Big Pugilist From California De feated by Maher. NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Seven thousand persons saw Peter Maher knock out Joe

Kennedy, the California heavy-weight, in the second round, in the Lenox Athletic club arena tonight. Before the fight the betting was 2 to 1 on Maher, but his victory was even easier than his friends had expected. The knockout bl.w which Maher delivered was practically a double left swing and hook on the jaw, following a right hand swing on the op-posite side of the jaw. Kennedy fell as if hit with an axe, and although he was unable to regain his feet within the allotted ten seconds, he recuperated v.ry quickly and walked out of his corner his dressing room within two minutes after he was floored.

First Round-Kennedy was the quicker and led left to the breast. Then Maher led left on body and was countered on the neck. Kennedy cut out the pace and they came to close quarters, both landing. Peter got first blood with a hard left on the nose. Kennedy clinched, and was cautioned for so doing, but merely staggered Maher with a left on the jaw and repeated the blow. When Kennedy came to him again Maher let

Kennedy came to him again Maher let go his left just before the bell.

Second Round—Both were more cautious and took things easier. Maher landed a left to the face and there was no come back. Sparring and fiddling followed, with Kennedy trying lefts which, Peter blocked, and Maher then put left on body and right on face. This last b'ow staggered Kennedy and Maher, seeing his chance, followed quickly, putting left to the face and then swung right and to the face and then swung right and left to jaw with all the force he had back of his big shoulders, and Kennedy went down and out. Time of round, 2 minutes 39 seconds.

In the preliminaries Jack Curley, of this city, knocked out Tom Burke, of Pittsburg, in the fourth round, and Kid Ash, colored, of Cincinnati, got the decision over Job Dwyer, of this city, at the end of a six-round bout.

FAVORITES' DAY.

Top-Heavy Choices Won at the Louisville Meet.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 26.-This was favorites' day at the fair grounds. Three of the four races went to favorites of the top-heavy kind, and the other event was captured by a second choice. The weather was cool and bracing and the track, after yesterday's rain and racing, was in perfect condition for fast work, though a stiff breeze kept the time from being as fast as it might have been. There were three stakes on the card today, the Kentucky Matron stakes for 3-year-old trotters, postponed from yesterday; the Douglas stake for 2:12 class trotters, and the Zelbach stakes for 2:18 class pacers. The other race was an $800 purse affair for 2:17 class trotters. Borealma, winner of the $7,000 Matron stakes, is a chestnut gelding by Boreal, out of Earlma, by Earl. He was sold last week by Scott Newman, of this city, to Dr. J. C. Mc-Coy, banker and turfman, of Kirkwood, Del. His win today was very popular.

He was celebrating his victory over Douglass early this morning when he ran foul of a tough waiter in a Larimer street restaurant who did not like his style and proceeded to show his dislike. He pounded Smith until the fighter roared for the police. When the waiter got through with the prize fighter he threw him into the street. JUST LIKE DEWEY

Continued From First Page. pia. St. Clair McKelway was chosen acting chairman. He was accompanied by Richard Croker, Senator Chauncey M. Depew, ex-Congressman William Mo-Adoo, Warren W. Foster and Howard Carroll. Mayor Van Wyck was represented by his secretary, Alfred M. Downes. Among others on the Patrol were Chief of Police Devery and President York, of the police board. On the way to the Olympia the Patrol dipped her colors to the warships New York, Indicolors to the warships New York, Indiana, Massachusetts, Brooklyn and Texas, and the training ship Lancaster, which are waiting the river parade at the naval anchorage at Tompkinsville. Approaching Admiral Dewey's flagship this message was wig-wagged to the warship:

"We are the police steamboat Patrol, having on board representatives of the mayor of the city of New York. Will you make gangway starboard or port?" CONFERS WITH COMMITTEE.

No answer was made to the message but a few minutes later the Olympia's steam launch was alongside the Patrol to carry the delegation to the cruiser. The representatives of the city ascended the gangway to the warship's deck, headed by Mr. Downes. There on the afterquarter on the starboard side of the cruiser the visitors were met by Flag Lieutenant Frumby, who introduced them to Admira Dewey and Capt. Lamberton and the members of the subcommittee. After a hearty handshake with the visitors, Admiral Dewey invited the city's representatives into his cabin. After seating his callers in a half circle about him, Admiral Dewey also took a chair. Secretary Caldwell, of the Olympia, took a place at the admiral's left hand and Flag Lieutenant Brumby at his right. Recognizing ex-Assistant Secretary of the Navy Mc-

Adoo, Admiral Dewey remarked:
"You remember how hard it was in the navy department to get things done, but it is better now." A McAdoo was about to reply when Acting Chairman McKelway addressed the admiral, explaining that the purpose of the visit was to submit for the admiral's approval an outline of the plans for the celebration. Admiral*Dewey at once assented to the proposal that the mayor call upon him al 11 b'clock Friday morning, ''As I wrote to Gen. Butterfield, I am entirely in the hands of the committee, and any arrangements that it makes will be agreeable to me. Eleven o'clock Friday I'll be there, but I want to say that I hope that my strength will hold out during this celebration. On my way here I did not accept any courtesies, excepat Naples. There I took one dinner, and they persuaded me to take four dinners, and I was sick for a week"

'That is very nice, very satisfactory. I understand I am expected at the cit hall at 9 o'clock," said Admiral Dewey. "Would it be convenient to come to New York in your own launch or one of the city's boats?" inquired Gen. Carroll. "My launches are slow. Besides, it might be a bad day, and the launch might be awash from the craft in the harbor," replied the admiral.

"How about the crew of this ship?" quickly inquired Admiral Dewey. "How will they get ashore? I've got 350 men there, and they all want to go, and how will they get over from where we are anchored?"

McAdoo explained that the city would supply boats for the transfer. "That's all right," said the admiral, th a smile. "That will be very satisfactory. The men can go ashore in the I've arrived a few days in advance of the time." he continued. thought it would be better to be a few ingly said the admiral to the committee-

You know the state I come from? We have to scratch gravel in Vermont. It or three days inside here. I have made a custom in life to be two or three days ahead instead of an hour behind." The suggestion having been made that the admiral come ashore before the cele-bration, he interrupted the speaker, say-

Friday morning, when the mayor calls.' The committee, after a brief personal chat, withdrew and returned to shore.

Persons moving from one part of this great country to another often find the climate and the diet at their new residence so different that their health is seriously impaired. A lady who was a native of New York City moved to Texas to live with her son, who is a ranchman. She knows the merits of Ripans Tabules for counteracting the evils of a change in atmospheric and living conditions. She writes: "The diet being different in Texas from what I have been accustomed, brought on severe attacks of indigestion, and for five years I suffered much pain and inconvenience. I tried everything with no permanent relief. At last I noticed Ripans Tabules advertised. After taking the first five-cent box I began to feel better and I have sent for another supply, so certain do I feel that they will cure me."

A new style packet containing Ten Ripans Tabules in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—for five cents. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (Ten Tabules) will be sent for five cents. Ripans Tabules may also be had of grocars, general storekeepers, news agents and at liquor stores and barber shops.
