The Associated Wheelmen met at the Commercial club yesterday noon and reviewed the new ordinance framed by Herman Oppenheim. The new ordinance will be submitted to the council to take the place of many conflicting and special ordinances which are now in force. Capt. Lowell, of the police department, was present, and stated that the new ordinance was just what was needed to make more clear and concise the duties of the police and wheelmen alike. It met with the approval of the wheelmen.

TOO MUCH LITIGATION. Judge Jaggard's Hint to a Pair of City Boards.

Judge Jaggard yesterday filed a decision in the case of the board of directors of the St. Paul workhouse against the board of park commissioners, denying the application of the plaintiffs for a temporary injunction. The suit was instituted because the workhouse board objected to having the park board plant trees of the workhouse grounds. In denying the application the judge doubts whether the plaintiffs can either sue or be sued, and in any event, thought the cause not grave enough for the granting of an injunction.

COMMISSION MEN IGNORE THE LAW PASSED AS THE "GRINDLAND BILL"

INTO THE COURTS AT ONCE

Railroad and Warehouse Commission Promises Immediate Action Against the Delinquent Dealers, Who Have Declared Their Intention of Fighting the Law as Rude to Their Business.

The state railroad and warehouse commission has announced that it will begin proceedings at once against the commission merchants, who by the provisions of the Grindland bill, passed at the last legislature, should have secured licenses to transact business. The bill went into effect as a law yesterday, but not a single license has been issued by the commission.

The commission merchants throughout the state, numbering about 600, as near as the commission is able to judge, were notified a month ago, through the columns of the state press, to apply for licenses to the commission. The notification was unheeded and the commission men announced that they would test the law.

Since the measure became a law yesterday, all merchants doing a commission business throughout the state are operating in violation of the statutes. The commission has turned the matter over to Attorney General Douglas, who will prosecute in behalf of the commission.

The notification of the commission men announced that they would test the law. No proceedings have yet been instituted, but it was stated yesterday that the authorities would be furnished with names and data of those who were ready to take charge of the first case.

"We shall prosecute," said a member of the commission yesterday afternoon, "and it is understood that the merchant affected by the provisions of the new law will make an organized resistance. They will attempt to prove the law unconstitutional. The law provides that every commission merchant shall take out a license and give bond of ten per cent of the sum of his annual business, the amount being fixed by the volume of his last year's business. We do not anticipate a lengthy legal fight, as it is probable that the attorneys for the commission men will submit to a decision of the court which the attorney general will agree to."

PAINTED IN LURID TINTS DOMESTIC INFELICITY OF THE FLYNNS APPEARS IN A CURIOUS COMPLAINT

It is Written in the Usual Pompous and Grandiloquent English of the Counsel for the Plaintiff.

A lurid chapter of domestic infelicity is unfolded in the complaint filed yesterday in the action brought in the district court by Hattie A. Flynn for a divorce from her husband, Michael T. Flynn. The grounds alleged are cruelty, habitual drunkenness and nonsupport on the part of the defendant. Mrs. Flynn is represented by E. S. Thompson.

The couple were married in St. Paul on March 13, 1888, when the plaintiff was 19 and the defendant 37. They have four children, ranging from 9 years old to 2 years, all of whom reside with their mother. The complaint charges that Mrs. Flynn, according to the complaint, has been guilty of many things, among others of "only laboring constructively and by neglecting her duties as a wife and mother at a time, and after long intervals of diligent and assiduous devotion to unbroken and uninterrupted rest."

The complaint also charges that Mrs. Flynn, according to the complaint, has been guilty of many things, among others of "only laboring constructively and by neglecting her duties as a wife and mother at a time, and after long intervals of diligent and assiduous devotion to unbroken and uninterrupted rest."

WABASH BRIDGE REPAIRS ASSISTANT ATTORNEY TAYLOR SAYS THE NEW LAW IS VALID

City Comptroller McCardy is So Advised, and It is Expected That the Contracts Can Soon Be Signed.

Assistant Corporation Attorney Taylor has officially notified Comptroller McCardy that the law passed by the legislature at its recent session, giving city councils the right to order moneys transferred in full from bridge funds to repair funds is all right.

The city has $20,232.30 in the Broadway bridge fund, and the law passed allowed this amount to be transferred by a vote of the council. It was needed in part for the widening of the Wabasha street bridge, and the council the day following the approval of the law passed a resolution directing the transfer.

The comptroller, however, wanted an opinion from the corporation attorney as to the legality of the law, and this has been given. Only a portion of the amount, however, will be needed, as there is at the present time $7,000 in the Wabasha street bridge fund, and in the last estimate the council ordered $5,000 additional placed to the credit of the fund.

In case the comptroller is satisfied with the opinion from the city attorney, the transfer will be made on the 15th of the month and the contracts for the widening of the Wabasha street bridge will be signed.

CLUB MEN PROTEST

Against Licensing a Negroes' Resort to Locate on Cedar Street.

E. A. Young, of the Minnesota club, appeared before the license committee of the assembly yesterday afternoon to protest against the transfer of a license from 272 Minnesota street to 38 Cedar street.

The license is in the name of P. Madison, and the resort at the number mentioned on Minnesota street is patronized largely by negroes. Young said that the house committee of the Minnesota club, informed the assembly committee that if the transfer were made it would bring to Cedar street many negroes, and this would not be pleasant for the members of the Minnesota club.

Young said, intended to enlarge its present quarters and sit upon a corner where the members of the club could entertain ladies. In view of this it was requested that the transfer be not allowed.

The committee informed Mr. Young that the matter of the transfer would not come regularly before the committee until June 14.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Rumors of Something Good Coming for Minneapolis Travelers.

A brand new train service of Wagner sleepers and chairs is to be put into effect between Minneapolis and Fond du Lac, Wis., by way of the North-Western line and the Wisconsin and Appleton.

This train will leave Minneapolis daily at 6:25 p. m. and arrive at 8:40 a. m. Connection is made at Appleton for Sheboygan, Green Bay and other Lake Michigan cities, and altogether the service will bring a heretofore inaccessible and splendid territory closer than ever to Minneapolis.

This additional service on the part of the North-Western line, C. St. P. M. & O. Railway, is simply one more evidence of the progressive spirit that is being shown so much by this line. During the past year this line has improved its already up-to-date service in a dozen different ways, and in a few days, so the story runs, something new will be announced that will set the railroad world thinking harder than ever.

Rumors are plentiful that this is the case, and it is safe to say it will be something that will be a surprise and for the comfort and convenience of people who travel to and from Minneapolis. Minneapolis as well as St. Paul can congratulate itself on having such a progressive road.—Minneapolis Journal.

PAID WEISS HIS DUE.

So Judge McCaffery Claims in His Answer on File.

Judge James J. McCaffery yesterday filed his answer to the action brought against him by Attorney Harry Weiss, to recover $2,000 for alleged breach of contract.

The defendant alleges that he took the plaintiff, who is now 24 years old, into his office when he was 14 years old and paid him $1.50 per week for his services. He allowed Weiss, it is claimed, a salary while he was attending the university and pursuing his law studies, and gave him other assistance. Judge McCaffery says that Weiss has been paid all that his services were reasonably worth.

Will Compromise the Claim, Probate Judge Bazile yesterday filed an order granting to John W. Robertson, administrator of the estate of Marshall H. Greenleaf, to compromise
