

CRISIS IS PAST

NEW FRENCH MINISTRY PRESENTS ITSELF TO THE CHAMBERS AND TRIUMPHS

NEW PREMIER GROWS NERVOUS

MINISTER OF WAR IS NOT AT ALL PERTURBED BY THE ATTACKS OF OPONENTS

DISORDER WAS THE RULE

Noise in the Chambers at Times deafening, but the Vote Favored the Government—Whereabouts of Dreyfus Remains a Mystery—Demonstration in Brest by Dreyfusards Develops into a Farce.

PARIS, June 26.—The new cabinet today safely passed the crisis of its first presentation to the chamber of deputies. Ernest Roche, Socialist, interpellated the government regarding the policy and composition of the ministry. He declared it was a government of war and violence. The Marquis de Gallifet, other speeches followed in a similar vein and the orders of the day were moved, only two of them approving the ministerial statement.

M. Waldeck-Rousseau replied to the various interpellations explaining the motive animating the formation of a cabinet of somewhat divergent views, one of the main objects being to reunite all Republicans. He added that the ministers had already assumed some responsibility, but he thought the backing of the chamber was necessary for further steps, and asked what ministry could for a moment tolerate acts seeming to create the belief that the army desired to constitute itself the judge of its policy. He further expressed the hope that it would not be necessary to take more severe measures, and he said he thought it easy to demonstrate whence came the attacks upon the cabinet.

Explaining the invitation of Gen. de Gallifet to the cabinet, he said it was because no other general had spontaneously supported the constitution, and it was thought the punishment of certain military men could be relaxed if commanding trustworthiness was shown as Gen. de Gallifet.

Concluding the premier said: "Our task is heavy. Whatever course the chamber may pursue, I have done my duty."

The speech of M. Waldeck-Rousseau was much interrupted. The noise at times was deafening, and several members were called to order.

The resulting debate in the chamber was exceedingly stormy, Gen. de Gallifet continuing the center of attack. The alliance between M. Millerand and Gen. de Gallifet was dubbed "incestuous." The latter calmly wrote letters during the discussion. M. Waldeck-Rousseau alone appeared in any way disturbed or nervous. It was observed that he trembled slightly when he began to read the declaration of the government's policy.

M. Waldeck-Rousseau accepted an order of the day, moved by M. Jules Perillier, Radical Socialist, reading as follows:

The chamber, approving the declarations and acts of the government, passes to the order of the day.

The chamber adopted M. Perillier's motion by a vote of 283 to 237. An indistinguishable tone of excitement followed in the lobbies.

Col. Coubertin has been placed on the palace guard. There were large crowds on the streets tonight, but no disturbances.

The Radical and revisionist papers this morning severely criticized M. Millerand and his followers, and say they consider the cabinet victory, though gained with difficulty, complete. They add that the chamber of deputies has given the ministry a majority sufficient to enable them to complete their work.

The Moderate and Republican press declare that M. Waldeck-Rousseau is more than ever a prisoner in the hands of the Radicals and Socialists, and say that a cabinet supported by such a heterogeneous majority cannot be long-lived.

A number of papers consider that the government's majority will probably increase.

SFAX HEARD FROM.

Cruiser Coaled at St. Michaels Last Wednesday.

PARIS, June 26.—The French cruiser Sfax, with Capt. Dreyfus on board, coaled at St. Michaels, Azore Islands, on Wednesday last.

DEMONSTRATION AT BREST.

It Assumed Merely the Dignity of a Farce.

BREST, France, June 26.—The French first-class cruiser Taze, which put to sea Saturday evening, the belief being that she was going to meet the Sfax, having Capt. Alfred Dreyfus on board, returned here at 7 o'clock this evening. Some sailors of the Taze who landed later said she had not met the Sfax. She encountered a fog and released her carrier pigeons about twelve leagues out at sea, after which she returned to port. It has all along been officially claimed that the cruiser was leaving Brest solely for the purpose of testing carrier pigeons.

