VOLUNTEERS AT WORK

THE CYCLERS OF MINNEAPOLIS TAKE MATTERS INTO THEIR OWN HANDS

FOUR BLOCKS OF NEW PATH

Lunch Served to the Workers by the Women Interested in the Project—Employe of the Twin City Rapid Transit Company Badly Battered—The News of the Mill City in Brief.

GLOBE'S MINNEAPOLIS OFFICE, 20 WASHINGTON AV. SOUTH. Advertising—Tel. 5799 J-1. Subscriptions—Tel. 5700 J-4.

The wheelmen of Minneapolis took the work of completing the North Side cycle path into their own hands yesterday and a large force of volunteers armed with hammers and hoes set to work at Pennsylvania avenue and Third street. Before night four blocks of the path were completed. The boys were out in force and the work proved so pleasant that it was voted to try it again next Saturday and build another stretch. Lunch was served at noon and the usual horde of small boys surrounded the mature shovelers, drank the ice water and volunteered advice.

Mr. Anderson is Punished for Her Misdeeds. Fifteen-year-old Mabel Anderson, who was arrested for the larceny of a quantity of goods from M. E. Wallace, her employer, was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail yesterday in the police court. Her parents refused to pay her fine and further asks that she be given a jail sentence that she might be kept apart from the rough offenders with whom she would be obliged to mingle were she sent to the workhouse.

THEY WILL ENLARGE

Northwestern Knitting Company Will Build a $7,000 Addition. Plans for the erection of an addition to the Northwestern Knitting company's works on Lyndale avenue, Minneapolis, have been filed with the building inspector. The addition to the factory will cost $7,000.

BOOK TRUST LOST

Several Black Eyes From the Minneapolis School Board. After the usual secret committee deliberations the school board has decided upon a number of text book recommendations made by Supt. Jordan. In some cases he was sustained and in others the directors reversed him and ordered a different brand of knowledge. The book trust won out on supplementary readers and arithmetics and lost on geographies, readers and music books. On the superintendent's report the American Book company was to receive the contract for Werner's arithmetic and Baldwin's readers, as supplementary series.

Reported Postoffice Robbery

The postoffice at Warwick, Hennepin county, was entered by robbers Friday night and when Postmaster Johnson opened his office yesterday morning he discovered that $2,000 in cash was missing to the amount of about $50 had been taken. A small amount of cash was also missing.
