

STORY OF THE NEW RICHMOND CYCLONE IN PICTURES.

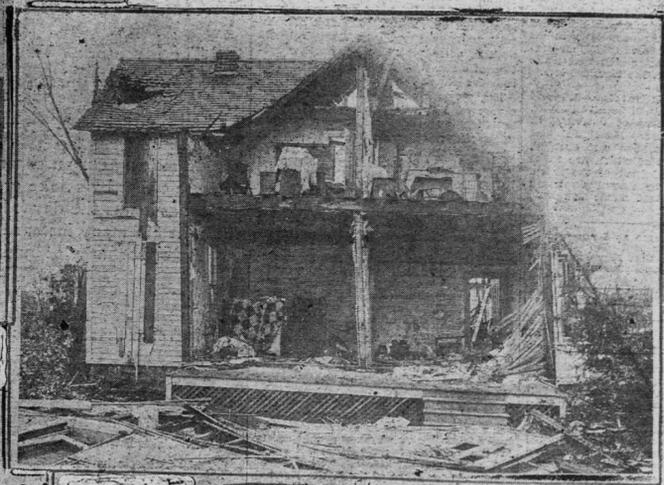

At 6:30 on the Evening of Monday, June 12, 1899, a Great Storm Struck the Village of New Richmond, Wis., and in Four Minutes Killed Nearly One Hundred Persons, Injured More Than One Hundred Others and Swept Away Property Valued at Over Half a Million Dollars.

VIEW WEST FROM TOP OF MILL

FARMER'S IMPLEMENT SHOP

HOME OF REV. MILLS

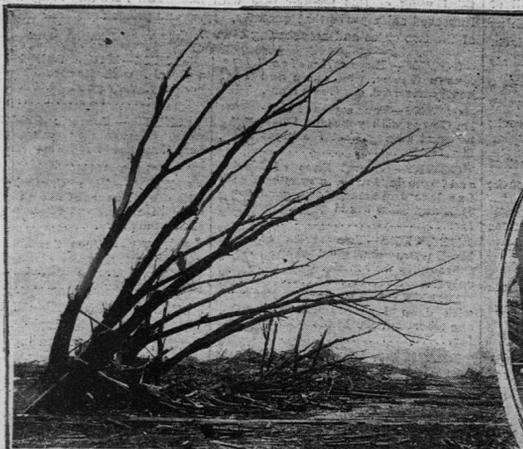

MAIN STREET LOOKING NORTH EAST

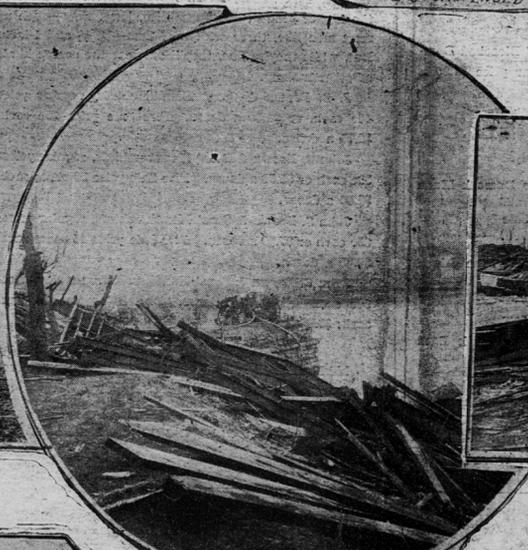

WHERE STORM ENDED

METHODIST CHURCH RUINS (HEAVY BELL 200 FT FROM FOUNDATION)

STRIPPED OF FOLIAGE

RUINS OF IRON ROAD BRIDGE

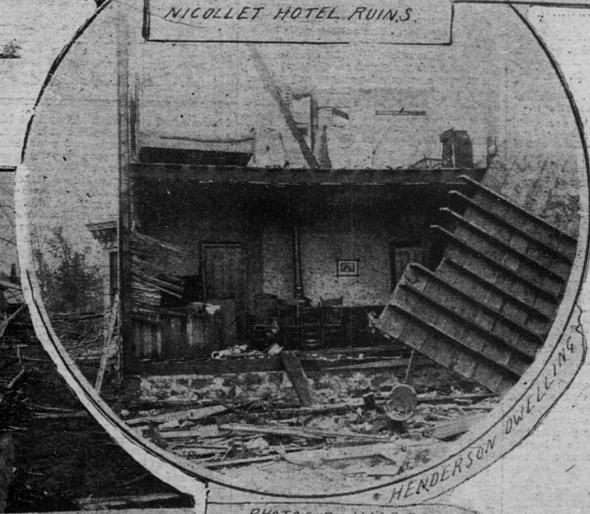

NICOLLET HOTEL RUINS

1ST STREET LOOKING WEST

HOME OF MR. FOSTER, OLDEST RESIDENT

HENDERSON DWELLING

PHOTOS BY HAAS BROS. EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE GLOBE