The proof of this is positive, The testimony of friends, The evidence of neighbors, The public statements

University Avenue.

Mrs. A. N. Zimme, No. 383 University avenue, says: "I suffered from pains in the region of the kidneys, extending up to the shoulders. I could not stoop or straighten without severe twinges catching me, my back was weak and tired, and walking or being on my feet much aggravated the complaint. I saw an advertisement directed to kidney sufferers, referring to Doan's Kidney Pills, and the symptoms described were so similar to mine that I obtained the remedy at F. M. Parker's drug store, and took three doses. I was really worse in place of better, I continued the treatment and in a few days improvement commenced, and finally it cured me."

That's the Spot.

Sometimes I could hardly get out of bed in the morning, and it was always a little while before the stiffness and soreness yielded to exercise. I noticed that after I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at F. M. Parker's drug store, and took three doses, I was really worse in place of better, I continued the treatment and in a few days improvement commenced, and finally it cured me."

McBoal Street.

Mrs. L. S. Breher, No. 259 McBoal street, says: "I had backache so bad that I could hardly straighten, always worse in the morning, and at times the attacks were very acute, making it painful for me to be up and around. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at F. M. Parker's drug store and they cured the attack. I am convinced that my kidneys caused all the symptoms, and I can account for my cure by giving Doan's Kidney Pills all the credit."

ITS WAR ON DIVORCES

DR. DA COSTA STAYS CATHOLIC CHURCH ALONE STANDS FOR THE HOME'S SANCTITY

WHY HE CHANGED CHURCHES

Former Episcopal Divine Told a Large Audience at the Lyceum Theater Last Night the Reasons.

GLOE'S MINNEAPOLIS OFFICE, 20 WASHINGTON AV. SOUTH

Dr. Benjamin F. Da Costa, of New York, whose secession from the Episcopal church caused somewhat of a sensation in religious circles last fall, told an audience which completely filled the Lyceum theater last evening why he was a Catholic. He was introduced by Father Danehy, of St. Paul seminary, who spoke of him as one who had led a studious, laborious and saintly life in New York, whose name was synonymous with devotion to the cause of Jesus Christ. "The Protestant church," he declared, was a "house divided against itself" 132 times. It had 132 conflicting answers to offer for that most important of all questions—"What must we do to be saved?" Some said in reply, "Let us do something" others, everything; still others, nothing. "If you should go out tomorrow," he said, "and ask twenty Protestant preachers what is the meaning of the words, 'this is my body' you would get twenty different answers, each of which would be entirely different and wholly irreconcilable with the others, and with a warning from each that the other nineteen were wrong. What place is there in the Protestant church, where such a condition obtains, for any sane man or woman who believes he or she has a soul to save?" "Philosophy has been shaping thought in connection with matter and space, and the Catholic church is now shown to be grounded upon a sound and natural philosophy. There is no conflict between Rome and reason. "He looked upon the objections to transubstantiation as trivial. They were fixed and lasting things. A church must have a head. If worth anything, it must have a head. It must be an authoritative church. Only the morals of the Catholic church can stand the awful tide of vice which has set in as a result of protestant disregard of the sacred institution of matrimony, which has made possible the annulment of 22,000 marriages in the United States during the last three years. Higher and purer morality will prevail. The Catholic church must be enshrined in every home, in every town, in every county in this country until the last-

PECULIAR DEATH OF E. W. OWEN, Whose Body Was Found.

ABERDEEN, S. D., March 13.—(Special.)—A. M. West, of Sisseton, was brought to Aberdeen Saturday by Deputy United States Marshal D. D. Collins and the establishment of a factory here. He was taken before Court Commissioner Wallace on the charge of perjury in having made a filing upon land before becoming of lawful age. He waived examination and was bound over to the federal court in the sum of $500, bail for which he could not furnish, and he was taken to Huron to await the action of the United States grand jury.

W. F. T. Bushnell is in communication with a manufacturer of hemp and flax twine who will probably come to Aberdeen shortly to look the ground over for the site of a factory here. His plant when established will utilize either hemp or flax.

Ed W. Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Owen, of Ordway township, met his death yesterday under very strange circumstances. He left home alone about 9 o'clock in the forenoon, driving a span of horses hitched to a buggy, and said he was going to Bath church. He was not afterwards seen alive, and his body was found by Peter Evans in the road about three miles northwest of Bath at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. There were no marks on the remains, and it is supposed that the unfortunate man fell from the buggy in an epileptic fit and died without regaining consciousness. He had been subject to epilepsy for years.

SAFE WAS TAMPERED WITH.

EVIDENCE SECURED TO SHOW HITCHCOCK BANK WAS ROBBED AND FIRED.

HURON, S. D., March 13.—(Special.)—As was expected, the investigation now being made concerning the loss of $12,000 which was in the vault at the time of the Hitchcock bank fire, is yielding sensational features. It was established today by the evidence of firemen and citizens who were at the scene of the fire that the back door of the bank was found open at that time. It is also known that when the outer doors of the vault were opened in the presence of bank officials it was discovered the inside doors were open, indicating clearly that the vault had been opened during the few hours of the night preceding the discovery of the fire.

It has also been discovered that there were several strangers loitering about the town during the day preceding the night of the fire, and enough knowledge of them is in possession of the officials to cast suspicion upon them.

Of the money that was known to have been left in the safe at the close of business Friday, $7,300 belonged to the depositors of the bank and $450 belonged to Ethereal Wilson. He is amply able to make good the loss and will resume the business of the bank in a few days. Many of the robbers of the bank was the work of experts, and it is thought sufficient evidence has been secured to obtain warrants for the arrest of the robbers.

BIG MILL FOR MORRIS.

To Have a Capacity of 3,000 Barrels Daily, and Cost $75,000.

MORRIS, Minn., March 13.—For the past year there has been talk from time to time about a large flour mill for Morris, and the farmers have held several meetings to consider the subject. Now the mill is in sight. Messrs. A. D. Goodman, of Waseca, and J. A. Quirk, of Minneapolis, have looked over the ground, and they consider Morris a good place to put in a mill. They propose building a mill that will have a daily capacity of 300 barrels, costing in the neighborhood of $75,000. They ask a bonus of the site and $2,500 in cash. As the new industry would give employment to more than 200 men, they are anxious to have the town what they ask. The new mill would need two elevators, and the Farmers' association have signified their willingness to lease theirs until a new one could be built.

FARGO'S FINE FESTIVAL.

Celebration Will Probably Last Six Days—Money Being Raised.

FARGO, N. D., March 13.—The executive committee of the Fargo Fine festival held a meeting last evening and began the work of organizing plans for the event of this year. The committee on attractions reported and gave an idea of the amount of money necessary to be raised, and the finance committee, consisting of one member from each of the local banks, will soon begin to raise the funds. The festival occurs June 7, the anniversary of the big fire. Prior to last year the celebration has only been for one day. Last summer it was devoted to merry-making, and this year it is planned to have a grander time than ever. The festivals are regarded as a feature of the secret society work of the city. Every organization is represented, and the general committee is composed of the officers of each society.

CHASKA, Minn., March 13.—Ex-Treasurer Bongard has written to his wife and also to the county commissioners that he will pay his indebtedness to the county and save his bondsmen from loss if given a chance to do so without being prosecuted. The letters bear no postmark, and it is impossible to learn where Bongard is. Some think he is in Canada. The county commissioners met next Monday, and a settlement may then be effected. In case it is, Bongard's return may soon be expected.
