TO INSURE BLACK MEN NEW COMPANY TO BE FORMED IN CHICAGO IN A SHORT TIME

J. FRANK WHEATON IN IT

Colored Legislator Is Included in the List of Promoters, as Well as Alex Miles, of Duluth, and a Pastor Said to Live in St. Paul.

Will Fight Discriminative Rates of Old Companies.

Colored business men of Chicago are about to incorporate an insurance company exclusively for colored people, says the Chicago Record.

It is said by those who profess to know that this is one of the many movements to broaden the business life of the country's colored population.

Ministers in the pulpits have asked their congregations to sustain the company, and the lawyers and small business men—grocers, butchers, restaurant keepers, coal dealers and the like—have joined with them in a concerted move to make the plan succeed from the start.

With these are associated Alexander Miles, of Duluth, Minn., reputed to be the wealthiest colored man in the Northwest; J. Frank Wheaton, the only colored member of the Minnesota state legislature; and Rev. W. H. Weaver, of St. Paul, Minn.

The company is an assured fact. There is a slight delay because we are at present complying with the requirements of the state laws on the matter of insurance companies.

It is in a position to lay our plans before the public and then it can be seen that it is a distinct advance over any movement heretofore launched to strengthen the position of the colored people in the general life of the country.

Discriminative rates is the primary reason for the launching of the company. But the necessity of a strong organization to substantiate business life of the land is the chief motive.

The St. Paul directory does not give any clue to the identity of Rev. W. H. Weaver. When Wheaton left Minneapolis last month he said it was to become chief organizer of the United Brotherhood, the first fraternal organization to admit both white and colored men to membership.

The prime movers in the organization are M. H. Seay, of Duluth, excavator of the St. Paul Duluth railroad, and Alex Miles, a wealthy colored man of the Zenith City.

ELI SURER THAN EVER

TALK OF LIND'S WITHDRAWAL MAKES WARNER MORE SET ON VAN SANT

BIG MINNEAPOLIS BANQUET

Democratic Meeting at the Exposition, Addressed by Bryan, and Followed by a Banquet at the West Hotel, Will Be the Event of the Week in Its Political Significance.

A change has come over the spirit of the Republican leader's dreams. In the old days it used to be, pick out a ticket, and then "get there, Eli."

Now the general plan of the Republicans seems to be to figure out some way to keep Eli from getting there, by addressing him at some way station where the emoluments are not as rich as they would be if Eli could pick out his own station, near the fountain head, so to speak.

All this referring to Eli, of course, Eli Warner, one of the "big four," the other three of whom are, or have been, Dan Reese, Fred Schiffman and Tim Sheehan.

Eli is in the insurance business. If Van Sant gets elected, and Eli helped to line up Ramsey for the Winona man, Eli figures that the least he could get out of it would be the insurance commissioner's title. Still, rather than make any trouble about it, if Sam happened to give away O'Shaughnessy's place before Eli got around to the Christmas tree, Warner would not grumble if he handed him Julius Heinrich's state oil inspectorship.

This latter office has to pay the highest assessment, under the Republican plan, but it is currently reported that the perquisites attaching to the position are almost an object to be considered, even by a Republican who has prated for two years about public confidence and national honor as his bread and meat.

With the current talk about Lind withdrawing from the race, Eli looks upon this as a fine time for Van Santites to be "standing pat," and not let any political schemer entice them off into the national field there to pick up paltry peace offerings in some Washington bureau, or, possibly, as a surveyor generalship.

Eli told the Globe yesterday night that he did not want the surveyor generalship, and he said further that he did not have any other, so far as he knew, who wanted it.

The event of the week in a political way will be the big "Jackson's day" meeting at the Minneapolis exposition, which will be held Wednesday night, which will be addressed by William Jennings Bryan and others, followed by a banquet at the West hotel, at which it is expected to see 300 hungry, but enthusiastic, Democrats.

The St. Paul delegation plans to meet at the Nicollet house at 10:30, immediately following the exposition meeting, then proceeding to the West hotel in a body.

As on this occasion Gov. Lind is to make the address outlining his future action with respect to his ambitions, the occasion derives especial interest.

Anent the governor's rumored withdrawal, the Winona Republican last night published interviews with a number of party leaders on both sides in Van Sant's party. Here are some of them:

Hon. Thomas Simpson (Rep.)—If the Democracy would give John Lind their party support, he is the strongest man the fusionists could nominate.

John Dietze (Dem.)—John Lind is the strongest man in the state for nomination. It is to be hoped that he will reconsider his determination not to be a candidate.

W. B. Anderson (Rep.)—There is almost unanimous feeling among the Republicans in this city in favor of the nomination of Capt. Van Sant for governor, which unanimity indicates Republican unity.

F. L. Randall (Dem.)—Gov. Lind is generally considered to be the strongest man in the state for nomination. He is a Democrat, but I could not name another who would draw as much support as he.

John Dietze (Dem.)—John Lind is the strongest man in the state for many years. I believe he still retains the confidence and good opinion of the voters of this city.

Dr. Stelblich (Dem.)—I am of the opinion that the office seekers make Lind so much trouble that he did not care to take the office again. Without him for a Republican, had Lind been elected in his district he would have been a good man to nominate in place of Lind.

C. A. Gile (Dem.)—The announcement of Lind's withdrawal is a surprise.

A Washington dispatch says: "It looks as though the contest before the Democratic national committee, which meets Feb. 22 for the national convention city, will be between Milwaukee and Kansas City, with the chances favoring the former."

