

The St. Paul Globe

THE GLOBE CO., PUBLISHERS.

Entered at Postoffice at St. Paul, Minn., as Second-Class Matter.

CITY SUBSCRIPTIONS. By Carrier, 1 mo $1.00, 6 mos $5.00, 12 mos $9.00.

COUNTRY SUBSCRIPTIONS. By Mail, 1 mo $1.00, 6 mos $5.00, 12 mos $9.00.

BRANCH OFFICES. New York, 19 Spruce St. Chicago, Room 609, No. 87 Washington St.

THE WEATHER.

Minnesota—Fair Monday; increasing cloudiness, with light snow or sleet in northern portion Tuesday; variable winds, becoming southerly.

Wisconsin—Fair, with colder in extreme eastern portion Monday; fair Tuesday; brisk northwesterly winds, diminishing.

ST. PAUL. Yesterday's observations, taken by the United States weather bureau, St. Paul, P. L. Lyons observer, for the twenty-four hours ended at 7 o'clock last night.

MONDAY, JANUARY 8, 1900.

CHINESE FREE TRADE.

The formal agreement of the commercial nations of the world on complete freedom of trade with the people of the Chinese empire settles for the time the political destiny of that great section of the human race.

CALIFORNIA'S PROTEST.

The proposal, seriously entertained by public authority in California, to exclude from the limits of the state all persons suffering from consumption, has received much attention.

INTERNATIONAL LAW.

Much talk is heard just now of "international law" and the regard or disregard thereof by different nations, and some people seem to regard it as being of much the same character as laws enacted by legislative bodies for the regulation or control of the inhabitants of a state.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

It's better to be a "has been" than a "never was." An unwelcome guest is probably the best thing going.

JUDGE MOER SUGGESTED.

Among the notable happenings in Duluth evening herald. "In this mail I noted especially one shipment of eye glasses packed in a wooden box of flimsy make."

FRANK OF NATURE.

A soft and boneless tail, two and one-quarter inches long, was shown by Dr. Simon, of that town, to the Berlin Veterinary school, on the 25th of Dec. Virchow called it a "splendid specimen."

China from the earliest days. In any event the result is certain to be ultimately vastly more gravely with reference to our political than to our commercial interests.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE STATE.

The Globe takes occasion to direct general attention to the meeting of the State Historical society which will be held this evening at the capitol. It would be of substantial gain to the state and its interests were the general public to concern itself more largely than is now the practice in the proceedings of this admirable body.

MINNESOTA.

Minnesota is, as the Globe has repeatedly pointed out, especially fortunate in the devoted labors of the men who have stood by the State Historical society almost since its birth and who have done everything in their power to enlarge its influence and to perfect and extend its value as the grand depository of the splendid story of the creation and growth of the state and its various localities and of the splendid heroism and wise forethought of its early founders.

A MISSING CONSTITUTION.

The constitution of the Lincoln Republican club has been stolen. Why, when or how appears to be unknown, but the fact remains that it has been taken, stolen and carried away by some person or persons to the club unknown—possibly Richard Roe or John Doe or both jointly.

METROPOLITAN.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

It's better to be a "has been" than a "never was." An unwelcome guest is probably the best thing going.

JUDGE MOER SUGGESTED.

Among the notable happenings in Duluth evening herald. "In this mail I noted especially one shipment of eye glasses packed in a wooden box of flimsy make."

FRANK OF NATURE.

A soft and boneless tail, two and one-quarter inches long, was shown by Dr. Simon, of that town, to the Berlin Veterinary school, on the 25th of Dec. Virchow called it a "splendid specimen."

forced against the disease, infection becomes an impossibility. Such preventive measures, when broad enough, must involve also curative provision. Perfect disinfection of the surroundings of the patient can only be had in institutions given over to the treatment of the disease.

FRONTS ON LIFE INSURANCE.

A United States Judge Talks Vigorously Concerning a Recent Attempt in That Line. The world does not yet quite believe it, but it is nevertheless a fact that one of the very last things a life insurance organization ever does is to contest a death claim.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

ed by new people. The original Lavina Dan is one of the missing, though her place is filled to good advantage by Lizzy May Uimer. As the "cook lady," secretary of the union and general manager of the universe she was very good and in an Irish role had sufficient opportunity to make a hit.

FRONTS ON LIFE INSURANCE.

A United States Judge Talks Vigorously Concerning a Recent Attempt in That Line. The world does not yet quite believe it, but it is nevertheless a fact that one of the very last things a life insurance organization ever does is to contest a death claim.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

Mr. Depew, while long in years as he is, is physically one of the best preserved men of his years in the United States senate.

Chat of the Capital.

Washington Gossip, Political and Otherwise, for the Readers of the Globe.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.

(Special.)—Members of the Minnesota delegation are just now devoting a great deal of time to arranging matters in their districts so that they will be able to secure opportunity to succeed themselves at the polls next November.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

Senator Platt is disposed to treat his colleague with consideration he may be able to succeed himself as a member of the senate when his present term expires.

Chat of the Capital.

Washington Gossip, Political and Otherwise, for the Readers of the Globe.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.

(Special.)—Members of the Minnesota delegation are just now devoting a great deal of time to arranging matters in their districts so that they will be able to secure opportunity to succeed themselves at the polls next November.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

Senator Platt is disposed to treat his colleague with consideration he may be able to succeed himself as a member of the senate when his present term expires.

Chat of the Capital.

Washington Gossip, Political and Otherwise, for the Readers of the Globe.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.

(Special.)—Members of the Minnesota delegation are just now devoting a great deal of time to arranging matters in their districts so that they will be able to secure opportunity to succeed themselves at the polls next November.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues and her efforts to cause trouble, and is clever and entertaining.

EPISTLES TO ST. PAUL.

An interurban car hesitated for a moment at the intersection of Fifth and Wabasha streets. In a round voice the conductor gave a cry.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

The third act of "A Young Wife," which opened last evening at the Metropolitan, is, comparatively, a strong one. For it is in the ante room scene of the Douglas mansion that the play reaches its climax.

FRANK TANNENHILL JR.

Frank Tannehill Jr. takes the character of Smith, who loves his wife, in spite of Mrs. Ebel's intrigues