

PLANS FOR PARTY

TO BE DISCUSSED TODAY AT ST. LOUIS BY THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS

JONES TO RESUME CHARGE

WILL ONCE MORE TAKE THE REINS AFTER HIS LONG ABSENCE IN EUROPE

BRYAN GOING INTO KENTUCKY

Meets Mr. Goebel, the Democratic Nominee for Governor, and in His Company Will Deliver a Series of Campaign Addresses over the State—Says That His Health Is Equal to the Strain.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 15.—Chairman Jones, of the national Democratic committee, arrived here this evening from New York and went to the Planters' hotel, where he will confer with the chairman Stone and other party leaders.

Later in the evening Chairman Jones was elected with Vice Chairman Stone, Chairman Johnson, of the executive committee; Sam B. Cook, Mr. Devlin, manager of the press bureau of the national committee, and other prominent Democrats.

Among other business to be transacted at tomorrow's conference is the transfer of the affairs of the national committee to Mr. Jones. It is believed that the Devlin fight that has been engrossing the Democratic factions in Chicago will come up and be settled by some action on the part of Chairman Jones and his associates.

The matter of raising funds with which to carry on the coming national campaign will consume much of the attention of those present tomorrow.

Sam B. Cook, chairman of the committee having charge of matters relating to the plans to present, and these will receive careful consideration.

Senator Jones, when seen after the conference, said: "The Democratic party, in my opinion, will stand on all national issues in 1900 precisely where it stood in 1896. None of the issues for which it fought at that time will be abandoned in 1900. Since that time some other great questions have arisen and demanded attention from the people of the United States."

The present conference is merely an informal meeting of a few members who fill official positions of importance in the national committee, to talk over what has been done and what will be done.

No change will be made as a result of the conference. I shall remain as before, chairman of the national committee. None of the important acts of the committee were without my knowledge."

Gov. Stone, who has been very active concerning very important action of the committee before it was executed, I have even while I was out of the country, kept in thorough touch with the committee and have acted, except that I was not present to preside at its sessions, I have telegraphed Gov. Stone and a committee to come here to meet me.

"I shall take no part in the campaign either in Ohio or Kentucky, Mr. Bryan has done as much work there as can be done by non-resident."

"I shall take no part in the campaign either in Ohio or Kentucky, Mr. Bryan has done as much work there as can be done by non-resident."

"All my friends when I have heard discuss the situation appear to be very hopeful of success, but I, myself, have not been able to familiarize myself thoroughly with the situation here, but I share the hope of my friends."

Asked if he would favor a reconsideration of the resolution which the national committee passed at its last meeting concerning the transfer of the press bureau by H. J. Devlin, the senator replied: "No, I would not. I approve directly of all actions of the committee, during my absence."

CITY IS CUT OFF

BOERS ALL ABOUT KIMBERLEY, WHICH IS NOW COMPLETELY ISOLATED

AN ATTACK UPON MAKEKING

EXPECTED HOURLY, THOUGH DEFINITE NEWS FROM THAT POINT IS LACKING

ENGLISH ON THE DEFENSIVE

Profiting by Former Experience and Not Willing to Risk Disaster by a Premature Advance—Newcastle May Be in the Hands of the Burgers—No Official News of Fighting Received at London.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Daily Mail's Cape Town correspondent, telegraphing Sunday evening, says: "Kimberley is besieged and the Boers are massing in force. No details, however, are obtainable. The Boers have cut the railway at Belmont, have seized the Spytfontein railway station and constructed fortified earthworks. There are strong defending forces at Modder bridge and the Orange river bridge."

The object of these operations is believed to be the capture of Cecil Rhodes, Kimberley is now isolated, both railway and telegraphic communications being cut. The Cape Town correspondent of the Morning Leader, telegraphing Sunday night, says: "It is reported that fighting began at Kimberley this morning. The railway has been cut at Belmont."

There is an unconfirmed rumor that the imperial forces intercepted a body of Transvaal Boers who were attempting to join the Boer forces at Modder river and that a heavy engagement occurred at Spytfontein station, south of Kimberley.

LITTLE ACTUAL NEWS. So far as actual news is concerned, very little change in the situation is to be noted. The state of affairs at Makekang can only be conjectured. The occupation of Newcastle by the Boers was prepared for and expected, the place having been abandoned by the British.

Very heavy rains and snows are reported, which hamper the Boer movements and they are finding that they began too late to easily obtain the initial successes counted upon. They evidently find the advance upon Ladysmith difficult either from the north or west, as Gen. Sir George Stewart White's reconnaissance seems to have sufficed to deter them from the present.

The peaks of the Drakensberg range are snow-covered, and the storms which have occurred must have caused the Boers great discomfort, which probably explains their failure to attack Gen. White. Masterly inactivity characterizes the operations of both sides. Persistent rumors are in circulation that the Schreiner ministry of Cape Colony has been dismissed and that Mr. Rose Innes has been asked to form a cabinet. These rumors, however, are without foundation.

Alfred Miller has wired to Mr. Chamberlain the text of an inflammatory circular
