The residents of White Bear were a little surprised at the protest of the people about Bald Eagle against the turning of the surplus water of Pine Tree lake into White Bear lake. The matter had been mentioned at the last meeting of the White Bear Improvement association in the presence of the Bald Eagle representative present, and it had been rather gathered from his attitude that nothing was to be done to oppose the movement. Two meetings were afterwards held by the Bald Eagle association, and no suggestion was made at either of them that any protest should be made. The White Bear people have since then pushed their plans and have done much work in perfecting them and reducing them to practice. Wheelmen will be much pleased to hear that it is expected that work will be resumed on the cycle path along Lake avenue this week. In its present unfinished state, with both sides raised above the path in many places, it has been very dangerous, and has already caused a number of accidents with several narrow escapes from serious injury. Ad. Getty has been spending some days with his father, Daniel Getty, at the Getty cottage on First street, in White Bear.

Miss Shuey has been spending some time on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Drake, at Lakeside, near the bridge.

Survivors were taking levels last week along the line of the proposed cycle path to drain the surface water in that neighborhood and on the West side of White Bear lake. This will be a large tract for the lake as far as it goes and will be a great improvement to West Side property.

Edna Clouston, aged 13, of Minneapolis, saw little Eddie Rodenberg lying just off the bank of White Bear lake. She was without a moment's hesitation she sprang into the water, which came up to her waist, and held the little fellow onto the dock again. The parents were so pleased at her promptness, they had not even thought of the little fellow to choke under water, that they presented her with a very pretty cup and saucer. The little fellow is now a party of railroad men, under Foreman Maguire, have been stopping at the Fenwick house, on the corner of Lake and White Bear, for some time. They are engaged in laying culverts along the line of the St. Paul & Duluth.

Some persons have had doubts as to any great flow of water coming from Pine Tree lake. But those who know declare that a very large stream of water flows out of the lake every spring and that it recedes by clearing away the tract of country all around its shores, besides being fed from a series of small lakes on the other side from White Bear. At all events a great many people say amen to the declaration of Messrs. Clark and Sanborn that measures for bringing more water into the lake far exceed in importance all plans for the removal of trees and shrubbery which form a natural provision for retaining the regular flow of water.

Miss Jane Conroy has been quite ill again, but is now much better. She is staying for a while with her family at Park place, in White Bear.

A large crew of men are at work maintaining the White Bear and Bald Eagle road as originally planned by the county commissioners. The town supervisors are relying that they were in time to head off the effort of the Improvement association to have this work done near Cottage park, instead of on the original plan.

A large picnic of Minneapolisians expect to take possession of the park near the bridge today. They declare that if the weather is favorable they will have close to 100 persons out here to spend the day.

Apart from the personal characteristics of the Ringling Bros., the success which has brought their show to the front so rapidly during the past few years has resulted in a large measure from a clearly defined policy, which, in its way, has been entirely unique with this organization. This policy embraces several cardinal features, each of which is highly commendable. One of these features is a strict adherence to the truth in advertising. Wherever Ringling Bros.' shows exhibit it has become a recognized fact that whatever is shown upon the billboards will be exhibited in the rings, and this has given the public a confidence in the show which no other circus enjoys. Another feature is a clearly defined purpose of making each season's show superior to that of the previous year. So

PROF. DANZ'S BAND AT COMO

Two Select Programmes for Today—Wildwood in Shape to Furnish Amusement for the Sunday Crowds—The Merric Bell Opera Company Due Next Week—Electric Band at Lake Shore Pavilion.

Como park visitors have not only had plenty of music the present summer, but it has been of an attractive variety. Thus far two bands, Phinney's United States band and the Minnesota State band, have made a bid for public favor in a series of popular concerts, and for the next two weeks the celebrated Danz band, under the direction of Prof. Frank Danz Jr. will be heard.

Prof. Danz is considered to be a peer of Northwestern musicians, especially when it comes to directing an orchestra or a band. Prof. Danz will bring on this occasion his band recruited to its full strength, and including also several of his admittedly clever soloists. Today's programmes are as follows:

AFTERNOON.

