THE FLYMOUTH.

Seventh and Robert.

FITZ WAS FRISKY.

"Yank" Kenny's Elbow, Not a Door, Broke That Hand.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—"Yank" Kenny's elbow, not a swinging door, is the true reason that Bob Fitzsimmons' awful left hand is now in a badly damaged condition.

The story goes that in Jansville, Wis., four nights ago Bob was feeling unusually frisky. He is a rough boxer at all times, but he was rougher than ordinary.

Bob groined with pain and the bout was brought to a hurried end. An examination followed, and soon after the swinging door story was given out.

The hurt is a double fracture of the first two joints, and a second in another had break back of the second knuckle.

CLAMSY BOXERS.

Bob Armstrong Given Decision Over Jeffords.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The prize fight between Bob Armstrong, the colored heavyweight boxer of Chicago, and Jim Jeffords, of California, which was expected to go twenty-five rounds before the Hercules club, ended abruptly in the third round.

Both men fell from a clinch on the ropes into a box at the end of the second round, and in the third Jeffords took another header, from the effects of a right swing on the jaw.

This took all the steam out of the big fellow, and when he regained his feet he was spinning sprawling from a right swinging upper-cut in the vicinity of the belt.

Jeffords rolled over in agony, and his seconds claimed a foul on the ground that he was hit below the belt. The referee decided the blow landed fairly, and gave his verdict in favor of Armstrong after Jeffords had been counted out and carried to his corner by his seconds.

DECLARED A DRAW.

Casper Leon Broke an Arm in Bout With Ritchie.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 27.—The fight tonight at the Auditorium between Casper Leon, of New York, and Johnnie Ritchie, of St. Louis, resulted in a draw after the fourth round.

Leon broke his arm in the third round, and upon the advice of the physician attending the fight was stopped, and the referee declared the contest a draw.

Mr. Vanderbilt Chosen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The board of directors of the Coney Island Jockey club today elected W. K. Vanderbilt president, to succeed the late Col. Lawrence Kipp.

Ulcers for 35 Years.

Eleven on One Limb at One Time With Excoriating Pain. All Remedies Tried, and Numerous Physicians Little Benefit. CUTICURA Speedily Cures.

My mother has been a victim to ulcers from myroto venis for thirty-five years. Eleven of these terrible sores have existed at one time on the limb affected. Excoriating pain and intense suffering were endured, with all sorts of remedies on trial and numerous physicians' calls and prescriptions applied, but all practically with little benefit.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 27.—Commodore George W. Bliss, of the Interlake Yachting association, today issued a call for the annual meeting of the association at Erie Pa., Dec. 5. It is said that Detroit will be chosen for the next regatta, as the association will abandon Put-in-Bay as the sailing grounds for the annual races.

Forbes and Flanagan Matched.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Charles Houghton, manager of the West and Athletic club, at St. Louis, today matched Clarence Forbes, the Chicago bantamweight, to before the West End twenty-five rounds.

Wisconsin's New Coach.

RACINE, Wis., Nov. 27.—The athletic council of the Wisconsin university has engaged John S. Richards, of this city, to coach next year's football team. Richards was formerly captain and full back of Wisconsin eleven, having made a famous address at the University of Phil King, who retires to practice law.

Madison's Want a Game.

The Madison school football team would like to get a game with any high school team in the city for Thanksgiving day. Address all challenges to N. Houtzer, 475 Martin street, city.

REPEINE THE REAPER

NASHVILLE RIDER CAPTURED THE FIRST PLACE IN THE BIG BICYCLE CONTEST.

MILLER MET WITH MISHAPS

Famous Endurance Rider Could Not Regret Grand Lost, and Yielded to the Superior Quality of the Younger Man—Band Played "Dixie," and the Southerner Seemed Inspired by the Music.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 27.—Bert Repine, of Nashville, Tenn., won the forty-eight-hour bicycle race that began in Convention hall on Tuesday afternoon of last week, and in winning the race established a new record of forty-eight hours. The distance covered, 991.13 miles, is eighty-seven and one-sixteenth miles better than the previous record for a similar contest.

Charles W. Miller, of Chicago, the hitherto unbeaten champion of endurance races, made a determined effort to maintain his supremacy, but a series of accidents on the track, a punctured tire, a broken crank and another mishap, caused him to drop out, and he could not recover from the lucky Repine and the equally lucky Swede, Oscar Julius, who rode without a slip or mishap.