Another Dreyfusard meeting organized by Socialists was announced for this evening in the Salle du Treillis here. Citizens have been distributed during the day calling upon the people of Brest "to defend their liberties, gained at the expense of four revolutions," and to "prevent the supreme shame to humanity of the condemnation of an innocent man."

The police took stringent precautions to prevent trouble. Detachments of gendarmes were located in the houses situated in the vicinity of the hall, and the regular police, which were stationed about the hall, doubtless gave the proprietor of the hall a hint, because when the organizers of the meeting arrived at 8:30 p. m., headed by a local anarchist named Brossoltau, the proprietor withdrew permission for the meeting, and hot altercation without result ensued. Finally Brossoltau and his friends announced their intention of creating a demonstration in the streets, and called upon their adherents to follow them. The prefect of police, who was present at the altercation, immediately ordered forty gendarmes to cordon the streets and cut off communication from the center of the town. Brossoltau was thus kept outside. An hour or two later a crowd of 500 reds made a long detour and entered the town by the main road. They joined by all the loafers in Brest, they overran the whole place, shouting "A bas l'armee," "Vive Loubet," "Vive Dreyfus" and "Vive la sociale revolution."

Such a demonstration had never been heard of before in Brest, whose population was at first thrown into a state of confusion by the demonstration, soon became farcical. As soon as the crowd met a few police headed by a police commissioner, with the tri-colored scarf around his waist, it dispersed, and by half past 10 the streets were quite calm except for a few ragamuffins singing the "Marseillaise" and the "Carmagnole," out of the hearing of the police. The latter only arrested four, and these will be released tonight.

Brossoltau disappeared at the first sight of scouts with the police. The truth is that the anarchists and socialists are only here to advance their own propaganda through the Dreyfus affair, and there is little likelihood of serious trouble.

NEBRASKA STORM.

Heavy Rainfall Does Great Damage to Property and Crops.

KEARNEY, Neb., June 26.—Last night the worst storm ever experienced in this vicinity swept over the town. In two hours five inches of water fell, streets were flooded, telegraph and telephone wires and poles prostrated, and communication cut off until today. The canning factory west of town was wrecked and several other buildings damaged.

At Gibbon seven inches of water fell during the night, everything being flooded and immense damage done.

Telephone reports from up the Kearney and Black Hills railroad show that heavy rain, accompanied by hail and wind, did much damage Sunday night. A railroad bridge at Council Bluffs was destroyed and another one west of that place had an end washed out.

North of Kearney a large dam on Wood river was carried away. About fifty sections of land in the Red river valley, along the Kearney & Black Hills railroad, was devastated by hail and wind.

The largest tank of the Kearney Gas company was flooded, entailing a loss of nearly 6,000 gallons of gasoline.

Between Kearney and Gibbon a large number of Union Pacific telephone poles are down. A couple of cellars on Central avenue were flooded to within three feet of the floors.

All the small grain is pounded into the earth and corn cut to pieces. The small grain is entirely ruined and the crop will be small.

FAR-REACHING RULING.

Affects Payment of Insurance to Beneficiaries of Suicides.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 26.—Federal Judge Phillips, in a decision today in the case of Rosa B. Jarman against the Knights Templar and Masons' Life Indemnity company, holds, first, that under the statute governing assessment insurance companies it was no defense against the payment of the policy that the insured committed suicide, unless it was shown that he contemplated suicide at the time he was insured; and second, that changes in the rules of the company made after the policy was taken out would not affect the payment of the policy.

Lawyers have estimated that this ruling will cost assessment companies at once about $50,000.

The case was transferred to the United States court from the circuit court in Grundy county. Rosa B. Jarman is the widow of John P. Jarman, a druggist, of Trenton, Mo., who shot himself in September, 1888.

IOWA'S HERO.

Young Diegman Will Be Cared for by Friends.

DES MOINES, Io., June 26.—State Treasurer Herrick, who is secretary of the Osborne W. Diegman, Iowa's hero of the Merrimack, said tonight regarding the dispatch sent out on Elk-horn Sunday, that the dispatch was evidently a misstatement, and a misquotation of Diegman, who left here only a few days ago. He is on his way to Annapolis, Md., where he is to attend the preparatory school. His financial condition is known, and while no modus vivendi is entered into with the school, but that this matter will be cared for. His friends have reached an agreement on this score, and a full understanding of the situation is confident that Diegman was misquoted. Iowa will see that the young man goes through the academy if he so desires.

