POLICE ALARM CONTEST, TOO.

Gave the City Fathers a Close Contest, the Resolution to Award the Contract Being Defeated by a Vote of Five to Six—Paving Contracts Are in a New Tangle—New Cycle Path Ordered.

The board of aldermen last night turned down the pet scheme of Health Commissioner Ohage, to have the department collect and remove the garbage, by refusing to audit the pay roll for the men and teams employed during the first half of the month.

The award of the contract for a new police alarm system, which was recommended to be given to the Auto-Electric company, was also turned down, and the bids returned back to the committee on streets.

Health Commissioner Ohage's pay roll aggregated $616.14, and the commissioner asked: "As all the men are ready the pay roll be approved." The pay roll in detail was as follows:

H. Bohrer, collector and four teams, $70 per month, each $40; John Farley, Patrick O'Donnell, John Hinterscheid, J. J. Preston, Martin Anderson, collectors, $40 each, at $10 per month, $5 each; W. J. Preston, collector and five teams, at $70 per month, $75; Robert Patterson, collector and $25 per day, $25 per day; $20; William Urbach, rubbish collector and one team, at $16 per day, $75; Nick P. Williams, collector and one team, $25; Kuehler, August Thomas, Nick Bieg, John Voigt, Michael Hider, rubbish collectors, at $10 per day.

Ald. Knauff wanted the roll sent to the comptroller for audit. Ald. Kennedy to indefinitely postpone was carried by vote of 6 to 5, those favoring such action being Messrs. Bell, Murphy, Reeves, Kenny, Shepard and Donahoe.