March, "The Fortune Teller," Herbert; waltz, "The Joy and Sorrow," Conradi; waltz, "Cherry Blossom," Gavotte, "Peacock Stride," Kline; selection, "Sweet Innocence," Olcott; Intermission. March, "Whistling Rufus," Mills; selection, "Faust," Gounod; waltz, "Black and White," Herbert; medley, "Rag-Ma-La," De Witt.

EVENING.

March, "Our Favorite Regiment," Eric; selection, "Poulet Chasseur," Conradi; waltz, "The Wind," Hall; selection, "Sweet Old Song," Dabry; "Maiden's Honor," Ragtime, Schmitt; Lee Johnson, Intermission. March, "You Got to Play Ragtime," Mackie; selection, "Said Fasha," Stahl; medley, "The Dawn of Love," Bendix; waltz, "Fang, Morse; galop, "Fly-away," Clement.

Wildwood Improvements continue and the electric band, which has so many conveniences and amusement features of this resort. The new bathing houses are perfect and liberally patronized, while on Sundays many hundreds find enjoyment in the surf and in the water, which is the thrilling water chutes. For those who are venturesome there is the roller-coaster, a ride which is said to be thrilling in the extreme. There are boats galore for those who have nautical tastes, in fact, varied amusements. The concerts by the Twin City Mandolin orchestra have proven a delightful feature and are to be continued. Popular entertainers, who are interspersed with dance music add much to the pleasure of the afternoon and evening amusement programme at this resort. The following presents the Mandolin Club orchestra's programme for this afternoon and evening:

Afternoon—March, "The Pacemaker," Zickel; overture, "Pique Dance," Suppe; waltz, "Far Away," Swanson; selection from "Half a King," Englander; two-step, "At a Georgia Camp Meeting," Mills; evening—March, "Stars and Stripes," Sousa; waltz, "Love's Thoughts," Pryor; medley of popular songs, Lotpour; Spanish dances, Moszkowski; potpourri of coon songs, Brannado.

The afternoon and evening concerts which are to be given at Lake Harriet, beginning July 25, promise to be enjoyable. The red band consists of fifty musicians. The Boston Transcript is credited with paying this tribute to this attraction: "That was a musical experience worth having; one to upset many of one's notions of military band music. Its playing is superb. The enormous effectiveness of their playing dramatic selections is, no doubt, largely to be charged to the credit of Mr. Sorrentino, their conductor. He lets no chance for a fine effect escape. We can only say that he who misses hearing this band, misses a tremendously and unusually good thing."

But one week more will elapse before the Merric Bell company will inaugurate its series of operatic performances at Wildwood. Three weeks' engagement of this company's repertoire will be inaugurated Sunday afternoon, July 23. In addition to a Sunday matinee, each week there will be a Saturday afternoon performance for those ladies and gentlemen who care to enjoy the double pleasure of a visit to this beautiful resort and the enjoyment of a good operatic production. The Merric Bell company, in its five weeks' season at Lake Harriet, Minneapolis, has succeeded in establishing for itself a prestige of no mean merit and by its complete presentation of the various operas has brought forth from the press flattering comments.

For the opening week two operas will be given. For the first half will be seen Von Suppe's beautiful lyric "Bocaccio," in the title role of which Miss Meyers appears. The last half of the week will be given over to Gilbert & Sullivan's "Mikado." Popular prices will prevail for these series of Wildwood productions.

The usual Sunday attractions at Lake Shore pavilion will be supplemented to-

CONSTANCE LOCKE-VALIS.

Constance Locke-Valis is visiting friends in this city. She has the reputation of an accomplished pianist. Mme. Locke-Valis is distinctly a product of the West, being a Chicagoan by birth, and receiving her musical education in Chicago. She comes of Norse descent, and in complexion, which is fair, and bearing, which is tall and straight, presents the characteristics of her race. Last summer Mme. Locke-Valis prepared a paper on piano touch and technique for the Chicago Musical Institute, and her essay was commented on very favorably. In her work she has attained special prominence as an accompanist, and lately finished a series of appearances in concert with a solo company, for which she was a member. Mme. Locke-Valis is just recovering from double pneumonia. She may locate in St. Paul.

