PRIESTS AT WAR

INSURGENT LEADS A MOVEMENT FOR INDEPENDENCE OF THE PHILIPPINE CHURCH

SELF-MADE VICAR GENERAL

ALL NATIVE PRIESTS URGED TO IGNORE THE REGULATIONS OF THE CHURCH

ZEALANDIA NOW AT MANILA

The transport arrives with regulars, recruits and supplies for the army—Kansas volunteer declares the government is attempting to buy off natives by paying all who lay down arms.

MANILA, July 23.—A Filipino priest named Gregorio Agripay, the insurgent, is trying to lead a movement for the independence of the church in the Philippines from the Spanish priesthood. He has issued a proclamation declaring himself the vicar general of all the Filipino priests in all the districts outside of American control on the island of Luzon, and inciting the priests to disobey the regulations of the church and brotherhoods. The archbishop of the district has issued a bull excommunicating Agripay, and this action has increased the feeling between the Filipinos and the church.

The archbishop threatened to excommunicate the owners of Spanish papers publishing anti-church articles, and also to excommunicate the American paper which he thought might be hounded out of the island like any disturber of the peace if he should incite religious animosity.

The Dominican friars have begun the publication of a newspaper under the title of the Libertad, for the purpose of defending the brotherhood.

The United States transport Zealandia, which sailed from San Francisco June 21 with four companies of the Twenty-fourth United States Infantry, 150 recruits and a large amount of provisions and supplies for the army on board, has arrived here.

ALL ATTACK OTIS.

Returning Volunteers Accuse Him of Not Reporting All Casualties.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 23.—Forty non-commissioned officers and privates, invalided home, arrived on the steamship America-Maru, from Manila via Hong-Kong. One and all unhesitatingly and unspareingly condemn Maj. Gen. E. S. Otis' management of the Philippine campaign and assert that both regulars and volunteers have no faith in him. They charge that Otis' incompetency is the one leading topic of conversation among the men and say the disrespect in which he is held is in strange contrast to the devotion and regard shown for generals like Lawton and Wheaton.

BRIBING THE INSURGENTS.

Statement Made by a Member of the Kansas Regiment.

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., July 23.—Under date of May 30, Emil Etzold, Company G, Twentieth Kansas, writes to his sister in this city from Manila. Among other things, he says: "I think we are relieved in a few days, but I think we are in for it until it is finished. I think it will not be long now before the war is over and the volunteers will go home. There were two of Aguinaldo's officers here yesterday to negotiate on peace terms, and nobody knows yet what they are about. It is the intention of Aguinaldo to have the war stop, and our government has offered $30 Mexican money for every man who will come in and give up his gun."

ORDERED TO MANILA.

Cavalry to Be Used in Fall Operations in Philippines.

CHICAGO, July 23.—War department orders were received at Fort Sheridan today to place a troop of cavalry in immediate readiness for active service in the Philippines. The same dispatch announces the administration's purpose to use cavalry more freely in the fall campaign.

Tanner of Illinois is badly out of the state despite efforts on the part of game wardens to detain him for violation of the game law in killing out of season a four-pronged buck. DAY OF RIOTING

BUSY SUNDAY SPENT BY THE POLICE AND SOLDIERS AT CLEVELAND

NO CLASHES WITH TROOPS

SEVERAL SERIOUS OUTBREAKS OF VIOLENCE IN VARIOUS PARTS OF THE CITY

ARBITRATION OFFER REFUSED

Company Declines the Good Offices of the State Board—Showers of Stones Aimed at the Non-Union Employees—Police Compelled to Use Their Clubs in Order to Clear the Streets.

CLEVELAND, O., July 23.—The rioting which continued throughout last night was renewed today, and there were several serious outbreaks of violence, but no clashes between the mob and the troops. Cars were started as usual this morning on all but one or two lines.