NO SPECIAL SESSION.

Gov. Scofield Has Another Plan for Raising Money.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 26.—Gov. Scofield came to Milwaukee today to confer with Dr. F. E. Epley, of New Richmond, in regard to the relief fund. Dr. Epley advocated the calling of a special session of the legislature to provide for an appropriation of $50,000 for the relief of the tornado sufferers. Gov. Scofield has decided not to call a special session. He is of the opinion that all necessary relief can be secured by subscription, and is confident adequate subscriptions will ultimately be made in that way.

The plan which Gov. Scofield favors provides for a committee of a responsible committee, who shall determine what amount is immediately necessary and how much in all. The committee should then apply to the various communities of the state and the organization extended for the purpose of influencing the community to raise its share and a little more to meet deficiencies.

POOL SELLERS RELEASED.

Missouri Supreme Court Decides Indictments Were Defective.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 26.—Division No. 2, of the state supreme court today ordered the release of Richard Burke and eight other defendants, convicted of violating the law operating pool rooms and registering bets in St. Louis. The law requires that the licenses be obtained from the state auditor. The defendants had no licenses and were fined $1,000 each and costs. Their attorneys attacked the constitutionality of the law and appealed. The supreme court refused to pass on that point, but reversed the judgment and discharged the defendants because the indictment was defective.

WHITEMAN IN DANVILLE.

The Report That He Had Fled to Europe Is Untrue.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Reports that Alonzo J. Whitman, formerly of Danville, had fled to Europe are unfounded, according to a dispatch received here today from Danville, N. Y. The dispatch says Whitman is in Danville, where he resides. He says he has no intention of going away. The dispatch also says his case in Chicago will be appealed to the supreme court, and he is confident the judgment will be reversed.

Mrs. Southworth Ill.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Mrs. E. D. N. Southworth, the well known novelist, is quite ill at her residence in West Washington. Her weakness is due mainly to the infirmities of age, she being now in her eightieth year.

MARK HANNA TO GO

HE WILL BE SUCCEEDED BY HENRY C. PAYNE, OF MILWAUKEE, WIS.

MR. PAYNE WILL ACCEPT

THAT IS THE BELIEF OF HIS FRIENDS, WHO HAVE SLATED HIM FOR THE PLACE

CHANGE FIXED FOR FALL

Stated That the President is Anxious for Mr. Payne to Assume the Duties of the Position—Kentucky Democrats Again Adjourn Without Selecting a Ticket—Talk of a Transfer to City of Lexington.

MILWAUKEE, June 26.—A prominent Republican of this city, who is a close friend of Henry C. Payne, is authority for the statement that that astute politician has been asked to take the chairmanship of the Republican national committee, succeeding Mark Hanna, also as chairman of the executive committee. Senator Hanna is not a member of the national committee, while Mr. Payne both represents Wisconsin in that body and is vice chairman of the executive committee.

MARQUIS DE GALLIFET, The Man of the Hour in Paris.

It is further asserted that Mr. Payne is now considering the matter, and that he is strongly tempted to accept the position, particularly since the pressure that is being brought to bear on him comes from the most influential quarters in Washington and elsewhere.

So far has the matter gone that if Mr. Payne can secure the consent of his physician to take up the heavy work of the national chairmanship, it is understood that he will permit himself to be persuaded, and will be installed as Senator Hanna's successor in the management of Republican politics late next fall, or when the national committee is called together in December to prepare for the work of the presidential campaign of 1900.

"Mr. Payne," said his friend from whom this information comes, "is beyond doubt the most experienced of all the members of the Republican national executive committee, having been identified with that committee during four consecutive national campaigns. His great ability as a political manager is conceded. His acceptance of the position of chairman is believed to be greatly desired by the friends of the president."

FAILED TO NOMINATE.

Kentucky Democrats Adjourn Without Making a Nomination.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 26.—The Democratic state convention again adjourned over today without having selected a ticket, nearly all the time the delegates were in session having been consumed in filibustering.

