MIXTURE OF POLITICS.

There are quite a number of prominent Republican candidates for mayor, and each of the gentlemen who would be willing to make the race providing the nomination was rendered more or less backing. Arranged in the order of wards the more prominent of the aspirants are:

First Ward—C. K. Sharrow.
Second Ward—M. W. Fitzgerald.
Third Ward—A. R. Kiefer.
Fourth Ward—J. P. Donahoe.
Fifth Ward—Sidney H. Reeves.
Sixth Ward—George F. Dix and F. B. Duran.
Seventh Ward—A. H. Lindeke.

The most likely candidate of those mentioned in the next Republican convention is the present chief executive Andrew R. Kiefer. The friends of the other candidates will not admit this fact for a moment when the matter is openly discussed, but on the quiet they all fear the re-nomination of Kiefer is as good as settled. At a conference held at the home of George Dix down one night last week the Kieferites were very scarce. It was generally agreed that the only way in which a new man could be named for mayor next spring is the Republican convention was to make a combination. What puzzled the leaders was the candidate to be combined on. The friends of each of the aspirants wanted his name chosen as the one to get the plum, and this, of course, created considerable dissatisfaction.

The friends of W. J. Donahoe insist that he is the strongest candidate, and that he would, if nominated, sweep the city on the single issue of a young man for mayor. The question of politics, according to the friends of the other candidates would cut but little figure in the election, as the young voters in both parties would rally to his support. The plan of the Donahoe supporters is to get George Dix down easy by giving him the nomination for comptroller and shelling Capt. McCarty. In order to catch the Scandinavian vote the Donahoe ticket puts former Ald. Linderoth as city treasurer.

Sidney H. Reeves, at present alderman from the Fifth ward, also has an idea that he would be a strong competitor for mayor. In order to boost himself along as the people's candidate Ald. Reeves has been preparing a 3-cent street car rate ordinance. The measure provides that between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. patrons of the street cars will be allowed to ride for 3 instead of 5 cents. The Fifth ward alderman argues (whether he believes it or not) that the street railway ordinance can be made to accept a 3-cent rate to grant the street car more privileges until such a reduction is accepted. With this ordinance for a starter, and the support of the evening Republican organ Reeves has figured out that it is near the top in the mayoralty race.

A. H. Lindeke, of the Seventh ward, while not an original candidate for the mayoralty, would not refuse the nomination, and would do all that he could to bring this result about. Mayor Kiefer, however, is about half on to the aspirations of Mr. Lindeke, and in order to straighten this kink out will on Jan. 1 next tender Mr. Lindeke an appointment on the board of water commissioners to succeed J. F. Hoyt, whose term expires on that date.

W. F. Fitzgerald, of the Second ward, is willing to let his boom for the mayoralty go along with the boom for the city part. He has it figured out that the talk about his being a candidate for mayor will not hurt him in the least some two years from now, when he will make the race for clerk of the district court. This brilliant future prospect, however, depends upon the election of Edward G. Rogers, the present clerk of court, to congress from this district.

In the Sixth ward there are two candidates. Former Mayor Dorn and his friends claim the right to the mayoralty. St. Paul ever had, and point with pride to his administration, in comparison with the one which the citizens are now enjoying. It is generally conceded that he never fully understood until it was too late, and that, in the best interests of the city and as a matter of vindication, the best candidate for the office is George F. Dix, who at present is president of the assembly. It is also a promising candidate from the Sixth ward, according to his friends, is a clean-cut young business man, well versed in city affairs, with no political enemies and a host of friends not only in the Sixth, but all of the other wards in the city. It is a matter of nothing in the way of a combine to beat Kiefer the advocates of the candidacy of Mr. Dix claim he is the one to combine on.

Comptroller McCarty is not only looking for but expects a re-nomination. An effort has been made to cause his defections on the comptroller simply because he issued a city order for $119,000 and had it paid by one of the banks without any authority from the council. Assemblyman Kirke had a resolution passed in the assembly directing the corporation attorney to investigate as to the legality of the issuance of the order, but this was headed off in the committee by Ald. Sanborn. The Seventh ward alderman is of the opinion that there is no need of making any trouble inside the city lines, and would rather have any resolution calling for an investigation will be smothered by the board.

It is now pretty well understood that Tamms Bixby and Senator Nelson are candidates for the naming of "Bob" Evans as the Republican candidate for governor next year. Senator Nelson, in a matter of course, desires to be returned to the senate, and he naturally desires the candidate for governor to come from Minnesota. This view of the matter follows the day, make it impossible to have any senatorial candidate from the Mill City ward and would make the senatorial race less spirited.

