385 North Washington street, went to the Bird Cycle company's store, yesterday morning and hired a tandem for a spin. After riding around for an hour the two turned into Wabasha street at Tenth and started down the line at a spanking clip. All went well until they reached the corner of Wabasha and Seventh, where a man with a bicycle stood in their way.

Miss Egan tried to turn the machine in order to pass him on the outside, and with the intention of avoiding him; her companion at the same time gave her handle bars a wrench. A mix-up followed, the tandem striking the rear of the cyclist's wheel and sheering off made a line shot for the large window of the Michael establishment, facing Wabasha street. Almost before the young ladies knew what had happened they crashed into the plate glass and demolished a rack of liquors standing behind it in the window.

Officers Smith and Carroll were standing in the street at the time and rushed to the assistance of the fat cyclist. After a short consultation they decided that the clip at which the young ladies came down the street was contrary to the statute therein made and provided, and Officer Smith conveyed the girls to the station, where they furnished bond in the sum of $50 each and were allowed their liberty. They were returned on the station regular for reckless riding and destruction of property.

The name of the man who caused the accident could not be learned. As soon as he saw what had happened he mounted his bicycle and raced down Seventh street to avoid being questioned. The window which was broken in the wreck is eight by twelve feet, and a valuable piece of glass. The bottled goods displayed in the window were scattered on broken flasks. Neither of the young ladies suffered injury beyond slight bruises.

RUNAWAY ON UNIVERSITY. J. A. Hatch, a Minneapolis Man, Clings to His Frightened Horse.

While driving on University avenue yesterday forenoon, J. A. Hatch, 1072 Twentieth avenue north, Minneapolis, had a runaway experience which cost him a suit of clothes.

A passing interurban car frightened his horse and it ran way, turning the corner of University and the south. The animal ran for several blocks and then swerved out of the road and tipped the rig in such a way that Mr. Hatch was hurled into the air, striking his head on the top of the horse's head.

The pressure on the bit threw the horse into a gallop and the driver was unable to regain control. He was not injured, but a half cent of him several bruises.

MAJ. ESPY MUSTERED OUT As Guardian of Frank D. Cooley by Judge Bazille.

Concerning the guardianship of Maj. John Espy, over Frank D. Cooley, an incompetent, Judge Bazille has received the final accounting of guardian and accepted final resignation. Cooley is at present confined in an insane asylum. Maj. Espy was appointed his guardian in 1897. The young man was engaged in going through the estate of the late Frank D. Cooley, and the other bequeathed him by an aunt. Preparatory to commencing proceedings, looking toward restoring him to competency, Cooley took for Maj. Espy's removal. Before the removal was considered, Maj. Espy resigned. Since then Judge Bazille has been going over the account of the estate of the late Frank D. Cooley, and the court turns the guardianship of the estate of Frank D. Cooley to Maj. Espy's steward.

The court finds that Maj. Espy received during his guardianship $51,121.49, of which Thomas Darling, trustee, $35,038.08; mortgagee of William Zellmer for $1,000; also note given by M. M. Espy, wife of the guardian, for $8,500. Jewelry, furniture and books amounted in value to $62.70.

In allowance for his services as guardian for five and a half years the court grants Maj. Espy $2,200, a reduction of $700 from the amount sought. As attorney for the estate Judge Willrich is allowed $500. He petitioned for $500. As a balance the court found $150.12 in cash on hand belonging to the estate from the administrator.

CHANGE AT THE CLARENDON. John Clark to Succeed M. E. Foley as Its Proprietor.

The Clarendon hotel has changed hands and this morning Frank D. Foley, John Clark will step in as proprietor and manager of the hotel. The final arrangements were made yesterday and for the next five years Mr. Clark will devote his time and attention to welcoming the coming and sending the parting guests.

The house will be refurnished and refitted, and it goes without saying that the new manager will make it one of the best hotels in the city.

Mr. Clark will succeed M. E. Foley, who has conducted the house for the past thirteen years. Previous to coming to the Clarendon, Mr. Clark was engaged in the hotel business at Jamestown, N. D., for seven years. For the present at least he will enjoy a short vacation.

