

A liquid, alone, or a powder, alone, is only half a dentifrice for some teeth, which require both forms. These Sododont supplies. Be sure to obtain the two, when necessary. The Liquid is a delightful antiseptic wash; the Powder is a fine abrasive.

NEW SIZE of the Liquid, without the Powder, 25c. Large Liquid and Powder together, 75c. At the stores or by mail for the price.

Sododont P. O. Box 27, N. Y. City. New York HALL & RUCKEL, London

TACTICS OF BELL GANG REPUDIATED

Continued from Fourth Page.

For the last eighteen months the Democratic city and county organization had been at work for the express purpose of preventing the placing of the machinery of the party in the hands of a single person in each ward, and that the adoption of Mr. Ellerbe's motion would set it all back. Mr. Ellerbe's motion was adopted and the organization plan was adopted.

For nomination for comptroller there were three names presented, John Rogers Jr., Anthony Yoerg and Conrad Miller. David Peebles nominated Rogers and Frankel, of the Seventh ward, Conrad Miller. The name of Rogers was seconded by the Ninth, First, Sixth and Second wards. The roll call gave Rogers, 183, Miller, 22, and Yoerg, 1. Miller received 8 votes from the Fifth, 7 from the Seventh and 6 from the Tenth. Yoerg's one vote came from the Sixth ward. The nomination of Rogers was made unanimous.

F. A. Pike nominated P. J. Metzendorf for treasurer and F. H. Ellerbe did the same for Otto Bremer. The roll call only proceeded as far as the Eighth ward when the name of Metzendorf was withdrawn and the nomination of Bremer made unanimous. In addition to the 38 votes from the Eighth ward, Metzendorf was given 5 in the Third and 1 in the Seventh.

A committee of two from each ward, one on nominations for assemblyman and the other on the committee on resolutions, was appointed, consisting of the following:

For Assembly Nominations—First ward, Logan Rogers; Second ward, Lillgren; Third, John F. Smith; Fourth, Edward Dahl; Fifth, Charles Lauer; Sixth, C. H. Bonn; Seventh, W. F. Constantine; Eighth, Alder, McNally; Ninth, E. L. Murphy; Tenth, F. A. Pike; Eleventh, M. S. Jamar.

Resolutions—First ward, H. Peterson; Second, R. M. Rofler; Third, F. J. Kinnear; Fourth, O. B. Robertson; Fifth, J. J. McMahon; Sixth, W. H. Murphy; Seventh, Herman Oppenheim; Eighth, W. J. Preston; Ninth, F. J. Kennedy; Tenth, C. J. Bueli; Eleventh, Thomas Smith.

While the two committees were preparing reports the convention proceeded with the nomination of ward aldermen, with the following results:

First Ward—Committee to fill: Second Ward—Charles L. Lillgren; Third Ward—Andrew Dahlquist; Fourth Ward—Delegation to name at future date.

Fifth Ward—W. H. Uimer; Sixth Ward—M. J. Moriarty; Seventh Ward—George F. Strickland; Eighth Ward—Matt Bantz; Ninth Ward—E. L. Murphy; Tenth Ward—J. J. McMahon; Eleventh Ward—George F. Kuhles.

The Fourth ward delegation was not able to come to a decision. The chairman, the delegates being divided between James R. Hickey, J. B. Covington and J. H. Burns. The ward delegation, or the committee from the city and county organization, together with five from the city at large, to be appointed by the chairman of the convention, will decide as to the nominee.

J. J. Parker was nominated for alderman of the Seventh ward, but he announced that he could not accept the nomination, and W. G. Strickland was given the honor. In the other wards there was no opposition to the gentlemen named for aldermanic honors.

John W. Clancy was given the nomination for justice of the peace for the district east of Washaba. C. O. Cedberg was placed in nomination for the same office, but the votes went to Clancy so fast that Cedberg's name was withdrawn and the nomination of Clancy made unanimous.

C. M. Brewer was nominated for justice of the peace west of Washaba street without opposition and by acclamation. He was endorsed by F. L. McGehee as a competent man for the position.

For contestable in the district east of Washaba street there was a three-cornered fight. Peter Mulcolin, Martin E. Rowan and William Johnson being the contestants. The roll call gave Rowan 104, Mulcolin and Johnson 49. Rowan's nomination was made unanimous.

F. L. McGehee made a short speech for James H. Harris, who, he said, was one of the colored men whom the Republican party claimed not to go to heaven. He asked the convention to put a "black boy" on the ticket, for the good it would do to the race and the party. Mr. Harris was nominated by acclamation.

The committee on assembly nominations reported the following names, and the nominations were made by acclamation:

Assemblyman—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Thomas J. Lorden, George Mitchellson, Philip Martin, John G. Wardell, David F. Peebles, Edward H. Whitcomb, G. G. Haas, Wm. Parkers and J. P. Parker. The committee on platform, through its chairman, Herman Oppenheim, reported the following, which was adopted:

1. That they shall have a good and competent police force, and that the people shall not be burdened with the cost of property; and that disorderly houses will not be suffered to exist indiscriminately among the homes of the respectable.

2. That the teachers of the public schools shall be promptly paid their salaries.

3. That all individuals and corporations shall be compelled to pay their just and lawful taxes provided by the statutes of the state of Minnesota.

4. That the granting of all franchises and licenses be a matter of appropriation of public moneys not provided for in the statutes be prohibited.

5. We favor the retention of the present eight-hour work day at a reasonable compensation on public and municipal work.

6. We favor free text books in the public schools, and pledge ourselves to promote the selection of the best text books.

7. The people having granted the right of the use of the streets of the city for street railway purposes, we the right, and we insist they shall enjoy a reasonable service, and a sufficient number of cars to run on the street railway; and we declare our unalterable opposition to any advancement of street car fare on any line, and to the use of our streets for the purpose of through cars or express lines running through our city without stopping to receive and let off passengers at every street corner.

8. We direct the Democracy to appoint an assessor who will reduce taxes on the real estate of the people, and increase them upon lands held for speculation purposes and on franchises held by favored corporations.

H. J. McNally, of the Eighth ward, wanted a plank inserted in the platform declaring that the party favored the subordination of the charter at a special election. The motion to insert the plank on the table was carried by a vote of 39 to 22, the vote being taken on a show of hands.

Joseph Smith, the present justice of the peace from the Sixth ward, was renominated for the position by acclamation and without opposition. The nomination of Smith was seconded by the Tenth and Eleventh wards was left for the committee to fill.

F. A. Pike offered a resolution directing the executive committee of the Democratic party to conduct the campaign in the usual manner, and fill any vacancies on the ticket.

A vote of thanks was tendered the officers of the convention for their services, and the convention adjourned with cheers for Robert A. Smith and the other candidates.

BELL GANG'S TACTICS. Saw They Were Beaten, but "Died Hard."

The small faction of the Democratic party which has for the past four years made division in the party ranks and has stood for the defeat of the Bell gang, the Democrats of St. Paul made an unsuccessful attempt yesterday to perpetuate Republican rule in the city, and by so doing further their own personal ends. It has been apparent since the calling of the Democratic primaries that the object of the faction headed by R. W. Bell was not, as it was claimed, to harmonize differences and bring about a united front, but rather to play into the hands of the Republicans, and, if possible, to repeat the programme of four and two years ago, by securing the split in the Democratic ticket which would not only make the election of the Republican ticket possible, but leave the Democratic organization in the hands of the few men who could be trusted to carry it away for their own personal benefit.

This was the programme which the Bell faction arranged for at the convention held yesterday at Sherman hall, but, owing to the superior tactics of the Bell rank and file of the Democratic voters, the plan fell through. The plan fell through because the Bell faction, through the Republican politicians, in case their own crowd could not control the convention, then the police force would be used to break up the organization, together with five from the city at large, to be appointed by the chairman of the convention, will decide as to the nominee.

J. J. Parker was nominated for alderman of the Seventh ward, but he announced that he could not accept the nomination, and W. G. Strickland was given the honor. In the other wards there was no opposition to the gentlemen named for aldermanic honors.

John W. Clancy was given the nomination for justice of the peace for the district east of Washaba. C. O. Cedberg was placed in nomination for the same office, but the votes went to Clancy so fast that Cedberg's name was withdrawn and the nomination of Clancy made unanimous.

C. M. Brewer was nominated for justice of the peace west of Washaba street without opposition and by acclamation. He was endorsed by F. L. McGehee as a competent man for the position.

For contestable in the district east of Washaba street there was a three-cornered fight. Peter Mulcolin, Martin E. Rowan and William Johnson being the contestants. The roll call gave Rowan 104, Mulcolin and Johnson 49. Rowan's nomination was made unanimous.

