GAMES SCHEDULED FOR TODAY.

Milwaukee at St. Paul. Kansas City at Minneapolis. Buffalo at Columbus.

St. Paul is certainly presenting to the base ball world at the present an admirable event if it is a pretty lucky sort of ball.

Milwaukee narrowly averted a shut-out yesterday, and at the same time narrowly missed a victory. Up to the seventh inning, when Stafford batted himself clear around the circuit for four runs.

It was a problem whether or not the Brewers would score, and later in the same inning, and, indeed, in the ninth, a similar hit would have put them a run ahead of the Saints could the hit have been forthcoming.

But somewhere, perhaps, there may be a host of sprites, or elfs, or fairies, or angels, or some beneficent creatures looking after the game.

It looked as though Connie Mack had dropped the names in a hat and then had the hat lost in the mails the way the names were reassorted. After Glenalvin had thrown out Waldron the card directed Shoch to face Pitcher Fisher.

It is so long since the Teutonic shortstop got a chance to bat so early in the game that he unbounded himself and fired every one else by batting out a fine hard hit, and then, in his ecstasy, was caught by eight or ten feet trying to get to second base ahead of one of Spies' fast throws.

Then the locals proceeded to sell Reidy at auction, and at any rate they had him under the hammer for a few minutes. Reidy fanned the first, but met the second ball pitched for a clean drive into the field, and then he bunted.

The new first baseman is a little off his balance with the pitchers, he seems a little nervous, but Manager Comiskey has hopes that he will round to all right. He fields the position very much like some of the famous oldtimers.

The local fans seem to enjoy the presence of Comiskey in the game. The team has been playing with more ginger, seemingly, since the Comanche got his war paint on again.

WILL IT BE THREE STRAIGHT?

Saints and Brewers to Meet at Lexington Park Again Today.

The St. Paul and Milwaukee clubs will play their last game of the present series at Lexington park this afternoon, beginning at 2:45, and in spite of the fact that the Saints have won two, they are going after the third with no less spirit, for they want to use before they get into the city with the Brewers Wednesday.

McGill will be in the box for the locals today, and Rettger will probably pitch for the visitors, who are equally anxious with the locals to win, and they want to go home with a good taste in their mouths.

It looks as though Hopsy Mr. Katoll would be sent against the St. Pauls Wednesday. Here's hoping he wins.

Geler beat Shoch out of two fine base hits yesterday, and says "Us Germans" are clamish?

The local fans seem to enjoy the presence of Comiskey in the game. The team has been playing with more ginger, seemingly, since the Comanche got his war paint on again.

MINNEAPOLIS SET THE BLUE TWIRLER TO THE BENCH IN FIVE INNINGS.

Minneapolis had a chance at Gear at Minnaha park yesterday and gave him and Kansas City team a touch of high life, but the pitcher, who is having which time he was hit for nine safe ones, although some of these would have been out on good grounds.

Waldron scored two runs in the second, but the pitcher, who is having which time he was hit for nine safe ones, although some of these would have been out on good grounds.

Reidy pitched a slow one into the Comiskey physique and the veteran was led out on Spies' grounder, after Preston flew to Waldron. Geler threw out Hallman, but Fisher walked Reidy.

Shoch hit a savage one at Geler, as if to tear off the hand that had made the catch that beat him out of a hit the time before. Geler reached for it, stopped it, but it was coming so fast it bounded back, striking the pitcher, who was leaning forward to catch it, manifesting almost felicitous penalties, and made a beautiful throw to first, putting Shoch out of it again.

Waldron hit a home run, but it was blocked off the base by Comiskey and caught at one of the old tricks he has taught so many young ones. Shugart threw out Nico on a fly, but the flies had the locals well going when Stafford's fumble gave Shugart a brief life on the sack.

Shugart tried to steal second and failed. Shugart threw out Gray, but Stafford made the ball the nose with his bludgeon, and when Lally hit Lebel got through chasing it and the team had got ten through relaying it in from the farther corner of the cycle track. Stafford had reached the bench and the score was four to one in favor of the visitors, but Spier and Reidy were not discouraged and made light safe hits in succession.

Waldron was up, too, and a homer would have tied it, but he had enough, but Lally got under it and the score was still four to one. The locals had not seen first base since the fourth inning save on Stafford's error, and Reidy was still working fine.

Geler threw out Shoch again as the eighth opened, but Weaver hit safely to right and went to second. Nico put a fast one at Shugart, who threw to third for Weaver and caught him. Gray was thrown out by Geler. Once more in the eighth the Saints went one two, three, not having made a safe hit since the third inning, and Reidy was nearly through.

Stafford put a liner through Shugart a little too high to stop and it looked as though Fisher might be going to have another of those bad nines, but Spies took Hallman's pop-up, and that helped a little. Spier hit safely, and Stafford went to third. It was up to Reidy for a homer then, but he did better. Shugart made a bad throw to second, and Stafford scored, while both the veterans were out.

Reidy would have put the foam blowers one to the good, but Shugart deemed himself by a fast double play on the pitcher, and he was out. Reidy got out of Waldron. The throw was not straight, but Comiskey got the ball, and met Waldron with it. The little fellow went into the veteran, full tilt, and bounded over into the foul field like a bag of sand, but he was not hurt. The score:

TIGERS ONE RUN SHY.

Hits and Errors in the Game With Hoosiers Even.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 25.—(Spe. 1.)—Luck was with the home team today and a victory was won on a one-run margin. Hits and errors were even, but the Hoosiers were out of the game in the seventh and shut out the Tigers' run getting. The run that won for the Hoosiers was gotten on an error at third and a base hit. Attendance, 4,300. Score:
