SOCIETY WAS BUSY

YESTERDAY WAS AN EVENTFUL PERIOD IN THE LOCAL SPHERE

MRS. C. M. TAYLOR RECEIVES

Large Afternoon Function at Her Home on Mackubin Street—Weddings Numerous in the Events of Current Interest—Pretty Domino Party on Grove Street One of Last Evening's Pleasures.

Mrs. Cortland M. Taylor and Miss Taylor gave a large reception yesterday afternoon at their home on Mackubin street in honor of Miss Ethel Taylor, who made her formal entrance into society.

The rooms were decorated with a profusion of cut flowers and palms. Large bunches of American Beauty roses and chrysanthemums decorated the main drawing room, where the receiving party stood.

The second drawing room and the dining room were in pink, bunches of the exquisite Carnot roses being used exclusively. Mrs. Taylor, Miss Taylor and Miss Ethel Taylor received alone.

Mrs. Taylor was gowned in lavender brocade, with black satin and black mouseline de sole trimmings. Miss Taylor wore a dress of yellow crepe du chine, made over yellow tulle, with trimmings of black velvet.

Miss Ethel Taylor was gowned entirely in white. The back of her dress was done up with a deep yoke of point lace. A prettily draped flou of mouseline de sole was knotted in front just below the waist.

The marriage of Miss Emma Horeh and Henry Schade took place yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents, Rev. Carl W. Scovel, of the House of Hope.

The bride wore a gown of blue broadcloth, and carried a large bunch of white and pink flowers. A wedding supper was served after the ceremony, and an informal reception followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Schade left evening for Chicago. They will be at home after Nov. 10, in one of the new houses of erection at Cedar street and Summit avenue.

Miss Mildred Whitbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Whitbeck, and Dr. Gertrude H. Whitbeck, of Eau Claire, were married last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride on St. Anthony avenue.

Miss Maude Rene Hughes, daughter of Mrs. Ed. Hughes, and Miss McGee, daughter of ex-Gov. A. R. McGill, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride on Cedar street.

Miss Mary Holmes gave a domino party last evening at her home on Grove street, centering about forty young people. Miss Holmes was assisted by Mrs. Henry Delaney and Miss Josephine Kelley.

A reception will be tendered Rev. F. B. Cowell and Mrs. Cowell this evening in the parlors of the congregation. Miss Mamie Stanley, of Minneapolis, will sing, accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Bowler, of Minneapolis. This is the annual reception tendered the pastor and his wife by the congregation.

Mrs. J. H. Horton gave the second of a series of lectures yesterday afternoon at her home on Holly avenue. Mrs. Horton was assisted by Mrs. Stout, Mrs. C. C. De Coster, Mrs. Hiram Mearns, Miss Lillian De Coster and Miss Ruth De Coster.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Gluetz, of Pleasant avenue, entertained informally last evening at the Town and Country club in honor of their guest, Mr. Babcock, of Neenah, Wis.

The Laurel Cycle club will give its seventh informal host this evening at Lit's

FIFTY YEARS IN THE CHURCH

Half a Century of Faithful Service Under the Cross, Nearly All of It in the Diocese of Minnesota, Finds Its Reward in the Priced Honor of the Pope's Favor—Investiture at St. Paul's Seminary.

The devoted and faithful service of a humble priest of God was crowned with one of the most sought-for honors within the gift of the pope at Rome yesterday.

The investiture ceremony in the little chapel of St. Paul's seminary, was consecrated and invested with the title of monsignore and made an urban prelate, an attaché of the personal suite of Pope Leo XIII.

Father Oster's work has been one of quiet attention to the duty before him, of constant and self-sacrificing devotion to the cause of the church and heroic self-abnegation.

After such a life the scene before him yesterday in the chapel of St. Paul's must have filled his heart with gratitude and every feeling of gladness which the human heart can feel.

HEIR TO FORTUNE

Juliana Fuchs is heir to a considerable fortune in the city of Milwaukee, her father who recently died, but she would have known nothing of her good luck if George Gerlach, superintendent of the parol branch of the penitentiary had not located the woman in a little hotel on Gaultier street, between Edmund and Thomas, Austrian Consul.
