

Thanksgiving Music. We know where good music will be on Thanksgiving Day. It will be in those homes where there is a STEINWAY.

It will be in other homes where we have placed an elegant KNABE PIANO.

We have other pianos in abundance at special prices this week: $247.50 for a fine new $350 upright. $317.25 An elegant mahogany upright Grand. Proprietor price, $400. $325.00 Fancy Burg Walnut Knabe, slightly used. A great bargain. $35.00 for a handsome New Organ...

TOY DRUMS AND PIANOS. RANGING IN PRICE FROM 20 CENTS UPWARDS. See Display in Our Window.

W. J. DYER & BRO. Largest Music House in the Northwest. Sole Agents for Steinway and Knabe Pianos. 21 and 23 West Fifth Street, St. Paul, Minn.

YERXA. Open today (Wednesday) until 10:30 p. m.

Think of any imaginable good thing for the THANKSGIVING TABLE and find it here—right-priced. If you don't find it here, the Yerxa store is not so good a servant as we try to make it.

- Cider, New Apple Juice, pure and sweet; made from the finest Genetion apples, one quart of which, while it lasts, will sell at 10 cents per gallon; the kind others sell at 25c. We sell it at, gallon... 10c (Bring or send your jars and kegs.) Butter, Fine Table Butter, in jars 24c a table or by the pound, only. Lots of them; in all dry picked; fat and tender. Prices per lb. from 8c to... 12c Turkeys, Fancy Hot-house Turkeys, each head and leaf lettuce, 3c head... 3c Lettuce, Good new Lettuce, 10c Nicer than any other, 8c Cucumber, Nicer than any other, 8c Eggs, per dozen... 18c Eggs, per dozen... 16c Raisins, Good new Muscatela, per pound... 7c Raisins, Good new layer table, per pound... 15c Raisins, Fancy Dehesa Clusters, per pound... 30c Oranges, Sweet Mexican, per dozen... 20c Oranges, Extra Large Sweet, per dozen... 35c Oranges, Fancy Navels, per dozen... 25c Oranges, Extra Large California Navels... 40c Cranberries, Good Wisconsin, 50 qt., 6 qt. for... 25c Celery, Very fine Green Top, tender, crisp Celery, per doz. (The Best in the City)... 35c Apples, Some very fine Jonathan Apples for the Thanksgiving table, per peck... 65c Tomatoes, Fresh, Rio Tomatoes, Choice, 5-lb baskets, etc... 60c Spinach, Fresh, home grown... 6c Fresh, Cucumbers, Wax Beans, Mint, Green Onions, Parsley, Oyster Plant, Cauliflower, Cultivated Mushrooms... Good mixed Nuts, per pound... 9c Nuts, Choice mixed Nuts, per pound... 11c Nuts, Fancy selected mixed, per pound... 14c

APPLES! By the barrel at low prices. CREAMERY BUTTER. Fine high-flavored Creamery butter, per pound, only 26c. 3 1/2 cents A pound for good, new Rice.

YERXA BROS. & CO. NEW LOCATION. JACOB KIEFFER, BUTCHER. Is now located at 118 East Seventh St., having removed from Eighth and Jackson. Kindly call at my new number. Near Jackson.

CITY NEWS.