Julius finished second to Repine, a lap behind, and Miller finished a lap behind the Swede. Young Gus Lawson, of Chicago, the eighteen-year-old boy who rode for forty hours with the leader, withered under the hot pace of the last day and finished six laps behind the leader.

"Flyin' Dutchman," Frank Walker, was a bad fifth, finishing three-quarters of a mile behind Repine.

Six others of the eleven starters had dropped out earlier in the race. John Chapman, of Atlanta, and Oscar Plummer, of Kansas City, fell out after eight hours. Fred Nelson, of Chicago, went out on the second day, and John Lawson, of Chicago, fractured his collar bone by a fall and retired, after riding only 24 miles.

Ed Lingenfelder, of Chicago, and L. H. Niederhoffer, of Minneapolis, went off the track after having covered over 600 miles and earned a share of the purse.

DIXIE SPURRED REPINE ON.

Interest today centered in Champion Miller, who was counted on to sprint and gain the lead in the final struggle, but through hard luck. He did sprint and he recovered two laps early in the afternoon.

Then, late tonight, he gained another lap, placing him on a par, footling with the leaders. But there proved to be another sprinter in the person of Repine. A brass band figured in the struggle.

The riders had weathered a long sprint without having gained the positions and were riding easier the band struck up "Dixie." The effect upon the Southerner was electric. He whirled to the front and before his competitors were aware of it he was a long way ahead.

The band continued and Repine continued, and before the last strains of "Dixie" had faded away Repine had gained a lap on his pretty well winded followers. This lead he held to the end.

Repine will realize $100 and several special prizes for his week's work; Julius Miller, $75; Lawson, $50; Lingenfelder, $25, and Niederhoffer, $25. The final score: Miles. Laps.

Repine 991.13 4
Julius 900 2
Miller 850 1
Lawson 750 1
Walker 600 1

Electricity for Brain.

A European scientist claims to have discovered an apparatus which will stimulate the brain. It has been tried on school boys, and consists of an electric band. While scientists have been inventing unnatural ways of making the brain work, the doctor at Johns Hopkins has discovered a natural way of making the brain work.

It cures dyspepsia and all stomach troubles, and has the effect of invigorating the entire system. There is nothing "just as good."

THANKSGIVING FOOTBALL.

It is Strongly Condemned by Chicago Ministers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Football, as a Thanksgiving pastime, was strongly condemned today at a meeting of Congregational churches of this city. Resolutions were adopted, and a strong discussion, in which the practice of playing football on Thanksgiving day was characterized as a "disloyal contravention of the president's proclamation of the day."

The resolutions also say that "such conduct is especially to be deplored in organizations connected with Christian institutions, and that the best interests of the league athletes, and must be pronounced a desecration of the noblest spiritual tradition of our national life, by the very persons whose positions require them to be first to uphold and honor the same."

Copies of the resolutions will be sent to President McKinley, and to the presidents of the respective churches named in the resolutions—Wisconsin, Chicago, Michigan and Brown, whose teams play in Chicago Thanksgiving day.

Form an Athletic Club.

STURGIS, S. D., Nov. 27.—The club movement has reached this city, resulting in the organization of the Sturgis club, which will meet on Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building.

The club starts out with twenty members, and the monthly dues will be $2, the same as the Olympic club of Deadwood. The upper story of the gymnasium and the reception room, which will soon be able to give the Deadwood and local clubs a turn at indoor base ball and other sports.

Chance for Football Game.

The Stillwater high school football team desires a game for Thanksgiving with any St. Paul or Minneapolis team whose average weight does not exceed 145 pounds. Game to be played in Stillwater. Railroad expenses guaranteed. No answer, except from those accepting this challenge will be considered. Address manager football team, high school, Stillwater, Minn.

Interlake Yachtsmen to Meet.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 27.—Commodore George W. Bliss, of the Interlake Yachting association, today issued a call for the annual meeting of the association at Erie Pa., Dec. 5. ALVA MERRILL TALKS.

Interview with the Member from Peoria District, Illinois House of Representatives.

Fully Recovered from His Old Trouble, Rheumatism—Is in Better Condition to Work Than He Ever Was—Praises Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NORTHAMPTON, Ill., Nov. 27.—A story having gone this round of the press to the effect that Alva Merrill, member from the Peoria District of the Illinois House of Representatives, was cured of his old long-standing trouble of rheumatism, your reporter was sent down here from Chicago to verify the account. He found the Peoria Representative at his home and quite willing to let the public have the facts concerning his recovery.