F. L. McGehee made a short speech for James H. Harris, who, he said, was one of the colored men whom the Republican party claimed not to go to heaven. He asked the convention to put a "black boy" on the ticket, for the good it would do to the race and the party. Mr. Harris was nominated by acclamation.

The committee on assembly nominations reported the following names, and the nominations were made by acclamation:

Assemblyman—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

Justice of the Peace—First ward, John W. Clancy; Second ward, John W. Clancy; Third ward, John W. Clancy; Fourth ward, John W. Clancy; Fifth ward, John W. Clancy; Sixth ward, John W. Clancy; Seventh ward, John W. Clancy; Eighth ward, John W. Clancy; Ninth ward, John W. Clancy; Tenth ward, John W. Clancy; Eleventh ward, John W. Clancy.

voices. J. C. Michael proceeded to the platform and after assuring Mr. Bell that these delegates were not to be counted was given a chance to be heard. Mr. Michael said he knew to his certain knowledge that there were a number of contesting delegations and that these delegates had filed with the committee with the chairman of the city committee. By what method or for what purpose the chairman had decided that these delegates were not to be counted he did not know but it was against all rules and also against the spirit of fairness for the city committee and the chairman to put one party in the room and leave another one out. Where there were contests the chair should hold that neither should be entitled to vote until the contest had been decided. He asked the chair to rule on this point.

Mr. Bell, in reply, said the lists had been prepared by the city committee upon the presentation of "proper credentials," and that the chairman had decided that the temporary chairman had been elected. Mr. Pike appealed from the decision of the chair on the ruling, but Mr. Bell stated that he was not to be counted and ordered the roll call to be proceeded with. Mr. Pike insisted, and said he rose to a point of order. Mr. Bell ordered that the gentleman was out of order.

Pike kept repeating that he desired to make a point of order, but the best he got was a statement from Mr. Bell that the sergeant-at-arms would preserve order, and if they could not call on the police officers.

Lou Cornick ceased his official duties as sergeant-at-arms and began a speech, in which he talked of harmony. The hall was in uproar and a score of delegates were talking at once.

Mr. Pike raised a point of order, and Thomas J. Lordan, of the First ward, insisted that he be given a chance to be heard.

Mr. Bell ordered the removal of Mr. Lordan from the hall, but as Sergeants-at-Arms Cornick and Scannell were not present, Mr. Lordan advised them to leave him alone, which advice was followed.

C. B. Shanley, who had nominated Judge Wood, secured the floor, and urged that the convention hold the vote on the question of usefulness and nominate a ticket that would be irrefragable. He hoped the delegates would get together and harmonize all differences.

Mr. Pike again called attention to his point of order, and Mr. Bell ordered the sergeant-at-arms to remove him. Mr. Pike, who was the center of a crowd of delegates, refused to leave the hall.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

LIVES ON DEWEY AVENUE.

But George F. Kuhles Has Other Points of Strength. In the Eleventh ward the Democrats will rally to the support of George F. Kuhles, who the convention nominated for alderman. Mr. Kuhles is a member of one of the leading tobacco and cigar firms of the Northwest, Kuhles & Stock, 83 Jackson street. He has previously taken no active part in local politics, but is a strong Democrat, popular in his district and energetic to the point where he has hardly any competitors. He has been a member of the city council for several years, and has been an aggressive contest for the election.

Mr. Kuhles lives at 461 Dewey avenue.

KARTAK IN THE SECOND.

Popular Majoritarian Nominated for Alderman. Charles Kartak, the aldermanic nominee from the Second ward, has served his ward as alderman one term, having been elected to the council in 1892. Mr. Kartak was a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.

He has the assurance of hearty support in the coming campaign, and being an active worker, expects, with the co-operation of his constituents, to triumph over whoever the Republicans may nominate by a large majority.

W. H. Uimer, Aldermanic Nominee in the Fifth. In nominating W. H. Uimer, of the Fifth ward, for alderman, the convention selected one of the substantial business men of the city.

Mr. Uimer is a stone contractor with large business interests. He has been a resident of the Fifth ward for years, and personally knows nearly every one of his constituents.

This is Mr. Uimer's first advent in politics, but his friends hope to see him easily carry a ward that was until recently a Republican stronghold. Mr. Uimer is a progressive member of the council and earned the appreciation of his constituents by devoting himself assiduously to the interests of the ward. As a young member of the Democratic party, Mr. Kartak possesses no small political influence, and is popular throughout the Second ward. He is engaged in the cigar manufacturing business. Mr. Kartak is thirty-seven years of age and married. He lives at 600 East Third street.