OF "CON" MAN

GRIFFITH WILLIAMS TURNS HIS POCKETS INSIDE OUT FOR A FRIEND

OLD, OLD STORY EVER NEW

The Chestnut About Excess Baggage and a Bill of Large Denomination Was New to the Homestead Man, So He Gave Up $70-Later He Discovered That His Companion Was a Bunko Man.

In the future Griffith Williams, of Seattle, will not take into his confidence his fellow passengers when traveling on the train, as his experience with a new-made trunk yesterday afternoon, when he was among the passengers on yesterday morning's overland Northern Pacific train. They had ridden all the way from Seattle together, where their acquaintance began through a casual conversation across the aisle of the car. The two proceeded to the Merchants' hotel, and Williams' friend registered as J. Meredith, of Seattle. The latter knew that he, he said he knew - some of Williams' relatives in Homestead, Pa., where he was going, and this fact cemented their friendship, and after breakfast, which Mr. Bunco insisted on paying for, the two men set out to see the town. Meredith flashed a $100 bill and other notes of large denomination which he carried in his pockets. Anyhow, Meredith said and impressed Williams with his importance and financial avowals by a frequent display of big bills. It was not exactly a case of "too much money," as Griffith a little later found out, but he placed every confidence in the affable stranger, who had kept him company from Seattle.

It was the same old story of excess baggage, a large check, banks closed and a small trunk. Griffith and his bunko friend were among the passengers on yesterday morning's overland Northern Pacific train. They had ridden all the way from Seattle together, where their acquaintance began through a casual conversation across the aisle of the car. The two proceeded to the Merchants' hotel, and Williams' friend registered as J. Meredith, of Seattle. The latter knew that he, he said he knew - some of Williams' relatives in Homestead, Pa., where he was going, and this fact cemented their friendship, and after breakfast, which Mr. Bunco insisted on paying for, the two men set out to see the town. Meredith flashed a $100 bill and other notes of large denomination which he carried in his pockets. Anyhow, Meredith said and impressed Williams with his importance and financial avowals by a frequent display of big bills. It was not exactly a case of "too much money," as Griffith a little later found out, but he placed every confidence in the affable stranger, who had kept him company from Seattle.

The two visited several resorts in town and started back towards the Merchants' hotel about 4 o'clock. In front of the Endicott arcade Meredith handed Griffith a check for $100. Griffith, who had been thinking of something, he explained with earnestness and exactness that he had a couple of ten dollar bills which he would cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

Williams was very willing to accommodate his money, and he was nothing at all reticent about the check. He took the striped trousers as he took the last penny Williams had, and blandly informed him that he would cash the cash as soon as he arrived in Chicago. He was going clear through to New York and would drop off at Chicago and get into the city by the next morning. Meredith said the hotel people would probably cash a small check for him.

AGAINST BLACK RACE

REV. THOMAS HAMBLBY SAYS SOUTHERN PREJUDICE IS STRONGER THAN EVER

TRIP THROUGH THE SOUTH

Made Partly for Pleasure and Partly for Observation Convinced Him That the Negro Problem Will Never Be Settled Until the Government Makes Appropriations for Educating the People.

Rev. Thomas Hamblby, of the Clinton Avenue M. E. church, spoke last evening upon "Impressions of the South, Religious and Otherwise," gleaned from his recent tour through the Southern States, where the reverend gentleman went, partly in search of health and partly for observation, study and pleasure.

"The negro problem is the great question of the South today, and will never be settled until the federal government makes appropriation for the education of the white man and negro alike," spoke Mr. Hamblby. "I do not mean by this that they should be educated on a common basis in the same schools, but that the government should afford to the colored man the same privileges accorded the white man. The prejudice against the negro in the South is stronger than ever today, and that fact makes it impossible to secure any financial aid from the Southern states in educating the negro."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

"The South today is a hundred years behind the times, as compared with the North, not in education alone, but in every branch of industry and commerce. The secret of the backwardness of the South is the lack of an adequate educational system. One can go through the Carolinas and Tennessee up to Ohio, and unless he is critically exact in observation, he will not see a school house. The prejudice against the black race is so strong in the South that the Southern states keep their children in ignorance of the school system of the North, just for the reason that they are afraid of becoming enlightened. This is a fact, and can be easily verified by a visit through some of the Southern states."