A Euclid avenue car loaded with passengers was wrecked by an explosion of nitro-glycerine or gun cotton shortly before 11 o'clock tonight. Four persons were badly hurt, names of the injured being:

MRS. E. C. MARTIN, No. 79 Atkinson street, compound fracture of the skull, right arm broken and internal injuries which may prove fatal.

E. C. MARTIN, right arm badly cut and bruised about legs and body.

MRS. CATHERINE HARRIS, 25 Cornell street, suffering from nervous prostration.

J. A. SMITH, 69 Vienna street, injured about legs and body.

ALBERT E. FASSETT, 12 Waldo place, legs injured.

DORA SCHLESER, 10 Oakdale street, bruised about the body.

Late tonight it was learned Mrs. Martin, one of the injured, will probably die. She sustained a compound fracture of the skull, had one arm broken and was otherwise injured. She was with her husband, who was also badly hurt.

The explosion tore out the front end of the car, smashed all the windows and destroyed the brake. After considerable difficulty the car was stopped and a call for ambulances was sent out. The motorman, William Dragers, who came from Cincinnati, was dazed by the shock, but the conductor, Frank Schroeder, of St. Louis, escaped injury. The force of the explosion was so great that it shook all the houses in the neighborhood, and was heard for a distance of two or three miles.

There is no clue to the identity of the person who placed the explosive on the track. Persons living in the neighborhood say they saw a man in a buggy stop at the corner of Kensington street, where the explosion occurred, and get out by the railway track. He remained there a short time and then drove rapidly away.

PEOPLE EXCITED.

Within a few minutes after the explosion occurred a crowd of 1,000 persons assembled, and a mob of rioters who were suffering from shock were cared for until the ambulances arrived. None of them were dangerously injured, their hurts being confined to bruises about the feet and legs. Mrs. Martin fainted before she was taken from the car. All were taken to their homes in ambulances.

The motorman on the car managed to get out of the vestibule of the car and then fell to the street, but he quickly recovered and helped to extricate the passengers from the wreck.

Passengers who were on the car said the explosion seemed to lift the whole front end of the car and it ripped up the floor for more than half the distance from the front end. The car was, in fact, a complete wreck, but, strange to say, it did not leave the rails and was taken to the barns by the next outward-bound motor.

The police were quickly summoned to the scene of the explosion and a force of men was detailed to investigate with the view of running down the persons who placed the explosive on the track. A boy living near the corner saw the mysterious man in the buggy. He said he noticed the buggy drive up there and stop and saw the man get out. He furnished about the rails for a minute or two and then jumped into the buggy and drove away at a gallop.

There seems to be no doubt now that Mayor Farwell will call out the three or four available military companies in this city in addition to those already under arms. There will include the battery of artillery and the government may be requested to send other troops to the city.

CROWDS ASTIR EARLY.

The mobs were astir early. Soon after 10 o'clock a thousand or more persons gathered on Burton street, on the South side, and proceeded to obstruct the track. When a car came along with two policemen on board it was attacked with a shower of stones. In spite of the policemen, the non-union motorman and conductor were roughly handled. One of them, named McDermott, had two ribs broken, and the other was badly bruised. One of the policemen fired at the mob, the bullet striking a man named Wenick. The mob assaulted the officers, both of whom were struck repeatedly with stones, and but for the intervention of a priest of the Catholic church near by had the officers might have been lynched.

By this time the cars had been mixed up in the melee, and a patrol wagon-load of police arriving the rioters dispersed and the cars were taken back to the barns.

There was a serious disturbance on the Broadway line at the corner of Petrie street, where a mob of 3,000 people assembled in the forenoon and obstructed the track. Finally a car came along from the Wilson avenue barn having on board Sergeant Burrows, a private of militia and Detective Keiso. The officer ordered the men to disperse when the motorman attempted to remove the obstruction from the track, but the rioters showed fight. Then Sergeant Burrows and the one soldier, with fixed bayonets, faced the mob and attempted to clear