The committee from Milwaukee may be here soon to inaugurate a campaign. It is also said that this committee will bring with it a certified check for $100,000 as a contribution to the Democratic campaign fund.

The following circular explains its own importance: A general meeting of all the precinct Democratic city and county organization will be held at Assembly hall, corner of Third and Washburn streets, at 8 o'clock.

Thursday evening, Jan. 11, 1900.

This will be a most important meeting, and every committeeman should attend. All precinct chairmen must be prepared to make a report on their precincts and see that all vacancies have been filled; also to report the names and addresses of all Democrats who have not taken out their second naturalization papers, and see that the same are taken out.

Second papers can be secured at the court house on the following evenings, to-wit: Wednesday, 10 to 11 p. m. Jan. 9 and 21, and unless second papers are taken out before the 1st of February, the persons so failing to secure second papers cannot vote at the spring election.

Let nothing prevent you from attending this meeting, for it will be an interesting and important business meeting.

Admission to the hall will be by ticket, which you find enclosed. Before presenting the same at the door you will write your name and address, together with the number of your precinct, upward, on the face of the card in the blank places left for that purpose. If it is impossible for you to attend personally, then please fill out the card as above and give it to some one residing in your precinct, who can attend for you. The name written on the back of the card is the name of the person you so give it to, with the words "I appoint the above-named person my proxy," and sign your name under it. Most respectfully, Wm. H. Cowley, Chairman.

Gov. Lind yesterday announced the appointment of six members of the state board of health, whose terms expired the first of the year. They are Samuel M. Stocker, Charles H. Mayo, Rochester; Dr. B. F. Whitlans, Argyle; Dr. J. W. Winona; Dr. Reynolds, St. Anthony Park; and Dr. Edward Shumpick, of Minneapolis. Dr. Staples and Dr. Reynolds are re-appointed.

The board of aldermen, in committee, have voted to award the contract for a new police "boom" to the American Electric Company of New York for $18,200. As the board of aldermen by a two-thirds vote awarded a contract last summer to the same company for $23,750, there was no objection to the matter but to reinforce their previous action.

Edward Polkhauser has seemingly forgotten the fall gun, as he was elected by his managers two years ago, and is announced as a mayoralty candidate on the Republican ticket.

Ald. Shepard, of the Eleventh ward, having served two terms in the board of aldermen, has aspirations for the mayor's chair.

Secretary Selb, of the Republican city committee, is devoting himself to figuring out the location of the polling places for the Republican primaries. There are to be 14 places for precincts in the city, and the selection of the locations often goes a great way toward carrying the precincts for the right man.

Fred M. Schutte, of the Fourth ward, who went to the Philippines with the Thirteenth, is mentioned as a candidate for treasurer on the Republican ticket.

The "dead ones" in the Republican ranks are being brought to the front very rapidly. John Copeland and F. B. Doran have, through personal friends, been mentioned as some of the other mayoralty nomination.

C. K. Sharood, of the First ward, is also being "boomed" as the right man for mayor. The appointment of Kenneth Clark as a member of the fire board, it is claimed, practically settled the question of Mr. Sharood being a candidate at the coming election.

Michael Breslauner reports that everything is in readiness for the big gathering to be held early in the evening of Jan. 10.

Mr. Breslauner yesterday announced his list of sergeants-at-arms. In all there are 106 sergeants-at-arms. They have been apportioned to the different wards of the city, so that every section will be represented. As far as reported the list is as follows:

Stanchfield, H. D. Gores, H. Klerce, P. Callahan, C. Fox, Ed Long, I. Britt, M. Neary, J. H. Smith, J. W. Walden.

Seventh—P. J. Cleveland, W. H. Harding, G. A. Dolls, Joseph Reppoth, Ludwig Johnson, Miles Boyle, Nels Anderson, M. A. Tierney, John Gormley, P. Ervin, J. Bue, L. P. Stanchfield, H. C. Sherry, J. McGuire.

That leaves the Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth wards yet to hear from.

Big Fire in New York. NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Fire this morning gutted a six-story brick factory building at Fifty-ninth street and First avenue, occupied by Frank M. Weiss, aluminum and metals; Brown & Smithson, ornamental plasterers, and E. S. Levy & Co., builders. The building is a total loss, and Chief Croker thought that the damage would amount to $200,000.

Canadian Canal. By the recent improvement in the Canadian canals a vessel 270 feet long, drawing 14 feet and carrying 2,500 tons, can pass from Lake Erie to the sea without breaking cargo.

The merger of the Boston and Albany road, the New York Central and the Pennsylvania interests in the Baltimore and Ohio stock, it is said, will make everything serene in the railroad situation in that section of the country.

The leasing of the Boston and Albany road by the New York Central is formally accomplished. The negotiations of the Boston and Maine to take over the Fitchburg has been officially acknowledged.

The alliance between the New York Central and the New Haven, owing to the entrance of William E. Rockefeller into the board of the New York Central, is complete, and a part of the two properties will be looked for in the end, as they are a combination can be only effected after some time and trouble, and after many interests have been properly cared for.

PAWNING A PROFESSION. Manufacturers Employ Merchants to Sell Goods to Pawnshops. Philadelphian Inquirer.

"It has come across a new kind of trade, for the other day, a friend of the Sauterer told the other day. 'At last it is a new one on me. Did you ever hear of a professional pawner?'

The Sauterer tried to confess his ignorance. 'Well, it's this way. There are lots of manufacturers of articles of jewelry, of watches, of musical instruments and other things which would never find a sale except to the veriest