ANNIVERSARY OF ODD FELLOWS

LOCAL LODGES OF THE ORDER COMMEMORATE ITS EIGHTIETH RECREANCE

By Attending Service at the People's Church, Where Rev. S. G. Smith Preaches a Sermon Specially Prepared for the Occasion.

Local Odd Fellow lodges yesterday commemorated the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the order by a religious observance at the People's church. Every lodge in the city attended the service in numbers proportionate to its membership, and with the regular workshippers crowded the large edifice. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion.

Rev. S. G. Smith delivered the sermon. Heretofore the Odd Fellow lodges observed the anniversary on April 23, the date, eighty years ago, when the first lodge was instituted. This year, however, the general committee which arranged the programme decided that an attendance of all St. Paul Odd Fellow lodges on church service in a body would be an appropriate recognition of the occasion. Invitations were sent to all lodges and the service was held at the People's church.

In view of the nature of the gathering and the fact that there were no elaborate arrangements made for a street parade or joint lodges nor bands leading the lodges. Each lodge met at its own headquarters and proceeded in separate bodies to the church. The largest number started from Odd Fellow hall, Fifth and Wabasha streets, and proceeded to the church. The service was held at 10 o'clock. Heading the procession marched Lodge No. 2, of the uniformed rank, garbed in the attractive uniform of the order. The parade rank lodge was under command of O. D. Curtis. When all of the lodges had reached the church, over 500 members of the order were present.

The sermon dealt largely with the history of Odd Fellowship and its aims. Calling attention to the fact that all great things have been accomplished by the small, Rev. Mr. Smith told of the institution of the first lodge of Odd Fellows and commended the organization for the good it has wrought for good during its years of growth, until it had become one of the largest benevolent organizations in the country.

"Perhaps the most important church choir and congregational singing preceded and followed the service. After the service the lodges formed outside the church and sang the hymns of the order. The lodges represented were: St. Paul Lodge No. 2, Meridian Lodge No. 151, Germania Lodge No. 124, W. L. Lodge No. 3, Germania Lodge No. 48, Germania Lodge No. 58, Excelsior Lodge No. 60, Germania Lodge No. 66, Germania Lodge No. 72, Germania Lodge No. 78, Germania Lodge No. 84, Germania Lodge No. 90, Germania Lodge No. 96, Germania Lodge No. 102, Germania Lodge No. 108, Germania Lodge No. 114, Germania Lodge No. 120, Germania Lodge No. 126, Germania Lodge No. 132, Germania Lodge No. 138, Germania Lodge No. 144, Germania Lodge No. 150, Germania Lodge No. 156, Germania Lodge No. 162, Germania Lodge No. 168, Germania Lodge No. 174, Germania Lodge No. 180, Germania Lodge No. 186, Germania Lodge No. 192, Germania Lodge No. 198, Germania Lodge No. 204, Germania Lodge No. 210, Germania Lodge No. 216, Germania Lodge No. 222, Germania Lodge No. 228, Germania Lodge No. 234, Germania Lodge No. 240, Germania Lodge No. 246, Germania Lodge No. 252, Germania Lodge No. 258, Germania Lodge No. 264, Germania Lodge No. 270, Germania Lodge No. 276, Germania Lodge No. 282, Germania Lodge No. 288, Germania Lodge No. 294, Germania Lodge No. 300, Germania Lodge No. 306, Germania Lodge No. 312, Germania Lodge No. 318, Germania Lodge No. 324, Germania Lodge No. 330, Germania Lodge No. 336, Germania Lodge No. 342, Germania Lodge No. 348, Germania Lodge No. 354, Germania Lodge No. 360, Germania Lodge No. 366, Germania Lodge No. 372, Germania Lodge No. 378, Germania Lodge No. 384, Germania Lodge No. 390, Germania Lodge No. 396, Germania Lodge No. 402, Germania Lodge No. 408, Germania Lodge No. 414, Germania Lodge No. 420, Germania Lodge No. 426, Germania Lodge No. 432, Germania Lodge No. 438, Germania Lodge No. 444, Germania Lodge No. 450, Germania Lodge No.