Place for Randolph—Watson C. Randolph, a stenographer living at 491 Andrew street, has been appointed assistant clerk at the Leech lake agency. Will Return Him to Winnipeg—John Purcell, an insane man, now in the county jail, will be taken back to Winnipeg, his legal home, by State Agent Gates within a day or two. Pleads for Winona Armory—Adj. Gen. Lambert returned yesterday from Winona, where he appeared before the city council in behalf of armory quarters for Company C, Twelfth regiment, national guard. For Free Hides and Open Streets—The chamber of commerce, at its meeting yesterday, passed resolutions favoring the restoration of hides to the free list, and urging the city officials to have Sixth street, from Smith to Summit avenues, opened to travel as soon as possible. Shown by Stereopticon—Stereopticon entertainment will be given this evening and tomorrow night at the First Swedish M. E. church, Tenth and Temperance streets. John W. Arcander's address will be next Sunday evening, and not in the morning, as has been wrongly announced. Took Him Back to Chickasaw—Samuel Johnson, arrested here Monday evening on a telegram from the sheriff of Chickasaw county, Iowa, was taken back to Iowa yesterday by Sheriff Sherwood. Johnson is wanted to answer for slipping a bicycle on which he is alleged to have paid, but part of the purchase price. Committee Meetings Today—The committee on streets from the board of aldermen will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The regular meeting of the committee falls on Thursday, but as the date is Thanksgiving a change was made to this afternoon. The committee on claims of the same body will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon. EL MODELO CIGARS. Workmanship. Quality. Merit. PLOW WORKS LIABLE. Supreme Court Decision Exempts Power From Liability. Judge Cady in another decision affirms the lower court in the case of E. J. Hodgson, receiver of the Savings Bank of St. Paul, against the St. Paul Plow Works et al., defendants; Charles M. Power, respondent. The court holds that Power is not responsible for the disposition of money that was handled by the plow company, through him as their agent. The plow company is liable, and not its servant. The syllabus is as follows: Plaintiff claims that it has traced its property as a trust fund into the hands of the defendant Power, who, as servant, received it from his master and held and disbursed it under his master's orders, with notice of plaintiff's rights and knowledge that his master was insolvent. Held, conceding, without deciding, that plaintiff has sufficiently traced and identified the trust fund, the master, not the servant, had the possession and control of the fund, and the servant is not liable for converting the same. Judgment for defendant. —Cady, J. In re assignment of Jacob Skoll, insolvent, Swedish-American National Bank et al., respondents, vs. Jos. H. Davis, assignee of Jacob Skoll, and Merrick & Merrick, appellants. An assignee in insolvency filed his final account and applied on proper notice to have the same allowed; there were forty-one creditors who had filed claims, and only three of these presented an appeal; these three opposed the claim for compensation for the assignee and his attorneys; the claim was disallowed, the assignee appealed and served the notice of appeal on said three creditors only; on motion to dismiss the appeal for failure to serve on the other creditors, held, the service is sufficient, and the motion is denied. —Cady, J. Frederick Wimmer, respondent, vs. H. M. Goegebaum, appellant. The verdict is manifestly and palpably against the great weight of the evidence, and the uncorroborated oral evidence of the plaintiff is not sufficient to completely contradict by all the surrounding facts and circumstances, and is so unreasonable, that the court below abused its discretion in refusing a new trial. On a former trial of the action, two of the account books were missing and could not be found, but were produced on the last trial. Plaintiff was asked on cross-examination if he did not testify on each former trial that those two books contained certain entries; the books were produced to him and he was also asked if they did contain the entries. Held, it was error to refuse to require him to answer the questions. Order reversed and a new trial granted. —Cady, J. George Vosbeck, appellant, vs. H. H. Kellogg et al., defendants, Mankato Citizens Telephone Co., respondent. Order affirmed. Cady, J. For a Strictly Fresh-Dressed Turkey Go to Luley's market, 282 Jackson street. SAID TO HAVE USED OIL. Two Restaurant Proprietors Are Accused by Inspector Gibbs. Mrs. E. Mahony, who conducts a restaurant on St. Peter street, near Ninth, was charged in the municipal court yesterday with putting oil on her tables, without so apprising her boarders, according to law. The case was continued until Saturday. Albert M. Gross was similarly charged. He conducts a place on Wabasha street, near Ninth. His case likewise went over. The arrests are made at the instance of Inspector Gibbs, of the state dairy and food commission. TURKEY. The only place in the city where Wurzburger and Pilsener beer is sold, had on tap and a pleasant evening's entertainment by the celebrated Florentine Trio in the California Cafe, Seventh and Cedar. BUILDINGS AND LOANS. A Minneapolis Company Strengthens Itself With an Assessment. Public Examiner Pope is conducting an investigation of the building and loan societies of the state, and has completed a report upon the Guaranty Savings Loan, of Minneapolis. H. E. Fairchild is president and I. J. Yarnall is secretary. During the summer an assessment of 30 per cent was made among the stockholders, which has placed the company on a sound financial basis. The company has received a clearance from the public examiner in a letter commending the procedure in the matter of the assessment and expressing satisfaction at the results of the investigation conducted by the department. Six other societies are yet to be fully reported on. Deputy James Compton returned from San Francisco but a short time ago, where he looked up a large batch of Pacific slope securities held by one of the companies. The work will be completed within a short time. In order to realize the development of photographic portraits see Haynes' productions, Cor. Selby and Virginia avts. NON-UNION SIDE. Mr. Crandall, of Minneapolis, on the Insurance Controversy. Attorney General Douglas and Insurance Commissioner O'Shea, yesterday, granted another hearing to the