A number of prominent Republicans were the guests of Congressman Fred C. Stevens at a luncheon given at Magee's restaurant yesterday afternoon, occasioned by the arrival in the city of Congressman Payne and Heatwole, returning from an Alaskan trip. Among those present were Judge Walter Evans, prominent member of the bar, C. K. Davis, Congressman Tawney, Heatwole and Payne of New York, who succeeded Congressman Dingler as chairman of the house committee on ways and means; J. A. Wheelock, E.

DAWEY AND GERMAN BERLIN NEWSPAPERS DO NOT BELIEVE THE ADMIRAL PRE-DICTED NEXT WAR HAS TOO MUCH GOOD SENSE

Are Displeased, However, With the Turn of Affairs in Samoa—Demand That the Government Stand Up for German Supremacy—Emperor William Deeply Interested in Transvaal Crisis.

Copyrighted by the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Aug. 5.—Although the diet reassembles Aug. 16, the fate of the canal bill is as uncertain as ever. Its chances have not improved during the vacation. The center, whose help is vital, insists on the passage first of the communal reform bill, to which arrangement the Prussian government seriously objects. The agrarian opposition remains determined. Even the emperor has publicly and strongly in favor of the canal bill makes no difference.

DEWEY'S WORDS.
Admiral Dewey's alleged anti-German utterances at Trieste are more extensively commented on in the American than in the German press. With a few exceptions the tone of the latter is moderate and conciliatory. Most of the papers doubted the truth of the alleged utterances from the first, citing the admiral's past conduct and well-authenticated friendly attitude towards the German representatives in the East. The influential Boersen Courier says:

"On the German side no serious politician for a moment has attributed any importance to the statement. Admiral Dewey is known from his correspondence with German naval officers, as a quiet, thoughtful gentleman, incapable of giving vent to such incautious utterances." The Algemeine Tages Zeitung likewise expresses disbelief, adding:

"After all, we need not trouble ourselves about Admiral Dewey's views of Germany, prince and German naval officers. The Tageblatt repeatedly expressed the conviction that the whole story is inaccurate, and other important papers, like the Cologne Gazette, Hamburger Korrespondent and the bulk of the Berlin papers, said it would be interesting to know just how much and how little truth there was to the whole story."

SAMOA AFFAIRS.
The events in Samoa are being followed with some little attention. The news that Dr. Solf, the German president of the council of Samoa, was induced to resign was not taken with general displeasure. Government circles as yet have no confirmation of the report, but the Cologne Gazette has a special dispatch from Apia saying the assumption of Chief Justice Chambers' place by Consul General Osborne, and Dr. Solf's resignation, must be regarded as an indefensible relinquishment of Germany's position, and is unjustified by the facts.

The nationalist Deutsche Zeitung violently attacks the government for yielding to the pressure of the German press, and the Vossische Zeitung closes an article by saying:

"The Samoa question has wound up subject to the approval of the powers. Careful examination is the first requisite for the avoidance of sanguinary international complications."

The government press so far is silent.

SANTO DOMINGO MIDDLE.
The German press is in the main reticent regarding the Santo Domingo mud. Referring to a German comment on the troubles in the island, the influential National Zeitung remarks:

"We attach slight significance to these American press voices. For some time to come the American craving for activity will be satisfied with the solution of the Philippine question. In Haiti, too, the Americans would not be welcomed. Horrors committed by the United States against the color of the people will hardly tell against the American protectorate with the Haytian colored people. Even in Cuba the colored people have already received proofs of the innermost antipathy of the Americans towards the blacks."

CRISIS IN TRANSVAAL.
Events in the Transvaal are keenly watched here. The press comments liberally on the week's news. No doubt a strong, but unshared, sentiment exists, shared by every trading center of the Boers against Great Britain. The German one meets expresses this freely, and the press, except the portion inspired by the Boer side more or less strongly with the Boer side. In the Deutsche Zeitung is significant the aspiration in pan-German and colonial circles. It concludes as follows:

"Questionable as it remains, after all, whether England, which in a war with the Boers, would have to dangerously expose all her resources in Asia, is really resolved to fight. It is, judging from the news from London, not without reason, that the possibility of the near future may show whether the British flag will be unfolded for a fight with the Boers, or whether Africa is to become English or German."

A further sign of the deep interest here is the number of books and pamphlets on the question which have appeared within a month. All the periodicals also contain articles on the Transvaal question. It seems doubtful, however, whether the Boer government will again interfere if this question is in the South Africa. It is currently reported in Berlin circles that his majesty on the occasion of the visit of Cecil Rhodes to Berlin said:

"The Boers are past saying" adding that "they owed their misfortunes to their own stubbornness," and that there was intention on the part of Germany to call a bluff on the Boers.