Hon. Alva Merrill is a farmer by occupation. He is now serving his third term in the House. He sits on no less than five committees, and is regarded as one of the hardest workers and most influential members of the Assembly.

"I contracted Rheumatism several years ago," said Merrill, "and being unable to find a remedy for the disease became firmly seated in my system. I'm naturally a hustler, but to me with business, politics and the farm, all on my hands at once, it was a fearful trial. However, I used Dodd's Kidney Pills. Whatever else those pills are good for they are certainly good for Rheumatism. They completely cured me of it and I cannot say too much for them."

"Is it true that a letter signed by you was published endorsing them?" asked the reporter.

"Yes," replied Mr. Merrill, "and I gave them my photo for reproduction in their advertising also."

Your reporter secured a copy of Mr. Merrill's letter endorsing Dodd's Kidney Pills, and sends it as follows: "Gentlemen:—I had been a sufferer for some time from Rheumatism in my body and had tried many remedies with little satisfaction until I purchased Dodd's Kidney Pills. The relief was something beyond my expectations. I am now cured and heartily endorse Dodd's Kidney Pills to any one with degrading Rheumatism or Rheumatic pains. Gratefully yours, ALVA MERRILL."

PILGRIM CHURCH FAIR.

Bazaar Through Which It is Hoped to Wipe Out a Debt.

The Pilgrim Baptist church fair opened last evening with a very interesting and elaborate programme in the church auditorium. The fair itself is for the purpose of raising $2,000 toward the redemption of the church, and is in charge of Mrs. John Hickman, Miss Gertrude James and Mrs. H. B. Howard.

The programme which precedes the bazaar every night is a religious night in charge of Mrs. French. The opening number was a piano solo by Oliver White, followed by a reading by Miss Queenie Cooper, of Minneapolis. Miss Matty Grisham gave a piano solo and there followed another by Miss Eva Gray, of Minneapolis. Miss Reeva recited "Uncle Skimflint's Christmas Gift," and Latayette Mason sang a solo. The closing number was a very laughable skit, "A Pair of Lunatics," by Miss Marie Weir, of Minneapolis, and Allan French.

Next night will be "more nights: Tonight, deacons and trustees, with George James and J. H. Hickman as chairmen. Tomorrow night is young matrons' night. Thursday night is St. Paul night with Mrs. H. B. Howard as chairman, and Friday night is young people's night, with Miss Bertha Mills and Charles Miller in charge.

The bazaar will be held in the basement of the church, has nine tables as follows: Fancy work, Mrs. A. G. Russell in charge; china, Miss B. Anderson; domestic, Mrs. J. B. Johnson; flowers, Mrs. Mattie Irwin; dolls, Mrs. H. Howard; culinary, Mrs. Mary J. Leavey; golden rule, Mrs. Orner; groceries, T. E. Beasley; ice cream, Mrs. John Cloak.

Those with the ladies' aid will be tastefully and elaborately decorated with bunting, and the fancy work booth is a triumph in Oriental draperies.

MORE FUN THAN MONKEYS.

Raymond Howard, Aged Four, Was Having Fun When Arrested.

Only four years old, but a genuine "scorcher," Raymond Howard, a tiny colored boy, living with his parents at 928 Main street, was corralled by Officer Hays yesterday afternoon and taken up for riding without a bell, but he had met this contingency as best he could by hanging an empty larri pull on the end of his bicycle, and when the short stick he vigorously belabored the empty tin every time he approached a pedestrian.

That the little fellow was not running by teams or street cars in making his way to where he was picked up is somewhat remarkable, as he pedaled along the most frequented thoroughfares, dodging here and there, with his clattering velocipede, at times with hardly strong enough in his legs to push the pedals.

The primary organ of the law was taken up for riding without a bell, but he had met this contingency as best he could by hanging an empty larri pull on the end of his bicycle, and when the short stick he vigorously belabored the empty tin every time he approached a pedestrian.

He was having more fun than any one else in the city, when he was picked up, but when the big policeman lifted youngster, velocipede and all into the patrol wagon, Raymond's face twitched a little and he was heard to mutter, "I had a sudden inspiration he began pounding the larri pull and rode his velocipede up and down the floor of the wagon. At the moment he was lifted bodily out and rode bravely into the station, where he was taken in charge by Matron Cummings until turned over to his parents.

WATER BOARDS' AFFAIRS.

Not Liable for Damage to First National Bank Building.