At 8:45 a delegate came forward with a proposition to adjourn. John B. Thompson and John S. Rea, a Stone manager, and Milward Mitchell, representing Harlan, had for five hours been standing together on chairs immediately in front of the chairman, directing the filibuster. They took up the plan with a readiness that was full of meaning, for the strain was telling on them. Just as an agreement was about to be reached, Kehoe, a Goebel lieutenant, rushed out, fresh from a conference with his chief. "I object to an adjournment," said he. "This thing must be fought out here and now."

The filibusters pulled themselves together for a test of endurance, for Chairman Redwine had a big package in front of him from which he had just drawn a card of defiance, refusing to entertain a motion to "lay it on the table."

The disorder continued without interruption until after 5 o'clock, when the Governor hit upon the plan to have county chairmen come to the stage and cast the votes of their delegations. This set their frenzied opponents beside themselves with anger, but the roll call proceeded, the awful din increasing all the while. County chairmen came to the stage and the clerk had to lean over to a very close range to catch a word that was said. "The Hardin men and many Stone delegates did not vote. After half an hour of the hardest kind of work the ballot was finished and announced, as follows: Goebel, 32 1/2; Stone, 26 1/2; Hardin, 67."

The chair ordered another ballot, whereupon Ollie James, a big-lunged Stone leader, cried: "All Hardin and Stone men refuse to vote."

"They won't do it," the Goebellites responded, defiantly, and sure enough they did not, and predictions that have been made that the weakness of Hardin and Stone would show itself in the lack of control over their delegates was verified.

The last ballot, the thirteenth, resulted: Goebel, 32 1/2; Stone, 26 1/2; Hardin, 67. By agreement between the candidates, the convention was adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 26.—The inability of the Democrats to make any nomination at Louisville caused the Democrats of this section to unite today in a strong petition to Ibsen, Bronston, James and the other leaders of the anti-Goebel forces to make a fight to ignore Chairman Redwine, elect another chairman and adjourn the convention to Lexington by uniting the Stone-Hardin forces. It is urged that no settlement can be made at Louisville.

CAUSED A STR.

Charge That a United States Senator Forged a Letter.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., June 26.—Alf Burkholder, a newspaper man, has created a sensation in political and army circles in South Dakota by charging that a United States senator forged a letter in support of the senator's hostility to expansion and to the war in the Philippines. The letter purported to have been written by an officer of the First regiment, South Dakota volunteers, whose name was withheld through fear that the writer would be court-martialed.

The letter reflected on practically every feature of the conduct of the war in the Philippines, hinted at an investigation and at dreadful exposures, declared that sick volunteers were compelled to leave the hospitals and take their places on the firing line, and, in fact, described the conditions in the American ranks as being little better than in the convict camps of Siberia.

The point in the letter, which, according to Burkholder, led to its being exposed, was that the list of invalid officers, which he said would be left unpracticed in this city, who is a close friend of Henry C. Payne, is authority for the statement that that astute politician has been asked to take the chairmanship of the Republican national committee, succeeding Mark Hanna, also as chairman of the executive committee. Senator Hanna is not a member of the national committee, while Mr. Payne both

Gen. Gomez called upon Gen. Brooke, today, to discuss the list of invalid officers, which he said would be left unpracticed in this city, who is a close friend of Henry C. Payne, is authority for the statement that that astute politician has been asked to take the chairmanship of the Republican national committee, succeeding Mark Hanna, also as chairman of the executive committee. Senator Hanna is not a member of the national committee, while Mr. Payne both

La Lucha, dealing with the political situation, says:

"The situation is opposed to reunion. The Americans talk of Cuban slowness in political organization, but they put every obstacle in our way. Cuba will be a great military camp as long as the Americans find it profitable to maintain it as such. The Americans are everything. We are not even a part of the whole. We must reconcile ourselves to the inevitable. Consequently the Cubans should wait until an opportunity is offered to form an organization embracing all sections. They should not heed the oratory of half a dozen politicians who claim to embody the spirit of the common people, but really represent nothing save their personal ambitions and interests."