There has been a great veering round of opinions in government circles, partly owing to the reports from the German consular agent in the Transvaal, and partly to the question awaiting the emperor's return. The question is whether the emperor has been kept close to the Transvaal regarding the changes in the whole matter and on his arrival at Kiel a minute verbal report was made to him. A high official said to the Associated Press correspondent this week:

"It is certain the emperor and with him Count von Buelow and Prince Hohenzollern have become convinced that the Transvaal question is a question at the present stage would be to stir up a hornet's nest. Germany has come to the conclusion that it is best for our interests to let things take their natural course."

AMERICA'S BIG NAVY.
A large portion of the press this week called attention to the "enormous proposed increase" of the American navy. The United States is now building forty-six war vessels, and that the construction of twelve was ordered during the last session of congress. This a definite step, near future, will give a new complexion to the far eastern question.

relations with the government have begun a campaign in favor of another large increase in the German navy. Even the Conservative Neuste Nachrichten, minister of finance, Miquel, the Prussian minister of finance, has expressed his opinion that an increase is necessary, unless Germany wishes to "abdicate the influential position she has acquired in the East."

"Germany must be able to keep up permanently at least one division of first-class ironclads in the far East."

The first torpedo boat of a new type has just been launched at the Schichau yards. The fact that a number of small torpedo boats have been lost at sea during the past five years has induced the government to abandon the smaller type. All the torpedo boats built for Germany hereafter will be sixty-eight meters long, drawing nine feet of water, and will be among the swiftest vessels of their class afloat. They will have twenty-five knots, and will have two funnels and two turrets.

FIGHT BETWEEN SOVEREIGNS.
The fight between the sovereign of Lippe-Deimold and Emperor William's brother-in-law, Prince Ernest Gunther, of Schleswig-Holstein, continues. The latest feature of the dispute is the occasion of his birthday, published his thanks for the congratulations, which he claimed had reached him from every part of the empire. The emperor published a statement from the editors of the monarch of Gotha, that pressure had been exerted on them from high quarters to suppress genealogical news regarding the prince of Lippe-Deimold, and that when they refused a book in competition with theirs was issued.

PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.
Secretary Root, after consultation with Assistant Secretary Melkjohn, Gen. Miles and other officials of the war department, is said to have developed a comprehensive plan for conducting the Philippine campaign, which only awaits the approval of the president before being made operative. It is the desire of both the president and Secretary Root that the war be terminated before congress assembles on Dec. 4.

REPORT OF A FROM COMMANDER OF GUNBOAT CASTINE MADE PUBLIC.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The navy department has made public a report from Commander S. W. Very, of the Castine, containing some reference to the evacuation of Zamboanga, on the island of Mindanao, which was captured by the United States navy. In part the report, under date of Zamboanga, May 30, as follows:

"On the 24th the Spanish left. I fired twenty-one guns, Spanish ensign at main. Considerable enthusiasm on board Lord XIII. All the officers were present, approving, and the soldiers shouting 'Same day I heard from a steamer, arrived from Zamboanga, that the Spanish had returned to remain to support their landing. PEPPER FOR FRANCE.
Novoe Vremya Gives M. Delcasse a Dressing Down.
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 5.—Most of the newspapers here cordially welcome M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs, who arrived yesterday. The Novoe Vremya, however, throws cold douches on the importance the French papers seek to attribute to the visit. It says that while, since the advent of the Boers, the world has been in a great deal of confusion, the significance of the visit is wholly of a one-sided character, and that the French minister has no serious difference if M. Delcasse had declined to return visit and remained at his post, where he might be better employed in explaining to his colleagues the conduct of the Franco-Russian alliance demands on the part of France."

resign at once, or to at least defend himself in a statement to the public through the papers of Minneapolis and St. Paul. In reply to this letter I received a telegram which read as follows:

"Your letter not understood. Write me fully, and I will be glad to see you in St. Paul."

SOMEWHAT SURPRISED.
"As I had written him fully, I was somewhat surprised at the receipt of such a message. I did as he requested, however, and wrote him again. In the second letter I stated, of course, that I was the officer of the regiment and that the officers had joined in a request that he be immediately discharged. Further than that I informed him that the very best thing he could do would be to resign, and strongly advised him to do so at once. I told him that the papers had little in regard to him, but the time would come, and in the very near future, when every thing would be made known through the public prints. The second letter was sent only a few days ago, and I have not, therefore, received a reply."