The board of water commissioners was advised yesterday by the corporation attorney's office that the board was not liable for damage done to the First National bank building by the breaking of a fire hydrant. Claim was made for $800 damages. The legal department of the city in the opinion stated that the board was not liable for the damage done by the fire department. J. W. Taylor asked the board to lay a temporary main from Summit avenue at Dunlap street in order that a house on Grand avenue might have water for the breaking of a fire hydrant. The board's opinion was that the improvement would necessitate the laying of about 1,000 feet of pipe, the application was turned down.

Form of bond to be filed by parties who desire to use city water for skating rinks was submitted and approved, and Peterson & Daniels, who are to operate a rink on Virginia and Laurel avenues, filed a bond under the new form.

Franklin H. Lord, an attorney for James Galvin, notified the board that values patented by his client were being used, and a royalty was expected for the use of the same. A letter from the Michigan Brass and Iron Works of Detroit, from which firm the valves were purchased, informed the board that the city would be protected in the suit, if there was any.

Practical Souvenirs.

The new Army and Navy Series of Playing Cards, with our heroes portrayed on each face card, are as practical in use as any other deck, but much finer in finish and more interesting in design. They are appropriately King of Hearts. Send ten cents for a pack to Malt-Nutrine Dept., Alhambra Brewing Assn., St. Louis, U. S. A.

MR. MAZET ARRAIGNED

DISTRICT ATTORNEY GARDNER CHARGES HIS COMMITTEE WITH GRAVE ERRORS

HE HINTS AT COLLUSION

Says the Committee Interfered in the Mollness Case, Which He Does Not Name, and Presumably in Behalf of the Defendant—Notifies the Committee It Has No Power to Serve Subpoena.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The Mazet legislative committee today resumed its investigation of the city departments. The most imposing incident was the refusal of District Attorney Gardner to testify before the committee, which thereupon entered upon the long expected inquiry into the conduct of his office.

Gov. Roosevelt today announced that he would appoint Ainslie Wilcox, of Buffalo, commissioner to hear the charges brought against Mr. Gardner by the City club.

At the hearing today Mr. Moss read the affidavit of Edward J. Reardon, who served Col. Gardner with a subpoena to appear before the committee. According to the subpoena served, he had met Col. Gardner in an elevator in the criminal court building, and when he touched him with the paper Col. Gardner said: "I do not recognize this as a legal proceeding, as it is a half holiday."

Reardon insisted that he had served the subpoena, when Col. Gardner said: "You are a liar, and I have a mind to have you arrested."

MAZET METHODS DENOUNCED.

Mr. Gardner today sent a long and bitter letter to Mr. Mazet, in which he says: "Instead of inquiring of me concerning this office, you permitted your managing counsel to question me concerning an indictment for murder of exceptional intricacy and difficulty which has taxed the energies of myself and members of my professional staff for nearly eleven months, and is now on trial."

"This scandalous attempt to pry into the people's case, presumably for the benefit of the defendant, induced your associate and strongest whippersnapper from your presence to make an apology that he was opposed to such an examination."

"It becomes my duty to announce a fact you all know—namely, you are absolutely without lawful authority to issue a subpoena or to summon witnesses."

The investigation this morning was in the methods of the health board inspectors, and the disclosures were not important.

METHODIST MINISTERS CONSIDERED IT IN ITS GENERAL ASPECTS.

An interesting temperance discussion characterized the weekly meeting of the Methodist Ministers' association, at the Y. M. C. A. parlors, yesterday afternoon. The discussion arose over a paper read by Dr. George S. Chittenton, of Hamilton, who recited a publication, dealing with the economics of the liquor question. In reviewing the statistics of the publication, Dr. Innes gave figures that some of those present thought were too conservative. This was particularly true of the effects of liquor on pauperism and criminality.

Dr. Innes estimated the obligation of the Christian public to afford conveniences for social intercourse outside of the saloons.

The general discussion following the reading of the paper, dealt with the strict enforcement of the laws as at present do. He said there was much of prohibition already on the statute books, namely prohibitions for Sunday closing of saloons, the distillation of liquors and the midnight closing requirements. If these laws were enforced much of the evil of the liquor traffic, according to the speaker, could be cut out.

The association has requested Evangelist George S. Chittenton, at present conducting services in Minneapolis, to visit the Methodist ministers at the next meeting of the association.

Mrs. Shepard, of the Asbury church, addressed the association in the interest of rescue work for women. She was anxious to have women in the churches interest themselves in this work, for which she said there was a great need.