SCORNE BY THEIR KIND.

Non-Union Street Car Men Being Ostracized in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., June 26.—There is a general disposition among workmen to refuse to ride on cars manned by non-union crews and if the conductor cannot show a union card workmen refuse to pay their fare or remain in cars. In consequence of this feeling, it is said, the non-union men are leaving the city in droves. The company had hoped to keep about 250 of them, but it is now said that within a week not more than fifty will be left.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

DEMOCRATS TO CONFER.

Meeting of the National Committee to Be Held July 20.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 26.—Ex-Gov. William J. Stone today received a letter from Senator Jones, of Arkansas, chairman of the Democratic national committee, dated at London, in which the senator gives his most hearty approval of the July meeting of the national committee. Senator Jones says his health has improved wonderfully, and that he expects to return home about Sept. 1. Doubtless the official call for the meeting on July 20 will be sent out within the next two days. It is expected that every state will be represented at the meeting, as important business will be up for consideration.

ALGER'S MISTAKE.

Alliance With Bhagsee Pronounced Fatal to His Chances.

PAINESVILLE, O., June 26.—Senator Burrows, of Michigan, is visiting here. In an interview today he declared that his candidate, Senator McMillan, would be a candidate to succeed himself, and would be re-elected next year. Concerning Secretary Alger's alliance with Gov. Pingree, Senator Burrows said he thought the secretary had destroyed what chance he might have had to go to the senate by making such an alliance.

INSOLVENT BANK DIVIDENDS.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The comptroller of the currency has declared dividends in favor of the creditors of insolvent national banks as follows: Ten per cent, Sioux National Bank, Sioux City, Io.; 5 per cent, Merchants' National Bank of Helena, Mont.; 2 1/2 per cent, City National Bank of Greenville, Mich.; 2 1/2 per cent, Capital National Bank of Home, N. Y.

CONFLICT IN CUBA

FIRST REVOLT AGAINST AMERICAN DOMINATION SAID TO HAVE OCCURRED

NATIVES ATTACK BENEFACTORS

STATEMENT IS STARTLING

PERSISTENT RUMOR THAT THERE HAS BEEN SERIOUS TROUBLE AT NUEVITAS

Said That Cuban Soldiers, After Receiving Pay From the Americans, Charged the Guard and Retook Their Weapons—Report is Discredited in American Official Circles in Havana.

HAVANA, June 26.—It is persistently rumored here this evening that there has been serious trouble at Nuevitas in connection with the payment of the Cuban troops. The story is that the Cubans, after receiving payment, charged the guard and recovered the arms they had surrendered. In American official circles the report is discredited.

Gen. Gomez called upon Gen. Brooke, today, to discuss the list of invalid officers, which he said would be left unpracticed in this city, who is a close friend of Henry C. Payne, is authority for the statement that that astute politician has been asked to take the chairmanship of the Republican national committee, succeeding Mark Hanna, also as chairman of the executive committee. Senator Hanna is not a member of the national committee, while Mr. Payne both

La Lucha, dealing with the political situation, says:

"The situation is opposed to reunion. The Americans talk of Cuban slowness in political organization, but they put every obstacle in our way. Cuba will be a great military camp as long as the Americans find it profitable to maintain it as such. The Americans are everything. We are not even a part of the whole. We must reconcile ourselves to the inevitable. Consequently the Cubans should wait until an opportunity is offered to form an organization embracing all sections. They should not heed the oratory of half a dozen politicians who claim to embody the spirit of the common people, but really represent nothing save their personal ambitions and interests."

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when he begged for mercy. The conductor was treated similarly. Then the crowd took possession of the car, broke all the windows, rang up fares on the register, and refused to desist when an inspector arrived to take the car to the barn.

There was a serious outbreak of violence on a car manned by non-union men in South Brooklyn, just outside the city, tonight. A crowd of twenty or more men boarded the car. They had previously placed a plank across the track. When the motorman alighted to remove the obstruction the crowd pelted him with eggs and stones, and finally chased him half a mile. He was seriously injured, and the mob desisted only when