MAILED AS TO SCOPE

MEMBERS OF THE CHARTER COMMISSION MAY LIMIT THEIR LABORS TO THE RELIEF FOR SCHOOLS. A Committee Named to Consider the Constitutional Provision and Also the Enabling Act—The Question of the Policy of the Commission to Be Considered at Some Future Meeting. The first meeting of the charter commission was held yesterday morning at the city hall. Twelve of the fifteen members appointed were present, the absentees being Messrs. C. R. Smith, Norman E. O'Brien and Charles E. Plandrau. Charles E. Plandrau was elected permanent chairman, and Carl Taylor secretary pro tem, the selection of a permanent secretary being left until the next meeting. The members were sworn in by Judge Jagard, of the district court. The question of the limitations and powers of the commission was brought up by E. S. Durmet, who thought it advisable that the commission should decide whether it would be competent to act. It would be useless, he said, to proceed and appoint standing committees and go to further trouble and then learn later that it was impossible to report a charter that could be enforced even if it was adopted. In his opinion there was a serious question involved and it would be wise to have a committee appointed and a report from it as to the limitations and powers of the commission. By this he explained he meant the committee was to consider the constitutional provision and also the enabling act. A committee consisting of Messrs. Durmet, Childs, O'Brien, Fetter and Plandrau was appointed on the question and an adjournment taken to Wednesday evening, Dec. 6. There appeared to be a unanimity of opinion that the relief of the schools was to be of first consideration, but the question of limiting the work of the commission to this phase of the charter was not without some discussion. It was pressed as to whether the commission could legally report a charter that would make but a slight amendment to the charter under which the schools are operated. Mr. O'Brien gave notice that at the next meeting he would introduce a motion limiting the commission to the consideration of the school question. Messrs. Taylor, O'Brien and Bridgman were named as a committee to report as to the form of organization and the needs of a secretary and the necessity of asking the council for an approval of $500 to cover incidental expenses, including the salary of a clerk or stenographer. Mr. Dornan was of the opinion that the less the charter was tampered with the better presentation the commission could make to the public. The commission was not costly to the city. Considerable time could be given to the school question, although the school board would be the only matter considered and pointed out that a change was needed so as either to give the mayor the entire charge of the police department or place it under the charge of a police commission. There was a general discussion as to the duties of the committee appointed to report as to the power and limitations of the commission. It was decided that the committee was not to report as to the policy of the commission, that being left to the council, but to advise whether it attempted to relieve the distress of the schools or go further. Chairman Plandrau suggested that the meeting at which the policy of the commission was to be considered should be an executive one. Mr. Durmet pointed out that such a course would at once prejudice the people against whatever reform was proposed. It was decided, however, that the discussion, if there should be any, as to the policy of the commission would be confined to members of the commission only. THESE STOOD THE EXAMS. List of Successful Aspirants to Places in Census Department. Special Agent Garber's report on census examinations, held in St. Paul early this month, shows that 118 applicants presented their papers for examination, seventy-two succeeded in making 75 per cent or more, and forty-six failed to attain the required per cent. Mr. Garber examined applicants from Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Wisconsin and Northern Iowa. The report does not disclose the residence of candidates, but the list of successful ones is presented here for the information of those interested. Charles E. Pittner, Mans. F. Housinger, Samuel J. Colter, Arthur M. Chubb, David C. Lige, Arthur J. Madison, David F. Tyndall, Austin Garber, Jr., Josephine Blom, Rutven F. Erdos, John H. Rea, Andrew J. Stone, Ansel Wood, Henry J. Austin, Adolph E. L. Johnson, Lester C. Mangrum, Henry Sanford, J. M. LaFars, Orrin F. Sherwood, J. Frank Wheaton, John R. Kelly, Christian Marson, Albert L. Frenkel, Joseph H. H. Horwath, McHugh, William A. Greer, Harrison Thompson, Jennie M. Colson, Hiram A. Lewis, John H. H. Horwath, John H. Hunt, Elias M. Sather, Ralph C. Nelson, Guntter H. Korschik, Ralph E. Herring, Louis M. Irving, Jacob Brividsen, John C. Fickner, Leonard Erikson, Grace O. Graves, Albert Anderson, John H. H. Horwath, Thomas, Anna B. Sheridan, LeRoy Salisbury, Charles L. Brockway, Mrs. Anna F. Dreyer, John H. H. Horwath, William J. Egerton, Mersene E. Sloane, Fred J. Riley, Louis W. Runkel, Ole L. Johnson, Edwin Fluereck, Albert L. Ross, Albert A. Anderson, John H. H. Horwath, William Ranger, Harry H. Clark, Mark Alden, Andrew J. Stone, John H. H. Horwath, Webb, William Johns, William F. Patten.

MAGNUSSON SET FREE

COURT COMMISSIONER SPENCER CONVINCED PRISONER IS NOT THE MAN WANTED. ESTRAY REGISTERED LETTER. It Contained the Same Amount That Was in One Which He Had Received, but His Signature Did Not Correspond With the Contested One, and There Were Other Considerations in His Favor. The preliminary hearing accorded H. J. Magnusson before United States Commissioner Spencer, on the charge of receiving a registered letter intended for another person, established to the satisfaction of Commissioner Spencer that the prisoner was not guilty of the offense against the postal laws, and the accused was therefore discharged. The testimony of F. H. Setzer, of the registry department, was positive as to Magnusson having received for the letter in question, but there were other facts that inclined Commissioner Spencer to the belief that Clerk Setzer was mistaken. The only witnesses were Magnusson and Setzer. Magnusson denied the offense, declaring he had never heard of the registered letter that was intended. He said he had frequently received registered mail at the postoffice, and once during the summer received from Sweden a letter containing 100 crowns, the exact amount in the letter that disappeared. His receipt for this letter and others were in evidence, and he was required to give a specimen of his handwriting. His writing and that on the receipt for the letter that was missing were similar, but not enough to prove them identical. Furthermore, the receipt for the missing letter contained the full name of John A. T. Magnusson, convincing Commissioner Spencer that the man who was in the letter knew the Kasota Magnusson's full name, and was doubtless in collusion with those planning to swindle. H. J. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn., the Kasota Magnusson, and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for money, and Magnusson, living at 44 East Seventh street, and his arrest came about through what appears to have been an attempt to swindle John T. Magnusson, of Kasota, Minn. The Kasota Magnusson and John Johnson were working together. Learning of Magnusson's relatives in Sweden, it is alleged, Johnson wrote them a letter asking for