RINGLING QUINTETTE.

Their Circus Has Grown From a Small Affair to the Largest in the United States.

The success of the Ringling Brothers, whose popular big show exhibits in St. Paul, Tuesday, July 25, forms one of the most remarkable pages in the history of amusements in America. Some idea of the remarkable growth of Ringling Brothers' circus can be gained from the fact that within a dozen years the show has grown from a little overland circus, the entire value of which was less than $1,000, to the largest arenic enterprise in the United States.

It is evident that a success like this could not have been the result of chance, nor has it been. The Ringling Brothers have won their way to their present eminence by qualities which would have gained success in any sphere of life. The quintette has been endowed by nature with characteristics which, in combination, have given them a superiority over all competitors. Great newspapers have gone out of their way to praise it editorially. Hundreds of thousands of people have attended the exhibition and given it their most enthusiastic commendation. It is the talk of the country everywhere. Its managers are the most famous of all American showmen. And all this has been accomplished in so brief a time that the details read more like a story from the "Arabian Nights" than the record of a nineteenth century amusement institution.

NEILL STOCK AGAIN.

Second Engagement of the Company Begins Next Monday.

The Neill stock company will return to the Metropolitan Monday, July 24, for the second engagement of the summer stock season. The company is now in Winnipeg, where they have met with great success. The popularity of Mr. Neill and his players is fully as marked in the Canadian city as in St. Paul and Minneapolis, and the present engagement there was booked over a year ago. This booking cut out two weeks of the summer season in St. Paul, but it was impossible to make a change, so the Metropolitan, which was closed last week, will be dark for another week. The Neill will open with "Lord Chumley," one of the big comedy successes of E. H. Southern. For the latter half of the opening week they will present Martha Morton's charming comedy, "A Bachelor's Romance," originally produced by Sol Smith Russell, the patrons of the Metropolitan and friends of the Neill company will give a hearty welcome to the members of this organization on their return to this city.

The cast for "Lord Chumley" will be as follows:

Lord Chumley.....E. Everham
Adrian Butterworth, retired.....Robert Morris
Lieut. Gerald Hugh Butterworth, the 91st, his son.....Robert Morris
Caspar Le Sage, a gentleman with an elastic conscience.....Lilla Vane

PAY FOR SOLDIERS.

Guardsmen Who Enlisted as Volunteers Are Being Remembered.

Members of the Minnesota national guard who enlisted at Camp Ramsey and served as volunteers are receiving their pay. Capt. Fisher, of the 13th regiment, is sending to them checks and vouchers. Under the state law the pay of guardsmen is $1.50 per day. They will receive the balance of their pay, and the allowance by the regular army. The payments thus far have been made to the members of the Twelfth and Fourteenth regiments. The members of the Thirteenth will not be paid until their regiment returns from the Philippines. Of those enlisted in the two regiments now at home, 1,250 men have been paid their pay. The balance of the pay of the men are located in the same counties as the companies in which they enlisted, they sign a pay roll in charge of their captain, but their pay is scattered all over the world. Fourteen applications have been received from Havana, Cuba, from former members of these regiments. The object of the law is to make members of the hospital corps or upon other duty. Other applications come from all parts of that island, and even from the Philippines they come.

Former members of the Thirteenth regiment to the number of thirteen have decided to locate permanently in San Francisco, and their pay will be sent to them there. Some come from every state in the Union, while others have not been located.

501,000,000 Passengers

Were carried by the railroads of the United States in 1898, an increase of 11,748 over 1897. The increase is a marked improvement in the country's growing love for railway travel in the heart of the American people.

The tendency to do more traveling is occasioned by the constantly improving facilities for travel. For instance, a trip from the Twin Cities to Milwaukee or Chicago on the Milwaukee & St. Paul is a matter of only perfect train in the world—invariably inspires the traveler with a sense of safety, comfort and satisfaction. When desired to make frequent trips on this celebrated train.
